ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This book could not have been compiled without the help of a great many people. There are many dedicated genealogists and family members who generously shared information with us.

We are particularly indebted to the following people- Bob's mother, Arlene Adamson Stancliff, for discovering key information which tied our line back to James the immigrant and for passing on both her information and her enthusiasm for family history. Dr. William Stanclift for writing the letter in 1977 that precipitated our obsessive quest for yet more information on anyone bearing the name Stancliff or any variation of that name, and supplying so much research during all the ensuing years. Bill and Della Stancliff Berry, who also helped us from the very beginning.

We wish Richard Hicks, Elizabeth Edmunds, Mary Harrel Stancliff, Dorothy Oliver Margrave and Iris Richards Knapp had lived to see the book to which they had made contributions finally published.

Thank You All

TO THE READER:

It is inevitable that family tradition and records may be different than some of the information presented in this book.

Except for the Social Security Death Index, records are not generally available after the 1920 Federal Census. Accordingly recent information has been gained from individuals concerning their families. Information from diverse members of the same family can vary, and errors are inherent in this type of endeavor.

You are invited to send clarification and or corrections to the Authors. If possible such information will be incorporated into a future edition of this book. In any case, we hope that you will find this genealogy interesting and informative.

Best regards,

Sherry S. and Robert C. Stancliff

INTRODUCTION

FORMAT

The form used in this Genealogy of the STANCLIFF, STANCLIFT, STANCLIFFE family is designed to allow the researcher to obtain birth, death and marriage records on individuals of a family group in one place. When individuals have a family of their own, the vital records, as well as expanded information is presented in the following generation. This means there is an intended duplication of vital statistics from generation to generation. The documentation is presented in the form of footnotes on the same page that the information is found.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

There is a sequential numbering system including both Stancliff males and females starting with James as number 1, William number 2 etc, this number followed by the symbol - (dash) and the next number indicates the chronological position within the family. The symbol + (plus) before the number indicates that there will be more detailed information forthcoming in the next generation and the listing will include the identification number in parenthesis. The lack of a + means that all available information on the individual is presented at the time the individual is listed in the parental family group.

Each Stancliff female is carried forward one generation only, and her children do not have a number designator.

After the individual's name, the lineage is expressed in parentheses with a superscript designator to denote generations

SURNAME VARIATIONS

One of the difficulties in presenting the history of a family is the variations in spelling that are met while searching the records. There have been noted some seventeen different spellings of the name Stancliff. In England today, the name is almost universally spelled Stancliffe. In the United States the three most prominent spellings are Stancliff, Stanclift and Stancliffe, and these spellings are used today by various branches of the family, but not consistently enough to allow identification of the branch on that basis. Other variations result from incorrect transcription from script, Standiff being the most common mistake. The script c followed by an l is often read as a d. There are many instances where the name is transcribed as the more common name Standish. Many of our early ancestors were unable to write and thus were at the mercy of Scribes or Scriveners to record their names. The relative talents of these Scribes determined the accuracy of the spelling, and some documents have been found with several variations in spelling within that single document.

The immigrant ancestor, James Stanclift, used the spelling Stanclift and it was retained into the third generation. In this case we know that this spelling was the preferred spelling of the early family. The men were gravestone carvers and when carving stones for members of their own family they used the spelling Stanclift. At that time various men began to alter the spelling. In this text the family is referred to as Stancliffe while in England, Stanclift through the first three generations, and after that time there has been an attempt to use the spelling by which individuals were found in the records. This attempt to use a preferred spelling is probably an impossible task. It is hoped that various individuals will be tolerant of the errors which are bound to ensue. All spellings have been combined for the purpose of indexing.

FIRST NAME VARIATIONS

The records show a wide variation on first names for individuals. This text reflects, where possible, the name given in a family record or a birth record. In some cases the name at birth was actually changed at a later date, others were referred to by "nicknames". The use of nicknames or pet names was very wide spread in old documents. Some of these nicknames, very popular in past times, are no longer in use today such as the use of "Patty" for a girl named Martha. There also seemed to be a number of individuals who appeared in various Census records under their middle names. Perhaps this occurred as a result of instructions to a census taker to write "Last name first", and the census taker followed it with the middle name.

ALLIED FAMILIES

In many cases it has been possible to find information on families of individuals who married into the Stancliff families. These families are contained in Appendix A and appear in alphabetical order. A reference will be inserted in the text when one of these families appears in the Appendix.

OTHER BRANCHES OF THE STANCLIFF, STANCLIFT, STANCLIFFE FAMILY

Some individuals came to this country many years after James Stanclift arrived. They established families in several notable areas in the East, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, New York City, and Baltimore. There is a family in Northern Illinois and one in Kentucky. In collecting information on anyone with the Stancliff surname, these family groups have emerged. The information on these families is contained in Appendix B.

COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP BOUNDARIES

County and Township boundaries shifted and names changed with the passage of time. In cases where these boundaries and time frames are known, an effort has been made to use the correct name of an area corresponding to the time period in which the record occurred. So while the property of James Stanclift of Middletown, CT remained in the same place, the description changed from East Middletown in Hartford County to Chatham in Hartford County to Chatham in Middlesex County and finally to Portland in Middlesex County.

DATES FOUND IN TEXT

Dates recorded before 1752, that fell between January 1 and March 25, are expressed with a slash such as February 14, 1723/4.

This was because England, and her Colonies, used the Julian or "Old Style" Calendar and did not accept the Gregorian or "New Style" Calendar which aligned the calendar with the sun until an Act of Parliament in 1751. This act decreed that the day following September 2, 1752, should be called September 14, a loss of eleven days. In addition New Year's Day was moved forward to January 1 from March 25. This means that George Washington's birth date, which was February 11, 1731, Old Style, became February 22, 1732, New Style.

The dates expressed in this book reflect the date as found in the records with no attempt to alter a date from Old Style to New Style.

ENGLISH STANCLIFFE MANUSCRIPT

The Reverend John Shepley Stancliffe (1874-1941) recorded his research concerning the genealogy of the Stancliffe Family in England in a handwritten and unpublished manuscript now in the possession of Mr. John Stancliffe of London. In 1986 Mr. Stancliff was kind enough to allow us access to the manuscript and research materials of Reverend John Shepley Stancliffe. Among the papers of John Shepley Stancliffe was a drawing of an ancient Coat of Arms.

COAT OF ARMS

The practice of using some sort of symbol to allow the identification of men in similar appearing armor with faces obscured by helmets and visors gave rise to the "Coat of Arms". In time these symbols became complicated and it was necessary to provide a control on the use of these emblems. In England the College of Arms was established about 1484. It is a group of Heralds appointed by the Royal household that has jurisdiction over Armorial bearings of those families entitled to claim, by grant of the crown, a Coat of Arms. A Coat of Arms for a family was assigned by the College of Arms. The first registered Coat of Arms in the Stancliffe family was granted in 1910 to William Waltham Stancliffe (1837-1924). The right to the use of that Coat of Arms belongs to his family and descendants exclusively, and cannot be claimed by any descendant of James Stanclift of Middletown, Connecticut. It is interesting that in creating this Coat of Arms for William Waltham Stancliffe, the College of Arms used a Stags Head Crest based upon the Arms of the Shepley Family and also incorporated elements of a Coat of Arms that appears upon a Memorial Tablet in the Heath Grammar School, Halifax, Yorkshire, England. The memorial was donated by Reverend Samuel Stancliffe, former rector of Great Stanmore in Middlesex County, and the funds provided in accordance with his will written about 1705.

Samuel was the son of John Stancliffe of Southowram, born in Halifax, and educated at the Heath Grammar School before going on to St. John's College in Cambridge to become a minister of the Gospel. He was ejected from Great Stanmore in the year 1662, at a time when many fine clergymen were punished for refusing to abide by the restrictive practices of the Church of England. The memorial to Samuel said in part "In memory of Revend. Mr. Samuel Stancliffe, descended from the Ancient Family of Stancliff, in the Parish of Halifax...." The Coat of Arms depicted would seem to be the one listed under Skarcliff or Skarclis Family[1]. A sketch accompanied by notes in John Shepley Stancliffe's research indicates that a Coat of Arms titled "Stancliffe Descended From The Ancient Family Of Scarcliffe" follows closely the Blazon[2] for Skarcliff, and was for an ancient family called Skarchife or Skarchisle. The notes said it appeared uncertain as to whether Skarcliffe was a Family or a Place. Since Skar or Scar can also be interpreted in early dialect as meaning "stone", it again seems to be "of the Stone-Cliff" and "Stone chisel" would certainly suggest a stone working tool.

While the Scarcliff Coat of Arms was cited by Sir Bernard Burke in 1884, it has not appeared in subsequent editions of his books on Armory. The origin of this Coat of Arms and the time it came into existence is unknown. It was known to be used by members of the Stancliffe Family in Halifax who were born in the 1600s and copies of this Coat of Arms have been handed down in the Stancliffe Family.

1.THE GENERAL ARMORY OF ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, IRELAND AND WALES by Sir Bernard Burke, C.B., LL.D., published 1884 cited the Blazon as "Ar. a bend dancettée cotised gu. betwn, six mullets sa"

2.A Blazon was a description of the approved Coat of Arms. It was presented in such precise terms that the written description was all that was needed for an artist to depict that Coat of Arms to adhere to the specifications of the College of Arms.

JAMES STANCLIFT IN ENGLAND

At a time when surnames were first becoming established in England, a family came into possession of land in the Shibden[1] Valley of Northowram[2], Parish of Halifax, Wapantake[3] of Morley, West Riding[4] of York. The land located in the Pennine Mountain Range, was at the bottom of a precipitous hill or cliff. The first head of the family became known in 1274 as John de Stanclyf[5], or John of the stone cliff. John was also elected Greave or Grave of Hipperholm[6] in 1307 and 1310[7].

A visit to the Shibden Valley today, a location that has been described as "the valley time forgot", reveals that the hill has changed little, and is as rocky and steep today as it was then. Sheep still graze in this pastoral valley, and in places portions of an ancient cobblestone path are part of the walking trail now called "The Calderdale Way". This trail was once a pack-horse road when Halifax was the principal wool fabric producing center in England. The pack-horse road was used to take the finished cloth to London[8].

A sandstone quarry was opened just over that hill yielding a buff to grey colored stone, now called "Millstone Grit".[9] The stone was lowered down the face of the cliff and used to build the houses in the Valley. Broken blocks of stones still lie on that steep hillside, attesting to the difficult task of handling the large blocks of stone in that time. In this place, the Stancliff family built a home that they named Skowte or Scout. "Scout" in Archaic British Dialect means, a cave formed by jutting rocks or a high precipitous rock and a "Scouter" was a stone working term for one who, by use of wedges and jumpers, broke off large pieces of stone. Today we would call him a quarryman.

At this site the Stancliff family lived and thrived for centuries, building and rebuilding houses that were each in succession called Scout. Sometimes there was more than one building named Scout, the records include Upper Scout, Water Scout and Scout Farm. These Stone working terms, associated with the family at such an early date, seem almost a prognostication of the heritage of the Stancliff Stone Carvers so many years later, in Connecticut.

The Stancliffe family prospered and grew in the Shibden Valley and there came a time when the Stancliffe family was in possession of three large land holdings. Within sight of the original home named Scout, a second house of substantial proportions was built, and that farm was called Hagstocks. Yet a third holding was located not far from the Valley, and was called New Hey. The Stancliffe families in this area enjoyed the status of "Landed Gentry"[10]. Perhaps this circumstance gave rise to the family tradition, of one branch of the Stancliff family, that has maintained that James Stanclift came from Yorkshire, England and that he was one of three sons of an English Earl.

There is some doubt that the early Stancliffe men would have wanted to be more than prosperous land holders. It is written in the History of Halifax concerning King Charles I, who ascended the throne in 1625, that "At his Coronation, King Charles offered a knighthood to every man who had an income of forty pounds and upwards from the rent of lands. His idea was to enrich himself by the fees that had to be paid by every new knight. Those men who refused 'the honour of knighthood' were fined, and if they did not pay their fine, were thrown into prison. Seventy of the gentry of Halifax Parish paid these fines, and by this means, the king drew £1,034 6s 8d. from our parish"[11] The fines paid average over £16, that was a great deal of money in those days. The King obtained his revenue but not the allegiance of the leading citizens of Halifax.

In the mid 1600s the place known as Scout in the Shibden Valley passed into the hands of a family named Mitchell, by marriage of a Stancliffe woman to a Mitchell man. The mid 1600s was a time when many of the homes of the West Yorkshire gentry were replaced with residences of a new style, one of these was Scout Hall[12]. A building designed by a Mitchell/Stancliffe grandson,

2.Northowram was contracted from North over Ham. The Ham or Hamlet was Halifax.

3.Also spelled Wapontake. It meant the taking or touching of Weapons, and was of Norse derivation. It is a division of land.

4.The Ridings or Administrative districts of Yorkshire were derived from "thrithing or trithing", a division into thirds.
The "t" was lost when combined with directional prefixes, East, West and North.

5.John Shepley Stancliffe Manuscript indicates that he appeared on the Wakefield Manor Court Rolls of Oct. 18, 1274 and appeared in very early court records as Greave of Hipperholm in 1275.

6.A Grave or Greave was a local official elected in annual rotation from the chief holders of land in an area. His duty was to collect money due to the Lord of the Manor. Hipperholm was one of the three Graveships of Wakefield Manor, the others being Rasterick and Skammyndene now Scammonden.

John Mitchell, in grand proportions[1]. It was built by the famed Yorkshire stonemasons on the site of the old Stancliffe houses named Scout. What the structure lacks in grace and beauty, it makes up for in mass, as it dominates the Shibden Valley. Today at the rear of the building there still remain vestiges of the crumbling walls of a previous structure named Scout. The stonework in this building readily exhibited the skill of these stone workers. The procedure used was called "dry construction" as each stone block was cut so precisely in relation to adjacent blocks that there was no need to use mortar of any kind. It is only in the restoration efforts, some three hundred years after the original construction, that there has been the necessity of mortar in some areas. There are several aspects of the building that are unique. There is a bas-relief sculptured lintel above the front door of the hall, unusual for its time, which reflects the versatility of the Yorkshire stonecutters. It is a hunting scene. John Mitchell's other interests are also reflected by the decorative carvings at the corners of the windows facing the cliff. The carvings represent the suits in a deck of cards, a spade, heart, club and diamond. Even the roof is "shingled" with stone. Slabs of stone about four foot by three foot in size and several inches thick are pegged to the heavy oak framing of this structure.

Scout Hall is also notable because of the numerous "Mason's Marks"[2] that appear on the outside portion of the building. One of these Mason's Marks was I, found on all levels of the building. This mark is identical to the mark used by James Stanclift in Connecticut to sign legal documents. Land and Property documents record that this symbol was engraved upon brownstone posts and used to mark the boundaries of his homelot in East Middletown, CT. One of the other Marks upon Scout Hall, occurring just as frequently, was the canopied $\bar{A}$ that was favored by James Stanclift when engraving tombstones.

There are gravestones near Halifax that if found in the Connecticut River Valley, would without question be identified as the work of James Stanclift. James Stanclift of Middletown, CT engraved tombstones in the style of Halifax stonecutters. The stones that employed the unique attributes by which James Stanclift is identified in Connecticut[3] seem to be found exclusively in the Halifax and the nearby Elland area. It was of great interest to find that James and some of the Halifax carvers were influenced by the style of gravestones left behind by the early Roman invaders. Several elements of this style were noted in the ancient walled city of York. At the Archeological excavations beneath the great Cathedral at York, there is a portion of an old Roman gravestone on display that has a "canopied A" and the "nested LL". In another area of York, in an Archeological Museum, there is a large grave covering stone that has the inscription carved around the edge of the stone. Each of these factors was used as a point of verification in identifying the work of James Stanclift in Connecticut. An Archeologist at the museum indicated that stones such as this might be found not only in York but in an area to the West of Halifax, in Lancashire. It is probable that one of the Halifax Carvers saw ancient Roman gravestones and incorporated some of the design characteristics into his own work.

The building, called Scout Hall, was completed in the fall of 1680[4]. The politics of the time were such that religious dissenters, or Nonconformists, were being persecuted with vigor throughout England. Halifax, never existed in an atmosphere of passive conformity, but prided itself on being a community of independent thinkers.

Some members of the Stancliff family were closely aligned with the Parish Church at Halifax, and at least one of them is buried within that church. There is a grave stone in the central aisle of the church for a Stancliff, but thousands of feet over hundreds of years have worn the stone smooth leaving little more than the surname to be read. The name Stancliffe is associated with "one of the bells in the Halifax Parish Church Steeple-the 'Stancliffe'. On all the bells in the steeple there was an inscription; and on the eighth it ran as follows:- 'All you that hear my mournful sound, repent before you lie in ground. Stancliff, 1691' This of course, was the passing bell."[5]

The law of primogeniture was in effect in England and only the eldest son inherited land. So in many prosperous families the other sons in the family were provided with an education to prepare them for life. So it was with the Stancliff family in Halifax, and many second and third sons were sent to University and became ministers. One of these, the Reverend Samuel Stancliffe, was born in Halifax, educated at St. John's College in Cambridge and was rector of "Stanmore Magna" or Great Stanmore in Middlesex County in 1662. In that year on "Black St. Bartholomew's Day" Samuel, along with many of England's finest clergymen, was ejected from his position because he refused to accept the Church of England's restrictive edicts. He was not the only Stancliff to be termed "a Nonconformist"

The Stancliff family in the Shibden Valley was closely identified with one of the leaders in the "outlawed" Nonconformist religious movement. The famous Nonconformist minister, Oliver Heywood, sought and was given sanctuary in the homes of these families. John Stancliffe, master of Hagstocks, a half mile distant from Scout Hall was frequently mentioned in Heywood's diary

MASONS MARKS-Personal marks of the masons, not to be confused with code marks or quarry identification mark. Mason's marks came into general use in England at a time when Surnames were not yet established. Masons were free to devise their own marks and frequently this was accomplished by "differencing" those marks used by their fathers or grandfathers. The marks served two purposes, to associate each mason with his work and the responsibility for correcting errors on a particular stone, and to establish productivity and remuneration. These marks usually did not appear on the face of the stone. This however was the practice in parts of Scotland.(the Halifax area of Yorkshire, relatively close to the border of Scotland, entertains many customs from that area). This mark was also used by masons who were illiterate to sign a legal document.

citing religious ceremonies that were held at Hagstocks, such as "on munday octob 13 (1673) we had a private fast at John Stancliffs of Hagstocks...."[1]. John Stancliffe was in prison, as a result of his religious viewpoint, on June 10, 1678 when Heywood wrote "I visited an afflicted family at Hagstocks, J. Stancliff being in prison I discoursed prayd with his wife, god helpt."[2]

John Stancliffe's brother in law, John Hodgson, leading a force comprised of Halifax recruits, fought against the Royalists and eventually became an officer serving under Oliver Cromwell. He died in prison on Jan. 24, 1683/4. The hardships endured by these people was a result of the entire family's tenacious adherence to precepts that differed from that of the Church of England.

Oliver Heywood mentions "James Stancliffs, son of John of Hagstocks" as being an apprentice in London in 1675, and also of being at Hagstocks in 1676 where many prayers were offered for James. He was recovering from "two seriousfits of sicknes" and just as dangerous, the threat of being influenced by a nurse who was an Anabaptist[3]. There was no mention of the trade in which James was being trained as an apprentice. The Reverend John Shepley Stancliffe speculated that this James could possibly have been the man who a few years later moved to New England[4]. There is no proof that James, son of John of Hagstocks, is the same man who settled in Middletown, Connecticut, and if the age given on James' gravestone in Middletown is correct, then this cannot be the same man.

The final punishment for participation in forbidden Nonconformist meetings was confiscation of property and banishment to a foreign plantation other than Virginia or New England. Virginia and New England were known to be strongholds of dissention and Puritan thought, and thus banishment to those areas was not sufficient punishment. Passage was to be financed by indenture[5].

It is of interest that David Stanclift, son of Lemuel, when asked to write down the family history as he had heard it from his father and other relatives, wrote that the first Stanclift had been born in Halifax, Yorkshire, England and come to this country in 1680. He also said the story had been passed down that the immigrant ancestor had left England because his departure was a political necessity.

There is no proof at this time that the man we know as James Stanclift of Middletown, Connecticut left England for political reasons, but it would explain why James Stanclift, a skilled stone mason, aged 42 years old, probably from an important family in Halifax was indentured on August 2, 1680 in order to leave his home and start a new life far from the shores of England.

The record of this indenture was found at the Bristol, England Council House in a slender leather bound volume entitled "Servants to Foreign Plantations"[6]. This volume was discovered in 1924 when the City of Bristol established an Archives Department and this and other old records came to light.

This record was the result of a need to document legitimate indenture contracts. Authorities sought to stop the practice of kidnapping and selling apprentices and children into servitude in the Colonies. They started a record of all those indentured for service in the Colonies. The terms of many of these indentures provided that after the completion of the obligation the individual was to receive a parcel of land and provisions to sustain him through the first year, the indentured person would then become a productive member of a new society. In many cases the indenture was handled by a "broker" who made a contract with an individual and then sold the contract either in England or in the Colonies to someone needing the specialized skills of the indentured individual. It was not uncommon for the Master of a ship to hold the contract on some of those individuals who were passengers on his ship.

The records at the Bristol Council House contain over 10,000 names of emigrants to the new land. "All of them sailed from Bristol, and as at that time Bristol had a monopoly of the Virginia trade, this list gives the names of practically every person who left England for Virginia, Maryland and the West Indies.... A small portion were political prisoners. There were few ages in English history when this resource insured so constant a supply."[7]

In 1986 the original books were available for inspection at the Bristol Council House. The records revealed that the Nevis Merchant under command of Captain Arthur Grant sailed from Bristol, England in September 1680 bound for Nevis, in the Windward Islands and for the Colony of Virginia[8]. On a subsequent voyage the ship Nevis Merchant[9] made port in Boston, MA on her sweep north to pick up the trade winds for her return to Bristol, England. She was described in 1687 as being "a Shipp", or square rigged on all masts, of seventy tons, two guns, built in England, out of Bristol, England[10]. Arthur Grant was still the Master.

It was John Shepley Stancliffe's theory that since there was no further evidence in the Halifax or London records concerning James Stancliff, son of John Stancliffs of Hagstocks, that he left the area and may well have gone to New England.

The interpretation of the name Kempe in the margin is not certain. An official at the Bristol Custom House speculated that Kempe may have been the magistrate who approved the indenture. The name appears in the margin for various other passengers on this same voyage. Captain Arthur Grant was listed as the holder of several of the indenture contracts for passengers on that voyage.

Whether James indeed spent four years in Nevis and completed the terms of his indenture, we may never know. Dr. William Stanclift of Manassas, VA spent time in that area with the express purpose of searching the records for some proof that James Stanclift had been in Nevis. There were no records available for that time period. A search of the oldest graveyard in Nevis did not reveal any stones that might have been carved by James Stanclift. There are, however, several families bearing the surname "Stancliff" living in Nevis today. None of the individuals contacted had any knowledge of their heritage.

James Stanclift was in Lyme, Connecticut about 1684. It is significant that Lyme had been settled by a number of families from the Halifax, Yorkshire, England area, there were other Halifax families nearby on Long Island. The Diaries of Oliver Heywood mentioned going to the homes of these families such as Tillotson, Waterhouse, and Chadwick, which indicated that they too held Nonconformist views. The question arises- If James Stanclift wished to join these people from Halifax who had established a community in the Colonies, and if he was leaving England of his own accord, why then didn't he go directly from Bristol, England to Lyme, Connecticut? If he was free to arrange his own indenture to the Colonies, why did he choose to go to Nevis before the journey to Connecticut?

It became evident that soon after his arrival in this country, James Stanclift owed money to three wealthy men in New London, CT. These men were Christopher Christophers, Samuel Fosdick and Joseph Rogers, all engaged in commerce with the West Indies. Christopher Christophers, one of the most influential men in New London, CT, amassed his fortune in trade not only in the West Indies but also with England. He appeared repeatedly in the Bristol Shipping Records as both a ship owner, a cargo owner, and the holder of indentures. The land records of the area at that time contained a record of both land and livestock that was bought, sold, leased or mortgaged, and there is no record in either the Lyme or the New London Land and Property records that accounts for James Stanclift's debt to any of these men. It is interesting to speculate that the money owed by James may have been payment for passage to the Port of New London from Nevis or it may have even been for the redemption of an indenture.

Those members of the Stancliffe family who left Halifax and established a business in London in the mid to late 1600s were no less rebellious than those remaining in Yorkshire. Two men in particular appear frequently in the shipping records of London, they were Michael and Samuel Stancliffe. These men seemed to be successful merchants dealing in yard goods and haberdashery[1]. They also seem to have been deeply involved in the Quaker movement and suffering the same persecution that their relatives in Halifax were experiencing, including arrest and imprisonment[2]. Samuel Stancliffe, London Haberdasher, purchased two 5000 acre tracts of land in East Jersey in 1688. In that year A. Hamilton wrote a letter to W. Dockwra[3] concerning this land which said "I have taken all imaginable pains to Encourage Mr Stancliffs designs because his designes seem to be reallie honorable, in alloting his propriety as a refuge to poor banished protestants & besides I am sensible it will prove a great good to the Country. I have placed him on Myston river as a place convenient for such a design, but remember I had an eye by that Neighborhood to make Mr D's land more valuable 'There is a gushet of about 2000 acres a rear of your uppermost lots, which I design to take up for you...." The letter goes on to say this is the best land in the province.[4] The project was abandoned and Samuel sold his property in the Colonies without ever leaving London. There is no evidence that Samuel had any contact with James Stanclift.

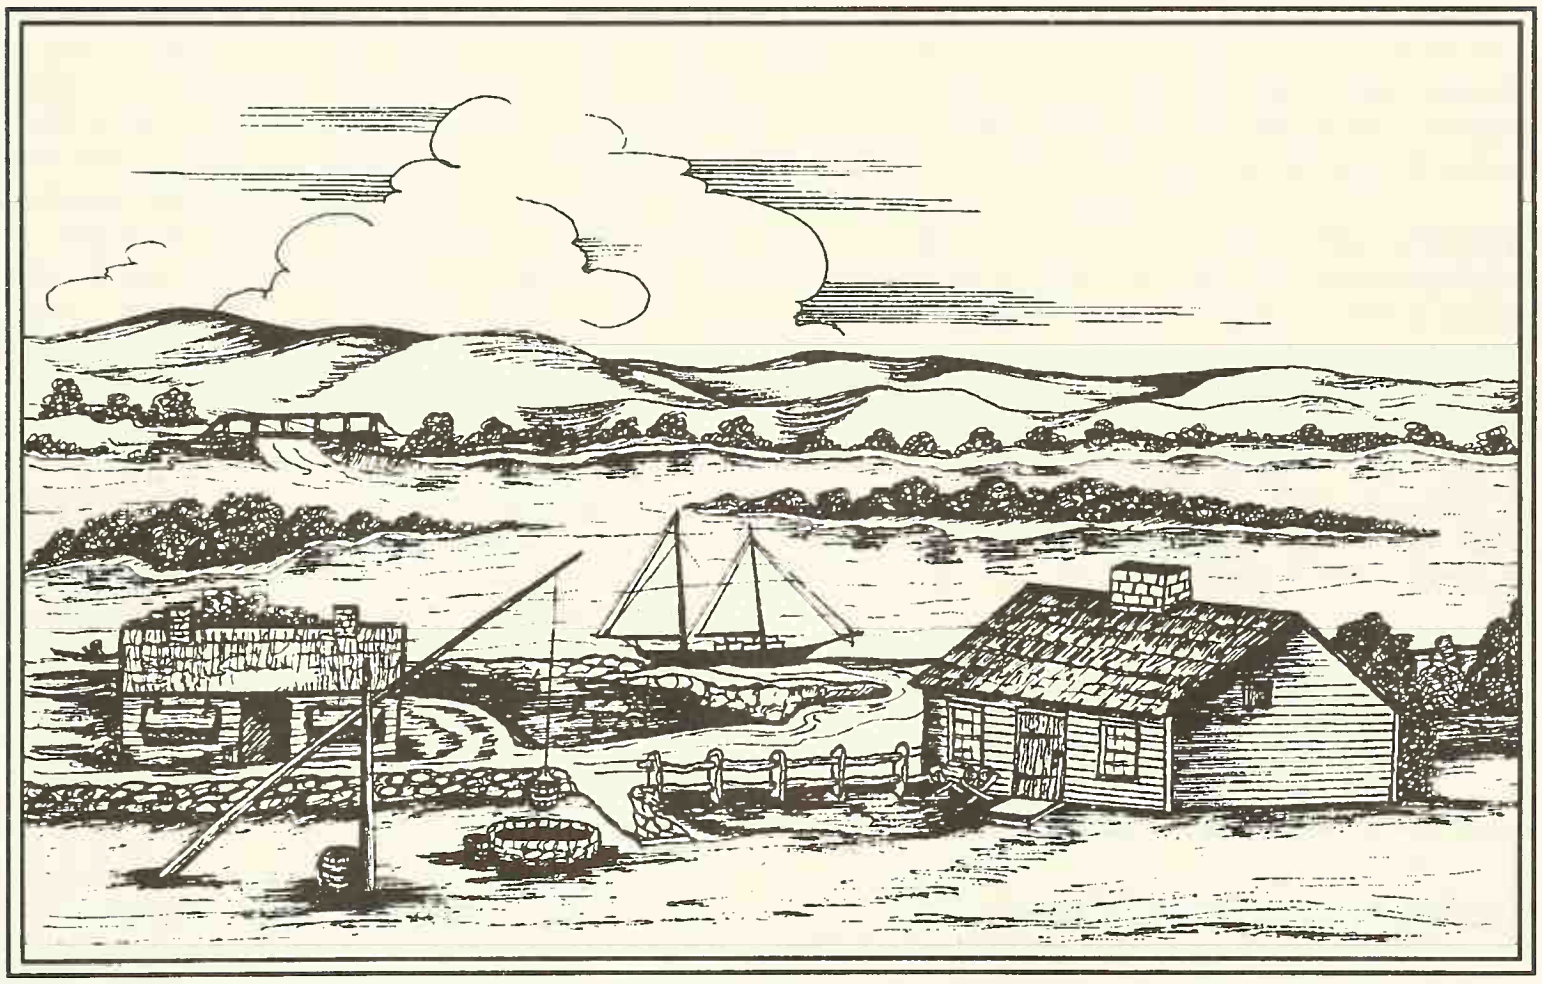
THE DESCENDANTS OF JAMES STANCLIFT OF MIDDLETOWN, CONNECTICUT



HOUSE OF JAMES STANCLIFT ON THE EAST SIDE OF THE GREAT RIVER IN 1690

James Stanclift built the first house in East Middletown, Connecticut. He was the first permanent resident in the area that is now Portland, Connecticut. This Sketch is based upon an oil painting done in the mid 1800s by John Wells Stancliff (1813-1891), a great great great grandson of James Stanclift. The painting is now on display at the Portland, Connecticut Historical Society.

JAMES STANCLIFT IN CONNECTICUT

(1) JAMES[1] STANCLIFT

Born 1639 in England, very probably near the town of Halifax, Yorkshire, England, died East Middletown, Hartford County[1], CT Oct. 2 or 3[2], 1712 Aged about 73, buried in Riverside Cemetery[3], Middletown, CT. He married in Lyme, CT about 1685 MARY [TINKER] WALLER, widow of William Waller and daughter of John and Alice [Smith] Tinker born Boston, MA July 2, 1653, baptized First Church Boston July 3, 1653[4], died East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Dec. 30 1712[5], buried Riverside Cemetery, Middletown, CT.

James Stanclift probably arrived in Connecticut about 1684 at age 46 and lived first at Lyme, New London County, CT. He married about 1685 Mary [Tinker] Waller, the wealthy widow of William Waller Jr. of Lyme, CT. On Dec. 8, 1685 the widow, Mary Waller, placed land from the estate of her late husband in trust for the three Waller daughters, appointing as trustees her brother, Amos Tinker, and her late husband's brother, John Waller[6]. Ten days later on December 18, 1685 James Stanclift, mason, purchased 26 acres of land on the North East shore of "the great pond" now called Rogers Lake. It was described as being bounded "southerly by the great brooke running into the said pond" which must be the brook now called Grassy Hill Brook. The farm was adjoining land already owned by William Measure[7]. William Measure was the second husband of Mary's mother, Alice [Smith] Tinker Measure. The execution of trust deeds by Mary [Tinker] Waller and the land purchase by James Stanclift were in all probability in preparation for their marriage at that time.

As a stone mason, James Stanclift received permission from the selectmen of Lyme, to make "a clamp of bricks" on town land along side the River at a Town Meeting on Feb. 1, 1686. At the same Town Meeting it was ordered that the "land of William Waller Jur being the 21 Lott[8], was to be laid out near to the Jeames Stanclift farme"[9]. This land was part of Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift's portion of her late husband's estate. James operated "Stanclift Farm" on the north eastern border of what is now Rogers Lake in Lyme. He paid taxes on 1 horse, 1 cow and 1 sow in 1688[10].

During his years in Lyme James Stanclift also cut gravestones for many of the most influential families in the area. Some of those stones were cut for individuals who had died many years before James had even arrived in the area, the earliest found to date being for Lt. Reynold Marvin who died in 1676[11]. The buff sandstone in Lyme was very close in color and texture to the stone from the Shibden Valley in Halifax.

On February 24, 1686/7[12] the town of Middletown "approved of the agreement made by the selectmen with James Stancliff, concerning the building the chimneys, and other stone work, and that when work is finished the town empower the selectmen to give the said James Stancliff legal assurance of a parcell of land upon the rocks according to their agreement;"[13]. The selectmen representing the proprietors offered James Stancliff, an English stonemason, a grant of town owned land, land often called "Common land" since the ownership was held in common by all of the proprietors of the town. This was the customary method employed by town officials to entice to their area, the tradesmen needed to establish and maintain a productive and growing community. James accepted the offer and moved his family to Middletown, CT.

On Oct.10, 1689 James Stanclift conveyed to Joseph Rogers of New London, New London County, CT for the sum of £40-00-00 a parcel of land in Lyme[14]. An earlier Land record indicated that James had used at least a part of the return from this sale

8.Towns in early Connecticut were purchased by a consortium of individual men, who at first built a walled town and distributed land for crops and pasture outside the town as needed and in proportion to each owners share in the original purchase. As the town grew "divisions" of outlying land within the town land limits were distributed among the proprietors or owners of the town. They drew lots to determine who would receive the first choice of the location of their land. Before his death, William Waller Jr had drawn lot #21 or twenty first choice in the fourth division of Lyme.

It was then possible to calculate the date according to both calendar variations.

to repay a debt he owed to Joseph Rogers[1]. This document was of particular importance because it proved the identity of James Stanclift's wife. It specified that the land had been part of the late William Waller's Lott # 21 in the fourth division of Lyme, which had been apportioned to the relict of William Waller, and sold this date by James Stanclift with permission of his now wife, Mary[2]. James divested himself of his land in the Lyme area and moved to Middletown, CT.

There is no certain proof of the exact time of the move from Lyme to Middletown, CT, but it took place after August 27, 1688[3] and before May 3, 1690[4], when the terms of the contract were satisfied. The contract specified a grant on completion of the stone work. The deed was recorded on May 3, 1690. Two days after the grant was recorded James Stanclift sought to purchase additional land under common ownership of the proprietors of Middletown. The request was taken up at the May 5, 1690 Middletown Town Meeting. The minutes of that meeting stated "At the same towne Meeting the towne Granted Mr James Standclift A parcell of Land on the East side the Great River neare his hous in quantity about Six Acres Lying Northward from his hous coming noe farther Southward than square with his house to have six Acres if it be within that Compass and being noe damage to highways".[5] James Stanclift had already built a house "upon the rocks" in a location very near the place that was to be granted to him in payment for his work. Previous to the grant from the town, James had purchased three acres of land from Richard Goodall bounded on the north by the highway and on the west by common ground. It was probably upon this land that James built his house. There was no date to indicate when the deed was written but it was recorded May 2, 1690. Given the sale of his land in Lyme, the time needed to accomplish Middletown's building needs, and the time needed to build a house before winter set in, it is probable that James had moved to Middletown by the summer of 1689.

The Middletown town boundaries at this date extended far beyond the settled portion of the town which was located upon the left bank of the Connecticut River. It was then merely called "the Great River". Residents used the land belonging to Middletown and located on the East side of the River for crops and grazing, but they ventured across the River during the day using canoes or boats and returned to the safety of the Town every night[6]. James Stanclift was the first white man to build a house and live "on the est side of the great river" among the Wangunk indians.

James opened the Stanclift Brownstone Quarry, on the bluff overlooking the river where the Triassic brownstone overhung the river. The physical characteristics of the stone in this deposit vary only slightly according to the variations in strata. It was easy to work and adapted to the finest carving needs[7], but most important it is found in few areas other than the concentration in the area where James Stanclift settled. As early as 1665 the proprietors of the Town of Middletown was aware of the unique resource and forbid residents of other areas from taking stone from this deposit without the approval of the Town and a charge for the stone.

James Stanclift was more than an inhabitant of Middletown. Besides the actual grant of ownership of the quarry land, there may have been an agreement that he also owned an interest in common, with the proprietors, in the town of Middletown. When divisions of Middletown land were made after his death, both of the sons of this man shared in those divisions and drew lots for their choice of land along with other proprietors of Middletown.

James Stanclift lived and worked in this location for over twenty years, until his death in 1712. For thirteen of those years the Stanclift family and the Gill family were the only permanent residents on the east side of the river[8]. It would seem that during that time the Stanclift family was on friendly terms with their Indian neighbors. In 1702 an Indian was known to deliver Gravestones for James. Sacient, an Indian delivered a pair of stones, both Head stone and Footstone, to the Wequetequok Cemetery, Stonington, CT. They were for the grave of Rebeccah Minor, and "Stancleef" was paid for the stones[9].

Today in front of the Town Hall of Portland Connecticut is one of the distinctive blue signs erected by the Connecticut Historical Commission in all Connecticut communities. That sign states that the area first called East Middletown[10], later Chatham and finally Portland, Connecticut, was "...famous for it's brownstone which was quarried here for over two hundred years.", and that "....the first permanent settler, James Stancliff, a stone cutter, built his home here about 1690." The image of his first house can be seen today in a painting by John Wells Stancliff, a descendant of James[11]. The painting depicts a plain rectangular building and a smaller building on the bank overlooking the River, and there is a beam-well in the yard. At the bottom of the hill is moored a two masted sailing ship. The artist was said to have been born in that house according to the writings of his brother, Gilbert.

In addition to the stone taken from the quarry for building purposes, the gravestones cut by James were found in many far reaching areas. Moving a commodity of such great weight overland was difficult in that time, so it is not surprising that most of the gravestones cut by James are found in areas that can be reached by water and allows for transport by boat. There are a number of them on Long Island, Hartford, CT, and Stonington, CT and of course in Lyme as well as Middletown, CT. He made stones for many of the most prominent men in the Connecticut Colonies. The "Tablestone" was the monument of choice for the very wealthy families of that day, and most tablestones in New England came from the East Middletown area. The qualities of the brownstone made it uniquely suited for this type of a monument, and brownstone is the only stone used for this type of monument. A tablestone monument was constructed with a slab of stone measuring about three foot by six foot and four or five inches thick set upon the ground over the grave, then heavy carved legs of table height were set upon this base to support a second slab of the same dimensions as the base stone, completing the "Table". The top stone was finished with a decorative edge like a molding, and bore the engraved inscription.

Before his death, James negotiated with the Winthrop family on a Tablestone for Elizabeth, the wife of John Winthrop Jr., Governor of Connecticut[1], the contract was completed many years later by his son, William. The letters concerning this stone, provided a real insight into the way gravestones were manufactured. It was learned that the stone for gravestones had to be removed from the quarry before the frost came in the fall, it was taken under cover, and "seasoned" before it was shaped and engraved. There is a "grain" to the stone and the skill of the early cutters is proven today by the number of brownstone gravestones that stand in fine condition, without shaling. There are many brownstones more than a hundred years older than their granite and marble counterparts that evidence less wear and erosion, and are more easily read. Without the advent of the power mower there would be many more examples to be seen. James probably worked on gravestones over the long winter months when it was impossible to work within the quarry, itself. Exposed to this endeavor, the young men of the household also learned the craft, and so it was passed from father to son. Both William and James were cutting stone at an early age.

Many years after the quarry had passed out of Stanclift ownership, the Washington Monument was under construction using stone from every state of the union. "It was fitting then that the block sent from Connecticut, as her contribution to the monument erected to the Great Father of his country, at Washington, should have been of Portland stone. It has already been placed in position in that structure".[2] Stone from the Quarry in Portland was shipped to Boston and to New York and is the source of many of the famed brownstone houses in both locations.

James and Mary raised their four children in East Middletown as well as Elizabeth, Mary, and Alice Waller, the children by Mary's first marriage. "William, James, Mary[3], and Martha ye children of our sist.' Mary, ye wife of James Stantlife" baptized March 4, 1694 at the Middletown Congregational Church[4], Middletown First Ecclesiastical Society. Perhaps if James held Nonconformist attitudes, they carried over to the restrictive practices of the Colonial Congregational Church as well. The Congregationalist church of the Puritans was no more tolerant than had been the Church of England. While James Stanclift had no choice about paying "rate", and supporting the Ecclesiastical Society in which he lived[5], his appearance in church records was only in relation to his wife, Mary, a devout member of the Congregational Church.

By 1710 there were at least twenty seven families living on the East side of the Great River. It was often difficult, particularly in the winter for the residents on the East side of the river to cross over to Middletown to attend church. The inhabitants of the East Middletown area gathered and declared their intention of becoming a Society in their own right. The oldest record now extant of this emerging Society was written by Samuel Hall and is one of the first documents of the Third Society of Middletown, the East Middletown Society, and what would eventually become the First Congregational Church of Portland, Connecticut-

5.In order to provide for the maintenance of the Congregational Church in New England, Ecclesiastical Societies were formed, each society supported a church and a minister. In order to own land in an area it was necessary to abide by the rules of a given society and to contribute to the support of that society and the church. The church was closely aligned to the Government and the organization and maintenance of the Society was under the jurisdiction of the Assembly in Hartford. The payment for the maintenance of the Society was called the "rate" and was collected much like a tax. Actual membership in that church was a separate decision and it was left to each individual to make his own choice, subject to strict rules on eligibility.

The building of a meeting house as a place of worship and as a place where inhabitants would gather to decide issues concerning their community illustrates the close connection between the civil jurisdiction and the church jurisdiction. They were one and the same in this period of New England history.

Later land records suggest that James was more than an inhabitant of the area and did own an interest in Middletown, for his sons both drew lots at the time of land divisions of the town. James Stanclift did not appear to have signed the document as his son, William had. The bottom of the page has deteriorated and perhaps at one time was inscribed with the name or mark of James Stanclift.

It may have been that James Stanclift signed documents with his "Mason's Mark" from choice, but no document has been discovered with a written signature of James Stanclift. There is a question that James was able to read and write. His printing on gravestones was exceptionally accurate for the time, and there were "severall books" listed in James' Inventory after his death. Mary evidently was unable to write as she signed the Letter of Administration in her husband's probate papers with the mark "S". James may have had a scribe print out the epitaphs for proposed stones as a guide, for his stones had far better spelling than that of his sons.

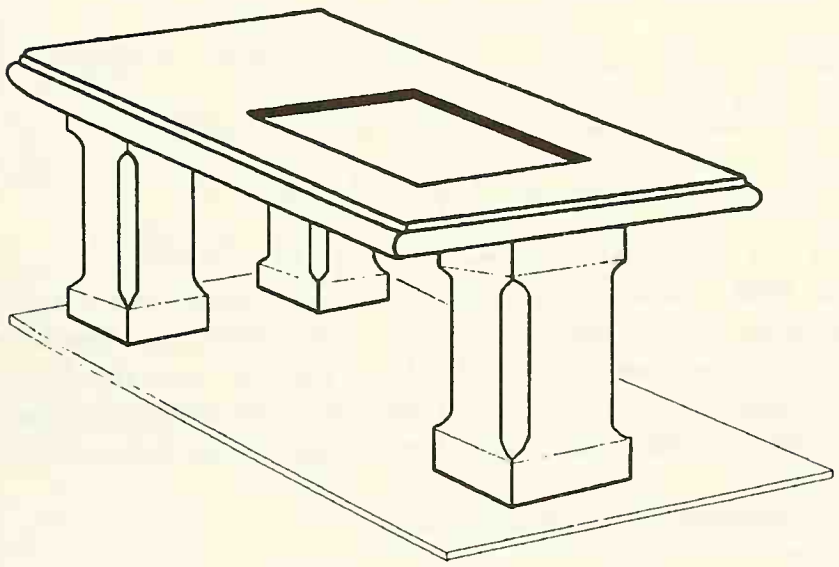
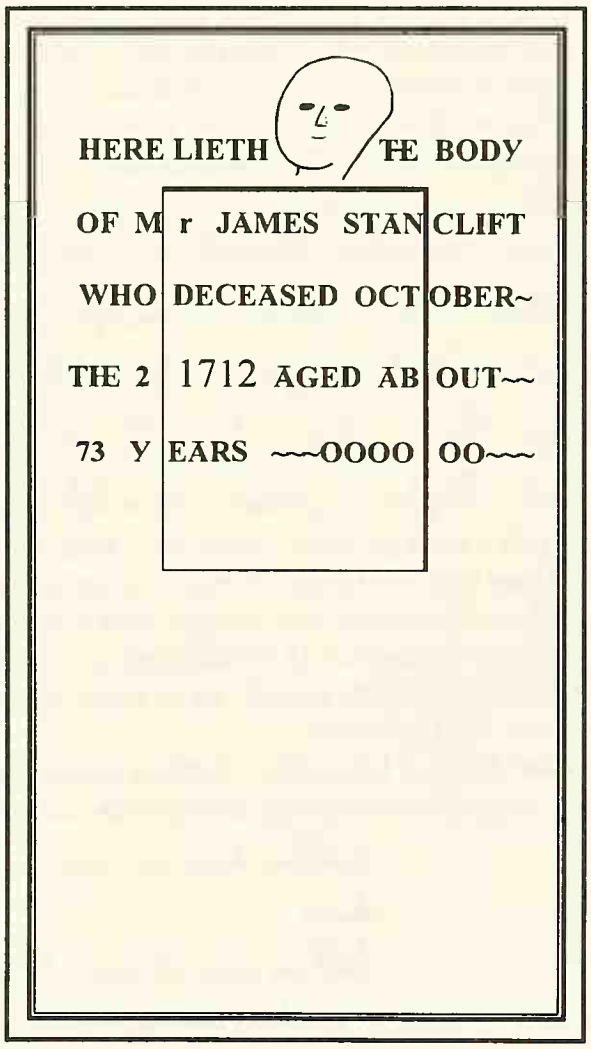
Both James Stanclift, and wife Mary, seem to have been casualties of the influenza epidemic that swept through New England in 1712_1. James died October 2, 1712_2, and Mary followed on December 30, 1712_3. They are the only members of this family who are buried in Middletown, and they lie in Riverside Cemetery under stones cut by their son, William. There was no Cemetery in East Middletown at this date$_4$.

James lies under a Table stone with an unusual tripod arrangement of legs as shown in the sketch below. There is a fairly large inset$_5$ missing on this stone, but the inscription was carved across the entire face of the stone. Even with the missing inset, it is possible to interpret the inscription as the wording favored by each carver, makes the inscription carved by that man predictable. The probable lettering has been inserted in the missing portion. Above the inscription is a crude skull carved by William, son of James, which is identical to those William had engraved on other stones. Unfortunately in 1991 it was found that a large corner of the stone has been broken off the table top.





The Tablestone stands near the fence at the east, or river end, of Riverside or McDonough cemetery. There is a good possibility that this stone was originally intended for Elizabeth Winthrop, the wife of the Governor of Connecticut. James Stanclift had been commissioned to carve a Tablestone for the wife of Governor John Winthrop Junior$_6$ in 1709. The following year James

1.The gravestone research conducted by Dr. Ernest Caufield in the 1950s has been of enormous value to anyone studying gravestones in Connecticut. He began his research searching through graveyards for clues to causes of death and more particularly an attempt to document epidemics that occurred in Colonial New England.

2.The gravestone cut by James' son, William, says died Oct. 2, 1712, the Middletown Vital Records LR 1, page 1 indicate death date as Oct. 3, 1712.

3.Middletown Vital Records, Land Book I, page 1 refers to her as "Widdow of Mr. James Stanclift" and the death date is identical with the date upon the gravestone cut by her son, William.

4.The following February a child died in East Middletown and the ice on the river made access to the Riverside Cemetery in Middletown impossible. An acre of land abutting the Stancliff Quarry was hurriedly selected as a Cemetery on the east side of the River. It was called the Quarry Cemetery

5.Insets were sometimes employed as a decorative measure, and were also used when a flaw or mistake occurred on the face of the stone, or to obliterate carving that was no longer desired. Occasionally a contrasting material, such as marble or metal, was inset as a method of adornment. In the case of lead inserts, many were removed at the time of the Revolution and melted down for shot. The insert on James' stone was missing before the stones were read by Frank Farnsworth Starr in 1870 or 1875.

6.Unpublished letters in the Winthrop Papers at the Massachusetts Historical Society

Stanclift wrote to the Winthrops and indicated that the stone was ready, but the Winthrops had not provided the information to be engraved upon the stone, nor had they decided whether it should have pillars or be enclosed on the sides. James asked for instructions, but the Winthrops could not determine the words they wished to have on the stone. Before the stone could be finished James died. His son, William, would finally complete the contract, but not until 1718. When William finally took the stone for Elizabeth Winthrop to Hartford his letters confirm that it was a newly cut stone. Before his death James and William both carved Gravestones. James carved the Tablestones and William carved many of the smaller upright stones. Because the stone is a unique design and done in the style used by James Stanclift, it may be that the stone William used for his father was the special stone his father had shaped for Elizabeth Winthrop. It is also the only Tablestone of the many that William carved that had an inset. Perhaps the inset was put there to erase carving that had already been placed upon the stone.

Near the Tablestone of James Stanclift, in a line of upright stones to the west, is an upright stone for Mary Stanclift[1] upon which her son, William, carved this tribute-

"HERE LIES ONE BEREFT OF LIFE SHE WAS A TENDER MOTHER AND A LOVING WIFE".

The stone was cut in William's preferred style. The lettering was all done in Upper Case letters. It has three arches at the top, the large central arch flanked at the shoulder by two lower and narrower arches. William's "signature" rosette in each of the shoulder arches. The stone is identical to the one William would later carve for his wife, Olive.

The children of James Stanclift are all registered in the back of Middletown Land Book I. The book was turned upside down and the Vital records of the Middletown inhabitants were entered and numbering started at page 1. On page 20 of Vital Records is the following entry-

"James Stanclifts Records of births
William Son to James Stanclift & Marah his wife was born Septemb:25 1686
Martha Dafter to James Stanclift & Marah his wife was born Desemb:12 1688
James Son to James Stanclift & Mary his wife was born march y 24th 1691/2
Sarah Dafter to James Stanclift & Mary his wife was born Desemb y 8th 1695"

The entry for Sarah's birth probably should have been for the year 1694. The use of the name Marah is significant since it was the practice of the Town Clerk of Lyme, CT to substitute the spelling Marah for all women named Mary. It is probable that when James and Mary moved to Middletown they brought with them some sort of a document written by the Lyme Clerk to verify the births of the first two children, the town clerk of Middletown entered these births exactly as written. All four entries are written in the same handwriting, but the entry of the second two children not only uses the name Mary but also inscribes the dates in the manner favored by the Town Clerk of Middletown.

After the death of his mother, William assumed sole administration on his father's estate. The Real Estate listed in the Inventory includes the following entries

-dwelling hous and shop	£30-00-00
-barns	£14-00-00
-half an acre of land abuting on the quary and the quary	£12-00-00
-six acres of land at home	£15-00-00
-three acres of land nearby	£06-00-00
-nine acres of upland	£12-00-00
-six acres pond and 2 of medew	£16-00-00

All of the property can be accounted for. The dwelling house, shop and barns though evaluated separately were located upon the homelot or "6 acres of land at home". James did not acquire much land during his time in Middletown. He was awarded by judgement of the court 30 acres of land on Mar. 2, 1696. His neighbor, John Thomas, who later married James' step-daughter, Mary Waller, owed James a debt of £10, and was unable to pay. The court decision, in favor of James Stanclift, ordered the Sheriff to seize the land belonging to John Thomas and turn it over to James Stanclift[2]. On April 17, 1704, James Stanclift and John Thomas for the sum of £06-10-00 jointly conveyed to Noahdiah Russell, the local minister, 13 acres of the 30 acre tract of land. This left 17 acres remaining[3]. On Dec. 21, 1710 James gave as a gift to his son, William, eight acres of that property[4]. The remaining nine acres described above as "upland". The other piece of property that James acquired was the purchase of six acres of land from Edward

"Ned" Durant of Boston for £8 on June 17, 1708[1]. It was described as being land originally laid out to Edward's father George Durant at pond meadow. George Durant was a blacksmith living in Lyme, CT who, like James Stanclift, had been offered land in Middletown to entice him to move to that area. Two of George Durant's daughters were married to brothers of Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift. When Edward Durant disposed of his father's land in Lyme it was sold to the Tinkers and the land in Middletown sold to James Stanclift. That is the "pond and medew" mentioned above.

2.There is a partial duplication of the birth records found in Middletown Vital Records, Land Book I, page 20. In Middletown Vital Records, Land Book II, page 26, the births of William and James are again listed, William as Sept. 25, 1687, and James as Mar. 24, 1692. The dates cited are slightly different. It is on this page that the marriage and children of James Stanclift and Abigail Bevin are recorded. This explains why some records seem to indicate two men by the name of William and two by the name of James were born to this family.

GENERATION TWO

Son of James and Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift born Sept. 25, 1686 while the family was living in Lyme, New London County, CT, birth registered in Middletown, Hartford County, CT records$_1$. He was baptized First Congregational Church Middletown, CT Mar. 4, 1694$_2$, died Jan. 26, 1761$_3$, and buried in the Old Quarry Cemetery, married 1. Middletown, Hartford County, CT Mar. 10, 1710$_4$ OLIVE [STANBROUGH] WRIGHT daughter of Perigrine and Sarah [James] Stanbrough born Saggaponack, Long Island July 18, 1670, died East Middletown, CT Nov. 7, 1719 in the 50th year of her age, buried Old Quarry Cemetery. Her stone was cut by her husband, William, and bears the grim, but in that day popular, inscription "YOU ARE BUT DUST, AND DIE YOU MUST". William married 2. Oct. 5, 1721 ESTHER ADAMS of Hartford, CT daughter of John and Esther [_____] Adams born Hartford, Hartford County, CT Sept. 8, 1701.$_5$

The identification of William's first wife Olive as Olive Stanbrough was supported by the following facts- In 1710 he married the wealthy widow next door, who was some 16 years older than he. She was Olive Wright, widow of Jonas Wright$_6$. There is no record of her marriage to Jonas Wright in the Middletown Records. The 1670 birth year of Olive in the Southampton Records agrees with the date of death and age engraved by her husband upon her gravestone. "IN HER 50th YEAR"$_7$ means Olive was aged 49 in 1719 and indeed born 1670. Olive's only son, James, named his boys with first names such as George, James, Thomas, and William and none of these children had a middle name. One son was named "Stanbrough Perigrine Stancliff", not a common name and not in keeping with previous children's names. The name must have had family significance, such as being named after his grandfather. Olive named her first child Eunice, the name of a recently deceased younger sister, and sometime after their deaths William Stancliff engraved stones for both Perigrine Stanbrough and Eunice Stanbrough. The stones used were not in the accepted tradition of a large headstone and small footstone. Both head and footstones for Perigrine and Eunice were of headstone size, making the graves stand out as unique among the others in the Saggaponack Graveyard. Jonas Wright is on record in 1703 as swearing out a deposition for a court case in that year as he would not be present to present testimony, because he would be spending time on Long Island. Lastly, Olive's youngest sister Ann Stanbrough married 1707 in Middletown, Samuel Bidwell, a neighbor of both Jonas Wright and William Stanclift.

When William was 24 years old, and shortly after his marriage, his father gave him a piece of property. On Dec. 21, 1710$_8$ James Stanclift "for the good affection which he bareth to his sonne William Stancleft" conveyed to William "8ight" acres of land bounded on James own land West, the highway East, Mr Hamlin's land North and Ebenez[r] Holbards South. The transaction was witnessed by Francis Smith and John Bevin. James signed with his mason's mark, ⊣. He died before his younger son, James, was married or perhaps James too would have received a gift of land.

The probate papers of his father did not contain a will. There was a letter of Administration appointing William and his mother, Mary, as administrators on the estate. Mary died soon after her husband and William became sole administrator. There was an inventory and an article of agreement between William and his brother James concerning James' legacy. Martha and Sarah were not mentioned in any way concerning the distribution of the estate. It was often the custom for sons to be given their legacy in the form of Real Estate at the time of their father's death, and admonished to care for their mother and unmarried sisters. It was common for daughters to share in the estate left by their mother after her death.

The agreement between William and James Stanclift concerning the distribution of the Real Estate$_9$, and is as follow-

If James' share as younger son was determined to be thirty one pounds, then William as eldest son and in accordance with Connecticut law and custom would have received a double share of the estate[1]. The Inventory listed Real Estate assets amounting to £105-00-00. The homelot and buildings accounted for £59-00-00 and William seemed to have retained possession of that property.

On June 8, 1714[2], as administrator on their father's estate, William deeded to his younger brother, James, his legacy of four parcels of land. The first parcel was 9 acres of upland which was the remaining portion of land taken by judgement from John Thomas in 1700, and valued in father's inventory at £12-00-00. The second parcel was 3 acres at Brush Pond, being ½ of the land purchased from Edward Durant. The third parcel was a 30 Rod portion of the quarry. The fourth parcel was also quarry land and contained 26 Rods of land with the River to the West and William's land on all other sides. James immediately purchased from William, additional property for the sum of £07-00-00[3]. The purchase may have included a portion of their father's homelot. Subsequent Land records indicate that James was in possession of their father's original town grant of the quarry and probably ½ of other lands surrounding the quarry.

A few months later, on Oct. 30, 1714 William divested himself not only of his share of the quarry, but also the land near Brush Pond. He sold it to William Webster, house wright, of Boston for the sum of £100-00-00[4]. He had already sold the land his father had given him as a gift. In 1714 William did not seem to own land in East Middletown. In 1717 he began buying and selling land, and he usually realized a substantial profit on his transactions. The house he lived in was described as a mansion house.

The inhabitants of the East side of the River had signified their intention to form a new society in 1710. In 1714 they prepared a petition to go before the Connecticut Assembly. The petition proposed the third Society of Middletown be formed on the East side of the Great River. The brothers William and James Stanclift both signed the petition that was approved first at the Middletown Town Meeting and later at the Connecticut Assembly in Hartford. It was not always easy to pull away from an established society, the departure of the members meant reduced revenue and political power for the old society. After four years of planning and working for this event the inhabitants across the River realized their aspiration of a separate Ecclesiastical Society. They would no longer have to travel to Middletown or cross the river to go to church.

While brother James ran his portion of the original quarry and provided for the larger stone needs of the community, William seemed concerned with the gravestone portion of the business. His land transactions may have provided the larger part of his income.

The land where they lived and the land containing the original site of the Old Quarry Cemetery no longer exists, but was consumed by the expanding quarry. On that site today is a deep pit which filled with water as a result of the hurricane and floods of 1936[5]. The land for the Cemetery called "The Old Quarry Cemetery" was granted by Middletown in 1713 and was established on Common ground or land owned by the Proprietors of the Town in Common. It was located between James Stanclift's land and the River, where it was in use until 1843[6]. The land encompassed by the graveyard was the subject of dispute for many years as the 6 to 10 feet of soil covered a substantial brownstone deposit and was in demand by those wishing to quarry the stone. "the Middlesex and Brainerd Quarry Companies became the purchasers; the First Ecclesiastical Society receiving $6,000. The legislature ordered the removal of the remains....The earth was removed to a depth of several feet and deposited on land bought for that purpose in the rear of the Episcopal cemetery. The stones were then carefully replaced in their original order, an exact record having been made of the inscription on every stone. This mode of procedure cost the quarry companies a large sum. William Sellew superintended the removal."[7].

The remains in that Cemetery were relocated by the first day of January 1882. In a document[8] dated Portland, July 1883 by William Sellew, Agt. to Hon. O. H. Platt, Commissioner, appointed by the Legislature for the relocation, is the following- "Under the order made by you limiting the time within which friends and descendants might remove the remains interred in the Old Burying Ground near the Portland Quarries to the first day of Jany 1882. The remains of the following persons were removed by friends to the places and cemeteries stated below- such removals were made when requested by undertakers selected by such friends--" There is a list of those people relocated to Cemeteries in Portland and in Middletown, Connecticut. " After the removal of remains by friends and descendants was completed, the remains of the following persons were removed by me to the land purchased by the First Ecclesiastical Society for that purpose." At the end of the document Mr. Sellew said " The Monuments which marked the graves in the old Burying Ground were in all instances reerected to mark the place of interment."

The two areas provided by the First Ecclesiastical Society are adjoining, as all of the numbered grave sites are found at the rear of the Trinity Church on the left of the road and towards the rear of the property.
The graves of the Stanclift family stand in the first row in front of the stone wall. There are many stones in that yard cut by the Stanclift Carvers.

8.This document preserved by Mr. Herbert M. Ellsworth of Portland, Connecticut, who gave a copy to the Portland Historical Society. Mr. Ellsworth's sister Mrs. Pat Csere, provided a copy of this document.

William cut the gravestones at Saggaponack, Long Island for Olive's father and for her sister Eunice, as well as many others. It was the custom in those days for artisans to travel to areas where their skills were in demand and to reside in that area for a matter of days or weeks to provide that community with the product produced by the artisan. For instance, Cordwainers or Shoemakers might travel to an area where no shoemaker lived and stay at various homes while he fashioned shoes for an entire family. So it was with Stonecutters. I believe William travelled to Saggaponack shortly after his marriage to Olive, taking with him a number of "blank" stones, both head stones and foot stones. Here over a period of time he cut stones for those families who had lost a loved one and had not yet obtained a stone for their grave. There are a large number of stones in the Saggaponack yard that are so similar that they seem to have been carved at the same time. The lettering is not quite as deep nor as precise as one would expect of William, but certainly his style. The fact that he was away from home and needed to finish his job before he could return home would account for the fact that the stones do not reflect all of the characteristics of William's work, he didn't have time to effect ornamentation. The stones for Perigrine and Eunice Stanbrough had significantly more impressive footstones than those for the others, for William had used as a footstone an additional large headstone to mark their graves.

Before the death of her first husband, Jonas Wright, Olive had a daughter, Eunice Wright, born Dec. 31, 1704. and probably named in memory of Eunice Stanbrough, sister of Olive, who had died in 1701. Eunice Wright, the step daughter of William Stanclift, is of particular interest since she had a daughter who married Comfort[3] Stanclift (James[2], James[1]). Her Uncle, Daniel Wright, was appointed her guardian, probably to manage her fiscal affairs as an heir of her father, Jonas Wright. In all likelihood Eunice lived in the household of William Stanclift. She married John Ranney.

William and Olive Stanclift had only one child, James Stancliff Jr. who was born when Olive was 42 years old. He was called Jr. because chronologically he was the younger James in the extended family, his Uncle James was Senior. Eunice Wright was aged 15 and James only aged 7 when their mother died. William married again in 1721 and by second wife, Esther $Adams_1$, of $Hartford_2$, had nine more children.

About 1736 William stopped cutting gravestones in Connecticut. He appeared in the Church records as having "confessed and was restored" in the years 1736 and 1737. By 1739 he had sold every parcel of his extensive land holdings and disappeared from all town vital records and land and property records. This was a man who never missed a religious meeting, as he confessed his sins and was restored to the church with great regularity. In 1741, with the baptism of his youngest known child, he disappeared from church records too. William, his wife Esther, sons Samuel, Olliver and Solomon, and daughter Jerusha all vanished from Middletown, CT Records. There are further records in Connecticut concerning sons James Jr, William Jr, Josiah and Joseph, and daughters Esther and Olive, but there is no hint as to the location of rest of this family.

Curiously, William Stanclift was buried in the Old Quarry Cemetery twenty years after the last known record of his life. He lies under a stone reminiscent of the early style of his nephew, James Stanclift 3rd, but engraved with unidentified lettering. The top of the tripartite stone is crumbled but it appears that there had been some sort of floral motif on the central arch. William Stanclift died January 26, 1761 and we know of his death only from that gravestone, there are no vital records, probate records, or church records to that effect in the Middletown area or in the Barbour Records which cover all of Connecticut. It is possible that if he lived elsewhere at the time of his death, he was returned to his old home for burial, or maybe he was visiting that old home at the time of his death.

The document describing the relocation of the Quarry Cemetery lists seventeen lots belonging to the Stanclift family, and between the graves of William and his first wife, Olive is Lot numbered 29 that contains three Stanclift children. The location suggests that these are children of William and perhaps one of the other unidentified graves is for Esther.

that portion of the estate. While the inventory amounted to over £177-00-00, William's enterprises were financially overextended and he was declared insolvent at the time his inventory was presented to the Court on June 2, 1747. There is no death record in Middletown or Glastonbury Vital Records and William is not found in any Cemetery records, leading to conjecture that he died in an area other than Middletown or Glastonbury. William Stanclift Jr owned real estate in both Middletown, CT and in Glastonbury, CT.

On Aug. 12, 1742 William purchased from Philip Judd for £350 a homelot with 2 Acres of land and a dwelling house and barn and bounded on land owned by John Bevin and located in East Middletown, CT_1, on this same date another $deed_2$ indicates that William secured a mortgage on the land in the amount of £300 from the same Philip Judd. A house with only two acres of land at this price must have been an imposing structure indeed. This land was not mentioned in the inventory and was probably reclaimed by Mr Judd, who held the mortgage and the deed upon the land. On Feb. 13, 1742 William purchased 1 rood of land in Glastonbury, plus house for £25-00-00 from Benjamin $Abbey_3$. The land was bounded on three sides by members of the Treat family. This property listed in inventory with value of £12-00-00, was sold by James Stanclift Jr on May 23 1755 to Peter Treat of Glastonbury for £18-00-00_4.

(4) JAMES[2] STANCLIFT (James[1])

Son of James and Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift born East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Mar. 24, 1691/2, baptized First Congregational Church Middletown, CT Mar. 4, 1694[7], died Chatham, CT Jan. 1, 1772[8], buried Old Quarry Cemetery, his stone, probably cut by his friend Thomas Johnson, is no longer standing[9]. He married Apr. 8, 1714[10] ABIGAIL BEVIN daughter of Arthur and Mary [____] Bevin and sister of Thomas Bevin. She was born while family lived Martha's Vineyard, MA Mar. 16, 1692[11], died Mar. 20, 1781[12], and while she was buried in the Old Quarry Cemetery near other members of her family, there was no stone recorded in 1876[13].

This man was referred to as "James Stanclift of Chatham" in some records[14], and after his father's death he also became James Stanclift Senior, and appeared as such in the records until his death.

If William Stanclift was flamboyant in his life style and gravestone work, his younger brother, James, seemed quite the opposite. James was a solid citizen, he did not sell his property, but dutifully gave to each son as he came of age a portion of quarry and land. He found no need to continually confess sins to the church, though he obviously was a member in high standing. He operated the quarry while his brother, William, seemed to conduct the collateral business of cutting gravestones. James was forced to take up gravestone carving after William stopped about 1736. His early stones were crude, but he developed his skills rapidly and by the end of the 1730's he was cutting accurate, neat, and functional stones. There was no experimentation with the design and ornamentation, that had occupied William. Perhaps James' maturity and an already established business precluded the time and desire for experimentation.

James and Abigail had ten children of whom five reached adulthood. The family stayed in East Middletown as it became Chatham in 1767, and some descendants remained in the area as it became Portland in 1841 and even to the present day. James died in 1772 leaving the stonecutting business in Chatham to his son James Stanclift 3rd, who after the departure of his cousin named James Stanclift Jr. about 1756, discarded the title 3rd and assumed the Jr. The only other living son, Comfort, was at that time living in the north western part of the state. The stone in the Old Quarry Cemetery for James Stanclift was probably cut by the third Thomas Johnson, a business partner and friend. The stone is certainly in the style attributed to Thomas Johnson III. The stone next to the James[2] Stanclift grave stone is a stone James[2] cut for his daughter, Sarah, and next to that is a small stone for James[2] son Benoni cut

CHILDREN: James and Abigail [Bevin] Stanclift[1]

+ 16 - 1. ABIGAIL STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT Dec. 1, 1715, baptized Dec. 4, 1715, married East Middletown, CT Jan. 26, 1743 JOHN CHILSON JR.

+ 17 - 2. MARY STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT Dec. 8, 1717, baptized Feb. 16, 1717/8, died Torrington, CT May 10, 1774, married New Hartford, CT Jan. 26, 1742/3 SAMUEL KELSEY.

18 - 3. MARTHA STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT Feb. 21, 1718/9, baptized Feb. 22, 1718/9[2], died Chatham, CT Sept. 8, 1788[3].

19 - 4. SARAH STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT June 17, 1721, baptized June 18, 1721[4], died July 12, 1748 Æ 27 buried Old Quarry Cemetery next to her father. Her stone is one of the finest examples of his work. The stone bears the inscription "You Are But Dust and Die You Must"

20 - 5. JAMES STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT July 27, 1723, baptized July 28, 1723[5], died Apr. 22, 1727 and the record states "he departed this life by a fall into a well and strangling"[6]. There is a footstone still standing in the Old Quarry Cemetery. It is a small stone carved by William Stanclift and bearing the initials J. S. on it. An old book containing inscriptions of those stones moved from the old Cemetery to the present site indicate that the headstone Number 228 was only a fragment, but contained enough of the date and age to determine that it was a stone for this child[7].

+ 21 - 6. SIBBELL STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT Mar. 7, 1724/5, baptized Mar. 7, 1725, died East Middletown, CT Feb. 16, 1755, married Middletown, CT Oct. 4, 1745 DANIEL CHILSON.

22 - 7. BENONY STANCLIFT born East Middletown, CT Feb. 20, 1726/7, baptized Feb. 28, 1726/7[8], died Mar. 5, 1726/7[9], buried Old Quarry Cemetery. The Frank Farnsworth Starr Ledgers indicate that the stone for Benony was standing in 1876 and the inscription read "LET US REMEMBER THIS PLEASANT FLOWER, WHICH WAS WELL AND GONE IN HALF AN HOUR" The church record of his baptism said he "was baptized in the home being dangerously ill"[10]. There is a notation in the official Relocation records that indicates the headstone [3] 229 was missing, but the footstone bearing Benony's name remained shortly after the 1876 date.

+ 23 - 8. JAMES STANCLIFT 3rd born East Middletown, CT Oct. 13, 1728[11], baptized same day[12], died Chatham, CT Sept. 6, 1789, married 1.East Middletown, CT Mar. 22,1749 HANNAH HILLS married 2.East Middletown, CT Dec. 24, 1754 SUSSANAH BUNCE.

NATHANIEL CHADWICK$_1$ son of Thomas and Sarah [Wolcott] Chadwick of Watertown, MA and Lyme, CT$_2$. Nathaniel died in Lyme, CT where his will written Oct. 4, 1759, was proved Nov. 2, 1759$_3$. He left Sarah 1/2 of his land and all of his moveable Estate, he left land in Lyme to son John, mentions daughters Sarah, widow of Hezekiah Smith, Martha widow of James Chadwick, Elizabeth wife of Benjamin Tinker indicating that upon the death of their mother, his moveable Estate is to be divided among them. He left a sum of money to sons Elijah and Elisha. Witnesses were Benjamin Rowland, Uriah Rowland and Joseph Wade$_4$.

The ancestors of Nathaniel Chadwick had probably come from Rochdale, Lancashire, England only 20 miles from the Stancliffs in the Shibden Valley of Halifax, North Yorkshire. Oliver Heywood, the noted nonconformist minister stated often in his diaries that he visited the Chadwick homestead in Rochdale, which suggests that like the Stancliffs, the Chadwicks were sympathetic to the Nonconformist cause.

(6) JAMES[3] STANCLIFT (William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Olive [Stanbrough] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Sept. 20, 1712_1, baptized Sept. 21, 1712_2, died South Britain, Southbury, Litchfield County$_3$, CT Dec. 27, 1785_4, buried South Britain Cemetery, Southbury, CT, married 1. Middletown, CT Dec. 22, 1737_5 MARTHA WOOD daughter of John and Lydia [_____] Wood born Wethersfield, Hartford County, CT Dec. 5, 1717, died Middletown, CT Sept. 23, 1750_6 as a result of childbirth, when daughter Patience was born, buried Old Quarry Cemetery. James married 2. Simsbury, Hartford County, CT Jan. 24, 1751 MARY LEWIS$_7$ daughter of Thomas and Mary [Rowley] Lewis born Colchester$_8$, New London County, CT Oct. 1728_9, died South Britain, Southbury, CT Dec.6, 1786_{10}.

While he lived in Middletown this man was referred to in records as James Stanclift Junior which was a chronological distinction, as his Uncle James, who also lived in the area was called James Senior. After he left the area he was known as James Stanclift Senior and his own son James assumed the Jr, while in Middletown the son of his uncle James, known in records as James 3rd, became James Jr.

James Stanclift Jr lived in East Middletown, CT until about 1756. At that time he moved to Simsbury, CT and probably lived in the western portion of that town, or the part of Simsbury known as Wintonbury. There is but one gravestone remaining in Middletown cut by this man just before he left, but he was extremely popular as a cutter after leaving the area. This suggests that James may have found too much competition from already established cutters in the Middletown area and moved on to a place where he could more profitably pursue his trade. Two of the daughters of James and Martha [Wood] Stanclift seem to have remained in the Middletown area when James moved his family to Simsbury, as they married in the East Haddam, CT area. Before moving to Middletown, the Wood family had lived in the Haddam area and it is possible the girls were visiting or living there with relatives. Martha and Rebecca were both termed as being "of Middletown" at the time of their marriages to East Haddam men.

The family lived in Simsbury, CT until about 1763 and the graveyards in Simsbury, Wintonbury and New Hartford contain many examples of this man's work. From the stones in this area it is possible to trace the development of James' style of carving. If his lettering never really became precise, nor his spelling accurate, the stones were wonderfully distinctive, imaginative and unique. He used a stylized death's head, wings and hands to decorate the central arch of his stones. He is probably the person who created the rare stone in the Simsbury Cemetery with a completely abstract design. The stone is decorated with multiple concentric arcs only. It was cut at a time when James was experimenting with the use of concentric arcs incorporated into his death's head designs.

In 1761 there was a disagreement among the men of Simsbury concerning the leadership of the Simsbury Train Band$_{11}$. A Train Band was the local Militia raised by each community for the protection of the Town. On Nov. 27, 1761 there was a vote among the members of the Simsbury forces to choose a Captain and other Officers of the 3rd Military Company of Simsbury. The method by which the new officers were chosen was widely challenged by the men of the Company and taken to the General Assembly of Connecticut for arbitration. James Stanclift was the first man to sign the petition, along with Jacob Davis, who married Elizabeth, the sister of Mary [Lewis] Stanclift. Capt. Abraham Pinney held the election at his dwelling. Descendants of Capt. Pinney at a later date, married in Erie County, PA, members of the Stanclift family.

In May 1763 the inhabitants of Windsor, Farmington and Simsbury united in presenting a Memorial$_{12}$ to the Connecticut Assembly protesting fishing by use of weires$_{13}$ across the mouth of the Windsor Ferry River$_{14}$, and thus preventing the fish from traveling up the river to these communities. James Stanclift was a signer from Simsbury$_{15}$.

The family moved once more to Woodbury, CT living in the Southbury area, more specifically in the area that became the South Britain Ecclesiastical Society. In this vicinity, there was a supply of fine quality red sandstone[1]. James continued to quarry and cut gravestones many of which are found in the Woodbury/Southbury area, Newtown, New Milford and a few in Oxford, CT. In an 1898 publication[2] it says "STANCLIFT. The house lately demolished at the foot of the hill south of Averill Canfield's was the residence of James Stanclift. He was a stonecutter by trade. He got the red sandstone from the quarries in this vicinity and wrought them into various building stone. The old gravestones of the same material was the work of his hands."

The records show that during the years before there was a church nearby, the family was obliged to attend church in Woodbury. As Highway 84 cuts through Connecticut today, it passes close to the South Britain area, and it is easy to imagine that they could not have traveled those primitive roads in the winter. The heavily wooded hills give the appearance of being something of a wilderness even today. Attendance at the church was mandatory and fines were frequently imposed upon those members of the Church who neglected this obligation. "Winter Privileges" were granted to excuse the inhabitants of the South Britain area from the long journey during those months in winter when travel was too arduous to be safe.

A "rate" or tax was paid by the members of an Ecclesiastical Society and the parent Society was generally disinclined to lose this revenue, so it sometimes became a bitter political battle to disengage from an existing Society and embark on the establishment of a new one. James Stancliff along with Ebenezer Downs Jr. and other residents of Southbury signed the Memorial sent to the Connecticut Assembly in 1764 asking that the community in which they lived be designated a separate Parish or Ecclesiastical Society and allowed to maintain a Church[3] in their own community. The petition or memorial was the subject of controversy and was resubmitted to the May 1765 session of the Connecticut Assembly[4]. James Stanclift signed both memorials. The Society was incorporated as South Britain in May 1766 and the first public worship was held at the house of Moses Downs, brother of Ebenezer, on June 5, 1766[5].

There were about forty five families in the new Society at it's inception. Though a few individuals are listed as members of the church before 1769, there are no birth, death or marriage records of this Society before this date and families frequently neglected the registration of these events in the town records. So it was with the Stanclift family. The Stanclifts were, however, some of the first to appear on the records of the new Society. Hannah Stanclift, daughter of James Stanclift was baptized in 1769 and on Dec. 17, 1770 James Stanclift was officially received into the new church by letter on recommendation from the Church at Simsbury[6]. Mary, wife of James joined the church on Apr. 10, 1772[7].

There are records of four of the sons of this family fighting in the Revolutionary War, only one of those four, James Stancliff, survived. The records of men from the Woodbury area who served in the War are incomplete and while Woodbury paid for the maintenance of some 1500 men, the records contain the names of only about 1000 men[8]. It is probable that at least one additional son also saw service in the Revolution. While Stanbrough P. Stancliff, young as he was at the time, carried wounds received in the conflict, his name does not appear on any list. Men between 16 years and 60 years old were expected to serve.

Three of the sons in this family belonged to Eleazar Mitchell's 12th Company of the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia from Southbury, CT subsequent to October 1774. The names of George, Thomas and James Jr. appear upon an unrecorded list handed down in the Mitchell Family[9]. It is probable that these men saw service in some of the early alarms of the Revolutionary War.

The three brothers marched off to war together in 1776. George, Thomas and James all Entered Service in New York on Aug. 15, 1776 in Captain Elijah Hinman's 6th Company, of the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia[10]. The members of the Company all entered Service on the same date and all were discharged a little more than two weeks later on Sept. 3, 1776. There were twenty four men in the Company including the Company officers. George Stanclift was the only man who was listed as having died in service during that tour of duty. He died "in New York Aug. 30th, 1776". Thomas Stanclift received wounds that resulted in his death soon after returning home. During the time of their enlistment the Battle of Brooklyn Heights took place on Aug. 27th and Washington's troops were ferried from Long Island to Manhattan all during the foggy night of Aug. 29th. It is likely that the brothers took part in those maneuvers. Two sons in this family had already died during this conflict when a fourth son, William, reached his sixteenth birthday and enlisted or was drafted on May 19, 1777. William's Company joined the American forces at Peekskill, NY where he was captured only weeks later. William died probably about December 1777 while still a prisoner of the British.

10.THE RECORD OF CONNECTICUT MEN IN THE MILITARY AND NAVAL SERVICE DURING THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION, Edited by Henry P. Johnston, A.M. Hartford: 1889, page 468.

In 1737 John Wood of Middletown, CT, had signed property in Middletown over to his daughter, Martha, and her husband James Stanclift Jr, which carried an entailment that stipulated that in the event his daughter's demise, the property in Middletown, CT would be used by James Stanclift but that ownership would pass only to the heirs of Martha, and only after the third generation including his own. In order to dispose of the property at a much later date, the heirs were required to state their relationship to John Wood and these land records provided information on the children of Martha [Wood] Stanclift.

James Stanclift's gravestone stands today in the South Britain Cemetery next to the stone he cut for his son, Thomas. The two stones look almost identical, there are only subtle differences. James Stanclift's son, who was called at this date James Stanclift Jr, had learned to cut stones in the exact style used by his father. He cut his father's stone in that style. James Jr, however, preferred an alternate spelling of the name and so while James Stanclift the senior had used the spelling Stanclift, his stone reads "In memory of Mr James Stancliff who Departed this Life December 27th AD 1785 in the 74th year of his age".

The descendants of James Stanclift stopped using the old spelling, Stanclift. James, Stanbrough and Lewis also used Stancliff while some of the descendants of George preferred Stancliffe. The remaining male members of this family all left Connecticut by 1800 or shortly thereafter, moving on to less settled areas.

CHILDREN: James and Martha [Wood] Stanclift[1]

to Rase the Just". Thomas married South Britain, CT July 20, 1775 MARTHA PRINDLE[1] daughter of Ephraim and Abigail [Stilson] Prindle born about 1752 probably in Newtown, CT. The marriage took place just before Thomas enlisted during the Revolution, the term of enlistment covered the time between July 13, 1775 and Dec. 20, 1775. He enlisted July 13, and married one week later, before his Company left Woodbury.

The Company, made up of men from the towns of Woodbury and Litchfield left the Parish of Bethlehem in the town of Woodbury on August 11, 1775. The 5th Company of Militia under command of Capt. Nathaniel Tuttle of South Britain marched to New London, CT to join the 7th Connecticut Regiment. While in New London the Regiment answered an alarm in Stonington, some ten miles to the east on Aug. 30, 1775. Stonington was being attacked by three British frigates under the command of Commodore James Wallace, Master of the "Rose", a Man of War of twenty guns. The City of Boston had been surrounded by Rebel troops and was under siege. In an effort to provide food for the beleaguered British forces, Wallace was raiding the coastal areas to steal livestock and provisions[2]. The Stonington patriots repulsed the British ships in their harbor.

The Connecticut Regiment left New London on September 19, 1775 heading for Boston. They marched through Providence, RI and arrived in Cambridge, MA site of Washington's camp on Oct. 1, 1775. From there they marched to the Fort located at Winter Hill[3] in Charlestown, MA. At this Fort they remained as part of, or near to, General Isreal Putnam's Connecticut detachment. The British "Regulars" had taken Bunker Hill in June, 1775. Jonathan Twiss, the drummer with this Regiment, told of sending a printed account of the battle home to his family, complete with pictures and verse. The British still occupied the town of Boston and the Rebel forces still surrounded the town of Boston through the extremely cold fall and winter of 1775. Jonathan told of guard duty, of minor skirmishes with the enemy, of watching sheep put ashore to feed the hungry British troops at Bunker Hill, of disputes among the sometimes bored soldiers, of two enemy soldiers deserting to the American side and being fired upon by their own men, and of building additional sod breastworks or fortifications. For the most part they waited and watched the British Regulars.

When Thomas returned to his home in the South Britain area of Woodbury, CT, he purchased on July 19, 1776 from George Bannister for the sum of £6-00-00, a house in Woodbury near the house of Elijah Hinman and located on the Highway[4]. Shortly after that time, Thomas once again enlisted in the service. This time he signed up in Elijah Hinman's Company made up of Woodbury men. Brothers George, and James were in the same Company[5]. They arrived in New York and there officially joined the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia on August 15, 1776. George died just two weeks later on August 30. The date of George's death suggests that they were engaged in the Battle of Brooklyn Heights on Aug. 27, 1776, and Washington's subsequent retreat to Manhattan Island during the night of Aug. 29, 1776. Thomas and James, along with the entire Company, were discharged a few days after that, on September 3, 1776. Thomas had been wounded[6] and while he was able to return to South Britain, he died there shortly after his return. Much of this was recorded in a Diary written by another soldier from Woodbury.

Martha was awarded "those things necessary to keep house". The house by the highway was valued then at only £3-10-00 and was probably sold to satisfy the creditors[1]. His widow, Martha [Prindle] Stanclift, married again Dec. 30, 1785[2] as 2nd wife, Eber/Ebenezer[5] Griswold (John[4], Benjamin[3], John[2], Edward[1]). Martha [Prindle] Stancliff Griswold died June 29, 1832 AE 76[3].

\+ 36-11. JAMES STANCLIFT JR born East Middletown, CT Sept 12, 1756, died after 1830 possibly in Erie County, PA, married East Haven, CT Mar. 27, 1777 MARY RUSSELL. Lived Scipio Cayuga County, NY.

37-12. SARAH STANCLIFT born Simsbury, CT May 3, 1759[4], married in South Britain, CT, Dec. 7, 1786 JONATHAN GRIFFEN[5] prob. son of Charles and Catherine [Wisebury] Griffen of Stratford, CT born Dec. 30, 1753. Jonathan was of Oxford, CT, said to have moved to Vermont and probably the same man found in the 1790 Census living Ballston Spa, Saratoga County, NY. A Jonathan Griffen's wife died in Oxford in 1789, and this may have been Sarah. Also living Ballston this date was a man named Alexander Stancliff.

38-13. WILLIAM STANCLIFT born Simsbury, CT April 4, 1761[6], died probably in Dec. 1777[7] while a prisoner of the British forces in New York. William enlisted or was drafted into the Army for a period of three years on May 19, 1777[8]. This was shortly after William's 16th birthday. He was inducted into the Service on May 23, 1777 by Lt Elihu Trowbridge acting for Captain Samuel Granger[9]. Capt. Granger's Company was part of the 2nd Connecticut Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. Charles Webb. The Regiment joined the forces of General Isreal Putnam at Peekskill, Westchester County, NY. General George Washington regarded Peekskill as a strategically important area. It was possible that the British forces to the south would attempt to join the forces of General Burgoyne advancing down the Hudson River from Canada. The encampment at Peekskill provided a natural position of advantage to forestall that eventuality and to provide access to the southern states. After General Benedict Arnold refused the post, the task of defending the Peekskill area fell to General Putnam[10] and his Connecticut troops. On June 30, 1777 William was taken prisoner by the British. The nature of the encounter is not specified, but at least 24 men from the 2nd Regiment were taken prisoner between June 30 and July 2, 1777. William was listed on the Company Muster Roll and the Company Pay Roll as "a prisoner in New York". The final Muster Roll was dated Dec. 24, 1777.

William's family had already lost sons, George and Thomas, and it must have been difficult to see such a young man march off to War. William died in the custody of the British. Other men in William's regiment died aboard a British prison ship, and perhaps this was the fate of William also. William's Letter of Administration filed Jan. 9, 1779[11] appointed Benjamin Spees and Capt. Elijah Hinman, both of Woodbury, as Executors[12]. Benjamin Spees was a Justice of the Peace in Southbury, CT, but he was also the Lieutenant in Elijah Hinman's 6th Company of the Thirteenth Regiment of Connecticut Militia in 1776. The only assets a sixteen year old boy would have had would have been the pay owed to him by the Army. Perhaps because of their familiarity with Army procedure, the former officers of the Woodbury Militia were asked to act as Administrators on William's estate.

\+ 39-14. STANBROUGH PERIGRINE STANCLIFT born Simsbury, CT Dec. 18, 1762, died McArthur, Elk Township, Athens County, OH July 1820, married Simsbury, CT at "Hopmeadow" by the Rev. Roger Viets May 5, 1784 his first cousin, SIBBELL DAVIS.

\+ 40-15. LEWIS STANCLIFT born about 1764 while family was living South Britain and early records between 1764 and 1769 do not exist. There is no absolute proof that this child belongs in this family, for as with sister, Olive, there is no birth record. The family of James Stanclift was the only family named Stancliff in this area. He was given the name Lewis, the maiden name of Mary [Lewis] Stanclift. For these reasons Lewis has been placed in this family. He married in the Oxford Society, a member of the same Griffen family as his sister, Sarah Stanclift.

12.LISTS AND RETURNS OF CONNECTICUT MEN IN THE REVOLUTION, Hartford 1909, page 107 indicates William was in Captain Elijah Hinman's Company of Col. Increase Moseley's Regiment of the 4th Brigade of Militia of the Connecticut Line. This is contradicted by other records which placed him in Granger's Company.

He married Oxford, CT Nov. 30, 1784 MABEL GRIFFEN.

It is also possible that this is the "Alexander Stancliff" in the 1790 Ballston, Albany County, NY census record, accompanied by a male child under 16 years of age. The name Alexander Stanclift has never appeared in any other known early records in America or in England.

41-16. OLIVE STANCLIFT born 1767 while family was living Southbury and early records do not exist, died Dec. 7, 1857[1] at Scipio, Cayuga County, NY, married probably in Scipio as second wife to WILLIAM BARBER who died Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY February 2, 1844[2]. Proof of her identity was established when she swore out a deposition on Feb. 11, 1837 for her sister, Mary [Stanclift] Scott, who had applied for a widow's pension based upon the service of husband, William Scott[3]. Olive attested to her relationship to sister, Mary [Stanclift] Scott and said she had been present at their marriage. While there are a number of Barber children in Scipio, NY identified as heirs of William, they were not the children of Olive. Olive may have gone to NY with her brother, James, and others from Southbury, and there met the widower, William Barber. Olive did not once mention any of the Barber children in her will written Feb. 5, 1852. She appointed Truman Wakely and John Anthony Jr as Executors, nephew John Scott of Pennsylvania was the main beneficiary, and her sister Hannah [Stanclift] Lewis of Connecticut was also named as an heir to her Estate. Her sister preceded her in death, leaving as her heir a son, Marcus Lewis of Norfolk, CT. John Scott was living 1858 in Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY. Olive's will was not proved until April of 1858 and her Real Estate including her dwelling house was sold at auction on Sept. 24, 1858. The land consisted of two parcels of land in Ledyard part of Lot 134 of the east Cayuga Reservation, one containing three acres and the other four acres. Olive must have been ailing during the last years of her life as there was an accounting of debts for nursing care for a three year period preceding her death.

(10) ESTHER[3] STANCLIFT (William[2], James[1])

Daughter of William and Esther [Adams] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Dec. 22, 1727[4], baptized East Middletown, CT Dec. 24, 1727[5], married East Middletown, CT July 4, 1749 AARON ROBARDS/ROBBERDS/ROBERTS[6]. In the first half of October 1762, this family lost three young children. The presence of another Aaron Roberds in the area has made identification of this man more difficult, but the other man seemed to be titled Dr. in most records.

CHILDREN: Aaron and Esther [Stanclift] Robards born Middletown[7]

(13) JOSIAH[3] STANCLIFT (William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Esther [Adams] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Oct. 6, 1734_1, baptized East Middletown, CT Oct. 20, 1734_2, died Halifax, Windham County, VT after Oct 13, 1797 when he transferred land to his sons.

While Josiah had a family, the name of his wife has never appeared in the records of CT or VT. He Lived in the eastern part of Windsor, CT in Ellington Parish, the area that became Ellington, CT and that Society "lost" all early records$_3$.

Josiah served Apr. 12, 1755 to Nov. 2, 1755 in Col. John Pitkin's Company of the First Connecticut Regiment, mobilized for the reduction of Crown Point during the French Indian War$_4$. He again served from Apr. 5, to Dec. 1, 1757 in Capt. Benjamin Allen's 5th Company of the 3rd Regiment of Connecticut troops. Though the Company marched from Hartford, it was made up predominantly of men from East Windsor. Josiah was asked to continue his service in a Capt. Stoughton's Company, but perhaps because the call came in August and at harvest time, some thirty men refused to join the Company. All were declared deserters$_5$. The troops in those days had a more relaxed attitude about obligation to the Military, and it was not uncommon for men to return home to harvest crops and rejoin their Companies at a later date. They were not disloyal, nor unaware of their obligation, but the crops represented survival not only for themselves, but for their entire family.

Josiah served again during the Revolutionary War. He was in Captain Simons' Company of Col. Erastus Wolcott's Connecticut State Regiment and served in the Boston area. After the battle of Lexington, in April 1775, there was an alarm called the "Lexington Alarm" on which more than fifty Connecticut towns sent companies of soldiers with all haste to the point of attack$_6$. Josiah was on the Lexington Alarm List. It is of interest that Corporal James Slade, Aaron Slade and Abner Slade were also in Capt. Simon's Company. Two of Josiah's children married members of the Slade family.

While Josiah lived in the East Windsor or Ellington area, things did not go well for him financially, and in 1766 he was forced into bankruptcy along with Jonathan Buckland and Nathaniel Davis. The newspaper accounts did not specify whether this was an action against three separate men or whether it was a suit against a partnership. On Feb. 9, 1767, his land was sold to satisfy his debts$_7$. By 1772 Josiah was again able to purchase property in East Windsor or Ellington, CT$_8$.

The births of two of the children of Josiah are registered in Windham County, VT Vital Records. The birthdates of his sons, Solomon and Eldah, appear in those records in conjunction with the registration of their own families and do not indicate that they were born in Vermont. Both Solomon born 1770 and Eldah born 1774, must have been born in the Ellington, CT area.

Josiah's purchase of land in Ellington Parish, Windsor, CT in 1772 indicates not only residence at that date, but intent to remain in that area. Josiah's military record indicates that in 1775 he was still a resident of CT. Sometime in the 1780s this family did move to Vermont.

Two of Josiah's children married children of James Slade in Ellington Parish. The two families probably traveled north to the emerging state of Vermont together. The Slade family and Josiah Stanclift's family moved to the area encompassed by the New Hampshire grants between 1780 and 1789$_9$. Both families seem to have first settled in Dover, Wardsboro Township, Windham County, VT. The town was organized 1786. While the initial grants or purchases for the Slade and Stanclift lands were not recorded in either the Wardsboro or the Dover Land records, individuals from both families subsequently sold land in that area. Jacob Slade sold land in Wardsboro to James Slade as early as Sept. 8, 1787_{10}, and Josiah Stanclift sold property in Dover, Wardsboro Township, VT to Benjamin Olds Jr of Marlboro on Jun. 10, 1789_{11}. At the time of the sale Josiah was already listed as being "of Halifax".

The first records of Halifax reflect the confusion about the changing jurisdiction over this part of the "New Hampshire Grants". The first Land Records in about 1776-78 called the area "Halifax, Cumberland County, Provence of New York". Shortly after that the records listed "Halifax, Cumberland County, New Hampshire" and still later deeds were written as "Halifax, Cumberland County, Vermont". Windham County, VT was officially created and taken from Bennington County, VT in 1781 and finally the land records said "Halifax, Windham County, VT". Josiah Stanclift settled in the North East corner of the Township of Halifax, Windham

9.Josiah in the 1800 Vermont Census living Halifax, Windham County, VT. He has household comprised of 1 male and 1 female age 45 and over, 1 male and 1 female age 16-25, 1 male and 3 females under age 10. The family of Eldah with wife and four children are probably included with Josiah and wife. Solomon and his family were a separate family and Solomon was a freeman in Halifax by 1790.

11.DOVER, WINDHAM COUNTY, VT L&P RECORDS, Vol. 1, page 164, sold 45 acres of land in Wardsboro.

County, VT. In April of 1791 Josiah made two land purchases. He bought 70 acres of land in the "Original Right of Land in Halifax"[1] located in Lot #46 south of the Green River and west of Samuel Thomas' "Griss Mill Pond" and shortly thereafter bought additional land in Lot #46 and Lot #47 located North of the Green River[2]. In October 1797 Josiah "in consideration of the love, good will and Natural affection" that he had for his sons and the payment of $100.00 each, conveyed to Solomon and Eldah Stanclift his land in Halifax Township[3]. Solomon received the land South West of the Green River and Eldah received the land on the North East side of the River. Josiah does not appear in the Land records after 1797.

Between 1790 and 1800 Josiah's son William and his daughter Olive with their Slade spouses had already left the Vermont area and moved to Massachusetts. His son, Joseph, probably never came to Vermont at all, and so Josiah Stanclift remained in Vermont and lived on the farm that he had established and turned over to his two youngest sons, Solomon and Eldah. The 1800 Census seems to suggest that his son, Eldah, and his children were living in Josiah's household at that date, there was also a female over the age of 45 suggesting that Josiah's wife was still living at this date.

CHILDREN: Josiah and _____ Stanclift. Because of lack of records there may be others in this family.

43-1. JOSEPH STANCLIFT born 1758. He was in Capt. Samuel Granger's Company of the 2nd Connecticut Regiment of Foot in the Spring and Summer of 1777. The Regiment at that time was part of General Isreal Putnam's forces at Peekskill, Westchester County, NY. The Connecticut Courant newspaper issue of Monday June 23, 1777[4] has the following notice "DESERTED from Captain Samuel Granger's Company, one Joseph Stancliff... Said Stancliff was drafted to service in the continental army until the first day of January next; he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, about 19 years of age, black hair, dark complexion; has on old black coat. Whoever will take up said deserter and return him to said Granger shall have five dollars reward and all necessary charges paid, by SAMUEL GRANGER, Capt." This may be the Joseph who lived Owingsville, Bath County, KY by 1820.

(15) JOSEPH[3] STANCLIFT (William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Esther [Adams] Stanclift born East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Sept. 25, 1739 baptized under name Josiah Oct. 21, 1739[6], married Suffield[7], Hartford County, CT PENNELOPE ALLEN[8] of Suffield, CT daughter of Moses and Hannah [Miller] Allen born Suffield, CT Apr. 9, 1742.

He enlisted Dec. 25, 1776 for a period of three months in Capt. Nathan Rowlee's Company of Lt. Col. Timothy Robinson's detachment of Hampshire County, Massachusetts Bay Militia and served until Apr. 3, 1777 at Fort Ticonderoga[9]. He was allowed 180 miles travel to his home.

When the property in the estate of Pennelope's father, Moses Allen, was distributed to his heirs on Feb. 25, 1769 Joseph and Pennelope were termed "formerly of Suffield" but did not mention their residence at that date. Moses Allen's home lot was located in the northern part of Suffield and was sold to Joseph Pease. On Jan. 25, 1786 Joseph Stanclift lost a court judgement to John French and was forced to relinquish property as payment for a debt[10]. Shortly after this time Joseph seems to have disappeared from the records of Suffield, he either left the area or died.

1.The original lots of Halifax were given by charter from New Hampshire in 1750. The town was six miles square and laid out in 64 Lots of 360 acres each. The township began settlement about 1760 and Town Meetings began in 1778.

Pennelope remained in Suffield. On April 18, 1792 Pennelope appeared in the records as "Parnell" Stanclift[1], and leased from Joseph Granger, for a period of thirty years, land located in the Northern portion of Suffield[2]. The land was adjacent to the home lots of Joseph Granger and Nathaniel Loomis. On Nov. 8, 1800[3] Pennelope Stanclift and daughter Lucy appeared in a Land record in which Elihu Kent won a judgement against them and claimed their house and property as payment for an outstanding debt. He was not without compassion, as he allowed the two women to remain in the house until the day after Christmas day, when the Sheriff evicted them. Joseph was not mentioned.

CHILDREN: Joseph and Pennelope [Allen] Stanclift[4]

\+ 48-1. MARY STANCLIFT born Suffield, Hartford County, CT Mar. 30, 1770, married Suffield, Hartford County, CT July 20, 1792 JOHN OLD.

on Aug. 5, 1754[1]. A number of children in the Kelsey families living in New Hartford died about 1749 and gravestones for these children and for some adults are located in the New Hartford Cemetery and were cut by Mary's father, James Stanclift of Middletown, CT. Perhaps the necessity of sending all the way to Middletown for gravestones, suggested to other Stanclift carvers the need for these skills in New Hartford. The earliest stones in the yard are cut by the three Stanclift carvers, James[2], James[3](son of William), and Comfort[3] Stanclift. These stones also represent the earliest examples of the work of James, son of William, and of Comfort Stanclift.

CHILDREN: Samuel and Mary [Stanclift] Kelsey

1. DANIEL KELSEY born New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Nov. 25, 1743, baptized there Nov. 27, 1743[2] died Feb. 6, 1749 and buried New Hartford Cemetery, stone cut by his grandfather, James Stanclift.
2. TIMOTHY KELSEY baptized New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Sept. 15, 1745. Lived Torrington, Litchfield County, CT in 1775 and served in the Revolutionary War in Capt. John Strong's Ninth Company, Seventeenth Regiment from Torrington, CT with brothers Daniel and Samuel, and in Capt. Griswold's Company in 1777.
3. LUCY KELSEY born New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT 1747 died Feb. 6, 1749 AE 2 years buried New Hartford Cemetery next to brother, Daniel, who died same day. Her stone cut by grandfather, James Stanclift.
4. DANIEL KELSEY second child in this family of this name baptized New Hartford Sept. 1751[3] died while serving with the Revolutionary Army in Canada in 1776.

   He was living New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT before 1775. Daniel purchased Comfort Stanclift Sr's land in Torrington, Litchfield County, CT on Dec. 5, 1775[4]. He served during the Revolutionary War in Capt. John Strong's Ninth Company, Seventeenth Regiment from Torrington, CT and New Hartford, CT. He participated in the Canadian Campaign, with his cousin John Stanclift, son of Comfort Sr and Margaret [Lee] Stanclift, who was with him in Canada when he died. John Stanclift informed the family of his death in a letter and sent Daniel's silver buttons home to the family in New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT[5].
5. LUCY KELSEY second child in this family of this name baptized New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Nov.5, 1749[6], probably married before 1775 LT SIMEON HULBERT[7] or HUBERT of Sandisfield, Berkshire County, MA a neighbor of her Uncle Stephen Kelsey. She was termed Lucy Hubert in 1775 Land Distribution Record, and signed receipt with that name in Berkshire County, MA in 1781.
6. SARAH KELSEY baptized New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Sept. 2, 1753[8], lived unmarried in Berkshire County, MA in 1781.
7. SAMUEL KELSEY born New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Mar. 30, 1756[9] baptized New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Apr. 4, 1756, married Torrington, Litchfield County, CT Oct. 25, 1774 BETTY HOLLISTER of Glastonbury, CT[10]. He lived Torrington, Litchfield County, CT in 1775, Berkshire County, MA in 1781 and by 1832 he lived in Sheldon, Erie County, NY at which time he gave a deposition for the pension application of his cousin, John Stanclift[11]. This same deposition outlined that part of the War he had spent in company with John Stanclift. He enlisted with John sometime in May 1775 in Connecticut Troops, in Capt. Griswold's Company of Colonel Hinman's Regiment, they marched first to Albany then to Crown Point and stayed there through the summer and in the fall went by water through Lake Champlain under command of General Schuyler to "Island Ore"[12], from there went under command of General Montgomery and took St. Johns after a siege of about six weeks..... It was John Stanclift who wrote a letter in 1776 to tell him of the death of his brother, Daniel, who was at that time serving with John in Canada.

(21) SIBBELL[3] STANCLIFT (James[2], James[1])

Daughter of James and Abigail [Bevin] Stanclift East Middletown, CT born Mar. 7, 1724/5[1] baptized Mar. 7, 1725[2], died Feb. 16, 1755, buried Old Quarry Cemetery next to son Samuel, her stone cut by her father[3]. She married Middletown, CT Oct. 4, 1745 DANIEL CHILSON[4] who was probably brother of John Chilson and son of John and Elizabeth [Jenks] Chilson of Lynn, Essex County, MA, Wallingford, New Haven County, CT and Middletown, CT.

After Sibbell's death, Daniel Chilson moved with his children to Woodbury, CT. He married again in Woodbury, CT on July 5, 1759 to Phebe Thomas[5] daughter of Ebenezer and Sarah [Mitchell[6]] Thomas of New Haven, CT and Woodbury, CT. They resided in Woodbury, and less than two years later Daniel died intestate before Dec. 2, 1760. His widow, Phebe, and his two children Daniel and Sibbell were specified in the distribution of his estate. He may have died during the French Indian War, as his inventory included "a Soldier Coat", and assets included "wages as a soldier in the year AD 1760 ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ £05-05-10". Stephen Curtis was appointed Administrator on the estate by the Probate Court at Woodbury. Final distribution made Nov. 3, 1861. The widow received ⅓ of the estate. Children, Daniel and Sibbell, received the remainder, with Daniel receiving the double portion of an eldest son[7].

19.HISTORY AND GENEALOGY of The GOV. JOHN WEBSTER FAMILY by William Holcum Webster and Rev. Melville Reuben Webster D. D., 1915, page 404-405. This genealogy identified the wife of Samuel Fox as Eunice Wright, daughter of Daniel Wright, and cited a second marriage to Comfort Stanclift and indicated Comfort died in Chatham leaving Eunice a widow. There was a death date of August 20, 1807 for Eunice. This book does not provide any sources or offers of proof to support these assertions.

Farnsworth Starr[1] based upon a Middletown land record abstracted by Mr. Star as follows "March 14, 1760 Eunice Fox widow of Glastonbury to Obadiah Allen of Midt[n] 155 a (acres) west 3 Mile Hill in Westermost range of land in Midt[n] land formerly sold by John Ranney & Eunice his wife before she was 21 years old"[2]. Three Mile Hill is located in Cromwell which was then called Middletown Upper Houses. Obadiah Allen was the son of Obadiah and Dorcas [Wright] Allen. Dorcas Wright was a sister of Jonas Wright. Eunice [Ranney] Fox Stanclift had three children before her marriage to Comfort. These children probably lived in Comfort's household while the family lived in Chatham, but seemed to remain in Glastonbury when Comfort's family moved from the Middletown area to Litchfield County, CT.

According to his grandson, David Stanclift of McKean, PA "In 1759 Comfort joined the Provisional Army in the Campaign against the French and was with the Army at the surrender of Louisburgh Cape Breton." Edwin Jesse Stanclift, a great grandson of Comfort also said that Comfort fought in the French Indian War and further stated that he had died defending his home from the Indians. The later statement proved to be inaccurate. While Comfort may well have been forced to defend his home from Indians, he did not die during such a venture.

As a very young man Comfort received from his father a portion of the Quarry and was a stone cutter. There was probably a great deal of competition in the gravestone business in Middletown, and Comfort sold his portion of the Quarry to another stone carver and a man who was both a friend and a neighbor of the family, Thomas Johnson. In 1769 Comfort took his family and moved to the north west portion of Connecticut, he settled at Torringford[3] Ecclesiastical Society in Litchfield County, CT. On Mar. 20, 1769 Comfort Stanclift of Chatham purchased 46 acres of land in the Parish of Torringford, Town of Torrington from Titus Hosmer of Middletown[4]. In 1775 Comfort sold this same land to, his nephew, Daniel Kelsey of Torrington[5]. This was the son of his sister, Mary [Stanclift] Kelsey, and her husband Samuel Kelsey. Samuel Kelsey was one of the witnesses on the deed. The only records that specifically identify Comfort as Senior or Junior are found in Torrington in 1777. The land that Comfort Stanclift Jr purchased in 1777 was sold by him the following year and he was thereafter merely called Comfort Stanclift of Torrington. The man in Winchester is positively identified as the son and is never referred to as Jr in those records, making it likely that Comfort Senior stayed in Torrington, while his sons moved to Winchester and Norfolk. There are stones in the Torrington, New Hartford and Winchester area that were carved in the style of Comfort and dated into the mid 1880s, and then the records of this man cease.

He is said in family records to have moved with his children, after the Revolutionary War, into New York State. From the following account written by David Stanclift of McKean, PA, it would seem that he may have lived with his son, Comfort, in Jefferson County, NY. His wife, Eunice, was also said to have died "in New York" but exact place and time not given. In his Memoirs David Stanclift, son of Lemuel, said "His son (Comfort Junior's son) Martin came to this region in 1810 with his wife and bringing with him Comfort Stanclift Senior then over eighty years of age. When Comfort came into my Father's house he said 'Lemme, I have come here to die with you.' and lived only ten days. The journey was too hard for him." Comfort Sr. was buried in the Stanclift family plot on Lemuel's farm[6], which later was the property of David. David also said his grandfather was a stone cutter and engraved tombstones, he mentioned his "Eastern Home" but did not say exactly where his grandfather had lived before the journey to McKean. Martin had lived Malta or Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY before travelling to McKean, Erie County, PA.

Son of James and Martha [Wood] Stanclift born East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Mar. 5, $1747/8_6$ baptized Apr. 24, 1748_7 East Middletown, CT died "in New York" Aug. 30, 1776_8, married East Haven, New Haven County, CT April 21, 1773 SARAH CHIDSEY$_9$ daughter of Samuel and Hannah [Grannis] Chidsey born East Haven, CT Dec. 1, 1747_{10}, died South Britain, Litchfield County, CT Oct. 21, 1800_{11}.

George moved with the family first from East Middletown, CT to Simsbury, Hartford County, CT in 1756, then to Southbury, CT in 1763.

George Stancliff along with his younger half brothers, Thomas and James, was a member of a South Britain Militia unit as early as 1774 serving in Capt. Eleazer Mitchell's 12th Company of the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia$_{12}$. Responding to an urgent plea from General George Washington to Governor Trumbull of Connecticut for assistance at the desperate campaign in New York, "all able bodied men between the ages of sixteen and fifty years" were mobilized in Woodbury, Litchfield County, CT on August 10 and 11, 1776. These men marched for New York on the 12th of August$_{13}$. George, James and Thomas Stancliff were in a Company commanded by Capt. Elijah Hinman of Southbury$_{14}$. They arrived in New York and there officially joined the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia on August 15, 1776. George died just two weeks later on August 30. His brothers were discharged a few days after that on September 3, 1776, but his brother Thomas was severely wounded and while he was able to return to South Britain, he died there shortly after his return. The date of George's death is consistent with the Battle of Brooklyn Heights, NY which took place Aug. 27, 1776 and the subsequent escape of the American Forces during the foggy night over the East River to Manhattan Island. This was the first defeat in General Washington's withdrawal from New York.

George's Probate Records show a long list of debts "by note and by book"$_{15}$. The estate was not sufficient to reimburse the creditors$_{16}$. There were several interesting items among his effects, a horse valued at £6-10-00, with a saddle valued at £2-05-00 and a gun at £1-15-00. George must have been a dashing figure, for his horse, tack and gun comprised almost one third of his total assets and the horse alone was valued at more than the house owned by brother, Thomas. There were also two pair of Gravestones included in the inventory, suggesting that George may have been a stone carver too. There was no mention in these Probate records of Real Estate, and Sarah purchased property the following year.

Administration was granted on his Estate in Woodbury, Litchfield County on Oct. 1, 1776. In addition, both George and Thomas, who did die 1776, are listed in same Militia Company. The date in the Archives records must have been taken from the Pay Abstract, which was often written at a later date, and is in error.

Sarah Stanclift "Y^e relict of George Stanclift" purchased from Jehu Minor Jr[1] on Mar. 14, 1777 land located in the Parish of South Britain "Near the Quarry" on the East side of the Highway containing about one acre for the sum of £4-00-00[2].

George's widow, Sarah [Chidsey] Stanclift married again. She married 2. Southbury, CT Nov. 17, 1782 Gideon Allen and had two more children in South Britain. They were, Sarah Ana Allen baptized May 2, 1784 and Edward Allen baptized Mar. 12, 1786.

Gideon Allen was given power of Attorney by Annis Stanclift and George Stanclift to sell their portion of the land inherited by entailment from John Woods. Accordingly, on Mar. 27, 1794 Gideon Allen of Southbury, Litchfield County, CT sold to Thomas Bliss of Chatham, Middlesex County, CT the land that had belonged to their great grandfather, John Wood. Gideon Allen appeared in Chatham to sign the document[3].

(36) JAMES[4] STANCLIFF (James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of James and Mary [Lewis] Stanclift born East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Sept 12, 1756_6, died after 1830 possibly in Washington Township, Erie County, PA$_7$, married East Haven, New Haven County, CT Mar. 27, 1777 MARY RUSSELL$_8$ daughter of Edward and Mary [Pardee] Russell born about 1760.

James was known as James Jr. while in the Southbury area, but after leaving Connecticut he dropped the Junior designation. He learned the trade of quarrying and gravestone carving from his father. After his father's death he continued to cut stones in the same style used by his father, while developing his own style of carving. The stones carved by both of these carvers are so similar that there are gravestones in the South Britain, Woodbury and Newton, CT areas that would be identified as stones cut by the elder James Stanclift, but the date of death on the stone is after the death of the elder James and therefore must be attributed to his son.

James' father had developed a unique style of gravestone. They were tall brownstones, some over four foot tall, with a winged death head at the top and vine-like decorations on each side border. The stone for the elder James Stanclift was cut by this man in this style in 1785. James at that date was already using the altered spelling of the name, although his father had used the spelling Stanclift all of his life, his gravestone reflects the preference of the younger James and is spelled Stancliff. David Stanclift son of Lemuel said in his manuscript that when James was asked why he spelled his name with a double F instead of FT he said "I saw a man by my name that spelled his name STANCLIFF, so I altered mine".

James was one of the three sons in this family who belonged to Eleazar Mitchell's 12th Company of the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia from Southbury, CT subsequent to October 1774. The names of James Jr, George and Thomas appear upon an unrecorded list handed down in the Mitchell Family[1]. It is probable that these men saw service in some of the early alarms of the Revolutionary War.

Of the three brothers who marched off together in 1776, only James survived. George, Thomas and James all Entered Service in New York on Aug. 15, 1776 in Captain Elijah Hinman's 6th Company, of the 13th Regiment of Connecticut Militia[2]. The members of the Company all entered Service on the same date and all were discharged a little more than two weeks later on Sept. 3, 1776. There were twenty four men in the Company including the Company officers. Brother, George Stanclift was the only man who was listed as having died in service during that tour of duty. He died "in New York" Aug. 30, 1776. Brother, Thomas Stanclift received wounds that resulted in his death soon after returning home. During the time of their enlistment the Battle of Brooklyn Heights took place on Aug. 27th and Washington's troops were ferried from Long Island to Manhattan all during the foggy night of Aug. 29th. It is likely that the brothers took part in those maneuvers. Brother, William joined the service as soon as he turned age 16 and died while a prisoner of the British forces.

James purchased land on Nov. 22, 1779 from Asa Hinman for the sum of £5-10-00 located Parish of South Britain containing about one half acre of land bounded by Zachariah How's property and Asa Hinman's own land and situated on the Highway[3]. He sold this same property on Mar. 27, 1782 to Eleazer Knowles, land described as being North side of the Highway, South side of the River and East of Hollowswamp[4] Brook.

James was voted "to be a chorister" in the South Britain Church in 1780.[5] He was living in Southbury in the 1790 Census and was listed: 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, and 3 females. He moved to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY by 1798 when he is listed as a Scipio Town Assessor. He was an Election Official in 1804 and a Deacon of the Scipio Baptist Church in Scipioville by 1816.

In the 1800 Census, Mercy Stancliff over 45 was alone living or visiting in Southbury. Immediately after being counted, she must have moved to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY as she seems to be included in the Census records of her husband James in that place too. James Stancliff was living 1800[6] in Scipio between Reuben Downs and John Boughton, both of whom had also come to the area from South Britain and were related to the family. According to the 1800 and 1810 census records there was a daughter born between 1790 and 1800 who is not yet identified. The 1820 and 1830 Census records indicate that both James and Mary were still in Scipio.

James lived on a tract of land that he had purchased from the State of New York before 1810[7] that was located in Lot #122 of the Eastern Cayuga Reservation. "The People of New York" held a mortgage on that land. He owned another portion of Lot #122 with brother-in-law, William Barber. They sold some of the property to Uriah Benedict in 1810 before Uriah Benedict left Stamford, CT. This land, and/or a portion of land that had belonged to Reuben Downs, was ultimately conveyed to Uriah Benedict in 1825 and James' wife, Mary Stancliff also listed as a grantor at that time.

Shortly after 1830 Deacon James Stancliff, "a Baptist Minister" travelled to Washington Township, Erie County Pennsylvania to be with his son Russell Stancliff[8] and probably died there shortly after that time.

(39) STANBROUGH PERIGRINE[4] STANCLIFF (James[3], William[2], James[1])

[1]Son of James and Mary [Lewis] Stanclift born Simsbury, Hartford County, CT Dec. 18, 1762[2], died McArthur, Athens County, OH, now Vinton County, sometime between March and July 1820[3], married Simsbury, Hartford County, CT at "Hopmeadow" by the Rev. Roger Viets May 5, 1784[4] his cousin SIBBEL DAVIS daughter of Jacob Junior and Elizabeth [Lewis] Davis born Simsbury, Hartford County, CT Aug. 16, 1765[5], died probably in Athens County, Ohio after July 1819[6].

He was named after his great grandfather, Perigrine Stanbrough of Saggaponack, Long Island, NY, and that name has helped to identify him in many records. There were not two men of this name. In the Biography written by Perry Stancliff a grandson of Stanbrough, Perry says that Stanbrough served in the Revolutionary War and was with General George Washington at Valley Forge. He also said that Stanbrough was wounded and partially crippled as a result[7].

The next chronological record found for this family was in The St Johnsville Dutch Reform Church in Palatine, Montgomery County, NY, late in the year 1792. Four children were baptized in Dec. of that year which suggests that shortly after their marriage this couple had moved to an area without a church.

After the Revolutionary War Ontario or Upper Canada was very sparsely settled. There were many more settlers in the province of Quebec or Lower Canada and the strong French influence made the predominantly British population of Ontario uneasy. The leaders of the newly emerging province felt an intense and immediate need to open the vast wilderness and establish communities within their boundaries. Towards this end they decided to extend a welcome to the Americans, but not without grave reservations on the part of many in the Government. The revolution against the crown was fresh in everyone's memory. Gen. Anthony Wayne had repeatedly threatened the border. Indeed Ira Allen, brother of Ethan Allen, had let it be known that Vermont alone was willing to undertake the conquest of Canada. Even more unsettling, it seemed that the French were ready to join the conspiracy. There was a problem acquiring enough suitable settlers to the area as the British Empire had years earlier developed a society comprised of people with special skills. There were candle makers, farmers, weavers, butchers and other specialists, but Canada needed settlers who possessed in some degree all of these skills, and so she turned to the American frontiersmen.

The Indians of Canada, with different concepts of territorial rights and borders than the white man, engaged in skirmishes with the Americans along the border and demanded support from the government of Upper Canada. Is it any wonder that many in Canada questioned the wisdom of allowing these Americans to come to their new land, and yet here was a unique group of people, possessing the experience and many skills needed to turn the wilderness into a productive community. While the eastern and the western parts of Ontario were settled first, it was now left to these pioneers to move into the area along the north shore of Lake Ontario. Stanbrough Perigrine Stancliff settled at Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada in 1797.

The government of Ontario determined to grant the land and not sell it, in order to retain control over the settlement procedure. Hamilton Township was an "Associated Township". It was settled by a group of persons or associates who petitioned the Council of Upper Canada for that privilege.

In their haste to see the New Province of Upper Canada settled, the Council of that Province allowed whole townships to be petitioned by small groups, usually four in number. These associates agreed to pay all fees attendant to the grant and surveys thereof, to find and bring to the area able and loyal men of good character, and to promote the settlement and improvement of the township. The associates were never given title or warrants to the land, that was granted directly to the settler by the Crown usually after the fact of his settlement. How the associates located the settlers and induced them to settle the township was up to the associates, some even promised livestock and provisions to get the pioneer family through the first difficult months.

Family history states that David Stancliff, son of Stanbrough was born 1795 "near Niagara Falls". It is very probable that the family had left Palatine, NY and were traveling to Canada to make a home. The seat of the Ontario Government was at that time located at Niagara and there were tent cities near the area, as prospective settlers waited for the land to be surveyed and the promised acres granted to each family.

On Sept. 1, 1797 Stanbrough P. Stancliff received confirmation of a 200 acre grant of land from the Crown[8]. The land was the 14th Lot in the 1st Concession, broken front[9]. in Hamilton Township, Northumberland County. On the map today this land is located in the South East corner of the present town of Cobourg, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada, a delightful resort town on Lake Ontario. Stanbrough was one of the seven original landholders of land that now comprises the Town of Cobourg[1]. In 1797 there were no roads leading into this wilderness on the north shore of Lake Ontario, the only access was by boat. In that year Stanbrough Stancliff and his family began the arduous task of clearing the land and establishing a home. The area was isolated and primitive, and in order to have grain ground and obtain provisions, it was necessary to travel by boat all the way to Kingston, Ontario, Canada. By 1799 Stanbrough had cleared three or four acres of land[2], this was still short of the requirement to build a house and clear five acres. Stanbrough evidently satisfied the conditions of the grant and the land was signed over to him from the Crown on May 17, 1802[3].

The first Hamilton Township meeting was held in 1802 and the census was taken every year beginning in 1804. Stanbrough appears in those census records 1804 through 1808. From 1805 through 1808 the name of his son, Thomas, who had reached the age of an adult male also appears on the census.

There were rumblings of conflict between America and The British Empire and the American Colonists living in Canada grew uneasy. The June 27, 1807 "Chesapeake Affair" had a tremendous impact on American settlers in Canada[4]. The American Frigate Chesapeake was surprised, attacked, and boarded by the British man-o-war H.M.S. Leopard off the Virginia capes. The U.S.S. Chesapeake's Captain, James Lawrence[5] was killed, and several of the American crewmen were taken aboard the British Ship and hung. The British officers claimed that the sailors were subjects of the King "once a subject, always a subject". The incident was spoken of as "the first shot of the second Revolution", and another war with England seemed inevitable.

Coincidentally on the same date that the Chesapeake incident occurred, June 27, 1807, Stanbrough wrote a deed for the sale of one half of his two hundred acres of land for the sum of £100-00-00[6]. On July 14, 1807 Stanbrough P. Stancliff sold the remaining 100 acres of his land, again for the sum of £100-00-00[7]. The family appears in the March 1808 Census, but since no Stancliff appears in the March 1809 Census, they probably left Canada between those dates.

At the time of the official outbreak of the War of 1812 Stanbrough Perigrine Stancliff had already abandoned his home on the north shore of Lake Ontario in Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada. He is quoted as saying "I fought to free this country, and will not stay in Canada and fight against it."[8]

By 1813 he was established in a frontier area of Ohio, in Athens County. In May of that year he served as an election official, in Elk Township then Athens County and now Vinton County, for the election of a Representative to Congress[9]. It is of particular interest that he chose to locate in this area. The son of a quarryman and a stonemason, he grew up in Southbury, Connecticut on a homestead that had a quarry on the premises, where his father and at least two older brothers quarried stone for the gravestones and other stone work that comprised the family business. It is safe to assume that Stanbrough P. Stancliff was an experienced stone worker.

On Nov. 25, 1815 the town now known as McArthur was surveyed and platted. This location for the town was chosen because the trails from the Burr-stone quarries intersected here. One of the early settlers wrote a diary describing life at McArthurtown in the very early days, she wrote in part-

> "When we first came here there were perhaps fifty families in and around this settlement, most of them quarrying and making millstones. There were no persons making a business of farming. All had their patches of garden, but making millstones was the principal business....Trading was done principally at Chillicothe. There was no store closer than Chillicothe or Athens....I was not used to backwood's life, and the howling of the wolves, with nothing but a suspended bed-quilt for a door, coupled with the other discomforts of border life, made me wish many a time that I was back at my good old home.... On the 14th day of January, 1815, the chimney was built; my husband had got some plank and a sash, and made the door and the window. The hinges and latches were of wood. Our cabin was the only one in the whole country around that had a glass window...."[10].

An 1815 Court case placed a value of two hundred dollars on a pair of these burr-stone mill wheels. That is a handsome sum when the price of a town lot in the new town of McArthur at this same time was only fifty dollars. The erection of a mill to grind grain and corn, was generally one of the first needs of a new community. This was the frontier and the demand for pairs of these stones was steady. The quarry business flourished, and "McArthurtown" came into existence. Stanbrough P. Stancliff purchased three of the original 112 inlots[1], lots #41, #42, and #87, in the emerging town. In 1815, he built the first house in McArthur.

Perry Stancliff, grandson of this man, said that Stanbrough was the first Justice of the Peace in the town and because he was a cripple as a result of wounds received in the War of the Revolution, he spent many years as a school teacher.

The early records of the township no longer exist and there is no way to know if he truly was the first Justice of the Peace, but he was elected to that office by May 26, 1817. At that time he posted a performance bond with the Elk township Trustees, Jacob Hawk, Moses Dawson and Robert Palmer. Signing that bond with him were Joel Sage proprietor of the local Tavern, and John Phillips, owner of the local store. The witnesses to that bond were sons-in-law Daniel Duhadway and Elijah Gillet Throckmorton[2].

There is some conflict on the extent of Stanbrough's handicap. This man had cleared land in compliance with the homestead act in Canada, at a time when his sons were still very young. He arrived in Elk township before the time when the pioneers who settled there were seeking a school teacher, and he built the first house, all indications of a vigorous man. Perry says "he was wounded in the leg" and he no doubt did walk with a limp, but he seemed to lead an active life. A second conflict is the name that appears in the early histories of the area, "Among the first teachers was J. Stanclift, who was a man of more than ordinary ability for his day"[3], and another account which says " Phillips and Wimser about the year 1817 opened a store on the lot now owned by Dr. A. Wolf.[4] At that period James Stancliff, the first Justice of the Peace, started the first School"[5] and "A Mr. Stanclift, a teacher of reputed ability, taught in a hut on a lot where Dr. Wolfe later built his residence"[6]. It is believed that the name James and the spelling of the surname with an "ft" was an error in the earliest printed History and quoted by subsequent histories, and that Perry, the grandson of this man, was correct in identifying the teacher and Justice of the Peace as Stanbrough Perigrine Stancliff. Stanbrough's family members are the only individuals named Stancliff in Ohio records at this date.

Perry Stancliff said that Stanbrough was a preacher for the Methodist-Episcopal Church, but not a Circuit Rider. The records of the Methodist Church[7] covering the Ohio Conference[8] revealed only one Methodist Preacher named Stancliff. This was Russel Stancliff, son of Stanbrough's brother James, who lived in Washington Township, Erie County, Pa. and never appeared in the records as living elsewhere. There was a Methodist Episcopal Church organized in McArthur in 1814, meeting at the various homes of the members until the church building was erected 1818 to 1820. It is probable that given the frontier nature of the community in the early days, that members of the church acted as lay leaders at those meetings when an ordained preacher was not available. Under those conditions Stanbrough Stancliff probably did preach from time to time. Unfortunately no records from this church can be found extant today.

The frequency with which Stanbrough Stancliff appears in the Athens County records indicates that to spite his wounds, he was able to make the 20 mile trip from McArthur to Athens without a great deal of trouble. He was on the grand Jury many times and in 1818 he was elected as one of the three Commissioners of Athens County, which necessitated his presence in the town of Athens for several days during each of the four Court terms or sessions, held each year. He acted as inspector of the road to Galliopolis in 1818. He was paid by the County for cut stone in 1819, during the period that materials were being acquired for the building of the new Court house[9]. He must have been a fairly robust man at this time for on March 3, 1820 he, along with nine other persons, including his son, David, was indicted for engaging in a breach of peace against the State of Ohio, an affray involving fisticuffs. Stanbrough P. Stancliff died between March 1820 and July 1820. The Court case against him was dismissed for this reason. David Stancliff and most of the others pleaded guilty and sustained a fine[10]. One of those indicted was Thomas Wren, proprietor of the local tavern, allowing for some interesting speculation on the nature of the "affray". The legal definition of affray, as it was termed in the indictment, is "a fight or riot in a public place"[11], or a Brawl!. A private fight is not so termed.

On July 4, 1820 during the July Court term and the day after David was fined for the fight, David Stancliff was appointed by the Court to be Administrator on the Estate of Stanbrough P. Stancliff, deceased: Noah Miles and Thomas Miles his sureties to give bonds in the sum of $100.00. David Doughty, Daniel Rowell[12], and James Lucky were appointed appraisers[13]. That very same day David Stancliff obtained a License to marry Amy Miles, daughter of Noah and sister of Thomas Miles.

13. Daniel Rowell David Dotty, James Lucky and Noah Miles were all in Lee Twp. Athens Co. along with David Stancliff in 1820 census.

The appraisal of the estate of Stanbrough P. Stancliff was recorded on October 24, 1820[1]. While the results of the sale are recorded[2], there was no date given. Those who purchased items were Isaac Hawley and Daniel Duhadway, sons-in-law of Stanbrough Stancliff; David B. Stancliff, his son; Noah Wilcox, married to sister of David's wife Amy, who purchased a pair of spectacles; Noah Miles, Amy's father who purchased Cooper's tools and Daniel Rowell, who purchased household goods along with the family members. The papers filed in File Box 173 at the Athens County Probate Court, were in a protective envelope and on the outside it says " Stambrough Stancliff decd. John Winters or John Minton Adm. Jan 21/1826". If the name is Winters then this is a son-in-law. There was no explanation as to why David was no longer listed as administrator or why the date 1826 was on the file. There did not seem to be a "return to Court" record during the January Court term.

Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff was not mentioned in any of these papers as the widow. The only date on which her name appeared at all in Athens County Records was when she was paid for being a witness at the July 1818 Session of the Athens County Court of Common Pleas.

By tracing the three inlots at McArthur purchased by Stanbrough P. Stancliff we found that at the time of his death the property had already passed into other hands. In 1839 in a Court Action brought by Samuel K. Wills and designed to clear the title upon those lots, the living children and heirs of Stanbrough P. Stancliff were named and the heirs of Stanbrough's deceased children were also provided[3].

The first four children of this couple were all baptized the same date in St Johnsville, Montgomery County, New York. The birth dates were part of the baptism records and not listed under births. This suggests that Stanbrough and Sibyl had lived in an area that did not have a church or minister available during those years between their marriage in 1784 and 1792. Perhaps during this time they were in Ballston Spa, Albany County, NY with others from both of their families. At that time of the baptisms Stanbrough and Sibyl were "of Palatine", a nearby town[4]. While living in Canada, the family appeared in the Hamilton Township Census taken each year 1804 through 1808. These census records counted both males and females below the age of 16 and from 16 to 60. Males over 16 listed by name. These records combined with the U.S. Federal Census records allow for an analysis of the children in this family and an estimate of their birth year.

They were living in Hocking County, OH in 1839 and both Isaac and Hannah signed the subpena demanding their presence in Court at that time. Isaac was one of those who purchased items from Stanbrough Stancliff's estate sale. See Appendix A: HAWLEY II

Ledger book written in many different hands, some more legible than others. The absence of any other record containing that name in Jackson County and the ease with which one could mistake the cursive letters "an" for "ou" points to Ann Grout being Ann Grant. There are many records for the Winters family in Jackson County and they are the same family found in McArthur, Vinton County, OH. The information at this time, however, is confusing and contradictory. Part of the land belonging to Elijah Throckmorton was by 1876 property of J. Winters[1].

See Appendix A: DAVIS

(40) LEWIS[4] STANCLIFT (James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of James and Mary [Lewis] Stanclift born probably after his parents left Simsbury, CT 1763 and while family was living South Britain, Southbury, CT, which was at that time was in Litchfield County and is now New Haven County, married Oxford, CT Nov. 30, 1784 MABEL GRIFFEN of the Oxford Ecclesiastical Society[2].

Early records of the South Britain, Southbury, CT do not exist[3]. There is no record specifically stating that Lewis belongs in this family, as with other children of this family born in South Britain, there is no birth record.

While there is less substantiation than would be desired on the identification of these two men named Lewis, they are being placed here on the following evidence. The relationship between the two men named Lewis is expressed with a ?.

1. Without exception, every other individual named Stanclift found in the South Britain, Southbury, Woodbury or Oxford records can be proved to be part of the family of James[3] Stanclift (William[2], James[1])
2. He was given the name "Lewis", which is the maiden name of Mary [Lewis] Stanclift.
3. His sister, Sarah Stanclift, married Jonathan Griffen "of Oxford" part of the Griffen family in the Oxford Ecclesiastical Society.
4. There was no further mention of Lewis in Connecticut Records. After the death of their parents in 1785, all of the young men in the South Britain Stanclift family disappeared from Connecticut records and moved into various parts New York State.
5. There is a Jonathan Griffen in the Ballston Spa, Albany (later Saratoga) County, NY Census of 1790
6. There is in the same Ballston Spa 1790 Census an "Alexander" Stanclift. He had with him a male child under age 16. The name Alexander has never been found in the research of the Stanclift family in this country or in England, and is possibly a middle name or even an error. The name Alexander never again appears in that area or any other area, and is still a mystery.
7. Subsequently the family of a man named Lewis M. Stanclift was found in the records of Ballston, Saratoga County, NY.
8. Members of the Ballston, Saratoga County, NY Stanclift family moved to Goshen, Elkhart County, IN. Members of the Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Stanclift family had settled in Goshen, IN at an earlier date. The Scipio individuals were part of the family of James Stanclift of the South Britain, CT Stanclift family, and a brother of the first Lewis Stanclift.

CHILDREN: Lewis and Mabel [Griffen] Stanclift, relationship not proven and list probably incomplete-

Hannah's second husband, Ezekiel Lewis saw extensive service in the Army during the Revolution, but even though he was an officer and had an illustrious career, his widow, Hannah [Stancliff] Booth Lewis, applied for and received in 1849 a "widow's pension" by virtue of her first marriage by which she had no children.

(44) OLIVE[4] STANCLIFT (Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Josiah and ____ Stanclift born while family lived Ellington Parish, Windsor, Hartford County, CT 1759, died Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT Apr. 26, 1825, buried Center Cemetery, Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT, married Ellington, Tolland County, CT ABNER SLADE son of James and Experience [Parker] Slade born Ellington, CT May 5, 1756, died Jan. 8, 1846, buried Center Cemetery, Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT[3].

Abner saw extensive service during the Revolutionary War, and was on the Lexington Alarm List 1775 from East Windsor along with brothers Daniel and Aaron. He was in Capt Simmons Company of Connecticut troops with brother, Aaron Slade, and father-in-law Josiah Stanclift. He again enlisted at Ellington, CT in 1777 and served three years attaining the rank of Sergeant, being discharged at Morristown, Morris County, NJ. For this service he received a Pension.

They moved, after the Revolution, to Wardsboro Township, Dover, Windham County, VT, and were accompanied to VT by both of their parents and families. Olive's brother, William, married Abner's sister Mary. The two families owned land adjacent to one another in Dover. The land was bounded on the South by the Wilmington Town Line. Abner Slade sold his property in Dover in a deed dated Nov. 6, 1789 and recorded Oct, 11, 1790[4] and William Stanclift sold his 75 acre property on Feb. 17, 1790[5]. Shortly after the sale of their Vermont property, the two families moved to Hampshire County, MA.

In 1790 Abner and Olive Slade moved to Blanford, Hampshire County, MA, and Olive's brother, William Stanclift, lived a few miles away at Russell, Hampshire County, MA.

In 1796 they moved back to Connecticut and settled permanently in Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT[6]. After Olive's death Abner married 2. Sept. 26, 1925 Clarissa [Newell] Frazier Flowers or Silco[7] widow of Daniel Frasier born Southington, Hartford County, CT 1776, died Feb. 9, 1851[8] and also buried Center Cemetery.

CHILDREN: Abner and Olive [Stanclift] Slade[9]

1. LYMAN SLADE born VT Aug. 29, 1787 or 1778[10], married 1. SALLY FRENCH born 1790 daughter of John and Abigail B. [Gage] French born New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Nov. 19, 1789, died Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT Jan. 7, 1825 Æ 35, married 2. POLLY BARBER daughter of Capt. Seth and Dorcas Barber born June 17, 1797[11]. They had one child, Sarah Jane Slade. In 1860 census records he lived next door to brother, Abner Jr. in the part of Barkhamsted serviced by Hickockville P.O.
2. LOIS SLADE born Apr. 6, 1783, died Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT Dec. 1875, buried with her husband at the Riverside Cemetery commonly known as Pleasant Valley Cemetery, Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT, married at Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT Dec. 5, 1805[12] HAWKINS HART JR. born Jan. 28, 1781, died Oct. 8, 1836, buried next to his wife[13]. She was married in what was probably a double ceremony with sister Fanny.

(45) WILLIAM[4] STANCLIFT (Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Josiah and ____ Stanclift born Aug. 17, 1762_5 while family lived Ellington Parish, Windsor, CT, died Russia, Herkimer County, NY Nov. 19, 1837 Æ 75 years 3 months and 2 days, buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY, married MARY SLADE daughter of James and Experience [Parker] Slade born Ellington Parish, Windsor, CT Apr. 21, 1761_6, died Russia, Herkimer County, NY Jan. 17, 1836 Æ 74 $years_7$, buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY.

William and Mary left Ellington Parish, Windsor, CT and moved to Dover, Windham County, VT after the Revolutionary War. They accompanied both sets of parents and other members of the Stanclift and the Slade families. While in Dover William was elected "Collector" at the first Dover Town Meeting in the Wardsborough South District held at the dwelling house of James Slade, his father-in-law, on March 10, 1789_8. While William's initial acquisition of land was not recorded in either the Wardsboro or the Dover Land Records, William did own land in that area. His land bounded on that of his brother-in-law Abner Slade. William's father, Josiah, and brothers Eldah and Solomon all lived nearby in Halifax Township, Windham County, VT, but William remained in the Dover area with the Slade family.

A few months after Abner Slade sold his land in Dover, Wardsboro Township, Windham County, VT, William sold his land too. On Feb. 17, 1790 William sold for the sum of £60-00-00 a 75 acre parcel of land in Wardsboro bordering South on the Wilmington Town $line_9$. About this time William and Mary [Slade] Stanclift and Abner and Olive [Stanclift] Slade took their families and moved to Massachsetts. Abner settled in Blanford, Hampshire County, MA and William settled about 4 miles away in Russell, Hampshire County, MA. While Abner then moved to CT about 1796, William remained in MA until at least 1800_{10}. William and his family may have briefly joined Abner and Olive [Stanclift] Slade in Barkhamsted, Litchfield County, CT, but by 1810_{11} they lived Russia, Herkimer County, NY where William purchased farm land and was surrounded by his sons and $families_{12}$.

William attended the meeting held Nov. 12, 1818 to build a meeting-house in Russia, NY that would result in the Russia Union $Church_{13}$, which served diverse Religious denominations. The Russia Religious Corporation was formed and sold shares in the corporation to finance the construction of the Meeting House. William subscribed to 14 shares, in the amount of $147.00, and that amount was only exceeded by one other parishioner. Pews were sold in the completed meeting-house to members of the Corporation on May 24, 1820, and William "Standclift" assumed a debt of $158.91 for that purpose, but to purchase interest in a pew there were many members willing to pay a greater fee than William. He and son, Ransom, were listed as belonging to the Baptist Denomination. After Ransom's death, his wife, Olive, continued to be active in the Baptist Church.

On Sept. 5, 1830 William "Sternclift" for the sum of $100.00 purchased part of Lot #87 in the 3rd allotment of Royal Grant, land in Town of Russia, from Samuel Shove and wife, Orilla, of Russia, Herkimer County, NY, the property was bounded on land of Thankful Carpenter[1].

William was enumerated in 1810[2] with six young males and four young females. By 1820[3] sons Danforth and Ransom had homes of their own nearby and William and Mary had only one male and one female left at home. In 1830[4] they still lived near their sons and families and they had a girl between ages 5 and 10 years living with them, who was perhaps a granddaughter.

Son of Josiah and ____ Stanclift born Jan. 10, 1770[10], while family lived Ellington Parish, East Windsor, Hartford County, CT[11], died Windham County, VT after 1850, married ABIGAIL THOMAS daughter of Nathan and Hepzibah [Farr] Thomas born March 14, 1768[12]. Abigail probably died before 1850. Solomon and his brother, Eldah were both born before their parents moved to Vermont. The births of both Solomon and brother Eldah, along with birthdates of their wives, are registered in Windham County, VT Vital Records as heads of their respective families in the method of record entry employed by the early Halifax Town clerk. The birth dates and sometimes the birth places of parents were cited before a list of the children born in Halifax. So the fact that the birth of Solomon is recorded in the Halifax records does not mean he was born in that town.

Solomon was the only man named Stanclift listed as a "freeman" of the Town of Halifax in the first volume of Town Records[1]. The undated list of Freemen contained 136 names, but it was entered immediately following a Land transaction dated 1790. The number of men on the list suggests that it was probably compiled about 1790. The first Town Meeting was held in 1778. It is not likely that the first town meeting would have had that number of voting men in the town. After the list, the town meeting minutes followed commencing in the year 1778. Solomon would have been only eight years old at that date and could not possibly have been counted with the "freemen" in 1778 but he could have been a freeman in 1790.

At the beginning of Halifax Vital Records Volume 2A, there were several pages citing certificate of membership in the Baptist Church of Guilford, Windham County, VT. On page 9 is the following " Halifax June 12, 1792 these may Certify whom it may concern that Solomon Stanclift of Halifax is of the Baptist Sentiment and attends the Worship of God in that Order at Guilford June 3rd AD 1792, Peleg Hicks Pastor" The membership in an Ecclesiastical Society or church in another Township or area affected an individual's status in relation to the "rate" owed to the local Ecclesiastical Society, the Congregational Church, and town government in which he lived. It was for this reason that the declarations of church membership warranted inclusion in the Halifax Town Records. Many of Solomon's neighbors and related families such as the Gores and the Slades also belonged to the Baptist Church of Guilford, Windham County, VT. Certificates for these people also appeared in the Halifax Town Records.

Both Solomon and brother, Eldah, signed a petition in 1807 to establish a new school in District #11 of Halifax[2].

Solomon served the town in the capacity of "Surveyor of Roads or Highways" in several different years. He was listed in Town records as one of the surveyors in 1800, 1814 and in 1827.

Solomon's father, Josiah Stanclift, conveyed to his two youngest sons, Solomon and Eldah, his lands on the Green River in the North East part of Halifax Township in 1797[3]. That land was identified as being in Lot #46 and Lot #47. On Apr. 7, 1806 Solomon and Eldah Stanclift together purchased an additional tract of land near their farms and located in Lot #47[4]. Solomon eventually sold his part of this land to Eldah in 1818[5]. Other land records suggest that the brothers lived near a bridge that crossed the Green River which must have made it much more convenient for the brothers to own land on the opposite banks of that river. The land records make it clear that the brothers were neighbors of the Thomas, Wilcox, and Gore families.

In 1800 Solomon was the head of a household that seems to represent he and Abigail aged 26-45 and their two eldest sons who were under the age of 10 years[6]. By 1810 Solomon's brother, Eldah, was living near him and now there were three young males and three young females in the family[7]. In 1820 Solomon was the head of a family which included an additional couple over the age of 45 years. In 1810 an older couple, probably Josiah and wife, had lived with brother Eldah's family and this suggests that their parents now lived with Solomon's family. In this year Solomon had five young males and two young females in the family[8]. In 1830 Solomon Jr and his family lived near them and the makeup of Solomon's household suggests that besides son William, one of their children along with a spouse remained on the family farm[9]. By 1840 there were still two males living with Solomon and Abigail[10]. By 1850 Abigail was no longer with the family and Solomon and william had a 70 year old woman named Mary Cameron keeping house for the two men[11]. The census records seem to indicate more children for this family than were recorded in Halifax Vital Records.

(47) ELDAH[4] STANCLIFT (Josiah[3],William[2],James[1])

Son of Josiah and _____ Stanclift was born Jan. 22, 1774, while his parents lived in Ellington Parish, East Windsor, Hartford County, CT. Eldah died in Iowa at age 79 or in 1853, married 1. LYDIA ELLSWORTH born Feb. 1, 1776. Eldah married 2. Halifax, Windham County, VT by Darius Bullock JP and Town Clerk April 9, 1818 AMY GORE[1] daughter of Amos and Lydia [Carpenter] Gore, born about 1783, died about 1857 at home of her son, Chester Haven Stanclift, in Iowa.

Eldah and Lydia's birthdate and that of his brother, Solomon, was registered in the Halifax, Windham County, VT Vital Records because the recording clerk of those records chose to include birthdates and in some cases birthplace of parents on the page that listed the births of their own children in Halifax.

Family tradition says that Eldah had 13 children by first wife and 5 by his second wife. Some of the children then, are missing or died too young to be recorded. The gaps in our knowledge about both Solomon and Eldah may be because both men lived for a time in an area under Massachusetts jurisdiction just south of the present Vermont border[2].

In 1810 Eldah seemed to have his parents in his household as there was one male and one female over the age of 45. There were at that date seven children, three females born 1794-1800, one female born 1800-1810 and three males born 1800-1810[3]. In 1830 he still had in his household two male children born 1820-1825[4].

Eldah, in addition to his brother, Solomon, was a member of the "2nd Baptist Church of Guilford" as of May 3, 1800[5]. The Gore family also belonged to that church.

Eldah's father, Josiah Stanclift, conveyed to his two youngest sons, Solomon and Eldah, his lands on the Green River in the North East part of Halifax Township in 1797[6]. That land was identified as being in Lot #46 and Lot #47. On Apr. 7, 1806 Solomon and Eldah Stanclift together purchased an additional tract of land near their farms and located in Lot #47[7]. Solomon eventually sold his part of this land to Eldah in 1818[8]. Other land records suggest that the brothers shared ownership of land and lived near a bridge that crossed the Green River, which must have made it much more convenient for the brothers to own land on the opposite banks of that river.

Both Eldah and brother, Solomon, signed a petition in 1807 to establish a new school in District #11 of Halifax[9].

In 1814 Eldah's daughter, Eunice, married John Bolster and two years later, on Nov. 23, 1816 John put up his farm and other pieces of land as security in return for Eldah signing promissory notes with John Bolster in the amount of $760.00 payable to John's creditors[10]. John Bolster was evidently unable to pay his portion of the debt and the land became the property of Eldah.

In 1818 Eldah's father in law, Amos Gore, had made a contract with his sons, Ebenezer and John Gore in which they promised to care for their parents and provide legacies for their younger siblings in return for the 225 acre family farm located in Halifax in Lot #48. In that same year John Gore married Eldah's daughter, Anna Stanclift. Things did not seem to work out to the satisfaction of Amos Gore, who discharged the agreement with his sons in 1821, and made the same agreement with Eldah Stanclift. After less than a years time Amos discharged the agreement with Eldah too. The obligation for the care of Amos and Lydia Gore eventually went to their youngest son, Samuel Gore, as did ownership of the family farm. It may be that members of Amos' family were making preparations to leave the Halifax area and begin their migration west.

2.In a letter written by Evelyn Stanley of Gilroy, CA, there is a mention of a deposition in which Eldah Jr. says he was born in Colrain, MA and Sophronia his wife says she was born in Leyden, MA (both just south of the Vermont border) which is in conflict with Windham County, VT Vital Records and CT records. Research done by Bill and Della [Stancliff] Berry, confirms the Colrain, Franklin Co. MA reference.

(64) COMFORT[4] STANCLIFT JR (Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

[1]Son of Comfort and Margaret [Lee] Stanclift born East Middletown, Middlesex County, CT Nov. 21, 1752_2, baptized Dec. 31, 1752_3, died McKean, Erie County, PA Jan. 5, 1841_4, buried in brother Lemuel's Family Cemetery on the farm, but may have been moved to Valley Cemetery. There is a stone for him in the Valley Cemetery, Section 3, McKean, Erie County, PA_5.3 He married 1. Winchester, Litchfield County, CT Wednesday, May 17, 1775_6 HANNAH BALCOM one of twin girls born to Elias and Phebe [Foster] Balcom in Mansfield, Windham County, CT Jan. 13_7, 1756, died while the family lived Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY in 1812 in her 56th year, married 2. probably in Jefferson County, NY on Nov. 24, 1812 the widow JUNE STARNS who died Nov. 26, 1827_8.

Comfort was sixteen years of age in 1768 when the family moved from East Middletown, Middlesex County, CT to the Ecclesiastical $Society_9$ of Torringford, Litchfield County, CT. Along with his younger brother, John, Comfort was a Private in Capt. John Strong's Second Company of the Torrington Train Band, a town Militia. On June 24, 1775 Comfort and John each appeared on the payroll for 12 half days pay for service in the Train Band, records submitted by Zachariah Mather, Company $Clerk_{10}$.

Comfort and brother, John, spent seven months in 1775 together in Captain Shubael Griswold's Company, Colonel Benjamin Hinman's Fourth Regiment of Connecticut Continental Troops. They enlisted at Torrington, Litchfield County, CT on May 1, 1775 shortly after the Battle of Lexington. The unit marched to Albany, Lake George, Fort Ticonderoga, and Crown Point, NY. At Crown Point, in the fall of the year, they took "water conveyance" and went North the entire length of Lake Champlain and up the Richelieu River to a point about 10 miles South of Montreal, Canada. Their objective was the Fort at "St. Jean Sur Richelieu" called by the British and the Americans Fort St. John. They laid siege to the Fort and after some forty six days it surrendered. The prisoners were then taken back to Litchfield County, CT and quartered with the residents. John and Comfort returned to Fort Ticonderoga with the prisoners, and there they were discharged in December 1775. He and John returned home to Torrington, CT together, Comfort's statement in his pension application indicates that they did not arrive in Torrington until January of 1776.

The following June Comfort again enlisted in Captain Nathaniel Goodwin's Company, Colonel Ebenezer Gay's Regiment, Second Battalion of Connecticut Troops under command of Colonel Charles Webb. Comfort's unit was marched to New York. He was present during the retreat from Long Island and was on "York Island" or Manhattan Island when the British landed "near Turtle Bay" on Manhattan opposite the South end of what is now Roosevelt Island, at that time they were forced to march to the Northern end of Manhattan and cross Kings Bridge into what is now the Bronx. They continued north to "American Winter Quarters at North Castle" about two miles North of White $Plains_{11}$. Here Comfort was dismissed at the end of his enlistment in December 1776.

In August or September 1777 Comfort volunteered for two months in "the taking of Burgoyne". He was in Colonel Andrew Adams' Regiment of Connecticut Volunteers in an Army commanded by General Gates. They marched to Saratoga and were successful as Burgoyne surrendered on Oct. 17 1777. David Stanclift of McKean, Erie County, PA wrote that Comfort "...was with General Stark at Saratoga when General Burgoyne was taken in the engagement. Comfort was standing in the front rank and a tall man behind him in the rear; a bullet grazed the top of his head and butted (killed) the man in the rear."

Perhaps aided by the bounty money they received for their military service both Comfort and John purchased land in the Torrington, Litchfield County, CT area in 1777.

Comfort served additional time in service as substitute for brother, John, in 1780. He received a Pension for his Revolutionary War service.

The first land record for Comfort was dated Mar. 11, 1777. In this record Comfort Stanclift Junior of Torrington purchased Cemetery records indicate that the body was "reinterred Oct. 1939 in Valley Cemetery Veteran's Plot" There are white marble stones in this Cemetery for the three Stanclift brothers who served in the Revolutionary War. The stones are representative of the type erected by the Government for Veterans. Lemuel is known to be buried in the Private Cemetery on his farm, and Samuel died in Indiana.

from Elijah Gaylord for the sum of £14-00-00 fifteen acres of land in the second division of Torrington[1]. He built a house on the property and sold it the following year at a substantial profit. On Mar. 27, 1778 Comfort Stanclift of Torrington, no longer referred to as Jr in this document, for £55-00-00 sold the property and house to Daniel Crosman of Oblong, NY[2]. and at this time Comfort and family moved to Winchester, CT.

Comfort and Hannah had a child baptized at the First Congregational Church of Winsted, Litchfield County, CT in 1778. In 1783 Comfort was listed on the Tax assessment list of the Winsted Society[3] along with his brother, Samuel, who soon moved on to Norfolk, Litchfield County, CT. Perhaps because Comfort spent so much time in the service during the Revolutionary War, he did not purchase land in Winchester, Litchfield County, CT until 1786. On Jun. 1, 1786 Comfort purchased land in Lot 76 of the third division of Winchester from Josiah Smith[4]. This farm was known as the Andrew Pratt farm, 1 mile north of the Naugatuck Depot[5]. He expanded his land holdings on Aug 23, 1791 when he purchased an additional 87 acres of land in Lot 77, third division of Winchester located on the eastern side of Long Pond, now Highland Lake[6] and almost immediately sold 2/3 of that purchase to Michael Grinnel, who was married to Hannah's cousin Sussannah [Balcom] Grinnel. He sold the remainder of lot 77 to Michael Grinnell in Sept. 29, 1792[7].

On Oct. 24, 1792 Elias Balcom of Norfolk, Litchfield County, CT for the sum of £100-00-00 turned over all of his real estate holdings in Norfolk, CT, his saw mill and moveable goods including livestock and furnishings, and all of his debts, to his son in law, Comfort Stanclift of Winchester. Elias and his wife and son Joseph Balcom were then to be guaranteed care for the remainder of their lives. The following day Comfort sold part of his homelot, Lot number 76, in Winchester to his brother, Samuel, and the remainder of his homelot to Martin Hurlburt[8]. Samuel had previously been living on land he had purchased from Elias Balcom, that was part of the original homelot of Elias Balcom. There is no record of Samuel selling this property, which leads to speculation that the land was again included in the Balcom holdings and Comfort turned over this land in Winchester in exchange. The brothers exchanged their place of residence and Comfort moved to Norfolk while Samuel moved to Winchester. Two months later, on Dec. 24, 1792 Comfort purchased from his brother in law, Elias Cabot Balcom, an additional four acres adjoining his new property[9], and the following month on Jan. 3, 1793 he purchased yet more land in the third division of Norfolk from Joshua Moses[10], who was married to his wife's sister, Elizabeth Balcom.

On May 2, 1794 John Beach of Norfolk for consideration of "me here unto moving" or a gift with no money involved, granted to Comfort Stanclift 21 acres of land[11]. A little over two weeks later, on May 19, 1794 Comfort "gave" this same land to Nathan Lee of Norfolk in consideration of "the good will and affection I have for Nathan Lee"[12]. The land was identified as part of the Elias Balcom land, formerly owned by Edmond Brown, and deeded to Comfort by Elias Balcom and John Beach, and the language used usually indicates a relationship or an inheritance of some sort. Nathan Lee was the only male Lee listed in the Vital Records of Norfolk, he married Aug. 19, 1773 Sibbil Dudley[13]. They had children born in Norfolk between 1775 and 1794. Nathan Lee sold what seem to be this same piece of land "east of Esq. Edmond Brown's farm" to Joshua Moses, and moved to Vermont[14].

On Oct. 26, 1796 Comfort Stanclift now residing in Sangerfield, Herkimer County, NY, represented by Attorney August Pettibone of Norfolk, Ct, sold for the sum of $183.00, the remainder of the Balcom land in Norfolk, 40 acres of land "lying in partnership with the heirs of Amos Wilcox, late of Simsbury" to Dolphin Freedom of Norfolk. The sale of the land to a man named Dolphin seems to clarify an entry in the book on Connecticut Place names which lists "Balcom Pond or Dolphin Pond" in Norfolk and contains the following quote "It was a rural Balcom in Winc. who tried to stop Ethan Allen from travelling on Sunday, who said: 'You damned woodchuck, get back into your burrow or I'll cut your head off' Balcum a common family name in Norfolk.[15]"

Comfort appears in the 1796 Sangerfield, Herkimer County, NY Tax Assessment[16] with Samuel Stanclift, Giles Mix and Solomon Williams. His brother, John, was at this time living on Coxes Patent not far away and brother, Lemuel, was living even closer in Hamilton, Madison County, NY. By 1800 brother in law Daniel Grover would also move to Sangerfield. While the other members of his family remained in Sangerfield according to the 1800 Census, Comfort did not. He left Whitestown, NY in the winter of 1799 with his wife and three children and in company with his half brother, Lemuel Stanclift and his family, he travelled to what is now McKean Township, Erie County, PA[1]. Both Lemuel and Comfort are found in the Holland Land Company's Provision Books in 1799[2]. While Lemuel took up a homestead in that place, Comfort did not seem to stay more than a year or so. Comfort appears in the McKean, Erie County, PA Census records of 1800 with three sons and one daughter. Because the early records of this area were destroyed in a Court House fire, it is not possible to tell whether Comfort too sought a homestead at this time or purchased land.

He once more moved between 1800 and 1803, this time he retraced his steps and went back to New York State. He was listed as one of the first settlers of Malta, Jefferson County, NY in 1803. He stayed in Malta, now named Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY for the next thirty years before finally rejoining the family in Erie County, PA. There are sparse Records of the Malta First Baptist Church and Comfort appeared as he was appointed to a committee on Nov. 7, 1807, he was excused (from membership) on Jan. 16, 1819. There was no specification that this was Comfort Junior or Senior. The only other Stancliff mentioned is Thomas Stancliff in 1827 and 1830. There was, however, a record of that church for Anna Balcom in 1807. This was Anna [Burr] Balcom, wife of Dr. Isaac Balcom. They had lived next to the Elias Balcom farm in Norfolk, Litchfield County, CT. Isaac was probably a brother of Comfort's wife, Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift.

Hannah died in 1812 and Comfort remarried that same year.

On Oct. 23, 1813 Comfort Stanclift of Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY purchased for the sum of $15.00 from Elijah Fox Junior and wife Sally Fox, of the same place, a parcel of land containing one and one-half acres located in Lot # 55 in the town of Lorraine, on Little Gulf Creek at the State Road[3] Crossing[4].

On Nov. 10, 1813 Comfort Stanclift of Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY purchased for the sum of $5.00 one-fourth acre of land adjoining the previous purchase, from the Estate of William Constable of New York City, represented by executor Hezekiah Beers Pierpoint[5].

On Sept. 18, 1824 Comfort Stancliff of Lorraine, Jefferson County, NY again purchased from the Estate of William Constable for the sum of $97.75, a parcel of land containing 23.34 acres of land, located in Lot #45 on the State Road[6].
There were no records of Comfort disposing of any of these parcels of land.

Comfort's son, Martin, "moved to Erie County, PA in 1810 with his wife, and bringing with him Comfort Stanclift Senior"[7]. Comfort Stanclift Jr probably left Jefferson County, NY after his second wife died in 1827, and joined his family in Erie County, PA by 1832. On September 21, 1832 Comfort appeared before the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Erie County, PA where he declared he was a resident of McKean, Erie County, PA, and made application for a pension based upon his service during the Revolutionary War[8]. He appeared in the 1840 Census Records, living in the household of his son, Martin, and listed specifically by name and age in the column that enumerates Revolutionary War Pensioners. Both Lemuel Stancliff age 75 and Comfort Stanclift age 88 were listed[9].

There are no Civil Records of births, deaths, or marriages for the early days of Jefferson County, NY. We know of the death of Comfort's son, Thomas Stanclift, as a young man, but there is little knowledge of the rest of this family while in Jefferson County, NY.

The two sons named David and Ansel are placed with this family for the following reasons-

1. Comfort Stanclift's family was the only Stanclift family in Jefferson County before 1850, he is proven to be in the area by 1803 and lived there at least until 1820 and probably until about 1829. Caroline Matilda Stewart's family proven to be in area by 1811 and remained there, so it is reasonable to believe Caroline Matilda Stewart was married in 1818 and again in 1821 in Jefferson County to members of Comfort Stanclift's family.
2. It was a custom of the time, and Comfort had previously followed that custom, of naming a child after one that had died, i.e. Thomas born 1777 and Thomas born 1781. Considering the high mortality rate in multiple births in those days, it is probable that the twins named David and Jonathan died at birth or at a young age, allowing for another child born 1798 to be named David. Only one male child was listed in the 1800 Census records as being aged 10-16, and Martin was then aged 15 and is known to have survived. The twins would have been aged 11 and do not appear in the census.
3. There are no civil records of children born while the family lived Sangerfield, Herkimer County, NY or in Jefferson County, NY. The only children known were recorded in Connecticut Records. There were no doubt children

15.John Stanclift's Bible gives a death date and age that agree with the Oct. 9 birthdate.

John was fourteen years old when his family moved from Middletown to the Ecclesiastical Society of Torringford, Litchfield County, CT in 1768[1]. When he came of age, he was a Private in Capt John Strong's Second Company of the Torrington Train Band, a town Militia. On June 24, 1775 John and Comfort each appeared on the payroll for 12 days pay for service in the Train Band, records submitted by Zachariah Mather, Company Clerk[2].

John saw service in the Revolutionary War. When applying for his pension, John's deposition dated September 20, 1832 at Erie County, NY states that John and brother, Comfort, spent seven months in 1775 together in Capt Griswold's Company of Connecticut troops at Albany, Lake George, Fort Ticonderoga, and Crown Point, NY. He and Comfort returned home to Torrington, CT together. John next spent time in Canada in 1776 during the American occupation of portions of Quebec. This account of his service was supported by a deposition given by brother, Comfort Stanclift, then of Erie County, PA. John's pension application was also accompanied by a deposition given by his cousin, Samuel Kelsey, living Sheldon, Erie County, NY on August 18, 1832. Samuel and his brother Timothy Kelsey had served in the same unit with John and Comfort on the campaign to take the Fort near Montreal, Canada. Samuel also attested to John's later service in the Campaign in Canada for a year in 1776 and that it was John who notified Samuel of the death of his brother, Daniel Kelsey, during that Campaign and sent Daniel's silver buttons home to his family[3]. John reenlisted 1777 and served at the Battle of Germantown. David Stanclift, son of Lemuel told that John and Samuel were together at Germantown and that when the Americans were forced to retreat, the two of them escaped through a cornfield and "the man that was between them was cut in two with a field piece ball". John spent time in the winter quarters at Valley Forge, PA, being discharged from that place Jan. 9, 1778. David Miller Stanclift a great grandson of John said that John was with General George Washington when he crossed the Delaware River to surprise the Hessians at the Battle of Trenton, NJ and was at the Battle of Yorktown, VA. John again enlisted in the Connecticut Line in 1780 but his brother, Comfort, served four months of that enlistment and another substitute satisfied the remaining obligation.[4]

In 1777 both John and his brother Comfort purchased land in the Torrington, Litchfield County, CT area. On April 16, 1777 John purchased for £50 from Uriah Seymore 40 acres of land located in the second tier on the east side of town.[5] The following July he added another 6 acres that adjoined his land.[6] Then in what sounds like an exchange of land, on Feb. 25, 1778 John purchased from Asa Foot for £220 two parcels of land, one parcel contained a dwelling house[7], and only a few days later John sold to the same Asa Foot for £200 the two pieces of property that he had originally purchased in 1777[8].

John had married and owned land in Torrington by 1778 and was declared a freeman of the town of Torrington the following year, in 1779. It is not surprising that he did not wish to engage in further Army service in 1780 when his brother served for him. The records indicate that he enlisted in 1780, but he may not have had a choice.

In 1782 John sold a portion of his property in Torrington to his brother, Samuel, who sold it again the following year, and at that date Joseph Harris, father or brother of John's wife Sarah was a witness to the deed. In March of 1788 John divested himself of all of his remaining real estate in Torrington[9], his brother Lemuel sold his only parcel of land in Torrington the following month, and it seems that at this time John and his family, accompanied by his brother Lemuel, headed into New York State. John and Lemuel would be joined in New York at a later date by Comfort and Samuel and at least three married sisters and their families.

On July 18, 1791 John Stanclift, Ashabel Beach, Hezekiah Price, and Nathan Kelsey (Senior) all of Whitestown, Herkimer County, NY purchased from John Redman of Philadelphia, 279 acres of land described as lot 17 in the 7th division of Coxes Patent in the towns of Coxborough, Oneida County, NY and Carolana, Oneida County, NY.[10] John was termed "a shoemaker" in the Deeds concerning this land. In 1794 the four men who purchased the land legally divided up the property[11] among themselves, establishing boundaries for each man's land. The land was located near New Hartford, Oneida County, NY, and John joined the "First Religious Society" in that area on Oct. 27, 1791.[12] Sons Willard and Jesse were baptized there March 18, 1792.

Accompanied by his brother, Samuel, John and family moved to Canada about 1796-99 and were said to have held land for a man named Smith "somewhere near Toronto". If the quote was from a document or letter written by brother Lemuel,[13] then we must question the name Toronto. The town known today as Toronto, Ontario Province, Canada was called York until 1834, but the area known by the Indians as Ganaraski or now Port Hope, Durham County, Ontario was at that date called Toronto. No record of John, Lemuel or Samuel has yet been found in Canada, but there are records of four of John's children, all found near the Kingston, Ontario, Canada area.

John returned to the United States sometime during the War of 1812. According to a family story handed down in several branches of the Stancliff family, the sons of John were in danger of being drafted into the Canadian Army. The stories vary in detail but there can be no doubt that "the Flight from Canada" did occur. The following are three versions of the story-

Helen Maria[6] [Stanclift] McCann (John Jr[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

In a letter written 1908 to Ray McCann. Great Great Grandpa in this account was John[4] Stanclift son of Comfort, and Great Grandpa was Helen's father, John Stanclift Jr[5], from whom she probably heard this story many times.

"I will have to begin way back with your great great grandpa Stanclift. He was born 1754 in the Colony of Connecticut and served all through the Revolutionary War.... After the war they moved to Canada and lived there until the War of 1812, when his three sons, one your Great grandpa and his 2 brothers were pressed into the English Army and rather than fight their own country they decided to desert and cross lake Erie on the ice and started out one dark night and the next morning there were three men brought back or dragged back with ropes around their necks and scalped and their father thought sure it was his boys and went to see them but it was someone elses boys as soon as they were missed they were pretty sure they had deserted and a crowd gathered and among them the General mounted on his fine horse with his sword and pistols - everything complete and he said to a man standing near 'Here take my horse, overtake them and bring them back or shoot them' and he rode for dear life and when he overtook them he pulled off his cap and cheered. He said 'Come my boys' and they were soon safe on the American side where they were warmly welcomed by the American soldiers. It was a daring undertaking and a narrow escape."

David Miller[7] Stanclift (Joseph Garrett[6], Thomas[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

David's Grandfather Stancliffe was Thomas[5] Stancliff, son of John. David, of Wamic, OR, wrote about this incident more than once. the first account was found in a letter written 1941 to Mrs. Emma [Stancliff] Ingram of Caldwell, NJ. This is the only time Thomas was said to have been actually drafted into British Army.

"My father's ancestor moved to Canada and owned a store in Kingston and as I remember Father related that at the breaking out of the War of 1812, one of his sons, a sixteen year old boy (youngest) was drafted into the British Army and became a teamster and had to haul wheat to the British Army. Father said that his forebearer had the older brothers disguised as sacks of wheat and the younger brother hauled them through the British lines to Lake Ontario in the midst of winter, and they crossed over to New York State on the ice, frosting their feet. They then enlisted in the American Army. Wasn't that something to be proud of"

In another undated letter David Miller Stanclift gave this account-

"Grandfather Stancliffe was a boy of 18 and was hauling wheat across the lake (Erie or Ontario) on the ice with an ox sled. He concealed the men in a load of wheat and got by the guards and to Buffalo where they joined the U. S. Forces. He made several trips. After the Revolution when the lines were established between Canada and the United States, part of the Stancliffes were left owning farms on the Canadian side. Part were at Buffalo or Eden Corners, a part of Buffalo. They all eventually came over to United States soil."

David[5] Stanclift (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Even though David Stanclift, son of Lemuel, did not have an ancestor participating in the escape, he had certainly heard this story too. This account was included in a manuscript which David wrote at the request of Rev. Aaron Lloyd, a son of David's sister Anna C. [Stanclift] Lloyd Allen about 1892. There is no record of the Stanclifts ever living in Toronto and Thomas and Reuben were two separate sons, Reuben was born 1803 and a child when this event took place. While Thomas was not the youngest, he was probably the "driver" when they left Kingston.

"John Stancliff lived a while in New York State and married Sarah Harris. A while after, he left N.Y. and went to Toronto, Canada, and had settled there. In 1812, at the outbreak of hostilities, he then had four sons old enough to be subject to the draft, John, Jesse, Willard and Thomas Reuben. The youngest harnessed up and drove with them across the Lake Ontario on the ice in the night leaving the boys safe with Uncle Sam"

There are a number of known facts that support the story. James Knapp, son in law of John Stancliff, who lived at Barrisfield, Pittsburgh Township, Ontario, Canada, was a "freight hauler" during the War of 1812, supplying the British Army in Kingston. The ice between Kingston, Ontario, Canada and the shoreline of Jefferson County, NY in the winter months, was frozen solid enough to support a fully loaded sled. It was a proven route of Potash smuggling in the years immediately following the U. S. Embargo Act of 1807. Preparations for the War were particularly intensive in the Kingston area, and the Americans responded in kind. There were Armed American units stationed along the coast line on the northern boundary of Jefferson County, NY, particularly at Sackett's Harbour, Jefferson County, NY and Cape Vincent, Jefferson County, NY. By their own accounts of the Stancliff migration west, an ox team and sled could travel on the ice, on an average day, up to 22 miles, or in this case in a single night. A team was capable of an even greater distance if urged on and there was not the consideration of sparing the animals for subsequent days of travel. So it is probable that in 1813 when Thomas Stanclift was age 16, perhaps driving one of the teams belonging to James Knapp, and familiar to the English guards, escaped from the Kingston, Ontario area. By cover of night and with the older Stanclift men hidden in the load of wheat, made the trip to the New York shore and safety, landing somewhere along the northern shore of Jefferson County, NY. Their father, mother, younger brother Reuben, older brother Timothy and his wife followed at a later date.

John and his sons, with their families, settled at Concord Township, Niagara County, NY about 1814 or 1815, this later became Collins, Erie County, NY. This area had earlier been settled by a community of the Society of Friends, many of whom had come from the Dartmouth, Massachusetts MM by way of several New York towns.

The Stanclifts settled in and became a part of the new community. John was " the first man in Collins to open a tavern for the accommodation of travelers "[1]

John was cited as the first non-quaker resident of the settlement of Concord, Niagara County, NY. On June 11, 1818 he organized the First Congregational Church in that area with 17 members, all of whom were part of his family and all were named Stanclift. Since this was the first church established in Township 7, Range 8, the Holland Land Company[2] granted 100 acres to the First Congregational Society of Collins on Dec. 29, 1823. The land was located in the eastern portion of Lot 64[3], bounding on Stanclift land. The land was uncleared timberland and not immediately suitable for a church.

In an effort to clear title on the land Willard Stanclift, Timothy Stanclift, Thomas Stanclift, John Stanclift Sr., Jesse Stanclift and Ebenezer Smith conveyed title of the 100 acres in Lot 64 to The First Congregational Society of Collins for the sum of $1.00 on July 14, 1832[4]. On the same day July 14, 1832 and on the following page of the records, Wilhelm Willink, Walbrave Van Henkelow, Jan Van Eighen, Cornelis Isaac VanderVliet, Wilhelm Willink the younger, and Peter Van Eighen all of the Netherlands by David Evans their attorney, conveyed title of the 100 acres in Lot 64 to The First Congregational Society of Collins for the sum of $1.00[5]. The title of the property was then in the name of "The First Congregational Society of Collins, NY". On July 19, 1832 the First Congregational Society of Collins, NY called a Corporation and owner of the one hundred acre tract in East part of Lot 64, petitioned the Chancery Court in session at Rochester, NY for permission to sell the land and use the proceeds to purchase a parcel of land more suitable to their use. The petition was granted, and on July 27, 1832 the trustees of the Society consisting of Timothy Stanclift, John Stanclift Jr., and Reuben Stanclift sold the tract of land to Thomas Stanclift for the sum of $400.00.[6] In 1823 this land, still in the hands of Willink & Co., had been assessed at a value of $282.00.

The Society wanted the church to be located at the center of their Community, accordingly Willard Stanclift donated or sold for $1.00 an acre of his land within the Village for the building of a church. That land now situated at the corner of School Street and Main Street in North Collins[7].

The period preceding 1837 was referred to as "a season of particularly hard times"[8]. Discontent was rampant in the area and many settlers on the Purchase were experiencing difficulty in obtaining clear title to their land. Perhaps this influenced John Stanclift's decision to leave Erie County, NY and join the Erie County, PA portion of his family. Making the trip by Ox-Team, John and sons Timothy and Thomas and their families, arrived in McKean, PA on Feb. 28, 1835. Sons John Jr., Willard, Jesse and Reuben remained in Erie County, NY.

Sarah [Harris] Stanclift died in PA in 1839 and John Stanclift returned to North Collins, Erie County, NY to live with the family of his son, John Stanclift Jr.

In John Stanclift's Bible there is a page that contains a note to his son John Jr.-

There are two diagonal lines drawn across the entire page as if to cross out or void the written message. Within the note the name Willard has two large Xs drawn over it. This probably occurred when Willard died in 1841 and Willard was no longer considered an heir. The note was evidently written sometime before 1841 and may have been intended as a last Will and Testement.

While living with his son John Stanclift Jr and his family in North Collins, Erie County, NY John died in 1847. His probate papers do not indicate the presence of a Will. John Stanclift Jr was made Executor on the Estate. The heirs were listed and at this date the Probate papers indicate children living New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois[1] and one child living in Canada[2].

Efforts to locate the grave of John Stanclift have led to research that concerns the Congregational Church founded by John and the land for that church. Willard Stanclift had provided an acre of his own land for the Congregational Church and owned the surrounding land. The following excerpt from a North Collins History sheds light on the early Cemetery location in referring to that Church and land.

"This acre was on what is now the corner of Main and School Street....The present church was built 1844.... The Methodist Episcopal church was built 1848. The land was bought from Mary Stanclift (widow of Willard), ... Between the Methodist Episcopal church and the Congregational church lay North Collins' first Cemetery. About 1920 the Methodist Society was discontinued, the church building was bought by the Congregationalists and moved to the rear of that church..... Many of the bodies in the old cemetery were moved to the newer one south of the village on the Buffalo Gowanda Road. The graves left had their headstones buried deeply, according to law, and today (1941) there is only a meadow..."[3]

The area that was covered by a meadow has now been paved over for a parking lot, and the Tomb Stones requested by John in his Bible have probably been buried in a pit underneath that parking lot.

Daughter of Comfort and Margaret [Lee] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Oct. 19, 1756[8] does not appear in the baptism records married Winchester, Ct Oct. 13, 1778 as his second wife the widower DANIEL GROVER. Daniel had married his first wife, Mercy Stannard, in Winchester on Apr. 11, 1773, and had a daughter, Mercy, born May 26, 1776. Mercy [Stannard] Grover died shortly after the birth of her daughter, on June 5, 1776[9]. Daniel was a shoemaker and notable for having six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He came to Winchester from Stratford, CT about 1769 with a brother Timothy Grover, who died 1780, and stayed until 1785.

On Sept. 2, 1783 Daniel Grover sold a portion of his homelot in Winchester to his brother in law, Samuel Stanclift, who

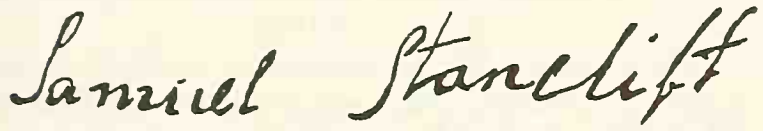
(67) SAMUEL[4] STANCLIFT (Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



[4]Son of Comfort and Margaret [Lee] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Jan. 23, 1759[5], died in Indiana July 4, 1838[6], married Winchester, Litchfield County, CT Nov,. 12, 1783 OLIVE BALCOM[7] daughter of Elias and Phebe [Foster] Balcom born Mansfield, CT Mar. 18, 1766[8], baptized May 11, 1766[9], died in NY between 1822 and 1836.

There are conflicting stories in a D.A.R. publication[10]. One paragraph says there is a stone for Samuel in the Valley Cemetery, McKean, Erie County, PA, and another says a stone cannot be found[11]. Samuel did spend time in Erie County, PA and there are family stories of the three Stanclift brothers, Veterans of the Revolutionary War, being honored at a Fourth of July Celebration. If there was a stone in the Valley Cemetery for Samuel, it was probably placed in the Veteran's Plot as part of a memorial and Samuel was buried in Indiana where he died.

Samuel saw substantial and continued service during the Revolutionary War, entering the service from Sandisfield, MA. It was noted in some of the histories of the area that there was a footpath from the Norfolk and Winchester area of Connecticut that lead up to Massachusetts and Sandisfield in particular. The people of the two communities seemed to travel easily back and forth. Some members of the Balcom family lived at Sandisfield at this time. It is also possible that Samuel was a resident of Sandisfield by reason of an apprenticeship to someone in that area. The records for Sandisfield also indicate that a "bounty[12]" was offered to young men helping Sandisfield to fill its quota of men to serve in the Army, and there was no offer at that time from the Connecticut towns. For a young man, and Samuel was only 16 at this time, seeking to establish himself and buy land this must have been an attractive inducement. Samuel served between Dec. 13, 1775 and Nov. 27, 1776 at Fort Ticonderoga. He again enlisted in the Continental Army Mar. 11, 1777 through Dec. 31, 1779 spending part of this time at Valley Forge. David Stanclift, son of Lemuel said that Samuel and brother John were together at the battle of Germantown and that when the Americans were forced to retreat, the two of them escaped through a cornfield and " the man that was between them was cut in two with a field piece ball". Samuel again served Jan. 1, 1780 to Mar. 11, 1780 and the record notes that he received the Massachusetts state bounty[13]. Samuel then served two more enlistments from Connecticut in 1782 and 1783[14].

When Samuel at last returned from the War and between his final Connecticut enlistments, he purchased land in Torrington, CT from his brother, John Stanclift on Feb. 23, 1782[15]. It was twenty acres of land and a dwelling house, and part of the fifty acres John had purchased in 1778. A little more than a year later, on July 1, 1783, Samuel sold this property to Amos Treat of Middletown, CT[16]. In the fall of that year he purchased land in nearby Winchester and got married. On Sept. 2, 1783 Samuel Stanclift "of

The stones are representative of the type erected by the Government for Veterans. Lemuel is known to have been buried in the Private Cemetery on his farm, and it would be reasonable to believe that Comfort was also buried there with his father and brother. There are other sources that claim those bodies were moved from the Stanclift Cemetery to the Valley Cemetery about 1935.

Torrington" purchased land in Winchester near the Goshen line, from his brother in law, Daniel Grover[1]. The land was part of Daniel Grover's own homelot. Samuel was on the Winchester Tax Assessment List for the year 1783 along with brother Comfort and brother in law, Daniel Grover. He sold this land to a neighbor, John Marshall, on Aug. 19, 1785[2] and moved to Norfolk, CT.

On Sept. 10, 1785 he purchased 25 acres of land in Norfolk from his father-in-law Elias Balcom, and settled next to his wife's family[3] in Norfolk. Samuel joined The Church of Christ, Norfolk, CT May 6, 1786 and his wife Olive became a member on May 1, 1791[4]. In the fall of 1792, the very next day after Elias Balcom turned over all of his holdings in Norfolk to Comfort Stanclift, Samuel purchased from Comfort part of Comfort's former homelot in Winchester, CT and moved back to that area. Samuel was termed "of Winchester, CT" when on Oct. 25, 1792 he purchased part of Lot 76 in the Third Division of Winchester from his brother, Comfort Stanclift[5]. In a letter from the Church at Norfolk dated Apr. 7, 1793, Samuel and Olive Stanclift transferred to the First Church of the Winsted Ecclesiastical Society, where Comfort and Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift had been members[6]. It seems the brothers exchanged their home areas and Samuel moved to Winchester while Comfort moved to Norfolk.

Samuel appeared in the 1790 Census living in Litchfield, CT[7]. They travelled with other members of his family to New York State sometime in the 1790s and Samuel appeared in the Sangerfield, NY Assessment in 1796[8], with brother Comfort Stanclift, and brothers-in- law, Giles Mix and Solomon Williams. Daniel Grover had not yet moved to Sangerfield, but was not far away at Unadilla, NY at this date. Samuel was still living in Sangerfield in 1800[9] and seemed to have five sons and two daughters in his family at that date.

By 1810 Samuel Stanclift had settled on lands termed "Canandaigua Academy Lands" Ontario County, NY "The first settlement in the Academy tract, the south end of No. 9, Canandaigua 1810, Eaton farm, 300 acres lying in the NE corner and including Bell's Point, was a pioneer by the name of Stancliff"[10]. "The wild lands were mostly owned by Robert Bowne and sold by Zachariah Seymore, his agent at his office in Canandaigua, on contract, at two dollars and fifty cents per acre."[11]

On April 25, 1810 Samuel Stanclift purchased, for the sum of $225.00, land in the Canadaigua Academy tract described, South ½ Lot 12, Township #9, Range #3[12]. Elias Stanclift, son of Samuel, had purchased land in Lot #4, same Twp and Range in 1808. Samuel and wife Olive of the Town of Italy, conveyed this land to Cyrel Eaton in 1822[13]. While Samuel appeared in the 1820 Ontario County Census, he was listed as living Geneseo[14]. Geneseo is today just across the Ontario County boundary in Livingston County. At that date he seemed to have the family of one of his children included in the household.

Samuel first applied for a pension on the basis of his extensive Military service while living in the Town of Italy, Ontario County, NY on May 19, 1818. He received certificate #7649. In subsequent correspondence concerning his pension he indicated in 1822 that his wife was "sickly" and that he still supported two children. On Sept. 5, 1836 he applied to have his pension payments transferred to Erie County, PA where he was living at that date. He said he was residing with the family of a daughter, who was not named, and stated his intention to remain in Erie County, PA. If this is the case, and since there was no attempt to subsequently transfer payment to Indiana, it is probable that Samuel was visiting one of his sons, either Samuel or Amos, who lived in Indiana when he died there in 1838.

(71) LEMUEL[4] STANCLIFT (Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

[2]Son of Comfort and Eunice [Ranney] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT Apr. 9, 1764_3 baptized Apr. 15, 1764_4 died McKean, Erie County, PA Apr. 3, 1848, buried on a hilltop on his own farm but there is a stone for him in the Valley Cemetery, Section 3, McKean, Erie County, PA_5, married Whitestown, Oneida County, NY Feb. 23, 1792_6 MEHITABLE GOFF daughter of Aaron and Jemima [Kilborn] Goff born Glastonbury, CT May 8, 1771_7, died McKean, Erie County, PA Oct. 2, 1860 Æ 89 years, 4 months, and 20 days, buried in the Stanclift Cemetery on the family farm. The couple was married by the Rev. Dan Bradley at the home of Solomon and Margaret [Stanclift] Williams[8], Solomon Williams and Mary [Stanclift] Mix acted as witnesses. The Rev. Bradley was installed as minister of this church in Feb. 1792 and this was the first marriage in his records.

The memoirs of David Stanclift indicate that Lemuel had been apprenticed at the age of 10 for a period of eight years to "a man named Hayden who lived near Hartford"[9] however in these memoirs it becomes apparent that for the dates when David repeatedly mentions the family being at Hartford, the records prove that they were in the Torringford Society near New Hartford in Litchfield County, CT. In another letter, David says that Hayden lived in Torrington. It is probable that Lemuel was apprenticed to Augustus Hayden or one of his relatives. It is interesting that the Hayden family in Connecticut has been associated with stone quarries and stone work. Augustine Hayden had been a resident of the Torringford Society and New Hartford since at least 1770. The Torringford Parish or Ecclesiastical Society encompassed the communities of Torrington and New Hartford, and even derived it's name by the combination of the two names.

Lemuel must have enlisted immediately after being released from his apprentice or indenture agreement. He enlisted Mar. 1, 1781 for a period of three years in Company of Capt. Joseph Walker of the 1st Regiment commanded by Col. Samuel B. Webb. He was discharged at West Point, NY on Dec. 31, 1783. He made application for a pension Feb. 23, 1820 at McKean, Erie County, PA

After his death, his widow Mehitable received a widow's pension #5387 that was executed on Aug. 7, 1848. On Mar. 21, 1855 Mehitable also claimed sixty acres of "Bounty Land" as recompense for Lemuel's service "in the War of Seventy Six".

David wrote of some of the occurrences in Lemuel's Service. Lemuel served during Revolution and was at Valley Forge where during a particular drill, Lemuel made a misstep and by way of punishment was struck on the side of the head with an officer's sword. Lemuel instantly knocked the officer sprawling, his sword flying out of his hand. David says the other officers refused to punish Lemuel.

The land records show that on Aug. 2, 1785 Lemuel purchased 30 acres of land in Torrington, CT for £57-00-00 being part of the homelot of Bradick Dickson[10], bounded on land of John Ellsworth and John Strong. It is curious that Lemuel sold this land only three years later at a substantial loss. On Apr. 7, 1788 he sold this same property for the sum of £40-00-00 to Capt. Augustine

5.There are white marble stones in this Cemetery for at least two of the three Stanclift brothers who served in the Revolutionary War. The stones are representative of the type erected by the Government for Veterans. According to David, son of Lemuel, Lemuel was buried in the Private Cemetery on his own farm along with wife Mehitable, his father, Comfort, and his brother, Comfort. Samuel, the third Revolutionary War Veteran lived for a period of time in McKean, but he died in Indiana. A note in an unidentified book on Cemeteries of McKean Township indicates that "the body of Comfort Stanclift who died Aug. 4, 1810 Æ 79 was reinterred October 1939 in Valley Cemetery Veterans' Plot". If this statement is accurate then it is Lemuel's father and not the Revolutionary War Veteran who lies under the white marble stone in Valley Cemetery while his original stone stood in 1981 (when the stone's inscriptions were copied) in the old Stanclift Cemetery on what used to be Lemuel's farm.

Hayden[1]. Witnessed by the sons of this man, Samuel and Augustine Hayden Jr. If, however, Augustine Hayden had in some way contributed to the purchase of this land as part of an apprenticeship agreement, the sale could be explained.

At about the same time that Lemuel divested himself of his real estate in Torrington, his brother, John, also sold all of his property in Torrington and moved into New York State. The two brothers may have travelled to New York together.

According to the Oneida County, NY Land Records, Lemuel Stanclift, of Hamilton, Herkimer County[2], NY purchased on Jan. 13, 1796 of Zerah Phelps of Sangerfield, Herkimer County[3], NY 50 acres of land in Lot #42 and recorded Mar. 5, 1796[4]. Lemuel's brother in law Solomon Williams said in a deposition that Lemuel only lived in the Whitestown area for one or two years.

The Holland Land Company in Western Pennsylvania was offering land in Erie County, PA[5]. Both Lemuel and his brother, Comfort, are found in the Holland Land Company's Provision Books for the year 1799[6]. The Company offered 100 acres of free land to entice the first settlers to open the virgin land which later became McKean, PA. To fulfill the requirements and receive this free land a settler had to build a house of specified dimensions, clear and fence in at least eight acres of land, and reside upon the land for a period of five years. The Holland Land Company made this offer knowing that before they could induce large numbers of pioneers to purchase land there would have to be roads built and some sort of a community established.

Lemuel had made an agreement with an agent for the Holland Land Company while he was still in New York State. On June 28, 1798 Lemuel contracted to "Homestead" land in Erie County, PA. He waited until February to make the long arduous trip. He must have been advised that there were no roads, he would have to travel on the frozen waters of Lake Erie. By February the ice would be frozen solid enough to allow safe passage. Nothing else could have forced Lemuel to take children aged six, four and two and a pregnant wife on such a journey in the middle of winter.

David, son of Lemuel wrote-

"My father with others started (from Oneida County, NY) in Feb. 1799 with ox teams and sleds, near half the distance without roads, camping out nights. When they got to Buffalo, they went on the ice to Erie, making 21 or 22 miles a day, going ashore at night and making a large fire and using what protection hemlock boughs afforded." They landed at Erie and got to their destination at McKean March 1, 1799 through an unbroken forest without any roads and only blaze marks on the trees to indicate the trail.

There were additional references to this trip in other writings of Lemuel's son, David Stanclift of McKean, PA. The family was accompanied by Lemuel's half brother Comfort Stanclift and his wife and three children. They travelled across an area where as late as 1796 white men were killed and scalped by hostile Indians. They made the journey using a rude sled drawn by four oxen to transport their worldly possessions. Five weeks after leaving Whitestown, NY they reached Buffalo. They spent one night in a wigwam of a friendly Indian and were "treated with great civility". For the next ninety miles they travelled upon the ice of Lake Erie hugging the shoreline where the ice was thick enough to support the weight of the sled. There was a high bluff along the shore making access to firm ground along the shore impossible. The next four days were spent in uneasy circumstances, watching the skies for inclement weather or the ice for a sudden thaw and skirting those patches of ice thinned by streams flowing into the Lake. On the fourth and last evening of travel one of their oxen did break through the ice and was saved with much difficulty. They camped at night near the shore and warmed themselves with a driftwood fire that also served to cook their food and ward off wild animals, particularly wolves. One evening a deer ventured within reach of the flintlock rifle and the venison made a welcome addition to their larder, but was coveted by a pack of wolves whose howling was most a most unwelcome serenade to the travelers. Early in March 1799 they reached Erie and at last came ashore. There were no roads and they followed a path with marked trees as guides. They located at McKean some ten miles away.

"My father soon made a comfortable log house and made a clearing to raise corn and Spring wheat sufficient for a year's supply. He settled under agreement from the Holland Land Company. The Company stipulated between them and the State, to furnish a settler on every four hundred acres.

My father built a house on two lots of four hundred acres each and got a deed from the Company for the service of 100 acres on each lot. Governor McKean, in his message to the Legislature stated that Holland Land Company had forfeited the title to the land by non performance of contract. Then came a great number and made beginnings all over the land expecting to get the land by settling under the State. Then the State planted a suit to recover the land and lost it. And the Company rejected them off. Some had quite large improvements. This is the origin of so many old improvements scattered over the Holland Land Company, purchase being rejected off by the Company."

At a later date this log cabin was replaced by a two story log house with real stairs not ladders, and later still by a fine frame house that eventually was the home of David himself. They brought with them from their former home seed grain and bags of apple seeds and peach stones. They cleared the land and established orchards which in time produced choice fruit to temp numerous small grandsons, who were driven away mercilessly by grandmother Mehitable. Mehitable was also adept at driving away bears, which were numerous in the area. Mehitable once found her son Eber, born shortly after they arrived in McKean and still little more than an infant, had eluded her watchful eye and was sitting at the edge of the woods hacking at a sapling with a case knife and very near him was a bear observing the child with interest. She dashed out, grabbed the child and threatened the bear with the knife while each retreated from the other. David wondered if it was this same bear who made a midnight raid on the pig sty. Mehitable responded to the first squeal of alarm after snatching a burning brand from the great open fireplace, she beat the bear with the firebrand about the head and nose. Lemuel arrived and beat him off with an ax. The bear fled and was killed the next day by a neighbor, he bore the scars of his previous night's encounter. They were not always victorious over the bears and after trying to dissuade one bear by waving her bonnet in his face, the bear swiped the bonnet from Mehitable's hand and carried off one of the pigs. David described his mother as a strong woman who raised her own flax, wove the fabric and fashioned clothes for the family. She was a tall slender woman with black hair who sometimes wore a red cloak and fearlessly traveled the wooded paths alone as she tended to her neighbors and friends. In the absence of a doctor, she delivered babies and used her special skills with herbs and home medicines. Mehitable was also gifted with "second sight" or clairvoyance. She foretold the death of her daughter, Asenath, and years later she woke the household before dawn to tell them of the death of her son Eber, who had accidently fallen from a loft at a neighbor's home three miles away, had fractured his skull and died.

Lemuel Stanclift was given deed to his land in 1803 from the Holland Land Company, Deed Recorded in Erie Land Book A Vol.1, pages 133 & 134 on Dec. 24, 1805. The Erie County Court house burned and all records were destroyed. Lemuel had the deed registered again on Jul. 18, 1831 in Erie County, PA Land Record Book D, page 465. It reads in part-

This indenture made the twenty eighth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three. Between Wilhelm Willink, Nicholas Van Stehorse, Christian Van Eighen, Hendrick Vollenhoven, Pieter Stadnitski and Rutger Jan Schumnelpenninck all of Amsterdam by their attorney Rogers Alder of the one part and Lemuel Stanclift of the county of Erie State of Pennsylvania of the other part. Whereas the said Lemuel Stanclift for himself and as assignee of Mark Hopkins on the twenty eighth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninty eight agreed with the said..... Containing one hundred acres of land being part of the tract of Land surveyed in pursuance of a warrant dated April 18th 1792 and granted to Richard North and by him conveyed to the party of the first part confirmed by patent and called "Acham" and enrolled in the Rolls Office of the State aforesaid in Book 35 page 382 as will appear and further Covenented within Six months of the said twenty eighth day of June in conformity to the act of the third of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety two to erect or cause to be erected a house fit for the Habitation of man and to reside or cause a family to reside therein five years and to clear and fence at least eight acres of the said Land. All of which the said Lemuel Stanclift alleges he hath done. In consideration of which and to the purchase money to wit of One Dollar well and truly paid to the said.....
Rogers Alder signed for the members of the Holland Land Company
Witnessed by Frederick Haymaker and James Knox
Registered July 18, 1831

Lemuel served his country not only as a very young man during the Revolution but also in the later conflicts. "He was a member of the Pennsylvania Militia and did guard duty when Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's fleet was constructed at Lake Erie in 1812, and his health failed, sent his oldest son to act as his substitute, for which service, this son, Seth Stanclift drew a pension as a soldier in the War of 1812."

Lemuel had an association with a distant cousin, Russell Stancliff, who had arrived in McKean about the same time that Lemuel had settled in McKean. Both men appeared on an 1813 Tax Assessment list of McKean. In 1818 Lemuel served as host in his "hand hewn log home" to a group of McKean residents led by Rev. Russell Stanclift, at the founding of the First Methodist Church of McKean, PA.

In 1827 Lemuel and son, Eber, built a second saw mill in the town which Eber ran. Lemuel and Mehitable enjoyed music and literature and practiced their religion in their everyday life. There is a small enclosed space on the sunny hillside of Lemuel's farm used as a family burying ground[1] and there beside his father's grave and near some of their children, Lemuel and Mehitable Stanclift were buried. Lemuel's son, David, said Lemuel was buried "on the farm".

While it is certain that Lemuel and his family were in Waterford Township in an area that is now in McKean Township in 1800, he does not appear in that census with brother, Comfort[2]. In 1810 Comfort had left the area, but Lemuel and Mehitable were enumerated with three young boys and four young girls in their family[3]. By 1820 the Township had become McKean Township, eldest son Seth was head of his own household, and Comfort's son, Martin, had also established a home nearby[4]. In 1830 Lemuel and Mehitable still had three children on the farm, sons Seth and Eber lived near them and married daughters Philenia Crouch and Sally Mix were also living nearby. Nephew Martin, now surrounded by his married children, was part of this "Stanclift" community[5]. By 1840 little has changed for Lemuel and Mehitable and their children are still living either on the farm or on their own farms nearby[6]. After Lemuel's death Mehitable remained on the farm and son, David, operated the farm. David was head of the household in 1850, and besides his family Eber's widow and children also shared the house[7]. Mehitable listed as "Mahabel" and age 89 was with David and his family in 1860 and still living on the farm where she died shortly after the census was taken[8].

168- 7. ASENATH STANCLIFT born Erie County, PA May 27, 1807, died Dec. 1, 1809 Æ 2 years, 6 months, buried in the Stanclift Cemetery on Lemuel's farm. David reported on another instance of Mehitable Stanclift's second sight. One afternoon as Mehitable came upon the child, and even though this child showed no signs of illness was at the moment playing happily with her brother, she saw a shadowy figure in white with Asenath's face rising in the air and disappearing. Mehitable hugged the child to her and spoke of the vision, and the next morning the little girl was dead as the result of an attack of croup.

169- 8. IRA STANCLIFT born Erie County, PA Jun. 7, 1810, died Mar. 24, 1842 Æ 31 years 9 months, buried Stanclift Cemetery on Lemuel's farm. Lemuel's will written a month before Ira's death stipulates that care is to be provided for Ira for his natural life. This would suggest that Ira was in some way handicapped.

(72) MARGARET[4] STANCLIFT (Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Daughter of Comfort and Eunice [Ranney] Stanclift born East Middletown, CT June 9, 1766_1, listed as Peggy Standliff, she married Eastbury Society$_2$ Dec. 27, 1790 SOLOMON[5] WILLIAMS (Solomon[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Thomas[1]) son of Solomon and Jerusha [Cole] Williams born Glastonbury, CT July 12, 1766_3 died prob. Sangerfield, NY after 1849_4. Before her marriage to Comfort Stanclift, Margaret's mother, Eunice [Ranney] Fox, was widow of Samuel Fox, son of Joseph Fox of Glastonbury, CT. Solomon Williams grandfather was John Fox, also a son of Joseph Fox.

Solomon and Margaret Williams were living in Whitestown (New Hartford) NY in 1792 as the marriage of Margaret's brother Lemuel to Mehitable Goff took place at their home on Feb. 23, 1792_5.

By 1793 Solomon and his brother Samuel Williams were living in the newly organized town of Sangerfield$_6$. The first town meeting was held April 7, 1795 and Solomon Williams was one of those appointed "Pathmaster".

In 1796 a Tax Assessment of Sangerfield, Chenango County, now Oneida County, NY$_7$ revealed that Solomon and Margaret [Stanclift] Williams were joined by a number of related families from Connecticut. Also present were Comfort Stanclift, Samuel Stanclift, Giles and Mary [Stanclift] Mix and their families were all living Sangerfield. By 1800_8 Comfort Stanclift had moved on but the remaining group of relatives was joined by Daniel and Bette [Stanclift] Grover. Solomon's brother Samuel Williams, was listed in the 1796 Assessment and he also remained in Sangerfield. He was living there in 1850 among a number of families named Williams. Solomon and Margaret Williams remained in Sangerfield and Solomon was still living there in 1850 with the family of Nathaniel Munger and wife Sally$_9$. It is probable that Margaret had died by this date and Solomon along with daughter Eunice was living in the family of daughter Sally and her husband Nathaniel Munger.

Solomon Williams purchased on Jan. 19, 1797 Lot #60 in Sangerfield for the sum of £200-10-00 from John Taylor of Albany County, NY$_{10}$. Solomon and Peggy Williams sold a portion of that lot Sept. 18, 1811 for the sum of $410.00 to Elias Fraser of Sangerfield and the deed was witnessed by Samuel Williams.

CHILDREN: Solomon and Margaret [Stanclift] Williams (list incomplete)

1. EUNICE WILLIAMS born NY 1797 living in the Nathaniel Munger family in 1850 Census along with father, Solomon.
2. SALLY WILLIAMS born NY 1799 married NATHANIEL MUNGER born NY 1793. They lived 1850 next to a William S. Munger born NY 1826 with wife Mary Ann born NY 1829. They also had son Amos Munger born 1841.
3. GILES WILLIAMS born NY 1806, married SARAH ANN ____ born CT 1806. They had daughters Julia born 1830 and Susan born 1835. He appeared as "Gial" in the records.

Mary and Giles Mix were in Sangerfield, NY in 1796 in company with Samuel Stanclift, Comfort Stanclift, and Solomon Williams appeared in the 1796 Rate assessment[1] for Sangerfield[2]. They remained at least until 1800 and appeared in Chenango County, NY 1800 Census[3] still in town of Sangerfield and this date Comfort Stanclift has left but Daniel Grover has joined the group. They also lived for many years in the town of York Mills, near Utica, NY.

Giles, Mary and Polly Mix were members of the First Presbyterian Church of Whitesboro in the Town of Whitestown, Oneida County, NY[4]. All three had been received by certificate on April 30, 1819 from "the Presbyterian Church in Holland Patent" and were dismissed on March 18, 1830.[5], Harriet was examined and admitted to the congregation on June 19, 1821[6]. Giles, Mary, Polly and Harriet were dismissed in 1830 along with 41 other members of the church "for the purpose of uniting with the church to be organized at New York Mills, by a committee from the Presbytery".

After the death of Giles Mix, Mary and three of her children moved to Erie County, PA in 1839[7]. Mary was with the family of her daughter Polly/Mary [Mix] Randall in Greene Township, Erie County, PA in 1850.

CHILDREN: Giles and Mary [Stanclift] Mix

1. IRA MIX born Sangerfield, NY Aug. 4, 1794 or 1795, died Auburn, IA Nov. 12, 1870, married ANN KELSEY and had daughter Sarah Ann Mix born Trenton, NY Mar. 28, 1823, died Detroit, MI Oct.3, 1903, married Sanford Pool Olney born Antwerp, NY June 8, 1823 died Potosi, Washington County, MO Mar. 5, 1890.
2. DEMARIS MIX born Aug. 1, 1795
3. MARY MIX "Polly" born July 31, 1797, married CYREL or CYRUS RANDALL born 1796 in Ireland. Along with her parents, Polly was admitted by certificate, into membership of the First Presbyterian Church of Whitesboro on July 1, 1819[8], she was listed in these same records when the family was dismissed on Mar 18, 1830 along with many others to form a new church at York Mills. Polly and Cyrel Randall lived 1850 Greene Township, Erie County, PA[9]. Her mother, Mary [Stanclift] Mix, living with family.
4. SOPHIA MIX born Mar. 6, 1799.
5. HIRAM MIX born Apr. 22, 1801, married SALLY STANCLIFT daughter of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift of McKean, PA. They left McKean and moved to Michigan, Sally died in Michigan.
6. GILES MIX born Jan. 19, 1807, lived Herkimer County, NY.
7. DEMARIS MIX II born July 19, 1807, probably born Jan. making her twin to Giles. Married JAMES ERWIN PRUEN born 1811
8. HARRIET MIX {twin} born NY 1808, died after about 1885 when she appeared in a family reunion Photo taken at David Stanclift's home. Harriet was admitted into membership of the First Presbyterian Church of Whitesboro on June 19, 1821[10]. The family belonged to this church until Mar. 18, 1830, when along with others they were dismissed to form a new church at York Mills. After her father's death she moved with her mother, sister Polly [Mix] Randall and brother Hiram Mix to Erie County, PA. She was in the household of Seth Stanclift, son of Lemuel in 1860[11].
9. BENJAMIN MIX {twin} born NY 1808, married a "girl named BAKOM"[12], possibly Balcom. Benjamin was in St Lawrence County, NY 1850 Census. David Stanclift of McKean, PA said he lived "Niagara County, near Lockport, NY" at a later date.
10. LOUISA MIX born Apr. 20, 1813, died McKean, PA July 18, 1848, married Apr. 6, 1847 MARTIN PINNEY son of Elisha and Racheal [Belden] Pinney born Aug. 12, 1815. They had an infant who died at birth and Louisa possibly died in childbirth. Martin married again to Adeline Stanclift daughter of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift.

(75) ANNIS[5] STANCLIFT (George[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of George and Sarah [Chidsey] Stancliff born South Britain Ecclesiastical Society Southbury, Litchfield County, CT Feb. 25, 1774_1, baptized with brother, George, in South Britain Church July 13, 1777, "children of Sarah Standclift"$_2$. Annis died Wasco, Kane County, IL Mar. 25, 1840, buried Wasco Cemetery, married 1. Southbury, CT July 7, 1794 REUBEN DOWNS$_3$ son of David and Sussanah [Dawson] Downs of Woodbury, Litchfield County, CT, married 2. probably at Clarkson, Monroe County, NY ELIJAH LAKE son of John and ____ [Van Vorhees] Lake born Aug 18, 1786 probably in Ernestown, Ontario, Canada, died Wasco, Kane County, IL Feb. 18, 1837, buried Wasco Cemetery.

Annis' father died in the Revolutionary War when Annis and her brother were very young. Her mother married again to Gideon Allen, and they were brought up in his household until they married.

At least two of Reuben Down's siblings lived at Granville, Washington County, NY and they along with Reuben migrated to the "Cayuga Reservation Lands". Annis and Reuben moved about 1800 to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY where they lived next to her uncle, James Stancliff, and his family$_4$, and within a community where many others from the Woodbury, CT area lived. Reuben purchased land in an area even further west in 1808 and 1809. Reuben and Annis moved to an area near Rochester, which would become Monroe County, NY. The land was part of Township Number 3 in the Phelps and Gorham Purchase, in "the Genesee Country" and they settled at Clarkson, NY where Reuben kept a Tavern, east of "Ladd's Corners"$_5$. This was a frontier area and vital records were not yet being recorded, but Reuben probably died within a year or so after they moved to this new area, and Annis married again to Elijah Lake.

Elijah Lake and a Nicholas Lake$_6$ also purchased land in the same Township Number 3, and in the adjoining township Number 4 in 1809. The Lakes seem to own land just west of Clarkson in what became Orleans County, NY. Elijah and Annis returned to Elijah's birthplace in Ernestown, Ontario, Canada in 1820_7, but moved in 1836 to yet another frontier area that was being settled in the North West Territory. The first claim was staked in the new area in 1835_8 and Elijah and Annis purchased in that year an already established claim and arrived in the area by 1836. They settled in a place that became known as "Canada Corners" in Campton Township and later was known as Wasco. Kane County was established in that same year, 1836. Elijah died in Feb of 1837 and their son, Ansel, moved from Canada to Illinois to take up his father's land and to care for his mother. Ansel Lake became one of the leading citizens of the area, developing a large Dairy Farm in Campton Township which was carried on in turn by his son.

Annis may have had children while married to Reuben Downs, but the only child known is after her marriage to Elijah Lake.

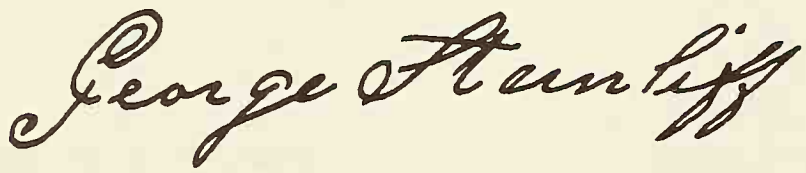
(76) GEORGE[5] STANCLIFFE (George[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])



Son of George and Sarah [Chidsey] Stancliff born South Britain, CT 1775, baptized in South Britain Church July 13, 1777_1, died Chasm Falls$_2$ or South Malone, Franklin County, NY Nov. 24, 1863, buried old Titusville Cemetery, Franklin County, NY, married Southbury, CT Nov. 3, 1799 MARGARET SQUIRE born 1778, died Nov. 27, 1852, buried old Titusville Cemetery, Franklin County, NY. She may be the daughter of David and Rebecca [Squire] Squire of Southbury, CT.

George and Margaret were still in Southbury, CT in the 1800 Census records. They moved shortly after that date and lived in the communities of Arlington, Sandgate and Sunderland, all of which were in Bennington County, VT. They were living Sandgate in 1817 when George purchased land in Arlington.

On Dec. 30, 1817 Sylvester Deming of Arlington, Bennington County, VT for the sum of twelve hundred dollars sold to George Stancliff of Sandgate, Bennington County, VT 64 acres of land on Lot Number 45. It was one of the original "hundred acre lots of the first division"$_3$. This property was the farm upon which this family lived for the next ten years. George added more land adjoining his own farm over the years. One piece of property was purchased on Nov. 2, 1818 from a man named Alfred Squire$_4$ who may have been related to George's wife. He purchased a piece of land from his son Russell in 1823_5 and finally on Apr. 28, 1827 George sold all of the land he owned in Arlington to the Town of Arlington for $$1,300_6$.

After selling his property in Vermont in 1827 George and his family moved to Odeltown, Quebec, Canada, but by 1833 they once again were living in the United States. The settled in Chasm Falls or South Malone, Franklin County, NY. Dr. Harwood of Chasm Falls wrote genealogical sketches for "The Malone Farmer" and in the issue of Aug. 28, 1911, he featured the STANCLIFF FAMILY. He wrote "....We do not know what county in England they came from, but they must in the Mother Country have early dwelt by some high, rocky cliff, as their name indicates.... It is a somewhat curious coincidence that the Stancliffs, true to the genius of their name, on coming to Chasm Falls, settled near the finest and largest stone cliff in this section of the Adirondacks-'the big rock'-and several of the family still live in the same vicinity."

In 1820 George was enumerated in Arlington, Bennington County, VT with wife, 1 young male, and 4 young females in the family. There was not a male of the age of Russell at that date$_7$. By 1840 George was settled in Franklin County, NY and at that date there were still three young adults in the family$_8$. In 1850 George and Margaret were living by themselves in Malone Township$_9$. Sons, Russell and George Sherman were also living in the same Township. An aging George and Margaret were still living Malone Township and son, Sherman, and his family were living with them$_{10}$. The family farm was located near the Wescott family and the Earle family.

They were said to be members of the Baptist Church. At some point in time some members of this branch of the family changed the spelling of the name to the now preferred English spelling of Stancliffe. It was not a universal change and even today there are members of the same family group that spell their name differently.

Hiram Winslow had a brother called Captain Winslow, and a sister, Orrisa S. Winslow who married Marmaduke Newell Cunningham.

(77) RUSSEL[5] STANCLIFF (James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of James and Mary [Russell] Stancliff born while family lived South Britain, Southbury, Litchfield County, CT, now New Haven County, CT Jan. 23, 1778, died Washington Township, Erie County, PA Feb. 6, 1856_1, buried $Itley_2$ Cemetery, Washington Township, Erie County, PA, married probably in PA DESIRE _____ born MA $1779/80_3$, died after 1860.

Russel's family moved from South Britain, CT to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY about 1798. If Russel went there with them, he did not stay long in that area. He moved with another branch of the Stanclift family to Erie County, PA by 1799_4 and was living in Waterford Township in 1800_5. The memoirs of David Stanclift, son of Lemuel Stanclift, say that Russel married after reaching Erie County, PA. If so he married very shortly after arrival. In the 1800 Census Russel would seem to be married, and he and Desire were living Waterford Township, there was an unidentified male aged 16-26 in the household. Russel taught school while living in Waterford $Township_6$. They moved to Conneautte Township which was later renamed Washington Township, probably because it was confused with Conneaut Township which is still in existence. At the southern end of Lake Conneautte the family established a farm in the area that became the borough of Edinboro.

On Feb. 19, 1835 Russel and wife, Desire, were witness to the will of next door neighbor, Henry Drake and Russel was designated to be his Executor. In 1850 they had one of the Drake children living in their household. This suggests a possible relationship, and is supported by the fact that both Desire and the Drakes were born MA, and Henry Drake had a daughter named Desire Drake, it is probable that Henry was the brother of Desire Stancliff.

Russel was active in Civic affairs and was elected to the office of Erie County Auditor in 1834_7. In the years 1840 through 1843 he served as an Erie County Commissioner.

When speaking of this man, David Stanclift said in his memoirs "In 1814 (This date in error, he arrived earlier) a young man by the name of Russel Stancliff came to the Country. He married here and soon after commenced preaching for the Methodist Church and became one of the best pulpit orators in Western Pennsylvania. His Father, by the name of James Stancliff, a Baptist Preacher, came here a few years afterwards and settled. Being asked why he spelled his name with a double F instead of FT, said, 'I saw a man by my name that spelled his name Stancliff, so I altered mine.'"$_8$.

The records state that Russel was in this area as early as 1799, which means that he came at the same time that Lemuel Stanclift arrived. Maybe Russel availed himself of the Homestead offer of the Holland Land Company, just as Lemuel had done. If this is the case, it is unfortunate that Russel did not have his Deed re-registered after the fire in the Court House, as Lemuel had done.

Russel was known as a fine preacher and along with Lemuel Stanclift organized the first church in the area. The first meeting of the church took place in the home of Lemuel in a house described as being constructed of "hand-hewn logs".

Russel was referred to as Rev. Russel Stancliff. He "was licensed to preach in 1806, was ordained a deacon in 1817, and an elder by Bishop Roberts in 1828. As a local preacher he had but few equals in his day. Noble and dignified in appearance, with talents as a speaker of the first order, he was listened to with pleasure and profit by thousands now living with him on the other side. After serving the Church for more than fifty years, he died in peace in 1856"$_9$

In the early days the Methodist ecclesiastical jurisdictions covered a very large area, Russel was in the area served by the Erie Circuit, which encompassed areas not only in Pennsylvania but in Ohio as well. Russel was the secretary of the Quarterly Conference of the Erie Circuit in 1814_{10}. Among those with whom he worked closely was James Graham, a Circuit Rider. Russel's son James married James Graham's daughter, Margaret A. Graham. Russel attended the sixth annual Ohio Methodist conference held in Zanesville, OH in Sept. 1817, where at the Sept. 4th morning meeting, he was elected to the office of Deacon.[1]

The Will of Russel Stancliff, written Oct. 28, 1854, was proved on May 6, 1856.

I Russel Stancliff of the township of Washington County of Erie and State of Pennsylvania, being old and infirm but of sound mind do make this my last will and Testament in manner following.

My first I give and bequeth to my Wife Desire All the personal property of every description on the farm that shall belong to me at my death, and also the proceeds of the farm that would come to me under the like circumstances to do with as she shall see best.

Secondly I give and bequeth to my son James Stancliff the South twenty-five acres and allowance of the farm.

Thirdly I give and bequeath to William and Nancy Jane Ore Co Jointly the next fifty acres and allowance, North of the said twenty-five acres and allowance, as a remuneration for their watchful care over us in our advanced years.

Fourthly I give and bequeath to my grand Children, the Children of my son, William Stancliff that shall be alive at my decease the balance of the farm more or less to be divided equally among them.

Fifthly the farm to remain in the possession of myself and wife during our lives for our support. And I hereby appoint my son James Stancliff and my friend Richard Sander to execute this will. Done this twenty eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty four.

(78) MARY[5] STANCLIFF "Polly" (James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of James and Mary [Russell] Stancliff born November 30, 1781 married about 1799 ABNER[5] STILSON son of Andrew and Elizabeth [Foote] Stilson born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT May 30, 1778, died Elkhart County, IN 1844_2.

Both of their parents and families lived Scipio, Cayuga County, NY after leaving Connecticut. By 1814/5 this couple lived Lysander, Onondaga County, NY, and by 1820 they were living Butler County, OH. They finally moved to Goshen, Elkhart County, IN, a new community that was being established about 1830, and settled there. Several members of both the Stilson and the Stancliff family also settled in Elkhart County, IN.

In the year 1830 Abner Stilson appeared in the Indiana Records. His residence in Goshen was one of those used as a place where the County Probate Court met between 1830 and 1833_3. The Goshen Town Plat of 301 lots was laid out in July, 1831 and Abner was listed as one of the first settlers. At the May Session of 1832, Abner Stilson applied to the Elkhart County Commissioners for a License to keep a Tavern. He paid $12.00 to the County Treasurer for that License. The Commissioners chose to hold their meetings at his Tavern between May 1832 and August 1833, until a Town Hall was built. This Tavern was called a Hotel in other Records and was located on the South East corner of Main Street and Lincoln Avenue in Goshen[1]. It was said that Abner also kept a Hotel in Town of Elkhart, IN at a later (but not specified) date.

The following account mentioned specifically that this was the Abner Stilson who ran the Hotel, thus Abner Stilson Sr. In the spring of 1832 there was a War scare in Goshen. This was the Year of the Black Hawk Wars and indeed Chief Black Hawk and an indian war party was reported to be moving Eastward. Even though the Indians surrounding Goshen had been friendly in the past, the residents feared for their safety. An expedition was being formed to march West and engage the Indians. The womenfolk of Goshen were not going to have their men march off and leave them alone. The account did not mention exactly what strategy was employed by these women to influence an entire town full of men, but the Goshen men did not join that expedition. Instead it was decided that a small group of Goshen men would visit the local Indian Villages looking for hostile preparations. At the same time Abner Stilson volunteered to go to Indianapolis to petition Governor Noble to send State Troops. It was reported that the Indians still seemed peaceful and Abner Stilson brought news that the Governor had already sent mounted Troops to South Bend and thence West. Some of the timid folks of Goshen began to pack up and return to Ohio. It was later learned that Black Hawk never came closer than 100 miles West of Chicago[2].

Abner Stilson of Goshen was elected a Justice of the Peace of the 9th Judicial Circuit in the annual election of 1835 and again in 1846. If indeed Abner Senior died by 1844 then at least the second record refers to Abner Stilson Jr.

On the first Monday of April 1841 the Clerk of Courts for Elkhart County ordered that each Township should elect proscribed Officers. Abner Stilson (either Sr or Jr) was elected Overseer of the Poor.

CHILDREN: Abner and Polly/Mary [Stancliff] Stilson

1. OLIVER STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY May 23, 1800.
2. MARIE STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Oct. 19, 1802, married May 4, 1820 Butler County, OH DAVID ALEXANDER and may have married 2. DAVID LOTHROP born Franklin W. Town, CT[3].

4. MORGAN LEWIS STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Mar. 5, 1807, died young.
5. LEONARD STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Feb. 5, 1809, probably married Lake County, IN June 7, 1842 SALLY SURPRISE.
6. JAMES STANCLIFF STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY July 2, 1811, married ELIZABETH DICKINSON. He purchased lots # 175, 196 and 233 in Twp 37 Range 5 (Jefferson Township, IN) for $90.00. He purchased land in Walworth County, WI in 1848 and was still in that area in 1858.
7. ABNER STILSON JR born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY June 7, 1813, died 1847, Lived Goshen, IN and was prominent in the community, holding several public offices. He married Lake County, IN Mar. 20, 1838 MELISSA DEMON or DENHAM[4]. He was appointed the 2nd Postmaster of Goshen on Nov. 26, 1832. His office was located in the back of Twomey's Shoe Store[5]. He served in that capacity until 1837. Abner Stilson, either this man or his father purchased town lots # 7, 8, 11, and 48 Jefferson TWP in 1836 for $80.00. Since this was same time that his brother James Stancliff Stilson was buying land it probably was a record of Abner Stilson Jr. Abner Stilson Jr was elected on Nov. 23, 1839 to the first Board of Trustees of the Town of Goshen along with John Cook, D. Parrot, A. Galentine and J. S. Rayner. The town was administered by Trustees until incorporation in 1854. Listed as a Jeweler by 1837, Abner Stilson was also teaching school about 1840 in a log schoolhouse. The Goshen Directory of the Goshen Democrat dated Aug. 5, 1841 lists him as a Goldsmith and a Jeweler[6]. On Feb. 18, 1841 the newspaper carried a story about a theft at his Jewelry store in which some 53 gold and silver watches were stolen. At the Elkhart County Democratic Convention held at Goshen May 30, 1840, Abner Stilson Jr. was nominated to be Coroner. He again received an appointment as Goshen's Postmaster on July 31, 1845 and a new Postmaster was appointed in May 15, 1847. It did not indicate whether Abner served the entire term.
8. ELIZA STILSON born Scipio, Cayuga County, NY May 8, 1815, died Elkhart County, IN 1856, married Elkhart County, IN July 19, 1836 JAMES R. McCORD. In the same list that showed land purchase by James S. and Abner Stilson, J. R. McCord and Leonard Harris purchased Lots # 26 and 31 Goshen Town Lots. He was also listed as one of the first merchants in town. In 1857, J. R. McCord of Elkhart Twp. was one of the founders and on the Executive Board of the Pioneer Club of Goshen, IN.
9. ANGELINE B. STILSON born Lysander, Onondaga County, NY June 4, 1817, died Valley Ford, Sonoma County, CA Sept. 11, 1880, buried Oak Mound Cemetery at Healdsburg, Sonoma County, CA. married Nov. 19, 1839 Elkhart County, IN WALTER F. GATES.

(79) WILLIAM[5] STANCLIFF (James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of James and Mary [Russell] Stancliff born probably in CT about 1784, died Elkhart County, IN before 1840, married about 1807 LUCY DOTY daughter of Isaac and Anna [Parks] Doty born NY 1790. The Doty family had previously lived Saratoga County, NY.

In "1805 he was in Col. Tillotson's Regiment, Cayuga County. WILLIAM STANCLIFF, Ensign, vice Henry Watkins, promoted."[1] He later lived "on the Holland Purchase" and was in Sheldon, Genesee County, NY (now Wyoming County, NY) by 1820[2] This man moved to Goshen, Elkhart County, IN along with brother-in-law, Abner Stilson.

In November of 1836 a congregation of 11 persons under the leadership of Elder Adam Miller or Deacon William Stancliff was organized into the first Baptist Church ever located in Goshen, IN.[3] The very strong Baptist orientation of the Scipio, NY families and the fact that this man was evidently a Baptist Deacon before coming to the area, supports his identity as William Stancliff from Scipio, NY. William died before the 1840 Census was taken when Lucy [Doty] Stancliff called "Luca Stancliff" in this record was head of Household[4].

Lucy Stancliff was also Head of Household in 1850 Town of Elkhart census and was listed as born 1790 in NY, she had in her family Sarah and William Stancliff plus a 12 year old girl named Jane Coldron born in IN.

The Elkhart County Indiana Probate Index at Goshen, IN lists Probate papers for William Stancliff in Box-11 with James E. Stancliff listed as Administrator, and also Probate documents for Lucy Stancliff in Box 14. These records cannot be found.

CHILDREN: William and Lucy [Doty] Stancliff, may be incomplete.

(80) SARAH[5] STANCLIFF "Sally" (James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of James and Mary [Russell] Stancliff died Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY Aug. 3, 1816, married as his second wife, ANDREW BENEDICT, son of Nathaniel and Anah [Raymond] Benedict born Norwalk, Fairfield County, CT Jun. 21, 1772, died Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY Sept. 23, 1853, buried there at Fleming Rural Cemetery next to his brother, Uriah, and wife.

Andrew Benedict moved from CT to Scipio or Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY in 1798, and was followed by his brother Uriah at a later date. Sally [Stancliff] Benedict joined the Congregational Church at Lisle, NY Jan. 3, 1802.

The farm of Andrew Benedict was described as "65 Acres located in Lots # 21 and 14 of the Cayuga Reservation bounded-
North-Highway leading from Zibidee McComber's to the Cayuga lake road
East-Land of Benjamin Gould and Uriah Benedict
West-Land recently sold by me to Henry Hoyt
South-The highway leading from Dr. Hurd's to the sd lake road"

Andrew had by his first wife six children, one of whom was a daughter, Susan Benedict, who married John Boughton, son of John and Currance [Garret] Boughton and they moved to Ohio. Currance [Garret] Boughton was the natural child of Abigail [Stanclift] Downs, an Aunt of Sally [Stancliff] Benedict.

CHILDREN: Andrew and Sally [Stancliff] Benedict

(82) MARY[5] STANCLIFF "Polly" (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born Feb. 15, 1786, baptized Dec. 30, 1792 at the St. Johns Church, St Johnsville, Montgomery County, NY and sponsored by J. Jost and Maria Snell[2]. She was called Polly and specifically designated in a Court Record as a daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine Stancliff[3]. On other records and Census, she appears as Mary. She married in Canada before 1804, DANIEL TRIPP born 1775-1788. He was in Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada in 1804[4], and moved to Elk Township, Athens County, OH by 1820.[5]

The family lived Washington Township, Jackson County, OH where Daniel died in 1828. Administration on his Estate was granted July 3, 1828 to Mary Tripp and Andrew McPheeter, who was her brother-in-law. William Bears, Jacob Anthony and Daniel Duhadway, another brother-in-law, were sureties[6]. In 1830 Mary was living next door to a William Tripp[7] who was born between 1800 and 1810 and could be the husband of her deceased sister, Olive [Stancliff] Tripp.

A Chancery Court Record[8] heard in session, April 3, 1833, and containing a Bill which was written April 5, 1832 provided information on this family. Before his death Daniel Tripp had purchased on Mar. 1, 1828 land from John James located in Washington Township, Jackson County and was described as SW ¼ of Section 34 in Town 8, Range 18. Daniel Tripp had agreed to make three payments plus interest to John James and had given a mortgage deed to Mr. James. The first payment was due in November 1829 and when it was not forthcoming John James took the case to court. In 1832 the debt was still unpaid and the court records cited all heirs of Daniel Tripp. Ruel, Lucinda, David were listed as children, Benjamin, Sybell, William C. and Esther were specified as minor children "under the age of twenty one and eighteen respectively", and Betsy had married after father's death to Samuel Miller. The Court ordered the land to be sold to pay Mr. James.

Mary or Polly [Stancliff] Tripp was deceased by Feb. 5, 1839 when her children were named as heirs of Stanbrough Stancliff as follows, Reuel Tripp of Jackson County, David Tripp residence unknown, Benjamin Tripp of Illinois, Betsy and Sibyl Tripp residence unknown, William and Esther Tripp residence unknown.

CHILDREN: Daniel and Polly [Stancliff] Tripp

1. RUEL TRIPP born OH 1805. He was termed "an idiot" in court papers and was included with minor children when a guardian was appointed for the litigation. In 1860 he lived in the household of Bartemus French in Jackson, Jackson County, OH[9].
2. BETSY TRIPP probably born about 1808. According to the same Court record as cited above Betsy married SAMUEL MILLER after father's death in 1828 and before 1832.
3. DAVID TRIPP born OH before 1811[10], married 1. Jackson County, OH by James Dempsey JP Mar. 13, 1832 MARGARET SCHRECK[11]. She was probably related to Garrett and Ann Schreck with whom the newlyweds had Land and Property transactions soon after their marriage. Garrett was surety on other transactions conducted by David Tripp. David married 2. Jackson County, OH by Jeremiah Redfern JP Mar. 31, 1844 JANE REDFERN[12]. He lived Richland Township, Vinton County, OH in 1850 Census, just across the county line from Washington Township, Jackson County, OH. He was next door to Holden Tripp born 1825 and not far from a William H. Tripp born 1824. By 1860 he had moved to Reeds Mill, now named Hamden, Clinton Township, Vinton County,

(84) ELIZABETH[5] STANCLIFF "Betsy" (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born October 8, 1790, baptized St. John's Church, St. Johnsville, Montgomery County, NY Dec. 30, 1792 sponsored by Johannes and Cathrina Mayer$_6$. She died in Jackson County, OH in 1835. According to the biographies of her son Porter Duhadway$_7$, she must have married 1. ____ PORTER$_8$ and was living in that portion of Athens County, OH that later became Jackson County$_9$ OH, when she married 2. DANIEL DUHADWAY. Daniel Duhadway was born 1782 in Paris, France, died Jackson County, OH 1875 Æ 93.

Daniel's parents left France and settled in a place near Dover, Delaware in 1784. A Jacob Duhadway, either father or brother of Daniel was fined in 1804 for nonattendance at the Fifth Regiment, Third Company of Delaware Militia. Daniel Duhadway served in the War of 1812 and was a member of the South Brandywine Rangers, a Volunteer Delaware Militia Company in 1813 and 1814$_{10}$. Shortly afterwards he came first to Chillicothe, Ross County, OH then to Jackson County, OH. He appeared in several Athens County records around 1818 and must have been a resident as he served as an election official for Elk Township, Athens County,in November 1819. He was a shoemaker and a farmer. In 1830 they lived Washington Township, Jackson County, OH very near the Andrew McPheeter family$_{11}$. Andrew McPheeter was married to Mary's sister Hannah. Porter Duhadway's biography states that after Betsy died in 1835 Daniel left his children and returned to France until 1843, when he returned to Jackson County, OH. On his return he married again Ross County, OH Nov. 10, 1843 MARY [____] SMITH$_{12}$. In 1850 Mary Duhadway born 1791 in VA was living in McArthur, Vinton County, OH with daughters Mary Smith age 13 and Elizabeth Smith age 7$_{13}$. Daniel, however, along with children, Caleb and Lydia, was enumerated in 1850 in the town of Jackson, OH in the household of his elder daughter Elizabeth or "Betsy", her husband William McKinnis and their family$_{14}$.

All children below listed as heirs of Stanbrough P. Stancliff and children of Betsy Duhadway formerly Betsy Stancliff, daughter of Stanbrough Stancliff.

CHILDREN: Daniel and Elizabeth [Stancliff] Porter Duhadway

1. LUCINDA DUHADWAY married Jackson County, OH by J.W. Leach JP Jan. 28, 1835 ISAAC RICKEBAUGH$_{15}$.

6. PORTER DUHADWAY born Jackson County, OH April 7, 1828[4], died Jackson County, OH Nov. 9, 1880 or 1889[5], married Jackson County, OH by John Stephenson J.P. Sept. 10, 1849 MARY MORSE[6], daughter of Eli and Sarah Morse, she died Oct. 1853, he married 2. Jackson County, OH Dec. 25, 1857 by the Rev. A. Abbot, MARY A. BENNET[7]. There were two children by first wife and four by the second wife.

   Porter Duhadway studied Law and was admitted to the Bar in 1860. In 1873 he was elected District Court Judge[8] He served as Mayor of the Town of Jackson for three terms. During the Civil War he was on a committee that went to Pittsburgh Landing to care for wounded Jackson County men in the Army, after the Commissioners of the County, and private citizens raised over $300.00 for that purpose.[9]

(87) DAVID[5] B. STANCLIFF (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born "near Niagara Falls"[11] 1795, died Ross County, Ohio Feb. 13, 1849, buried in Sigler Cemetery, Jefferson Township, Ross County, OH[12], married 1. Athens County, OH by David Culbertson D.D. July 20, 1820, license July 4, 1820[13], AMY MILES daughter of Noah and Rhoda [Wilcox] Miles born 1780[14] in New York State or According to Census born between 1795-1804[15], died Athens County, OH 1828, married 2. Hocking County, OH by William Wycoff Justice of the Peace for Eagle Township November 1, 1829 LEAH BURCH[16]. One family source said Leah took her children and moved to Illinois. Either they were divorced or Leah died as David Stancliff married 3. Ross County, OH by S. D. Stratton, JP Oct. 22, 1839 MARY [LANE] TAGG[17] born Greenbriar County, VA 1804, died Ross County, OH Feb. 21, 1889. Mary was the widow of William Tagg and had a son by that marriage, William Tagg Jr born Feb. 27, 1838. After David's death Mary [Lane] Tagg Stancliff married again in Ross County on Oct. 10, 1850 to Jesse Hollis born VA 1795. The marriage ended in divorce sometime after 1860. At that date Jessie and Mary [Lane] Tagg Stancliff Hollis were living in Jefferson Township, Ross County and with them were Mary's children William Tagg, James, Ann E., Axy and George Stancliff[18]. Two of the sons of Jesse Hollis, by his previous marriage, married nieces of David.

David appeared in court record as David B. Stancliff in 1839. The initial B. was frequently used, but his middle name has not appeared in records. One family record indicates the "B" was for "Burtine"[19] and this middle name does appear in this family in later years for a grandson of David. David signed his name and did not made his mark at that date as his sisters did and was evidently able to read and write.

David Stancliff was living Lee Township, Athens County, OH in 1820. There were several other related families in Lee Township at that date, Noah Miles, father of David's wife Amy, Noah Wilcox married to Amy's sister, Isaac Hawley, and Daniel Duhadway, both married to sisters of David. The remainder of David's family were still in Elk Township, Athens County, OH. They were Elijah Throgmorton, and Daniel Tripp, both married to sisters of David$_1$.

Sometime during 1920 David and his father were involved in an "affray" or a fist fight that also involved a large number of other leading citizens of Athens County. There were suits and counter suits resulting from the fight. On July 3, 1820 David entered a plea of guilty of being involved in the altercation and paid a fine of 2.50_2$. Stanbrough was also under Court order to appear and answer charges, but he evidently died before this occurred. On July 4, 1820, one day after his own appearance in court, David was appointed Administrator on the estate of his father, Stanbrough P. Stancliff$_3$.

David was on a Tax list for Washington Township, Jackson County, OH in 1828 along with brother-in-law Andrew McPheeter. Andrew was taxed on Real Estate and on livestock, David taxed only on livestock. This may suggest that David had several heads of cattle being cared for on Andrew McPheeters farm in Jackson County.

David Stancliff was living in Perry Township, Fairfield County, OH in 1830$_4$ a year after he married his second wife, Leah Burch, in nearby Hocking County, OH. The ceremony was performed by William Wycoff, Justice of the Peace for Eagle Township$_5$.

By 1840 David had married again to Mary [Lane] Tagg, and was located in Harrison Township, Ross County, OH$_6$. David remained in Ross County for the rest of his days, living in Richmondale, Jefferson Township Ross County, OH. The children by his first and second marriages had left the area, and David and Mary raised their children in Ross County.

William was living in the household of brother, Perry, in Wyoming, Stark County, IL in the 1860 Census. Perhaps four years later he was either visiting or living with brother Thomas and Nancy [Blue] Stancliff in Grundy County, MO, when he met and married Margaret Deeds. On Oct. 19, 1892 when Nancy [Blue] Stancliff applied for a widow's pension at Nevada, Vernon County, MO, the witness was Mrs. William Stancliff. Nancy stated "After my husband left me, his brother William came and took me to his house in Sullivan County, Missouri about twenty miles from where we lived in Grundy County, Missouri. I stayed there in that neighborhood for about ten years."$_8$ Margaret A. Stancliff, widow age 75, born VA in Dec. 1824, both parents also born Virginia, never had any children. (88) SARAH[5] STANCLIFF (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Probably called "Sarah Jane" was a daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born in Upper Canada 1797 or 1798 about the time the family was settling at Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada, married before 1817 and probably in Athens County, OH ELIJAH GILLET THROCKMORTON son of William and Sarah [Gillett] Throckmorton of Colrain Township, Ross County, OH born 1776-1781 either Morris County, NJ or Hampshire County, VA.

Elijah's family moved to Ohio in 1801, settling in Colrain Township, Ross County. Elijah served in an Ohio Unit during the War of 1812. As a substitute for Timothy Black, he was enrolled as a Private at Franklinton which is now part of the City of Columbus. He was in Capt. Adam Berry's Company of Denny's Regiment of Ohio Militia between July 28, 1813 and Sept 4, 1813.

Elijah was a witness to the Performance Bond given by Stanbrough P. Stancliff at Elk Township, when Stanbrough was elected Justice of the Peace of Elk Township Athens County in 1817. Elijah was a resident of Athens County in 1819, when he served on the Grand Jury of Athens County. He was a resident of Elk Township, Athens County when he was enumerated in the 1820 Census.

Elijah Throckmorton contracted for 167.26 acres of land in Elk Township, then Athens County, now Vinton County, OH on Aug. 11, 1815. The land described as South West portion of Section 28, Range 17, Township 11_1. The Certificate #4545 was dated September 11, 1815 and specified a total price of $334.52 to be paid in four installments, the final payment due Aug. 11, 1819. On July 28, 1819 the final Certificate was issued as Elijah Throckmorton signed the rights in this land over to Jacob Colvin, the transaction was witnessed by brother-in-law, Daniel Duhadway, before father-in-law, Stanbrough P. Stancliff, Justice of the Peace. Jacob Colvin in turn assigned the certificate to William Ayers on Sept. 24, 1821_2. By 1876 the land was in possession of J. $Winters_3$

Unfortunately in the capacity of Justice of the Peace Stanbrough evidently was forced to make a judgement against Elijah Throckmorton in Mar. 1818. This Judgement precipitated the mortgage of two of Stanbrough's McArthur Town lots to help his son-in-law satisfy that $judgement_4$. The lots were signed over to Peter Dunn Jr of Colrain Township, Ross County on Nov. 1, 1819 and the document mentioned the judgement and the sum of $68.00 plus the interest which had accrued from the Mar. 1818 date. The mortgage was never discharged and it is of interest that Peter Dunn made no move to claim his interest in the land after Stanbrough's death but waited until May 6, 1836 to sell his interest in the property to William Hall. From information on $Elijah\ Throckmorton_5$ it would seem that Elijah died in 1836 and Peter Dunn then felt free to dispose of the property. Sarah [Stancliff] Throckmorton was listed in those Court Proceedings as living in Ross County in 1839. There was a Jane Throckmorton living next to Andrew and Hannah [Stancliff] McPheeter in Jefferson Township, Ross County, OH in 1840 with eight children in her family, four young males and four young females. This was probably Sarah "Jane" [Stancliff] Throckmorton, widow of $Elijah_6$.

CHILDREN: Elijah and Sarah [Stancliff] Throckmorton

1. MARY THROCKMORTON "Polly" born Ross County, OH 1818, married Ross County, OH May 4, 1841 STEPHEN SPEAKMAN. An outline of the Speakman family found at the Ohio Genealogical Society presents a possible conflict on this marriage. It says Stephen Speakman, son of Joshua and Mary [Wycoff] Speakman of Vinton County born 1815, died 1861? married 1. May 14, 1841 Elizabeth Throckmorton There is also Stephen, brother of Joshua, son of Ebenezer and Elizabeth [Cox] Speakman who married May 4, 1841 Mary Throckmorton. This would have made him some twenty years older than Mary. Mary probably married Stephen, son of Joshua.
2. JULIA ANN THROCKMORTON born Athens County, OH Jun. 4, 1819, died Harrison Township, Van Wert County, OH Dec. 6, 1894, married by K. H. Dunkle, JP Hocking County, OH Jan 2, 1842 AARON PANCAKE born Fairfield County, OH Jan. 4, 1817, died Harrison Township, Van Wert County, OH Sept. 22, 1891. They are both buried at Kings Church Cemetery, Harrison Township. They moved to Van Wert County, OH in 1851.

(89) HANNAH[5] STANCLIFF (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada 1800_1, married 1. Athens County, OH Sept. 14, 1819 NATHAN LOVELESS$_2$ son of John and Racheal [Van Hook] Loveless$_3$ born 1780, died sometime before 1839. Nathan's brother William Loveless lived in 1850 in Perry Township, Pickaway County, OH, next to John Durham. In the 91 year old John Derum's household was Mary [Durham] Blue and daughter, Nancy Blue. Nancy would later marry Thomas Stancliff, son of David B. Stancliff. Hannah married 2. by 1826, ANDREW McPHEETER, born 1782 in VA, died Ross County, OH Nov. 3, 1853 Æ 71 years, 7 months and 18 days$_4$, buried in Sigler Cemetery.

Andrew McPheeter lived Jackson Township, Jackson County in 1820 before he married Hannah Stancliff. He had in his household this date a female between 26 and 45 and three young females$_5$. Andrew and Hannah lived Washington Township, Jackson County, OH in 1830, very near Daniel and Betsy [Stancliff] Duhadway, who was Hannah's sister$_6$. Andrew was enumerated in the 1840 Census and at that date there were five children in the family fitting the ages of those below. They had moved by that date to Jefferson Township, Ross County$_7$. There was a Jane Throckmorton living near them with children in her family. This may be Hannah's sister Sarah "Jane" [Stancliff] Throckmorton, widow of Elijah. In 1850 they still lived Jefferson Township, Ross County, OH$_8$.

On Jan. 15, 1836 Andrew McPheeter purchased 43.8 Acres NW 1/4 NE 1/4 Sec.12, Township.7 Range 20$_9$. He also owned land in Washington Township, Jackson County, OH consisting of 80 Acres S 1/2 SE Sec.29 Township.8 Range 18 and is on the 1828 list for chattel property having two cows. David Stancliff on same list with three cows. The original owner of the 80 acres was Charles McKinnis and it is interesting to note that Daniel Duhadway is found in the 1850 Jackson County census living, along with his youngest daughter Lydia, in the home of William McKinnis born 1818 and Elizabeth his wife born 1819, who is Daniel's daughter "Betsy".

After Andrew McPheeter's death, Hannah moved with her son, George, to Marion County, IL. Hannah's brother, James Stancliff, and a 7 year old Joseph Stancliff, was with them. This family group was counted twice in the 1860 Census, with varying ages, inexact spelling of names, and in different combinations, making the precise location of their home and make-up of the family uncertain. On July 13, 1860 the Census indicated that "James Stanchef" was the head of household, George McPheeter and a "Nancy" McPheeter born IN 1808 were with him. Even though it says she was born "in Indiana", this is probably Hannah [Stancliff] McPheeter, since Nancy was then the accepted nickname for Hannah. They were living in Town 1, Range 3, which is Haines Township$_{10}$. On August 3, 1860, James Stancliff, and Josiah Stancliff age 7, were living with George and Hannah McPheeter in Town 2, Range 3, P.O. Salem, which is Stevenson Township, and this time George was head of household$_{11}$. On August 24, Joseph Stancliff age 7 was present in household of the Chesterton family, P.O.Rome, Stevenson Township.

CHILDREN: Nathan and Hannah [Stancliff] Loveless, list possibly incomplete.

In 1850 Census they have a son named Thomas P. Hollis born 1849 and they live next door to Andrew and Hannah [Stancliff] McPheeter, her parents$_3$. In 1860 there is an unusual Census record in which "Valeria McFeters" age 30 and Hannah McFeters age 28 were living in Jefferson Township, Ross County, OH with what appears to be two groups of children, totaling nine in all and all under the age of nine years and all bearing the surname "McPheeter"$_4$. Possibly Velora left her husband and reclaimed her maiden name.
3. HANNAH McPHEETER born OH 1830 and living at home in 1850, and perhaps with sister, Velora, in 1860.
4. MARGARET McPHEETER born OH 1833 died Mar. 14, 1853 and buried Sigler Cemetery next to her father.
5. GEORGE McPHEETER born OH 1837, moved with his mother to Marion County, IL by 1860. By 1870 he had married MARTHA ____ born 1833 in IL and had two children. His occupation was butcher and he was living Salem Township, Town of Salem, Marion County, IL.

(90) OLIVE[5] STANCLIFF (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Stanbrough Perigrine and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Ontario, Canada either 1802 or 1807, married ____ TRIPP probably William Tripp, and was deceased by 1839.

The following children listed as children of Olive and heirs of Stanbrough Stancliff. There was a William Tripp family living next door to Mary [Stancliff] Tripp, widow of Daniel Tripp, in Washington Township, Jackson County,in the 1830 Census. There is also with that family an elderly female of proper age to be Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff. The 1840 Census shows William living Jackson County, Washington Township and at this date there are additional children in his family$_5$.

CHILDREN: _____ (maybe William) and Olive [Stancliff] Tripp

1. LAVINIA TRIPP a Lovina Tripp married Jackson County, OH Nov. 28, 1846 ROBERT JONES$_6$. In the 1839 Court record Lavinia Tripp was said to be in Illinois.
2. HANNAH TRIPP
3. JOHN TRIPP
4. MARY TRIPP
5. DANIEL TRIPP
6. SILAS TRIPP born 1823/1825 according to census records, married Hocking County, OH Nov. 26, 1846 MARY DILL "Polly" born PA 1924 and probably the daughter of William and Elizabeth Dill. Lived Jackson Township, Vinton County, 1850$_7$ and still lived there in 1860$_8$.
7. POLLY TRIPP of Athens County,in 1839

(93) JAMES[5] STANCLIFF (Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

In 1830 he was living Henry County, IN with wife and one daughter under 5 years of age. He was mentioned in the Court of Common Pleas Chancery records as Stanbrough Stancliff's son and heir, residence unknown in 1839. In 1850 he lived Noble Township, Wabash County, IN with wife and three daughters. By 1860 two of the daughters were still in Wabash County, IN living in the household of Eleamander Saso$_{11}$, whose wife though listed as "Mary" was born the same year that James' daughter Lucinda Stancliff was born. In that same year James Stancliff and 7 year old Josiah Stancliff were found in Salem, Stevenson Township, 9.This man's age varied in every record in which he appeared. The Census records of Hamilton Township, Ontario, Canada however show the birth of the youngest male child in the year 1807/1808. The IL 1860 Census, Marion County, Town 2, Range 3 says he was born 1798 OH, The IN 1850 Census, Wabash County, Noble Township says he was born 1805 in Canada. His Military record says he was born 1818 in Canada, but his family had left Canada before that time.

11.IN 1860 CENSUS, Wabash County, Noble Township, Dwelling 448, Family 442.

Marion County, IL with James' widowed sister, Hannah McPheeter, and her son George McPheeter, head of household, and all of them were listed as being born in Ohio[1]. Young Josiah, this time called Joseph Stancliff, counted a second time in this same census in Rome, Stevenson Township, Marion County, IL with the James Chesterson family nearby[2], and James Stancliff and George McPheeter were also enumerated a second time in Haines Township, Marion County, IL this time James Stancliff was the head of household with George and a "Nancy" McPheeter said to be born 1808 IN. Nancy is probably Hannah McPheeters. Almost every detail in this 1860 census was in conflict but these are the same people[3]. George McPheeters and family remained in Salem, Marion County, IL in 1870 but Hannah [Stancliff] McPheeters and Josiah Stancliff were not with his family, and James Stancliff had died in the Civil War.

The following is from Perry Stancliff's biography[4] referring to Stanbrough Stancliff's family "Of the twelve children of the family only four were sons, and three of these lost their lives in the United States service, the youngest, James, being a private in an Indiana regiment during the Civil War, and contracting a disease that terminated his life." Compare the authoritative narrative of Perry Stancliff with the following records and the James described in the Service records must be judged to be the same man.

James Stancliff enrolled as a private in F company of the 101st Regiment of Indiana Volunteers at Wabash, Indiana on the 16th of August 1862 by Capt. Benjamin F. Williams and that he was duly mustered into the Military Service of the United States at Indianapolis on the 5th day of September 1862 for the term of three years. His age given as 44 at that time. He died at Gallatin, Tennessee December 24, 1862 of disease[5].

The actual service records provided additional information on his casualty record. He was born "in the Kingdom of Great Britain, Canada; 44 years of age, five feet eleven tall, dark complexion, dark eyes grey hair and by occupation, a farmer." He died of Camp Dysentery. Report certified by Capt. B.F. Williams[6].

The age reported in the 1850 census[7] is more compatible with other known facts and James may have been so eager to join the service that he did not give his correct age. His age has been in conflict in almost every record that James has appeared in.

CHILDREN: James and Hannah [____] Stancliff

(95) LEWIS[5] M. STANCLIFT[8] (?Lewis[4], James Jr[3], William[2], James[1])

This man is probably the son of Lewis and Mabel [Griffen] Stanclift of Southbury, CT born 1788, died Milton, Saratoga County, NY Feb. 10, 1843, married probably at Ballston, Saratoga County, NY MARGARET JANE GILLIS born NY 1790, died Saratoga County, NY Nov. 18, 1833.

Lewis was enumerated in 1820 living in the town of Milton, Saratoga County, NY[9]. Land Records of Montgomery County, NY[10] dated Mar. 10, 1829 indicate that Lewis M. Stanclift of Milton, Saratoga County, NY purchased 122 acres in the twp of Broadalbin, Montgomery County, NY (now Fulton County) from David Jr. and Mary [____] Swan "Polly", of Greenfield, Saratoga County, NY for the sum of $1,200. The land was located within the Kayaderosseras Patent. The land is not far from the towns of Milton or Ballston, which are also located within the boundaries of this gigantic Patent, which encompassed most of Saratoga County, NY. They did not seem to live on that property, but instead were residents of the Town of Milton, Saratoga County, NY. That is where they were in 1830 with six children and an unidentified male between 70 and 80 years of age[11].

Lewis and Margaret sold property in Town of Milton to William Wilson which was recorded in 1834[12]. The most enlightening property transaction took place after the death of Lewis, his heirs sold their rights in a piece of his property in Milton, to another heir on Feb. 5, 1845[13]. and James Love of the same place and his wife Clarrinda of the second part...." Mary was the only heir who did not sign the document, if she was born after 1827, she was a minor at this date. They sold the property to James and Clarinda Love. While we have not found birth records for these children, the fact that they shared in the distribution of property of Lewis M. Stanclift is sufficient to list them as children.

CHILDREN: Lewis M. and Margaret [Gillis] Stanclift

\+ 200- 1. CLARINDA STANCLIFT born 1809 or 1810, married in Milton, Saratoga County, NY JAMES LOVE, who died before 1870.

\+ 201- 2. JOHN STANCLIFT born NY 1812, died Elkhart County, IN Apr. 26, 1888 Æ 76, married LOIS R. SMITH of VT.

\+ 202- 3. WILLIAM STANCLIFT born NY 1815, died Elkhart County, IN Aug. 28, 1890 Æ 76, married NY ANN ELIZA VAN HOSEN.

\+ 203- 4. PHEBE JANE STANCLIFT born Milton, Saratoga County, NY Aug. 5, 1818, died Elkhart County, IN Jun. 23, 1874, married Dec. 18, 1839 CYRUS FRENCH.

204- 5. MEHITABLE STANCLIFT born NY between 1820 and 1825[1] married PHILO D. ROGERS and may have remained in Milton, NY or moved to Yates County, NY.

\+ 205- 6. LEWIS JAMES STANCLIFT born 1820, died before 1869, married Nov. 20, 1856 JULIA STEWARD ELDRIDGE. Lived Elmira, Chemung County, NY.

\+ 206- 7. CORNELIUS A. STANCLIFT born probably Balston Spa, Saratoga County, NY 1827, married in Schenectady, Schenectady County, NY at the 1st Presbyterian Church by Rev. Backus Mar. 13, 1852 SARAH JANE MILLER.

207- 8. MARY STANCLIFT listed on the Property transaction of 1845, she may have been a minor and therefore not required to sign the deed, the children were listed on the Land Deed in chronological order. Cornelius above was only 19 at the time himself. She was probably born about 1829. Later Census records reveal two girls that are the nieces of both Clara and John. They were Bertha Stevenson born NY 1860 and Agnes Daggert born IN 1877. These may be the daughters of Mary.

(98) RANSOM JOHNSON[5] STANCLIFT$_2$ (William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Mary [Slade] Stanclift born 1786, died Russia, Herkimer County, NY Aug. 20, 1827 Æ 39, buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY, married OLIVE ____ born CT about 1800, died Russia, Herkimer County, NY between 1860 and 1870. If Olive was the only wife of Ransom, she married and had her first child at a very early age.

He appeared in records as both Ransom and as Johnson. He and Olive belonged to the Russia Union Church. When the church was organized and built for the use of various denominations in the community, Ransom pledged support and purchased shares in the endeavor$_3$. Ransom and his father, William, declared themselves part of the Baptist Congregation. After Ransom's death, Olive remained active in the church.

Ransom was enumerated as a head of family in 1820$_4$, living next to other members of his family. He appears on the same census page with father, William, and brother, Danforth. Olive was in the 1830$_5$ Census as head of the family. In the 1840 Census$_6$ as the head of the family, she was living Russia, Herkimer County, NY between brothers-in-law Danforth and Robert. With her at these dates were two males with ages corresponding to those of William and Walter, and a female with age corresponding to that of Mary. While Danforth moved to Lewis County by 1850, Olive remained in Russia$_7$ with sons William and Walter. William died two years later and by 1860 only Olive and Walter were left on the farm$_8$ On the next farm was Robert Stanclift, brother of Ransom Johnson Stanclift who also remained in Russia.

CHILDREN: Ransom and Olive [____] Stanclift

208- 1. WILLIAM STANCLIFT born NY 1814, died Dec. 2, 1852 Æ 37 years, buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY.

209- 2. DANIEL STANCLIFT In other record as David, but gravestone indicates Daniel born Jun. 17, 1823, died July 18, 1828 Æ 5 years 1 month and 1 day buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY.

210- 3. WALTER STANCLIFT "Walt" born NY 1820-1824, Lived Russia, Herkimer County, NY, and never married. By 1870 Walter was the only Stanclift remaining in the Town of Russia, Herkimer County, NY$_9$. He was farming and lived next door to Solomon Halliday. The Halliday family had lived Windsor, CT, Marlboro, Windham County, VT and now in Herkimer County, NY following the exact migration pattern as this branch of the Stanclift family. They were related to the Slade family and so were distant cousins of this branch of the Stanclift family. Both "Walt" Stanclift and neighbor, Roselle Halliday, were acclaimed in a local newspaper as "Masters of the Tall Story" and their efforts sometimes appeared in print[1].

(99) DANFORTH[5] STANCLIFT (William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Mary [Slade] Stanclift born Jun. 15, 1790 in MA[2] while family was living Russell, MA died Mar. 23, 1877 Æ 86 years 9 months and 8 days buried Rea Cemetery[3], Turin, Lewis County, NY, married ZILPHA SALMON[4] as her second husband. Zilpha was born Nov. 1, 1795[5] in Dutchess County, NY[6] and died Nov. 22, 1879 Æ 85 years 22 days.

Danforth's will written Feb. 9, 1870, was recorded June 25, 1877[7]. It provided that all property, real and personal was to go to wife, Zilpha, and after her death to daughter, Olive Higby, and to heirs of his son Mather, deceased, who were named. He appointed friend Lysander Higby of West Turin, who was also his son-in-law, and Emery B. Holden of Turin as his Executors.

Zilpha's will written Oct. 23, 1879 and Recorded Mar. 29, 1880[8], left all of her property to daughter Olive Higby and appointed Olive as sole executrix.

The family was enumerated in the 1820[9], 1830[10] and 1840[11] Census living Russia, Herkimer County, NY near other members of the Stanclift family. By 1850 they had moved to Lewis County, NY and lived in the Town of Turin. At this date Danforth was head of the household and their son, Marther, and his family shared the same house[12]. Not far away were several families named Salmon, one family headed by a Ransom Salmon born 1792. It is possible that the move to Lewis County was prompted by a desire to be near Zilpha's family. The 1860 Census indicates that Marther was then the head of the family, and his parents were still sharing the same house. While Marther was termed a Farmer, Danforth was a "retired" Farmer. They lived next to members of a Salmon family at this date they were listed as being in Town of Turin, Lewis County, NY[13]. The 1865 State Census specifies Zilpha's birthplace as Dutchess County and says Zilpha had born seven children[14].

There must have been an epidemic of some sort in the spring of 1831, and tragically this family lost three little girls within a weeks time. Of the six known children only two reached adulthood.

(102) ROXY[5] STANCLIFT "Roxa" (William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of William and Mary [Slade] Stanclift born Jan. 15, 1800, died Feb. 28, 1825 or 1826 Æ 27, married Jan. 25, 1817 SCHUYLER WHEELER son of Ephraim and Catherine [Dutcher] Wheeler born Feb. 15, 1798_1.

Schyler married again after the death of Roxy, to Amanda Allen daughter of William and Aurel [Brooks] Allen of Remsden, NY and a sister of Lydia [Allen] Stanclift, who was the wife of Roxa's brother, Robert Stanclift. They had a daughter, Eliza Wheeler.

Schuyler was counted in the 1840 Census still living in Russia, "Northern District of New York", near both his brother, Ephraim E. Wheeler and Roxy's brothers Danforth and Robert Stanclift$_2$. Later in the 1840s Schyler and Amanda [Allen] Wheeler moved to Remsden, Oneida County, NY about 30 miles north of Utica and engaged in a number of land transactions in that area, at least one of those transactions involved Amanda's parents, William and Aurel [Brooks] Allen.

(104) ROBERT[5] STANCLIFT (William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of William and Mary [Slade] Stanclift born CT$_3$ 1803, married 1.BETSEY ____ who died Aug. 4, 1832 Æ 27 buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia, Herkimer County, NY$_4$ married 2. Utica, NY by Rev. E. Jones Jan. 3, 1836 MARY ANN SMITH$_5$ sister of Harrison Smith. Mary Ann was born NY 1810_6 and died either July 14, 1852_7 or July 7, 1852 Æ 41_8, buried Gravesville Cemetery, Russia Township, Herkimer County, NY$_9$,. He married 3. at Trenton, Oneida County, NY Oct. 10, 1753 LYDIA [ALLEN] BURROWS daughter of William and Aurel [Brooks] Allen born Sept. 7, 1808_{10}.

Robert lived in Russia, Herkimer County, NY, in Oriskany, Oneida County, and Utica, Oneida County, NY. He left Russia, Herkimer County, NY between 1869 and 1876.

On May 4, 1869 Robert applied for a pension from the government based upon the service of his son, George, who died while serving in the Union Army during the Civil War. He was still living in Russia, Herkimer County, NY at that date. Robert was awarded Pension #174992. In 1876 he again asked for help in the form of a duplicate Certificate. His Pension Certificate had been stolen from a trunk of personal possessions along with other items, and Robert was having trouble receiving his pension payments. By 1876 he was "living Penfield, Monroe County, NY"$_{11}$.

Robert appeared in the 1830_{12}, 1840_{13}, 1850_{14} and 1860 Census records which showed him living in Russia, Herkimer County, NY on or near the old Stanclift family homestead.

The Allen Biography in the Russia Union Church Anniversary Publication states that there were two Stanclift sons born to Robert and Lydia [Allen] Stanclift. There are no children reported between the date of the marriage in 1853 and the 1860 Census. Since Lydia was aged 45 at the time of their marriage it is not likely that she had additional children.

In 1860 Robert's son, Jerome Stanclift, was in Whitestown, Oneida County, NY in the household of Cyrus Burrows$_{15}$. It is probable that the Cyrus Burrows with whom Jerome Stanclift was living was a son of Lydia [Allen] Burrows Stanclift by her first marriage. After Cyrus' death Robert's son, Charles, married the widow of Cyrus Burrows.

Two sisters of Lydia had also married men named Burrows and they also lived at Whitestown, Oneida County, NY. Lydia's

It is probable that Cyrus Burrows was a son of Lydia. Charles had living in his household in 1880 stepchildren belonging to Diana, Frank B. Burrows born 1862, and Delia Burrows born 1871. There was also a 53 year old man named Francis Rice in his household, and they shared a house with the widow Sallie Lynd age 70, born NY and she was listed as "Keeps P. Office". They were that date living in the Hamlet of Greigsville, Livingston County, NY[5].

Josiah appeared in the 1840 Census as a head of household in Halifax and he and Renew had two male and one female child in their family[6]. In 1850 Renew was listed as "Rachel" and her father, Weeks Wilcox, age 85 was also a member of their household[7]. After Josiah's death, his son, Josiah Weeks, became the head of the household. In 1860 Josiah Weeks Stanclift's mother, brother, and sister were joined by his uncle, William Madison Stanclift, who lived with the family at that date[8]. In 1870 Josiah Weeks was still the head of the household consisting of his mother and two unmarried siblings. His uncle William was now living with his uncle Solomon's family[9].

CHILDREN: Josiah and Renew [Wilcox] Stanclift

228- 1. JOSIAH WEEKS STANCLIFT born Halifax, Windham County, VT Feb. 19, 1825. He never married. After the death of his mother and sister and the marriage of his brother, he appeared on the 1900 Census as a boarder in household of Dennis L. Brown in Whitingham Township, Windham County, VT[10]. (109) SOLOMON[5] STANCLIFT (Solomon[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Solomon and Abigail [Thomas] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT Nov. 11, 1807, married 1. ROXIE ____ who died Oct. 14, 1836 Æ 36 years, buried Thomas Hill Cemetery, Halifax, VT[2]. She was possibly his cousin Roxie Slade daughter of Abner and Olive [Stanclift] Slade. Shortly after Roxie's death he married 2. ABIGAIL WILLARD daughter of James and Esther [Lynde] Willard born July 19, 1822[3], died May 2, 1900 Æ 84, she is buried at Thomas Hill Cemetery, Halifax, VT.

In 1830 Solomon and Roxie lived near other members of the family in Halifax and there were no young children in the family[4]. Roxie died 1836 and soon after Solomon married Abigail Willard and by 1840 Solomon was living Brattleboro, Windham County, VT with a wife and young son[5]. He was in the 27th Regiment of Militia 1837-1840 and listed as "Solomon Standclift of Halifax, Colonel of the Regiment", Brattleboro, VT[6]. He then moved to Marlboro, Windham County, VT and was frequently referred to in records as "Colonel Solomon Stanclift". In 1850 he was listed as a farmer in Marlboro and now had sons William and Ira in the family[7]. By 1860 Solomon was once again living in Halifax and Abigail's sister, Gratia Willard, was living with them. Son Ira was also still with his parents[8]. Ira died and by 1870 Solomon and Abigail had in their household not only Abigail's sister, Gratia Willard, but also Solomon's brother William Madison Stanclift and an eight year old grandson, Charles LeRoy Stanclift, the son of William Van Buren and Rosella [Prouty] Stanclift[9].

(113) ANNA[5] STANCLIFT (Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Eldah and Lydia [Ellsworth] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT Feb. 25, 1799[12], married 1. at Halifax, Windham County, VT by Darius Bullock JP and Town Clerk April 16, 1818 JOHN GORE[13], the younger brother of the woman that her father had married the week before. Her step mother was also her sister in law. John Gore was son of Amos and Lydia [Carpenter] Gore.

They left Vermont with other members of the Gore family and in 1830 John and Anna lived in Kirtland Township, Geauga County, OH. The area is now Kirtland, Lake County, OH. They lived next to John's widowed mother, Lydia Gore, his brother-in-law Tarbell Gates and his brother Ebenezer Gore. At this date they had a son aged 10-15, a son 5-10, and a son under 5, a daughter 5-10 and a daughter under 5 years of age[14].

In 1838 one Hiram Dayton purchased a farm in Kirtland Township, but he evidently did not remain in the area long after that. He sold this farm to John Gore who owned it "several years" and the ownership of the farm was in other hands by 1847[15].

The Gore manuscript by Theodore W. Gore says that Anna survived her husband and married 2. Mr. ____ SAWYER.

1.The Records of the First Congregational Church of Barkhamsted, CT give his name as Wallace. The Charles R. Hale Records of Cemetery Inscriptions give his name as William. The death date and age is identical in both records.

(114) ELDAH[5] STANCLIFT or STANCLIFF JR (Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Eldah and Lydia [Ellsworth] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT Jan. 23, 1801_1, died Iowa 1880 Æ 79, married 1. Halifax, Windham County, VT by Darius Bullock JP and Town Clerk Nov. 9, 1817 NABBY WEEKS or $WICKS_2$, married 2.Guilford Township, Windham County, VT by Cyrus Carpenter JP, Dec. 2, 1824 SOPHIA or SOPHRONIA ALDRICH daughter of Peter and Sybell [Rogers] Aldrich born Sept. 13, 1809, died 1886.

Eldah Jr was listed in the 1820 Census in Halifax, Windham County, VT with one male under age 10_3. In the 1830 Census he was still in Halifax, Windham County, VT and now has a male aged between 5 and 10 $years_4$. Eldah had Land and Property dealings in Somerset, Windham County, VT in 1837. Between 1837 and 1840 he seemed to disappear from the records. In 1840 Sophronia was left in Somerset $with_5$ 3 males born 1825-1830, 1 female born 1830-1835 and 1 female born 1835-1840 (this would seem to be Rossetta). The three males were engaged in agriculture which suggests that their property was a farm. Eldah may have followed the Gores and his Stanclift relatives westward with the thought of sending for his wife and children later or Sophronia may have refused to leave her home in Vermont to join him on the trek westward. It is not known if he went directly to Iowa, where he died some forty years later.

CHILDREN: Eldah Jr and Sophronia [Aldrich] $Stancliff_6$- list incomplete

233- 1. CHARLES STANCLIFF or STANLEY changed his name to Charles Stanley about $1840\text{-}1850_7$. It is possible to theorize that a young man angered by the absence or even desertion of his father might choose for himself another name. He may have appeared as Stanclift in the following Windham County, VT record "Maude Eva born Jun. 22, 1888 to Emma and Charles Stanclift, farmer"

234- 2. ROSSETTA STANCLIFF born ca. 1836

235- 3. RHODA STANCLIFF is probably the Rhoda Stancliff of Searsburg, Windham County, VT who married 1854 in Somerset, Windham County, VT HENRY BROWN.

(115) SAMUEL[5] W. STANCLIFT or STANCLIFF (Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Eldah and Lydia [Ellsworth] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT Sept. 26, 1803_8, married LAURA _____ born NY 1804.

He moved to NY by 1837 as the census records indicate his son was born in NY. On Nov. 24, 1847 Samuel W. Stanclift of Champion, Jefferson County, NY for the sum of $15.00 purchased from Daniel Grant and Mercy his wife a parcel of land being part of Lot #22 subdivision #2, located contiguous to land that had been "deeded by Constant Crandall to Laura Stanclift"$_9$. This suggests that Laura had received some sort of inheritance in the Town of Champion before 1847, and that they purchased adjoining land. He was there in 1850 Census listed as a shoemaker by trade.

County, VT Mar. 3, 1876 of consumption Æ 65 years, 9 months and 28 days[1], married ESTHER TUCKER daughter James and Sarah Tucker, born Halifax, Windham County, VT Mar. 22, 1809[2], died Halifax, Windham County, VT Aug. 29, 1863[3], buried Thomas Hill Cemetery.

At the time of his death Sanford was listed as a Shoemaker living Marlboro Township, Windham County, VT. Sanford appeared in the 1840 and 1850 Census Records living in Halifax, Windham County, VT.

On May 8, 1837 Joseph Tucker, a brother of Esther, sold a parcel of land to brother-in-law, Sanford Stancliff. It was located in Halifax Lot #44 next to land of Amos Tucker, another brother of Esther. The land had been originally purchased from Sanford's father, Eldah Stanclift, and was a portion of his initial land holdings[4]. It appears that Sanford may have married the girl next door.

(120) EBENEZER EDWARD[5] STANCLIFT or STANCLIFF "Eben" (Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Eldah and Amy [Gore] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT April 3, 1819, died Phoenix, Jackson County, OR Nov. 1, 1901, married, probably in Iowa Oct. 5, 1840 his first cousin POLLY SABRY GORE "Sabry" daughter of Ebenezer and Polly [Haven] Gore, born Halifax, Windham County, VT Dec. 17, 1821_4, died Phoenix, Jackson County, OR May 9, 1900.

Ebenezer left Halifax Vermont in 1826 and moved first to Ohio, then Iowa, Kansas and finally to Oregon.

In 1844 the family lived in Polk County, IA$_5$. Eben remained in Iowa for the next twenty years. By 1850_6 the family lived in Lee County, and in the same area was Sabry's mother and two of her siblings$_7$.

They appeared in the 1865 Kansas State Census living Shannon Township, P.O. Irving and they were located near the Sylvanus Green family$_8$. Ebenezer purchased land in KS in a deed dated Jan. 1867 for 40 acres in Section 6, Township 6, Range 8, Pottawatomie County, KS. The family settled in Shannon Township at the western side of the county and the Post Office for his area by 1870 was Manhattan$_9$, the same P.O. used by his brother, Chester, then living in Riley County, KS. He was living in the same area engaged in farming in 1870_{10} and in 1875_{11}. He acquired more land in Pottawatomie County but sold it and left the county before 1880. Eben sold his last land in Pottawatomie County in 1883.

He was located by 1880 in Phoenix, Jackson County, OR$_{12}$ along with married son Henry Franklin Stancliff and his family. Son, LeRoy Fitserland Stancliff, also spent some time in the area. Ebenezer and Henry would remain in Phoenix, OR and be joined by Elvira Electa Wilder's family, but LeRoy would move on to California.

By 1900 Eben's wife, Polly Sabry, had just died and he lived Phoenix, Jackson County, OR with his daughter, Elvira Electa Wilder, and her family$_{13}$. At this date most of the other children in Eben's family lived in California.

1.Vital Records of Windham County, VT states that she was born April 11, 1830, but the census records indicate the date was 1850. Considering the 1849 marriage date for Rufus and the fact that he was aged 13 in 1830, the birth date of 1850 seems correct.

2.Vital Records of Windham County, VT list the record of her marriage and cite age of 18 at that date. She may have been born in 1851 but she does not appear on the 1860 Census record. It is also possible that "Lottie" is a nickname for Celesta and they are the same person. In that case she married 1. Basset Manning and 2. Thomas Merry.

(122) CHESTER[5] HAVEN STANCLIFT or STANCLIFF, (Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Eldah and Amy [Gore] Stanclift born Halifax, Windham County, VT Aug. 5, 1822, died Morganville, Clay County, KS Feb. 25, 1908, buried Sherman Cemetery, Morganville, KS, marriage license issued at Lee County, IA on Mar. 22, 1845_2 to Chester and his first cousin, SARAH ELIZA GORE "Eliza" daughter of Ebenezer and Polly [Haven] Gore, born in Ohio, while the family was living at Kirtland Township, Geauga County, OH Oct. 3, 1828, died Irving, Marshall County, KS April 12, 1876_3. This is at odds with her brother's letter of Apr. 7, 1877_4 in which Ebenezer Emory Gore wrote "Mother died on the Republican River Clay Co Kas in the 73rd year of her age, Sister Eliza died this last summer out there on the R. R."

Chester left Windham County, VT and moved first to Ohio, then Iowa and Kansas. He was in Oregon in 1900 with daughter Ida Adella Strader and her $family_5$, he also spent some time in California but he returned to his home in Kansas where he died in 1908. He seems to have lived with several of his children, or made extensive visits but he considered Kansas his residence for the last twenty five years of his life.

After leaving Halifax, VT and spending some time in Ohio Chester Haven Stancliff probably went to Iowa with his brother Eben about 1844. Shortly thereafter he married Eliza, and in 1850 they were settled at Ft. Madison, Lee County, IA_6 where Chester was engaged in farming. The family moved from Iowa to Kansas in 1858.

They first went to Marysville, Marshall County, KS where in 1860 they lived nextdoor to Eliza's younger brother, Orrin $Luther\ Gore_7$. In 1865 they were living in Jackson Township, Riley County, KS_8 where Chester was engaged in farming, and they were still in that location in 1870_9. Chester's brother, Ebenezer Edward, and his family lived nearby in Shannon Township, Pottawatomie County, KS and both communities used the Manhattan, KS Post Office. In 1875 Chester had moved once more and lived briefly near Glen Elder, Walnut Creek, Mitchell County, KS_{10}, but by 1880, Chester Haven Stanclift, now a widower, had moved once more and lived Blue Rapids Twp, Marshall County, KS. He had in his household daughters Elma Alice and Uletta May Stancliff and they shared a dwelling house with his daughter, Ida Adella Strader, and her family and also with daughter, Ella Gertrude $Hewes_{11}$.

Soon after 1880 he moved to Morganville, Clay County, KS. In the 1885 State $Census_{12}$ Chester was enumerated with the Green family of his now widowed sister-in-law Lucy [Gore] Green. Lucy's son, Ernest Lincoln Green, was included in that family. Chester's children Emory Haven Stancliff, a widower, and Uletta Stancliff were also in the household. Uletta is clearly designated as "Stancliff", but family records indicate she had already married Ernest Lincoln Green by this date.

Chester's obituary in the Clay Center Times indicated that he had been a resident of Morganville for twenty five years before his death or a resident since 1883. His Obituary in The Tribune published Morganville, Clay County, KS Thursday, Feb. 27, 1908 says he was "making his home with his daughter Mrs. E. L. Green" at the time of his death. The obituary states that there were nine children,

(125) JOSEPH[5] STANCLIFF (James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of James and Meribah [Welles] Stancliff born Chatham, Middlesex County, CT Jan. 12, 1789[5], died Chatham, CT Mar. 23, 1870, buried Trinity Cemetery, Portland, Middlesex County, CT, married Chatham, CT Dec. 26, 1812 ELECTA TENNANT[6] daughter of Wightman and Dimmis [Babbitt] Tennant born CT 1794[7], died Portland, Middlesex County, CT Mar. 2, 1872, buried there in Trinity Cemetery[8]. She appeared in most records as "Electy".

Joseph was a blacksmith as were several of the members of Electa's family. On Dec. 16, 1812, just before his marriage to Electa, Joseph purchased from John Warner a tract of land "West on the Connecticut River together with a Blacksmith shop thereon standing"[9]. On Jul. 10, 1816 he purchased from Jabez Clark land containing ½ of a Blacksmith shop. The land was located in Chatham, CT on the Hebron - Middle Haddam line at Middle Haddam Landing and had originally been purchased by John and Oliver Warner in 1808[10]. These are probably two portions of the same property. This is the area where Electa Tennant's family lived. According to these records the land located in Middle Haddam was part of Chatham. Joseph also owned part of the family property in what is now the Town of Portland. "When his brother-in-law, Erastus Brainerd, became interested in the Portland stone quarries, he came to Portland and for a number of years was blacksmith at the quarry."[11]

Joseph was the head of his own household in Chatham, Middlesex County, CT in 1820, and lived next to his father at that date[12]. By 1830 he and his brother George were still in Chatham living very close to each other, and they were not far from their father[1]. They still lived near each other in that same area in 1840[2]. Joseph was in Chatham in 1850. In 1850 they lived in the same place. Joseph listed as Blacksmith and 17 year old son, William, was a student[3]. In 1860 his son, William, with a wife and daughter lived in his household. Joseph was listed as a "(Retired) Blacksmith"[4]. The 1870 census was taken about three months after Joseph died. Electa, now age 76, was living in her own household with three servants and could well be termed "a wealthy widow"[5].

1.A great deal of the information about these children found in the MANUSCRIPT OF THEODORE W. GORE and the personal letters written in the late 1800s from family members providing information on their movements and genealogy (call # SG GOR 7 Box 233) at the New England Historic Genealogical Society; donated to the Society by Mr Gore's family in the 1920s. This information augmented by the research of Denise [Stancliffe] Crawford and Sheryl [Eddy] Ramin. Most of the records from this time forward spell the name STANCLIFF.

2.The place and date taken from the Theodore Gore Manuscript and family letters, the 1G1 indicates the place as Irving, Marshall County, 1A.

(127) MARY WELLS[5] STANCLIFF (James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])
Daughter of James and Meribah [Welles] born Chatham, CT Dec. 1, 1792[7], died Portland, Ct May 11, 1880 Æ 88 years, 5 months and 10 days. She and her husband buried Trinity Episcopal Church Cemetery, Portland, CT. She married Dec. 25, 1815 ERASTUS BRAINERD[8] son of Silas and Lucinda [Brainerd] Brainerd of East Haddam, CT, born 1792, baptized Feb. 5, 1792, died June 15, 1861 age 69[9].

Erastus was a Representative to the state Legislature 1843/44 and a director of the Middletown Bank 1847-1861. Erastus came into possession of what had once been the "Stancliff Brownstone Quarry", and operated it under the name "E. & S. Brainerd Co." for many years with brother Silas. In 1857 after the death of his brother, Silas, it became "Erastus Brainerd & Co.". He was very successful in his business enterprises and was one of the wealthiest men in the area.

They appeared in the 1850 Census in Portland with six children and an equal number of servants. At this date Erastus called himself "a stone cutter"[10]. Erastus listed himself as a "Quarryman" in 1860 and the family lived in the Town of Portland. Their son Erastus Brainerd Jr lived next door with his family[11]. After the death of Erastus, Mary remained in her home in Portland with four grown children, Mary, Catherine Ann, Corine and LeRoy. In 1870 her granddaughter, Millie, the daughter of Erastus Brainerd Jr was living in her household. It was clear that Erastus had provided generously for each of his children, as well as his widow[12].

(128) GEORGE[5] STANCLIFF (James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of James and Meribah [Welles] Stancliff born Chatham, Middlesex County, CT Apr. 25, 1803, died Portland, Middlesex County, CT Aug. 28, 1886, buried Trinity Cemetery, Portland, Middlesex County, CT, married 1. Chatham, CT by Harvey Talcott$_2$ Dec. 7, 1829 MARY N. SELDEN$_3$, married 2. Chatham, CT by Rev. F. B. Woodword Oct.13, 1852 MARY KIRBY SMITH, He was of Portland she was of Chatham that date$_4$ Mary was the daughter of Ebenezer and Mercy [Clark] Smith of Middle Haddam$_5$, CT born Middle Haddam, CT Sept. 4, 1815, died in New London, New London County, CT on February 1, 1899. It was her death certificate in New London that first revealed her father's name as Ebenezer and birthplace as Middle Haddam. Her body was returned to Portland, CT and she is buried with George in the Cemetery behind the Trinity Episcopal Church.

In 1830 he and his brother Joseph lived close to each other in Chatham, Middlesex County, CT, and they were at that date not far from their father$_6$. They still lived near each other in that same area in 1840$_7$. George was born in the area first called East Middletown, then Chatham and finally Portland. While he remained in one place the town jurisdictions changed. George was a farmer and lived at a location called "Gains Hill" in Portland, CT. In 1850 George and Mary [Selden] Stancliff were living in Portland with their two teenage children and both George and son James were Farmers$_8$. George, Mary Kirby [Smith], and Ellen were enumerated in 1860$_9$, and in 1870 they were in the same place. The value of George's real estate had increased significantly and there were additional hired hands on the farm$_{10}$.

Mary Kirby [Smith] Stancliff never had any children of her own but was evidently close to the children of George by his previous marriage. After George's death in 1886, Mary took her step-daughter, Ellen Mary Stancliff, with her when she moved to New London, CT. There she and Ellen lived with Mary's brother, Ralph Smith Smith, and his family. Even after Mary's death, Ellen remained with the Smith family$_{11}$.

277- 1. JAMES MONROE STANCLIFF born Chatham, CT May 4, 1831[1], died May 19, 1875 Æ 44, buried Trinity Church Cemetery, Portland, CT married Nov. 19, 1856 FRANCES E. RANSOME at the home of Mrs. Hanes Ransome by the Rev. Samuel M. Emery of Trinity Parish. Frances was born CT Oct. 1830 and died Jun. 26, 1904 Æ 73. James worked as a foreman at the Brownstone quarry. He served in the Civil War as a Sgt. in Company D of the 20th Connecticut Volunteer Infantry. He enlisted Aug. 14, 1862 and was mustered out at Washington, D. C. June 13, 1865. The 20th Connecticut Volunteers served at the Battles of Chancellorsville, VA, Gettysburg, PA in 1863 as part of the Army of the Potomac. James contracted Malaria in the Campaign from Chattanooga to Atlanta in 1863 and 1864. He suffered attacks of Malaria for the remainder of his life. In 1880 his widow Frances E. Stancliff was living in the household of Henry H. Cornwell and his wife, Gertrude E. Cornwall. Henry was a Quarry Agent[2]. Frances was living in Portland in 1900 and her sister, Stella M. Ransome born CT Mar. 1832, was living with her. Frances listed herself as a widow who had never had a child[3].

278- 2. ELLEN MARY STANCLIFF born Chatham, CT Dec. 26, 1834[4], died West Hartford, CT Nov. 7, 1918, buried Trinity Church Cemetery, Portland, CT. Ellen Mary Stancliff moved to New London, CT with her step-mother Mary Kirby [Smith] Stancliff and lived in the household of Ralph S. Smith. Even after the death of Mary K. [Smith] Stancliff, Ellen remained with the Ralph Smith family at least until after 1900[5]. Ellen's will written May 20, 1914 in West Hartford, CT, appointed Elijah C. Johnson as executor on her estate. Ellen left a bequest to her "family church in Portland, CT", which was the Trinity Church, the entire Estate was bequeathed to Helen A. Foote, wife of John M. Foote. Upon the death of Helen A. Foote, the remaining estate to be given to her three children Edward M. Foote, Elliot S. Foote and Helen S. Foote all of West Hartford, CT. The following relatives, all listed as "cousin" were notified of the Probate hearing, Helen A. Foote, Everett F. Stanley and Frederick E. Stanley of West Hartford; Anne Brainerd and Corinne Brainerd of Portland, CT and B. Bliss Hayes of Granby, CT.

(132) THOMAS[5] STANCLIFT (Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Comfort and Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift born Torrington, or Winchester, Litchfield County, CT Aug. 21, 1781, died Malta, Jefferson County, NY 1808[6] after a tree fell on him. There is a reference to Thomas that says " Thomas Stancliff built a saw-mill on the same stream (Hull Creek on Lot #45) perhaps in 1805. He was killed a year or two thereafter by the falling of a tree. The mill then became the property of Comfort Stancliff, who operated it until it was given up."[7]. His probate papers indicate that there was a will attached but the County Court House can no longer locate it. The appointment of Executor was specified in the Will and referred to in the Letter of Administration, but the document says "Thomas Stanclift" was the name specified. Since the deceased was only 27 years old at the time of his death, a son named Thomas could not have been of an age to assume the Administration. The person who signed the Probate documents as "Executrix" was Orrel or Orril Stanclift. This suggests that if Thomas, a son, was named and was under age, his mother would have acted in his stead. Thomas's father, Comfort Stancliff, with William Hosford, took the Inventory on his Estate on March 20, 1808. The probate papers suggest a wife named ORREL or ORRIL_____, there probably was at least one child born to this family before the untimely death of Thomas. The man named Thomas who was baptized in 1827 in the First Malta Baptist Church was probably his son, and the Thomas specified in the Will to be the Executor.

This Thomas was excused from the membership of the church on Nov. 13, 1830. He probably started on his journey west at that time and there is the appearance of a Thomas J. Stancliff in the Michigan Territory not long after that date. The family records of the Michigan family state that Thomas was a school teacher who came to Michigan from New York State with his wife Esther A. Stuart. The fact that he like David and Ansel below married a woman named Stewart, and the fact that he named a daughter Orrel or Orril prompts the inclusion of Thomas J. Stanclift of Allegan County, MI in this place.

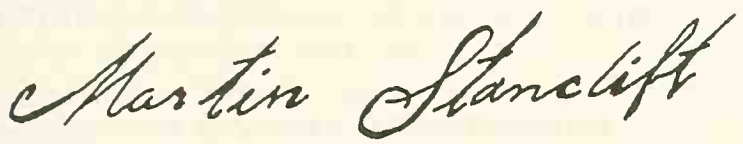
(134) MARTIN[5] STANCLIFT (Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



Son of Comfort and Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift born Winchester, Litchfield County, CT Mar. 11, 1785_1, died McKean, Erie County, PA Jun. 9, 1852, It is almost certain that his wife was his cousin on both the Stanclift and Balcom lines, OLIVE STANCLIFT daughter of Samuel and Sarah [Balcom] Stanclift born CT_2 Feb. 23, 1786_3, died McKean, Erie County, PA Sept. 18, 1860 Aged 74 years and 6 months. Martin married Olive before leaving NY and the first three children were probably born in NY. Samuel Stanclift mentioned in his pension papers that in 1836 he was going to visit his daughter who lived in McKean, and the only daughter of Samuel listed in records is Olive who was baptized in Norfolk, CT May 20, 1786_4.

Martin travelled to McKean from Jefferson County, NY in 1810, bringing with him his ailing grandfather, Comfort Senior$_5$. His father Comfort Jr remained in Jefferson County, NY until after the death of his second wife, June, in 1827. He joined Martin and Olive in Erie County, PA by 1836. Martin settled in McKean, very close to Lemuel Stanclift and remained in that place for the rest of his life.

On Sept. 4, 1817 Martin purchased from the Holland Land Company 100 acres of land located in McKean Township and being part of tract #21_6. Martin gave land to McKean Township to be used for a Cemetery in 1823_7. In 1847 Martin and Olive sold part of their land to son in law, Asa L. Wiswell$_8$. After the death of Martin, his heirs sold the remaining rights and interest in Martin's farm to Asa Wiswell.

"On July 6, 1854, Alpheus Stanclift and Olive Stanclift for the sum of $1000.00 conveyed to Asa L. Wiswell land described as land bounded on land conveyed to Wiswell by Silas Stanclift and Olive Stanclift, on line of land owned by Roland Stafford containing 42 acres and embracing all of the old farm of Martin Stanclift". Signed by Alpheus, Olive and Matilda Stanclift (wife of Alpheus), witnessed by D. W. Vorse JP."$_9$

In 1849, Martin's will specified two sons and two daughters living at that date.

I, Martin Stanclift of McKean Township, Erie County, Pennsylvania of common health and sound judgement.... to my beloved wife all my property except as noted.
to my two sons Alpha and Silas all my wearing clothes to be equally divided.
to my two daughters Clarra and Asenath as much other property to be divided as their mother can spare. to my sons Alpha and Silas as much land as possible leaving their mother enough to make a living off of.
July 7, 1849

Martin's Probate Records and Will$_{10}$ indicate disbursal of his Estate to his widow, Olive Stanclift, and to Clarissa Thompson, Silas Stanclift, Alpheus Stanclift and Asenath Wiswell. There were no other children mentioned. Olive's will written July 31, 1860_{11} also mentions two daughters and two sons, Alpheus and Silas. The Census records seem to indicate that only the first four children in this family survived for any length of time.

In the 1820 Census Record, Clarissa, Alpheus, Silas and Asenath were all accounted for but there were no children in the family under the age of 10 years$_{12}$. In the 1830 Census Records, there are again no children in the family under the age of 10 years$_{13}$. Martin and his married sons and daughters appeared on the same page in the 1830 Census with his Uncle, Lemuel Stanclift, and several of Lemuel's married children, at that date there were nine Stanclift or related families that remained close to each other. They were still grouped together in 1840_{14}. Their children were all married, and Olive and Martin were still living on the farm by 1850. In this census Martin was enumerated alone and Olive was next door with the related Crandall family$_{15}$.

Son of Comfort and Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift born in July 29, 1798_2 during the time that Comfort was living in the Sangerfield, NY area, died before 1821, married Nov. 22, 1818 CAROLINE MATILDA STEWART "Matilda" daughter of William and Caroline [Billson] Stewart born NY Mar. 6, 1801, died Lenawee County, MI Jan. 3, 1864.

In all Census records she used only the name Matilda and the name Caroline Matilda appeared in the Bennawy Bible Record and on her gravestone. Her family had lived Cherry Valley, Otsego County, NY for many years before moving to Le Ray, Jefferson County, NY in 1811.

Caroline married again in 1821 to Ansel Stanclift. David must have died before this date.

CHILDREN: David and Caroline [Stewart] Stancliff

(142) ANSEL[5] STANCLIFT (Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Comfort and Hannah [Balcom] Stanclift born NY Sept. 1800, died Lenawee County, MI Feb. 10, 1861 Æ 60 years 6 mos_4. He is buried Lake Ridge Cemetery, Macon Township, Lenawee County, MI. Children Caroline and William also buried Lenawee County. Ansel married Apr. 27, 1821 CAROLINE MATILDA [STEWART] STANCLIFT "Matilda" daughter of William and Caroline [Billson] Stewart born probably Cherry Valley, Otsego County, NY Mar. 6, 1801, died Lenawee County, MI Jan. 3, 1864, buried with Ansel at Lake Ridge Cemetery.

Matilda's family lived Jefferson County, NY near the Stanclift family. She had previously been married to David Stanclift. Ansel and Matilda moved from New York between 1827 and 1829_5 to Ohio and lived at Chagrin Falls, Cuyahoga County, OH in 1830_6. Chagrin Falls is on the Ohio and Pennsylvania border and not far from Erie County, PA which might suggest that they had travelled west with Comfort Stanclift. By 1840 this family was living in Crawford County, $Ohio_7$ and moved again before 1850 to Ridgeway Township, Lenawee County, MI_8.

CHILDREN: Ansel and Caroline [Stewart] Stanclift

MARY ANN COX[1] of Techumseh, Lenawee County, MI, and this is probably the Mary in 1860 MI Census in Ansel Stanclift's family. Mary Ann Cox was born May 15, 1833 which differs with the age of Mary in the census record who was age 20 in 1860. David married 2. Dec. 1871[2] or Jan. 18, 1872[3] ELIZA [BACON] GARDNER, daughter of Ralph and Mary [Jourdan] Bacon, widow of Alexander P. Gardner and a sister of Minerva Bacon, wife of Ezra Stanclift. She was born Crawford County, OH Nov. 18, 1826, died Santa Cruz, CA Jan. 6, 1912. In 1853 Alexander Gardner purchased a farm in Hampshire Township, Kane County, IL, he died there in 1867. After David's marriage to Eliza they lived in Kane County, IL at least until 1880 when they appeared at that location in the 1880 Census Records. They moved after that date to Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz County, CA. Eliza had nine Gardner children, only four of which reached maturity. There is no record of children of David Stanclift by Mary Ann Cox. See Appendix A: COX, BACON

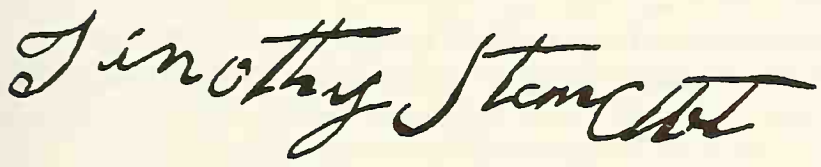
(145) TIMOTHY[5] STANCLIFT (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



Son of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born while the family was living in the Torrington, Litchfield County, CT area Feb. 1, 1783[5], died McKean, Erie County, PA Mar. 10, 1875. He married 1.near Kingston, Frontenac County, Ontario, Canada Nov. 27, 1809 JEAN or JANE CAMPBELL[6] according to record he was of Loughborough, and she was of Kingston.[7] He married 2. while still in Canada LUCY HOUGH born NY 1790-1793[8], sister of Christina [Hough] Ward, who married John Ward in Canada. The Ward family also moved to Erie County, PA.

Lucy was portrayed by a granddaughter as a stern, Bible reading woman who smoked a pipe. She had once left her still smoldering pipe on her heavy leather-bound bible burning a hole in it's cover. Lucy was an accomplished cook and her shortcakes baked in a dutch oven on the hearth far surpassed the efforts of women who had stoves with ovens. She never cooked on Sunday, however, but always prepared the Sunday meals the previous day.[9]

Timothy either left Canada with his father in 1812, or if the birthplace "Canada" is correct on census records of several of his children, then he followed at a later date and settled in what is now North Collins, Erie County, NY. Timothy, along with wife Lucy, was a member of his father's First Congregational Church of North Collins, Erie County, NY at the time it was organized on June 11, 1818[10].

There are records of only two of the Stanclift brothers purchasing land from the Holland Land Company at an early date. Both Jesse and Willard purchased large tracts of land on April 24, 1815. Jesse bought 200 acres in Lot #64 and Willard bought 316 acres in Lot 63. These tracts are far larger than the land these men were assessed for in 1823. It is probable that they in turn sold land to their siblings as most of them are represented in the 1823 Tax Assessment list as living on either Lot #63 or #64.
In 1823 Timothy appeared on the Assessment roll for Collins, now North Collins, as owning 70 acres in the North West part of Lot #64.

Timothy, his father and brother Thomas and their families, left the Erie County, NY and moved to Erie County, PA to join the other Stanclifts living in that place. Making the trip by ox team, they arrived in Erie County, PA on Feb. 28, 1835. There was a large community of Stanclift relatives in the area. Timothy and Thomas settled near Sharp's Corners, Erie County, PA.

On May 6, 1835 Timothy purchased, by attorney, from the Pennsylvania Population Company part of Tract 409 located in McKean, Erie County, PA. The land was bounded by land that Thomas Stanclift had purchased the same day[1], also bounded by land of James Pollack[2].

On May 5, 1843 Timothy Stanclift of McKean, Erie County, PA, farmer and Lucy, his wife conveyed to (son) Amasa Stanclift, single man, for the sum of $1500.00 land containing 101 acres 40 perches that had formerly belonged to James Pollock and bounded on land of Thomas Stanclift and the township line. Witnessed by Hiram and Laura [Stanclift] Crow[3]

On Aug. 28, 1848 Timothy Stanclift of McKean Twp, Erie County, PA and his wife Lucy conveyed to (son) Hiram Stanclift for the sum of $1500.00 100 acres of land located in McKean and bounded on land of Thomas Stanclift, deceased, and Jacob Comer. Witnessed by Hiram Crow and Willard Stanclift and registered July 20, 1855[4]

Timothy's granddaughter, described him as a Religious and gentle man, who spoke well of everyone. There is a story that says Timothy once lost track of the days of the week and thinking it was Saturday, he built a feeding trough for the pigs. He was so upset to find that he had worked on the Sabbath, that he put the trough away and refused to use it. One of his greatest pleasures was to gather the grandchildren around the fireplace and tell stories of his youth. As they came of age Timothy gave 40 acres of land near his farm to each of his sons. Hiram was in possession of his parents homestead, and they lived near each other on Stancliff Road or Street.[5]

Attempts to find Timothy and Lucy in the 1870 census were not successful, and while all of their living children were located, none had Timothy and Lucy in their households.

son of Lemuel said in his memoirs "One man could throw any man in the Regiment and bantered Knapp frequently to wrestle with him. He told him it was no use saying 'You are nothing in my hands but you are so eager I will agree to throw you with one hand in my pants pocket'. He threw him several times in that shape before the whole Regiment."

Margery was a widow living Barrisfield, Pittsburgh Township, Frontenac County, Ontario, Canada by Feb. 28, 1850 when she wrote her will[1]. Barrisfield is just across the river from Kingston. Margery appointed daughter Sarah Knapp as executrix and left her estate to Sarah. A codicil referred to debt between James and William Knapp for which Margery was assuming responsibility. It is probable that they were sons who inherited fathers property at time of his death and thus did not share in the widow's portion which Margery left to her daughter in return for her care. Margery's will was proved July 18, 1850. The Will and Codicil was witnessed by James Nickalls[2]. Descendants of Margery and James Knapp still live in the Barrisfield area.

(147) MARION[5] STANCLIFT (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Appears in records also as Merin or Marin, daughter of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift and twin of Margery, born while the family was living Litchfield County, CT Apr. 14, 1785, died Erie County, PA July 4, 1850 and is buried next to husband Clark in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Erie County, PA[3]. Marion married CLARK NICHOLS, in Canada. The family history[4] says that the twins "were so nearly alike that their parents could tell them apart only from their voices." Note that these identical twins, both widows, one living in Canada and one living in Pennsylvania, both died in July 1850.

This couple was living Loughborough Twp, Frontenac County, Ontario, Canada in 1819 with five children[5]. The family records indicate that Clark Nichols was a member of the Provincial Assembly of Ontario. The only man fitting that criteria was named Robert Nichols and he was a contemporary of Clark's, perhaps a brother.

Clark Nichols was born 1786 and died Washington Township, Erie County, PA June 6, 1848 Æ 62 years. His Will, made two days before his death,[6] named wife Marin and youngest son, James, along with Hiram Crow as joint executors on the will. No other children mentioned in will. An 1892 Erie County, PA land record suggests other children of Clark and Marion Nichols remained in the area, as it concerned Clark and Lucy B. [____] Nichols, James Nichols and Joseph W. Nichols as well as Rosella [Nichols] Brumigan and Marian [Nichols] Zents.

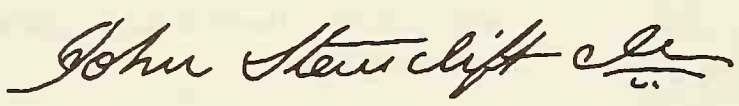
(148) JOHN[5] STANCLIFT JR. (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



Son of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born Apr. 26, 1787 in CT[2], died Colesburg, Delaware County, IA, July 4, 1863 buried there at Zion Cemetery near his father-in-law Amasa Smith. John's white marble stone says simply "Gone Home". John, married North Collins, Erie County, NY Nov. 30, 1815 RHOBA SMITH daughter of Amasa and Candace [Brown] Smith born Danby, Rutland County, VT Mar. 10, 1799[3], died at the home of her daughter, Helen McCann, at West Liberty, Muscatine County, IA on Wednesday, Mar. 17, 1886, buried there the following Friday at Oak Ridge Cemetery. Rhoba, in the family of father, Amasa Smith, had lived in the Township of Hamburg, Niagara County, NY in 1820[4] not far from the Town of Collins where the Stanclift family lived.

On Aug. 18, 1835 John purchased from the Holland Land Company 66 acres of land in Lot 63 Township 7, Range 8, North Collins near brothers Willard, Jesse, Reuben and William[5]. He remained in Erie County, NY when his parents and several brothers moved in 1835 to Erie County, PA. His father returned to Collins and was living with John and His family when he died in 1848. John sold his 66 acre farm to his brother Jesse[6], and in 1851 he and Rhoba moved their family to a location 2½ miles west of Colesburg, Delaware County, IA. The family remained in this area for many years until a number of them moved to West Liberty, Muscatine County, IA.

John appeared in the 1820 census living Concord, Niagara County, NY surrounded by family members on adjacent farms[7]. In 1830 he still lived in the same place among family members, but the jurisdictional boundaries had changed, Erie County had been created from part of Niagara County and the Township was now called Collins[8]. The 1840 census reflected the move by members of his family and there was not as large a group of Stancliffs as there had been. John lived very near his brother, Jesse, and next to daughter Candace and husband, Dudley O. Stephens[9]. In 1850 he was living Collins or North Collins, Erie County, NY and only brothers Jesse and Reuben remained[10]. John was counted in the 1860 Census in Elk Township, Delaware County, IA[11].

A letter written by a great granddaughter[12] describes John Jr.'s last days, "he had been cutting wood in the timber near them and Grandmother made some cookies and when he came by their house with his load of wood she sent my mother out to the road with some for him. When she got out there the team stopped. He was sitting on the seat, but did not notice her as he usually did, so she called her mother who came and they got on the wagon and took him home. He had a stroke and died soon after."

(149) WILLARD[5] STANCLIFT (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1789_1, and was baptized New Hartford, Oneida County, NY Mar. 18, 1792_2, died Collins, Erie County, NY Aug. 2, 1841 Æ 51 years 11 months, married MARY WOOD born NY 1793_3 whose sister married Jesse Stanclift below.

On Apr. 24, 1815 Willard purchased from the Holland Land Company for $1106.00 a parcel of 316 acres of land in Lot 63 Township 7, Range 8, North Collins, NY_4, next to property of brother Jesse. On this same day Jesse bought 200 acres in Lot #64. These tracts are far larger than the land these men paid tax on in 1823. It is probable that they in turn sold land to their siblings as most of them are represented in the 1823 Tax Assessment list as living on either Lot #63 or #64, but only Willard and Jesse were on record as having purchased land at that early date. In conflict with the original sale records are later records which indicate that most of Willard's land was in Lot #64 and most of Jesse's land was in Lot #63.

In 1832 the First Congregational Society of Collins, still made up almost entirely of Stanclifts, sold the 100 acres in the eastern part of Lot #64 granted to them by the Holland Land Company. They wanted to build the church in a more suitable location. Willard donated or sold an acre of his land located in the center of the Village for $1.00, with the provision that should the Society be dissolved the Church land would revert to Willard's estate. The church was built in 1844 at the corner of Main and School Streets in North Collins.

Willard appeared in the 1820 Census living near members of his own family and the Wood Family. Willard and Mary had three daughters under 10 years of age_5. In 1840 they still lived among the Stanclift and Wood Families in Collins. At this date there were two daughters born between 1810 and 1820, two born between 1820 and 1825, and one daughter born between 1835 and 1840, and a son born between 1820 and 1825_6.

In the 1850 Census, Mary now a widow, was living in Collins in the household of daughter, Phoebe Looley and her husband Orrin L. Looley. With Mary was Ursula or Urseline $Wood_7$ aged 83 born NY. They all shared a house with the Abiel Wood family and lived in a group with the Abram, Horace, Walter, and Chilion Wood $families_8$. Chilion, Abram and Walter Wood were known to be brothers, and they had a sister named $Maria_9$, they were children of Charles Wood a close neighbor of the $Stanclifts_{10}$.

Willard left no will, but probate records show wife, Mary [Wood] Stanclift, was Administrator and indicate specifically that he left 3 children under age 21 and 3 children over age 21_{11} . An Erie County Land $Record_{12}$ dated Sept. 21, 1843 revealed most of the heirs of Willard Stanclift, listed below in order named.

Ursula or Urseline Wood was born 1767 and while it seems certain that she was related to this family, the relationship is not stated. She appeared on two land transaction deeds, signing along with the heirs of Willard. She lived with the family and may be the grandmother or great aunt of these heirs acting for one or more of the minor children.

CHILDREN: Willard and Mary [Wood] Stanclift

322- 1. MARY STANCLIFT listed in Land Record as an heir, but not specified as widow, and is probably one of the older daughters in the family.

323- 2. LUCINDA STANCLIFT born before 1820, married before 1840 JOHN THRALL and both signed Land Deed. John appeared in the 1840 Census living in Collins, both he and Lucinda born between 1810 and 1820, there were no

10.Despite intensive research the parents of Mary and Phoebe Wood have not yet been proven, but it seems certain that the Wood sisters were part of the family of Chilion, Abraham and Charles Wood, a quaker family from Dartmouth, MA and Granville, Washington County, NY. The Quaker records burned and the only records of the Granville, Washington County, NY are gleaned from the memories of elderly settlers in that area who remembered Chilion Wood and his wife Lillis [Gifford] Wood as preachers for the Society of friends in the late 1790s.

(150) JESSE[5] STANCLIFT (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1]) b.NY

Son of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born Oct. 12, 1791 and was baptized Mar. 18, 1792 in New Hartford, Oneida County, NY[1], died Collins, NY[2] Jan. 16, 1865[3]. He married PHOEBE WOOD sister of Mary Wood, wife of Willard above. Phoebe was born NY 1797.

On Apr. 24, 1815 Jesse purchased from the Holland Land Company for $700.00 a parcel of 200 acres in West part of Lot 64 in Township 7 Range 8, North Collins, next to property of brother Willard. On Feb. 18, 1829 he purchased 100 acres of Lot 63 near brothers John Jr, Reuben and William. He purchased an additional 23 acres of Lot 54 on April 22, 1838 near brother Reuben.[4] On Mar. 21, 1836 Jesse purchased a 78 acre farm in Collins from Lyman W. Seymour[5]

Charles Wood and either his father or brother named Chilion Wood, were neighbors on Lot 64.

In his will written Feb. 3, 1851, Jesse refers to the 66 acre farm which he had recently purchased of his brother John. His brother John moved at that time to Colesburgh, Delaware County, IA. John's daughter Candace [Stanclift] Stephens and her husband Dudley O. Stephens remained in Collins and it was Dudley Stephens who acted as witness on Jesse's Will.

Jesse appeared in the 1820 Census in a group of family members comprised of John Stanclift Sr and his five sons, and members of the Wood family[6]. He was in the same area in 1830[7] and in 1840[8]. In 1850 Jesse and Phoebe were still living on the farm, the two girls had married and daughter Fanny and her family lived next door. Both sons were still living in the household, and son Edward was married this date[9]. By 1860 had his own farm but Edwin, now also married, was still sharing the house with his parents, and sister Fanny's sons were also with the family[10]. The early census records seem to indicate several additional children in this family, but Jesse's probate records only list the four children below or their children as heirs when his will was written in 1851. When Jesse wrote this will he spelled the family name Stancliff.

(151) MARTHA[5] STANCLIFT "Pattie" (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Daughter of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born Wednesday, Sept. 10, 1794, married Loughborough, Frontenac County, Ontario, Canada Mar. 21, 1812 JOHN ARMSTRONG[11] born between 1780 and 1790.

They seem to have travelled from Canada to Erie County, NY with Martha's family. John Armstrong was in Eden Township, which was then in Niagara County and now Erie County, NY by 1820[12], and they had five children at that date. John Armstrong was still living Eden, Erie County, NY in 1830[1] and at that date had nine children, five boys and four girls. They lived near the Stanclift relatives who were in the northern part of Concord, now Collins Township. At least one of their children moved, as did members of the Stancliff family, from Erie County, NY to Erie County, PA. When Martha's father died, his probate records list children and heirs, there is reference to a child living in Illinois in 1848 who was possibly Martha. Son in law, Richard Crandall, is known to have moved from Erie County, PA to Berwick, Warren County, IL.

Considering first the date of their marriage, and then the number of children present in 1830, the birth years appearing in the International Genealogical Index for the children may be inaccurate. There is also a conflict within the IGI records on place of birth, some records indicate Pennsylvania and others NY. The birth order is also suspect. Sybille is the only child listed below who was not found in The Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index.

CHILDREN: John and Martha [Stanclift] Armstrong

1. SYBILLE ARMSTRONG born NY probably at Eden, Erie County, NY Mar. 14, 1818, died Oct. 29, 1898, married Oct 10, 1839, RICHARD CRANDALL son of Peleg and Hannah [Stark] Crandall born McLane, Erie County, PA June 24, 1816, died Sept. 13, 1894[2]. This family lived in McKean, Erie County, PA next door to Martin and Olive Stanclift. Their children married while living in Monmouth, Warren County, IL and Berwick, Warren County, IL. Richard's brother, Thomas Crandall, had four children who married members of the Stanclift family.
2. SARAH ARMSTRONG born Erie County, NY Apr. 7, 1825[3].
3. THOMAS ARMSTRONG born ca. 1827
4. CHARLES ARMSTRONG born Eden, Erie County, NY 1830.
5. CECELIA ARMSTRONG born 1832.
6. ELLEN ARMSTRONG born 1834.
7. JAMES J. ARMSTRONG born Allegany County, NY 1836.
8. JULIUS ARMSTRONG born 1838.

(153) THOMAS[5] STANCLIFF (John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of John and Sarah [Harris] Stanclift born Tuesday Feb. 21, 1797[4], died Mar. 14, 1848 at Waterford, Erie County, PA, buried Sharp's Corners Cemetery, married Erie County, NY MARY ANN PEEK "Polly" born NY 1798, died Erie County, PA after 1880. She was the daughter of Abraham or Abram Peek first found in the 1820 Census, Niagara County, NY in the area that became Erie County. The Peek family lived at Eden Center, Eden Township, Erie County, NY.

A letter written by a grandson of Thomas and Polly, Lucius McClellan Stancliff, in 1932 reports "Grandfather Stancliff married Mary Peak who was (born) near Albany, NY. Her people moved and settled near the Village of Buffalo, NY. Her father was of the old Dutch stock that settled Manhattan Island and the Hudson River Valley. Her mother was English. When she and grandfather was married they settled at Eden Corners near the village of Buffalo and all the family was born there except father who was born on the old homestead in PA[5]. I have seen the remains of the old chimney where grandfather built his first log cabin, where father[6] was born. There was an Indian Trail passed near the cabin. It was in the township of Waterford and Jack[7] owns part of the old place. I was born in the second cabin that grandfather built. It was built after there was a public road surveyed, so that the building would be on a public road....Also grandfather served his time in the State Militia of New York and was rated as Captain of Militia before he moved to Pennsylvania."

Thomas' father and brothers all lived near each other in that part of Niagara County, NY which became Erie County, NY. They lived in a township which in early days was known as Concord, it then became Collins from which North Collins was taken. The lands owned by the members of the family were in Lots #63 and #64 in the North West part of the Township and the area where the village or Town of North Collins is now located. In the assessment roll of North Collins Township in 1823 Thomas owned 48 acres of land in the north west portion of Lot #63 which was completely owned by members of the Stanclift family at that date. The Holland Land Company had granted 100 acres of land to the Congregational Society comprised of the members of the Stanclift family. The land located in the eastern portion of Lot 64 was valued at $282.00 in the 1823 Assessment record. The Congregational Society petitioned the Court for permission to sell that land and obtain land more suitable to their needs and located in the Village of North Collins. On July 27, 1832 Thomas purchased for $400.00 the acreage set aside for the church. He did not remain on the land for long.

4.John Stanclift Bible Record seems to say 1797. The gravestone at Sharp's Corner Cemetery says he died 1848 age 51.

5.1830 Census records show a concentration of men named PEEK or PEAK in Eden, Erie County, NY- Heads of family, oldest males are Abraham 50-60, Samuel 30-40, and John 30-40, Thomas 20-30, William 20-30. They were not in 1820 Census.

6.Referring to the "old homestead" where Joseph Garrett Stancliff was born.

7.Lucius McClellan Stancliff referring to his cousin Andrew Jackson Stancliff son of Alden.

Thomas, along with his father and brother Timothy and their families, left the area and moved to Erie County, PA to join the other Stanclifts living in that place. Making the trip by ox team, they arrived in Erie County, PA on Feb. 28, 1835.

This Stanclift family again purchased property in the same area. On May 6, 1835 Thomas and Timothy both purchased from the Pennsylvania Population Company a 101 acre 40 perch tract of land in McKean Township, Erie County, PA in Tract #409[1]. The two tracts of land were side by side and as Thomas and Timothy expanded their land holdings and passed portions of their land on to their sons, there developed a larger community of related Stanclift families and the road along their property became Stanclift Road.

In the 1820 Census, Thomas was listed as living Concord Township, Niagara County, NY and there were two males between 16 and 26 in his household, one female of the same age and a male under 10 years of age[2]. In 1830 Thomas was counted twice, he was in Eden Township, Erie County, NY which is located just North of North Collins Village, and at this date there were three young sons and one daughter[3]. He was also enumerated alone in an area about ten miles south of North Collins, in Cattaragus County, NY[4] By 1840 Thomas had moved to Erie County, PA along with his father and brother Timothy where they settled in a group in the South East portion of McKean Township, an area that would later become part of Waterford Township. In 1840 besides Thomas and Polly there were six males and four females in the household[5]. This number exceeds known children.

Thomas and Polly Stanclift were said to be travelling Evangelical Singers. Thomas was a farmer and also a surveyor. He served as a Justice of the Peace.

Thomas' death occurred as he dismounted a horse, an artery ruptured and he died. In 1850 Polly was still living on their farm and children Ellsworth, Lorinda and Joseph were still in her household[6]. In 1860 she was living with son Alden and his family in Waterford Township. They were probably living in the same place as by this date their property would have fallen within the restructured boundaries of Waterford Township[7]. By 1870 Polly listed as "Mary" was living with her daughter Lavinia and son in law David Stanclift in McKean Township[8]. In 1880 Polly was living with her son, Ellsworth Stancliff.[9] of land in Lot 55.[1]. Family lived "near Buffalo", NY in 1837, but this seems to be the term frequently used by the family when referring to Collins or North Collins, Erie County, NY. They were living in Collins, NY by the 1850 Census[2]. By 1860[3] Reuben was living at Long Bar Township, Yuba County, CA. None of the members of his family were with him, and he was living in the household of Edward Parson who was a Dairyman. Reuben was also termed a Dairyman. Many other neighbors were listed as miners and Long Bar may have been a mining community.

Son of Samuel and Olive [Balcom] Stanclift born Winchester, Litchfield County, CT Aug. 10, 1784[6], married ANNA ____ "Annie" born NY. Annie was the mother of his son Samuel[7].

Samuel left New York State and moved to St. Joseph County Indiana. "In July 1833 A. M. Hurd laid out and platted the village of 'St. Joseph Iron Works,' about four miles above South Bend, on the south bank of the St. Joseph River. Jan 1, 1835, an election was held and James White, John J. Deming, Samuel Stancliff, Henry DeCamp and Alexander Sanderlands were elected village trustees. This was the first village organization in the county....laid out the town of Indiana City on the north side of the river opposite St. Joseph Iron Works. This land (being school land) where Mishawaka now stands...."[8]. In 1839 St. Joseph Iron Works was combined with Indiana City to form the town of Mishawaka which is less than five miles west of the Elkhart County boundary.

His father, Samuel, was probably staying with this man or with Amos, at the time of his death in 1838. John Stanclift's Bible said his brother, Samuel, died in Indiana.

We know of only one child born to Samuel, and that through the death records of that son, Samuel, below. There are probably other children. Land records of Elkhart County, IN reveal a Samuel Stanclift and wife Jane C. [____] Stanclift owned land in Elkhart County, IN and were residents of Elkhart County in 1843. When the last parcel of land was sold in 1846 they were again called residents of St. Joseph County, IN. There are also records for an unidentified George D. W. Stanclift and wife Sarah R. who also owned land in Elkhart County, but do not appear in the Elkhart County Vital Records and may be part of his family. There were also members of the James Stancliff family who had moved from Scipio, Cayuga County, NY and were living in Elkhart County, IN about this time.

(157) ELIAS[5] STANCLIFT (Samuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Samuel and Olive [Balcom] Stanclift born while the family was living in Norfolk, Litchfield County, CT, baptized Norfolk Church of Christ Sept. 7, 1788[9], died at Bristol, Ontario County, NY in the Spring of 1813, married LYDIA WOOD daughter of John Wood born VT Aug. 1787. Her parents were probably John and Hannah [Randall] Wood. John and Hannah [Randall] Wood who came to South Bristol, Ontario County, NY from Woodstock, VT. They are buried in the Covell Cemetery and the daughter of Elias and Lydia is buried adjacent to their graves.

Administration on the estate of Elias Stanclift was granted to relict, Lydia Stanclift, May 25, 1813[10].

This family lived Naples, NY and South Bristol, NY and owned land termed "Canandaigua Academy" land in Ontario County, NY.

On July 4, 1808 Elias Stanclift assumed a mortgage on land in that area. He evidently was not successful in establishing a profitable farm. After he died, the land was reclaimed by Zachariah Seymore, the land agent for the Canandaigua Academy lands and the farm was sold at auction, as follows-

Elias Stanclift, when he executed the said indenture, was above the age of 25. Copy was to be inserted in the Ontario Repository six months previous to said sale. Nat W. Howell appointed to perform the Judge duties, Oct. 18, 1813.

Elias Stanclift, Mortgage Sale-- Mortgage dated July 4, 1808, $225.00. Canandaigua Academy Land, Twp. 9, third range, Academy lands- Lot #4, foreclosing Sept. 30, 1813.

It is of interest that Samuel Stanclift, father of Elias, purchased land from Canandaigua Academy in 1813[2]. The widow of Elias, Lydia [Wood] Stanclift, married 2. Thomas Francisco in 1814. He was a widower with two daughters at that date. Alonzo Stanclift was 2 years old at the time and was raised in the Francisco household. The Francisco family moved to Gorham, Ontario County, NY by 1810, and to Cattaraugus County, NY by 1829. Lydia and Thomas Francisco both died in Newton Twp, Calhoun County, MI. Lydia died on May 16, 1848 Æ 60 years, 9 months, and Thomas married again. Thomas Francisco died there in 1853. Thomas and Lydia had nine children.

(161) AMOS[5] STANCLIFT (Samuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Samuel and Olive [Balcom] Stanclift born Sangerfield, NY July 1, 1796, died Rome City, Orange Township, Noble County, IN Apr. 1, 1880 and buried Orange Cemetery (possibly Osborn Cemetery)[3], married probably Ontario County, NY RHODA ____ born MA 1793[4].

In 1820 Amos was already in Naples, Ontario County, NY and while he seemed to be married, there were no children in the household[5]. In 1826 Rhoda Stanclift joined the Presbyterian Church of Cohocton, Steuben County, NY, about seven miles distant from Naples, and the following year a Laura Stanclift joined the same church[6]. Laura Stanclift is not yet identified, but probably was part of this family.

Along with the other members of his family, Amos moved to Indiana. By 1838 Amos was living in Otsego Township in the south east part of Steuben County, IN and in that year he taught school in the first school in the Township at a salary of $12.00 per month[7]. In 1840 the Steuben County, IN Census indicates his family is made up of wife and a male and a female child 10-15 years of age[8]. In 1850 he had moved about twenty miles west and lived Salem in the south west part of Steuben County, IN where he was a Farmer[9]. By 1860 he had moved another twenty miles north west to Greenfield Township, Lagrange County, IN[10]. In 1880 he died at Rome City, Noble County, IN which was again only about twenty miles distant.

(162) SETH[5] STANCLIFT (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born while the family was living in Sangerfield, NY Tuesday, Jan. 1, 1793_1, died McKean, Erie County, PA Sept. 14, 1885_2, married McKean, Erie County, PA "Tuesday evening February 10th, 1818"$_3$ ABIGAIL McINTYRE daughter of Ely and Diana [Robinson] McIntyre$_4$ born at Feeding Hill, Hampden County, MA Jul. 14, 1792_5, died McKean, Erie County, PA Aug. 31, 1885 Æ 93 years.

Seth was famous for his singing voice and taught at a singing school. Among his students was Abigail McIntyre, who had come across the "Cherry Valley Trail" through New York to Pennsylvania in 1816, with her relatives, the Flower family. Abigail kept a day to day Diary of the trip that provides an insight into travel and Hotel accommodations at that time. There were way-stops or Inns along the Cherry Valley Trail and they must have planned their journey to locate these Inns at the end of each days travel. They stopped early enough in the day to wash their clothes and bake their bread for the following days travel. Excerpts from Abigail's Diary-

"Thursday, May 9, 1816. I left Feeding Hills with my uncles family with a sorrowing heavy heart. Went through Westfield, and into Russels, put up at Halley's tavern, was treated with politness, had a good nights rest.

Friday, Tenth. Rode into Chester Village, then walked, wept, and sat down on the river bank, and 'Mused by the waters'. Stopped by the ferry to eat, then climbed Becket mountain, and picked wintergreen; put up at Bain's inn, poor accommodations....

Friday, 17th. Passed through Springfield, Warren, Richfield into Winfield, put up at Crowell's inn. Did some washing; people very kind, lovely woman.

Saturday, 18th. Went through Bridgewater, Sangerfield, into Madison; put up at Blackmore's inn; good accomodation....

Saturday, 25th. Pleasant weather; had an agreeable walk through a beautiful, fertile land, on our way through Aurelia into Cayuga; put up at Willard and Morris inn; the house was full and we could get no milk. I felt perplexed and went to bed supperless. On our way through Aurelia saw a beautiful garden, walked on a stone wall, and saw a bear....

Wednesday, May 29th. Got emtptins and baked;$_6$ weather cold and clear. Crossed Genesee river, went through an indian village into Caledonia. Went into a ferrying place....

Friday, 31st. Fine morning; rode four miles then the ox wagon turned over; went into Clarence and stopped$_7$....

Saturday, June 1st. ....drove into Buffalo, a big flourishing place....went to the water and put part of our load on a ship....

Sunday, June 2nd. A pleasant morning; we made some arrangements in the wagon, then with some difficulty crossed the outlet of Lake Erie. The traveling very bad on beach; met with a merciful escape from quicksand.

Tuesday, June 4th. Made a pudding, baked bread and proceeded on our journey; found the roads extremely bad; walked almost all day. Went through the so-called four mile woods. Crossed the ferry at Cattaraugus bank, reached Mack's inn....

Friday, June 7th. .... proceed on our journey; at Northeast, crossed the line into Pennsylvania....

Saturday, June 8th. Went to Erie, stopped in the street; our men went down to the water; our goods had not landed; held a consultation whether to wait or not; concluded to go on. Went to Strong's inn; got there by the middle of the P.M....

Saturday, June 15th. ....Mr. Flower and Homer went to look for a farm; Josiah and Frederick went for a cow, and on their return put her out.

Sunday, June 16th. ....Mr. Flower and Homer returned with a prospect of purchasing....

Monday, June 17th. ....Mr. Dicison came to close the bargain....
Tuesday, June 18th. Left Waterford, and set out to go to our farm on Elk Creek, about nine miles.... Fell in company with Mr. Grant, who was kind to assist us through the woods. We had a very fatiqueing day of it, traveling bad....The ox wagon turned over. Arrived at our place near night...."

The daily entries in the Diary stopped at this place. There are several additional entries made long after the journey across the Cherry Valley Trail was completed. Two of those entries are of particular interest-

"Saturday, March 22nd, 1817. Our singing school closed; it was taught by Mr. Stancliff."
"Tuesday, evening, February 10th, 1918, Abigail Mcintire was married to Seth Stancliff, it being the 26th year of her age, and the same of his. Said to be the coldest night ever known in this country."

Seth had records of three tours of duty in the Pennsylvania Militia during the War of 1812. He served July 30, 1812 through Sept. 2, 1812 in Capt John Morris' Company of Pennsylvania Militia attached to the command of Major James Hall, Regiment commanded by Brigadier General John Kelso. Followed by service Apr. 24, 1813 through May 5, 1813 in Capt. Warren Foot's Company of Militia doing duty at Erie by order of Major General David Mead, Major Charles Martin Commanding. He also served Jan. 3, 1814 through Feb. 5, 1814, and in this tour of duty he was termed a Corporal, in A Pennsylvania Militia Company of Zelotes Lee of the 17th Regiment commanded by John C. Wallace under order of Major General Mead.[1]

According to the memoirs of David Stancliff, part of Seth's service was as a substitute for his father. Seth's father, Lemuel Stanclift, "was a member of the Pennsylvania Militia and did guard duty when Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's fleet was constructed at Lake Erie in 1812, and when his health failed, sent his oldest son to act as his substitute, for which service, this son, Seth Stanclift drew a pension as a soldier in the War of 1812."[2] Commodore Perry's headquarters were at Presque Isle, very near the city of Erie and the fleet was built in that area. Perry christened his flagship the LAWRENCE and on her flew a blue flag that had embroidered upon it the words "Don't give up the Ship". The words were prophetic in a way, as the LAWRENCE was so badly damaged in the first part of the "Battle of Lake Erie" in 1813 that Perry was obliged to transfer to the NIAGARA and continue the fight which culminated in a decisive victory. Lake Erie was secured and Perry returned triumphantly to the battered LAWRENCE.[3] All this is of interest because included in the inventory of Ely McIntyre Stanclift was a "cane made from the wood of the Flagship Lawrence" which along with a "Revolutionary War Musket" were on loan to the Erie Public Library. Seth must have carved a cane from a piece of wood from the damaged ship. The musket was probably carried by Lemuel during the Revolution[4].

Seth gained a reputation throughout the area as an exceptional marksman. It was said that he could hit an object no larger than a man's hand at 25 rods repeatedly. This feat was cited by David Stanclift many times in his letters about the family.

Seth was listed as a head of household in every Erie County, PA census from 1820 through 1880. In 1820 Seth established a farm very near his father and he remained in this area surrounded by brothers and sister until he retired from farming. Some of his own children also stayed within this Stanclift community as they matured and married. In 1850 only the two youngest sons remained at home with Seth and Abigail[5]. The sons were still at home in 1860, and in this year Harriet Mix was living in the household. She was a daughter of Giles Peter and Mary [Stanclift] Mix[6]. By 1870 Seth had retired from farming and moved to the city of Erie with son Ely McIntyre who was listed as a retired Tobacconist[7]. In 1880 Seth and Abigail both aged 87 were still in Erie living with Ely McIntyre and his wife Adelaide. At this date Ely was the head of the household[8].

(163) ANNA C.[5] STANCLIFT (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Daughter of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born Sangerfield, Oneida County, NY Thursday Feb. 12, 1795_1, died Lincoln, Placer County, CA Feb. 2, 1889 at the home of her son, Otis, married 1. JOHN $LLOYD_2$ and before 1830 she had obtained a divorce from him and married 2. MATTHEW $ALLIN_3$ born Peru, Clinton County, NY Jan. 15, 1800_4, died in Utah.

Her brother David described Anna as "quite a belle and a real beauty". David said of John Lloyd only that "he proved not to be an agreeable companion"

Matthew Allin was a member of the Church of the Latter Day Saints. One of Joseph Smith's revelations caused him to lead his followers from New York to Kirtland in the Western Reserve of Ohio in February 1831. They sought to establish a new community and a center for the Church.

It is not certain whether Matthew was a follower of Joseph Smith in New York or became a follower after the Mormon exodus from New York. Subsequent records indicate their first child was born in PA in 1831. Matthew and Anna Allin moved to Kirtland Township, Geauga County, OH (now Lake County). On Dec. 21, 1836 Matthew Allin was ordained an Elder in the $Church_5$ In 1837 they were on record as having been blessed by Joseph Smith

In 1837 Matthew purchased and paid Personal Property Tax on two parcels of land on the western side of the town of Kirtland. On Jan. 17 1837 for the sum of $300.00 Matthew Allin bought two tracts of land of 9 acres each from Samuel Canfield, who had purchased the land from Titus Street. Titus Street was one of the first proprietors of the Connecticut Western Reserve having purchased a $22,846.00 share in these $lands_6$. The lands were located just outside of the town boundary and were part of Lots # 29 and # 42_7. In this same year the Bank established by Joseph Smith failed. The currency which that bank had issued became $worthless_8$ and the community suffered a financial depression. The Mormon community was also experiencing extreme hostility from neighbors in the Kirtland area which precipitated their abandonment of the Kirtland locale and the trek to Missouri and Illinois.

On Jan. 9, 1838, just one year after the purchase, Matthew Allin sold his property in Kirtland, at a significant loss, to Farr Winslow for $$250.00_9$.

"Finally in 1838, internal strife and persecution from non-mormons caused the Saints to abandon their homes, shops, farms, schools, and beautiful temple. Joseph Smith and his family were among the first to leave Kirtland for Missouri in January 1838. Small groups of Saints soon followed, and the last group-- the five-hundred-member Kirtland Camp-- left in early July."$_{10}$ Perhaps the Matthew Allin family then made the journey west with Brigham Young and the other followers of Joseph Smith. Matthew was said to have died in Utah.

While the atmosphere in Kirtland was not always friendly to the disciples of Joseph Smith, the people in their destined home in Missouri were proving even more antagonistic. Perhaps Anna was uncomfortable in these hostile environments. By 1850 she returned to her family in Erie County, PA.

In that year Anna Allin appeared on the 1850 Census living with or possibly just visiting her sister, Sally [Stanclift] Mix, and her husband Hiram Mix. She must have remained or returned to Erie County, PA for some period of time as David Stanclift said in his Memoirs "I have no knowledge of their whereabouts except Otis in Lincoln, Placer County, California. They were nice well behaved children when living here and I was well pleased with Otis and Leonard when here once for a visit to Tryphenia. The last I heard from her she was married and living in Chicago. I have not heard from Leonard since he left here last."

(165) EBER[5] STANCLIFT (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born Jul. 17, 1799, died McKean, Erie County, PA Nov. 25[5], 1846, buried in the Stanclift Cemetery on his father's farm[6], married Erie County, PA by Eber's third cousin Rev. Russell Stancliff Aug. 16, 1827 BETSEY HARRISON of Fairview[7] daughter of Thomas and Annie [Clark] Harrison born 1803, died about 1873.

Betsey's father, Thomas Harrison, had lived in Canada until the outbreak of the War of 1812. He abandoned his holdings to return to New York at that time. Betsey's sister Lucy Emily married Thomas Crandall and she was the mother of a large family, four of her children married members of the Stanclift family.

After marriage Eber established his own farm very close to the family homestead[8]. Eber died while spending the night at the home of a neighbor. During the night, he fell out of the loft and fractured his skull. His mother had a clairvoyant revelation concerning the accident and had roused the entire family and told them of her son's death some time before the neighbors arrived bearing his body.

After the death of Eber, Betsey took her six children and moved in with David's family to live on the Stanclift family farm. She earned money to help support her family as a seamstress and dressmaker. In 1863 diphtheria struck her family and her three unmarried daughters all died of that disease within a few months of each other. Notes added to David Stanclift's manuscript by a granddaughter said, "Lucy and Sylvia were the prettiest girls you ever saw, and the nicest."

Betsey married again McKean, Erie County, PA Apr. 21, 1852 to Nicholas Henday[9]. By the 1860 Census Betsey had reclaimed the name Stanclift was not living with Nicholas Henday.

In 1870 Betsey was living with her son, Henry in Middleboro[10]. In that same year W. Henry Stanclift was the grantor and Betsey Stanclift the Grantee on land in Middleboro[11], In 1873 the estate of Betsey Stanclift was grantor and W.H. Stanclift grantee CHILDREN: Eber and Betsey [Harrison] Stanclift, all born Erie County, PA.

351- 1. MARIAH STANCLIFT born June 14, 1832, died Jan. 29, 1865 Æ 32 years, 7 months, 13 days, buried Stanclift Cemetery on Lemuel's farm "There is rest for the weary"[2], married Jun. 15, 1863 CHARLES M. COLT JR. He owned and operated a Stage Coach Line between Erie and Meadville. They lived McKean, but moved to Edinboro where Mariah died of consumption. There were no children. She was cited in David Stanclifts Memoirs as the oldest child in the family.

352- 2. MARY ANN STANCLIFT born 1835[3], died 1863 of Diphtheria

353- 3. ELIZABETH STANCLIFT born 1836-1839, married JOHN CROSS and left Erie County, PA soon after her marriage. One of her girls kept house for her Uncle Henry in California.

354- 4. WILLIAM HENRY STANCLIFT born PA 1840[4], died after 1920, married in 1907 FLORENCE M. ____ born OH 1854, died after 1920. He was still living with his mother in Middleboro, Erie County, PA in 1870. He was at that date engaged in the mercantile business, selling "Dry Goods and Groceries". He was listed in various records as W. H. Stanclift, William H. or W. Henry Stanclift, but seemed to be known as Henry in family records. His age varied in records with the same frequency as his name did. David, son of Lemuel Stanclift, said he moved to Lisbon, WI and owned a cranberry marsh there, selling out to move to California where he owned a thirty five acre fruit farm. He didn't go directly to California as he is found living alone at Scotts Mills, Marion County, OR in 1900.[5] He must have moved soon after that and purchased property in California. He wrote to his Uncle David at the time of the San Francisco Earthquake which occurred April 18 and 19, 1906. He told David that he had lost valuable business properties and was broke. This reversal of fortune may have prompted a return to Oregon. He wrote another letter to David, this time from Oregon saying he had "found a woodshed, a cow, and a small house that he liked so well that he married the owner." Henry married in 1907, and by 1910 he had returned again to California[6]. He and Florence lived at 1507 Fourth Street, National City, San Diego County, CA. They were living at the same address in 1920[7].

355- 5. LUCY STANCLIFT born 1843, died April 9, 1863 of diphtheria Æ 20[8].

356- 6. SYLVIA STANCLIFT "Silvey" born 1844-1847[9], died Jan. 15, 1863 of diphtheria[10].

(166) PHILENIA[5] STANCLIFT (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Daughter of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born McKean, Erie County, PA Feb. 2, 1802[11], died there July 5, 1845, married 1.Erie County, PA Nov. 27, 1822 WILLIAM TAYLOR, married before 1825 2. LUDIM CROUCH born 1792, died Wesleyville, Erie County, PA Feb. 8, 1872 Æ 80 years[12].

Philenia's brother, David, said that Ludim was an educated man and was a very prosperous farmer. He termed his sister, an "energetic and tidy housekeeper". By 1850 Ludim had remarried a woman named Sarah by whom he had additional children named Stuart Crouch born 1847 and Helen Crouch born 1850. Ludim served in the War of 1812 in Capt John Dix's Company 8th Regiment of New York State Militia. Ludim died at Wesleyville, PA in 1872 and Sarah died at West Point, NY about 1898.[13]

The census records suggest that the farm of Ludim Crouch was located near Lemuel's homestead. In 1830 Ludim and Philenia Crouch were living near Philenia's parents and they had two young boys by this date[14]. By 1840 they seemed to be living closer to the Sharpe's Corner Stanclift Community and had a large family[15]

9.PA CENSUS 1850, Erie County, Township of McKean, Sylvia was aged 8; PA CENSUS 1860, Erie County, Township of McKean, Silvey was aged 13. The census records do not agree, using both ages it would be reasonable to believe she was born 1842-1847. Since sister was born 1843 and her father died 1846. She could have been born after his death, her birth date then would fall between 1844 and 1847.

10.ERIE GAZETTE issue of Jan. 29, 1863, this obituary reports her age as 15, which does not agree with other records.

(167) EUNICE or EMMA[5] STANCLIFT[3] (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Daughter of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born McKean, Erie County, PA July 10, 1804, died 1886, married 1. Erie County, PA about 1824 her cousin ORRIN GOFF son of Bethuel Goff, who was a brother of Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift. He was born probably Montpelier, Washington County, VT either 1794 or 1804, died McKean, Erie County, PA Mar. 5, 1842 Æ 38 years or Æ 48 years, buried Stanclift Cemetery on Lemuel's farm[4].

They lived Medina County, OH shortly after marriage, but returned to Erie County, PA by 1840 and lived near Lemuel's farm, and they had three young sons by this date[5]. After Orrin's death Eunice lived for a year or more on the Stanclift family farm with the family of her brother, David. She then married 2. in Erie County, PA AMOS WILCOX and they lived on the Wilcox farm in McKean, Erie County, PA. They sold out and moved to Ashtabula County, OH, leaving there for Fremont, IN where Amos Wilcox died. Eunice went to live with her son, Arzo Goff, in New York City for a time, but once again she returned to Freemont, IN.

CHILDREN: Orrin and Eunice or Emma [Stanclift] Goff

1. ARZO or ORRIN GOFF born PA 1828, married McKean, Erie County, PA Apr. 24, 1851 HARRIET KNEELAND by Rev. J. M. Williams[6]. In 1850 he appeared in the Census and was listed as the Postmaster of McKean. He was living in the household of a merchant named Francis Lamson and Richard C. Wilcox also listed as a merchant, was in the household[7]. Richard was probably the son of Amos Wilcox. Arzo lived in New York City[8]. David Stanclift said that Orrin was partly crippled by a swelling on his leg. He believed that Orrin was an Advertising Agent while he lived in New York City and had a Regalia Manufacturing Plant in Washington, D. C. He had no children.
2. OSMAN D. GOFF born 1830, died Fremont, Steuben County, IN before July 1868[9]. He served during the Civil War from three different states. He spent three months in the Nineteenth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, a year in the Eighty-third Pennsylvania as a Second Sergeant and subsequently as a Sergeant Major in the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Indiana. He was married and was a chairmaker by trade.

(170) DAVID[5] STANCLIFT (Lemuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Lemuel and Mehitable [Goff] Stanclift born Erie County, PA Dec. 4, 1812, died Jan. 1, 1905, buried Dunn Valley Cemetery, married Mar. 28, 1845, his cousin, LOVINIA A. STANCLIFF daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann [Peek] Stancliff born Aug. 1822, died Jan. 1, 1915[3].

His obituary quoted in a letter from a relative stated that David was the first white child born in McKean Township.

David lived on the family farm and cared for his parents, after their deaths he continued to live on Lemuel Stanclift's original homestead farm. When David was in his eighties, he wrote down his remembrances of the family genealogy and included many vital statistics of the Erie County, PA families. This reference has been an invaluable research tool, and quoted often in this text. Over the years he seems to have added to the History and there are as many as four different documents. In this text they are all referred to as the "Memoirs of David Stanclift"

While David had no College degree, he was a School Teacher of some renown. When asked once from what College he had graduated he replied "The Chimney Corner". He used to examine teachers in the Township and award certificates for teaching. He was also a Justice of the Peace for some twenty years. On an IRS Tax Assessment List for the year 1866 he is called a " Lawyer". On that same list in 1866 he was termed a " Claims Agent".

It seemed that in times of bereavement, members of the Stanclift family returned to the large white frame house on the Stanclift family farm and David provided the help they required through hard times. David had living in his household the widow and six children of his brother Eber after Eber died in 1846.

David was the head of household on the farm in 1850. Besides Lovinia and the two girls, his mother Mehitable was also in the family. In this year the family of his brother Eber shared the house[4]. In 1860 Mehitable was still with them[5]. In 1870 David, Lovinia and the two girls had Lovinia's mother living with them. Mary Ann [Peek] Stancliff "Polly", widow of Thomas Stancliff. There was also a seven year old girl named Lizzie Joslyn living with the family[6]. By 1880 David and Lovinia, were still on the farm which now is listed as being in the City of Middleboro. Eva was already married and Lizzie Joslyn born PA 1863 was now listed as an adopted daughter[7]. By 1900 David and Lovinia were living alone in Middleboro, Lovinia had borne two children but only one was still living[8].

9.The Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index gives both birth and marriage information on Sarah and lists both events as occurring in Rockland, Rockland County, NY.

10.The children listed are taken from the Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index which indicates that all were born in Rockland, NY.

(175) OLIVE[6] STANCLIFFE (George[5], George[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of George and Margaret [Squire] Stancliffe died about 1836, married WILLARD EARLE, son of Artemas and Delia [Hunt] Earle born Jan. 20, 1814_1. Olive died very soon after the marriage according to Stancliffe family records. Willard Earle married 2. Nov. 5, 1837, Orpha Keeler, of Malone, Franklin County, NY.

The author of the Earle Genealogy was not aware of Willard Earle's marriage to Olive, but it does list a daughter born a year before his marriage to Orpha, who strangely enough is said to be a child of Orpha, but is more probably the child of Olive and so listed here.

CHILDREN: Willard and Olive [Stancliffe] Earle

1. DELIA EARLE born May 2, 1836, married Nov. 5, 1860 WESLEY HAPGOOD son of Cornelius and Betsey Hapgood of Constable, Franklin County, NY born Jul. 29, 1835, died Apr. 29, 1887. They had children Eunice, John and Ida G. Hapgood. In 1900 Delia [Earle] Hapgood was a widow living in the household of Lawrence Wescott and her daughter Ida [Earle] Wescott, they lived next door to her son, John Hapgood, and his family.$_2$ Lawrence Wescott was the brother of Abbie Lucy [Wescott] Stancliffe, wife of George Sherman Stancliffe.

10.MILITARY PENSION FILES, National Archives, Washington, D.C., researched by Dr. William Stanclift, indicate not only the marriage date but information on Sherman's health and occupation at the time he applied for a pension based on the service of his son, Almanzo.

11.THE EARLE FAMILY, Ralph Earle and his descendants compiled by Pliny Earle 1888, pages 162 and 291 indicate an April 2, 1820 birth date. The April 9, 1820 date is from the Sherman Stancliff Bible Records.

This family belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Sherman was listed as the minister of the small brick Church for a three year period of time. He had done a great deal of work in the building and maintenance of that church and it was a very important part of his life. At Christmas time he purchased presents for all of the children in the church.

Sherman's granddaughter, Della, and her husband, Bill Berry, tell of a hugh mural behind the pulpit of the church. It is a pastoral scene with grazing sheep and the depiction of the shepherd is a likeness of Della's first cousin, Joe Wescott[1], dressed as a shepherd, complete with staff. It is said that Mr. Wescott posed for the painting in the meadow behind his business establishment, the Wescott Store, with his own flock of sheep.

Sherman was elected Commissioner of Roads for the Town of Malone in 1881. He was a farmer by occupation but was also known as a builder. He had been partly incapacitated by a shoulder injury sustained about 1851 in a fall, and in 1878 when he was building a Dam across a stream, he crushed his hand between two rocks. The pension papers describe the family home as being in the South part of Malone in a section known as "the wilderness area".

In 1860 Sherman and his family lived on father's farm next door to Ira Wescott and family, and George Stancliff aged 84 was listed as head of the household.[2]

366- 3. ALMANZO B. STANCLIFFE born Malone, Franklin County, NY Jan. 23, 1844, died Sept. 30, 1864 of "Scorbutus" while a prisoner in Andersonville Prison, Sumpter County, GA, buried Grave #10078, Section H, Andersonville National Cemetery, Sumpter County, GA.

He enlisted Aug. 2, 1862 and served with Company H, 106TH Regiment New York Volunteers along with Rufus Earle, his Uncle, who was also married to Almanzo's cousin, Charlotte Stancliffe. They were tentmates. Almanzo was in contact with other members of his family who were also in the Army during the long months of the War and wrote of how homesick they were. One of his letters home to his father during this time expressed the wish that he would be home by Spring, but this was not to be. He was captured at Cold Harbor, Virginia on June 1, 1864 while on a scouting expedition and one week later he was sent to the infamous Andersonville Prison in Georgia. A note written on the back of one of his letters by his niece, Dellcy [Eddy] Childs, states that Almanzo starved to death. His cruel death made an impact far beyond his immediate family, included in information from other branches of the Stancliff family was the sad story of "the relative who had died at Andersonville during the Civil War". That letter written on May 3, 1864 from the Camp at Cullpepper, VA, just one month before his capture at the Battle of Cold Harbour, VA, Almanzo wrote in part-

"I understand the .....army corps are a marchin up the Chandoe (Shenandoah) valley if it is so Rufus is thare i think we Shal clear out the rebls this summer it is very pleasant hear to day it rained a little last knight

you wanted to know how Randell liked Soldering he dont (like) it very well he aint So home Sick this winter as he was last summer..... we hopin to march and i think we shal move before long and the quicker the better

(179) JAMES[6] STANCLIFF (Russel[5], James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Russel and Desire [____] Stancliff born Washington Township, Erie County, PA 1801, married by 1824 to MARGARET A. GRAHAM born VA 1801[1], daughter of James Graham of Washington Township. They lived in Edinboro, Erie County, PA at least until 1861.

Margaret's father came to the area in 1800[2] and was active in the Methodist Episcopal Church along with James' father, Russel Stancliff. James Graham was a Circuit Rider for the United Methodist Church. The names of both men frequently appeared as those attending early Conference meetings[3]. The will of James Graham proved in 1848[4] indicated that his "homelot" was west of the Meadville Road, adjoining and north of the land of James Stancliff.

In 1830 James was married and living in Conniautte Township, which later became Washington Township, next to his parents[5]. When the corporate limits of Edinboro, Washington Township, Erie County, PA were established in 1840, James Stancliff was one of the first officers of the borough. In that same year he was enumerated in the 1840 census in Mercer County, PA[6], but he has returned to Edinboro, Washington Township, Erie County, PA by 1850. That census indicates that he was a wagonmaker by trade. In 1860 James and Margaret still lived in Washington Township and James' mother Desire Stancliff aged 80 was living in their household[7].

When Margaret's father wrote his will in 1848 he made reference to his homelot as being located West of the Meadville Road and North of James Stancliff's land. He left his daughter, Margaret, 2 acres of land within these boundaries. He left an adjoining tract of land to another daughter, Letticia Graham. Margaret [Graham] Stancliff must have conveyed this property to her children.

On Jan. 28, 1858 the children of Margaret [Graham] Stancliff consisting of James Stancliff and his wife Sarah, D. C. Whitney and his wife Desire, late Desire Stancliff, sold to Frederick Frey for the sum of $1.00 the land that their mother had inherited from her father, James Graham[8]. This seems to be the land inherited by Margaret in her father's will, and suggests that at least one other daughter was still living and she was married to Frederick Frey. The earlier census records indicate additional children in this family.

Son of Russel and Desire [____] Stancliff born Washington Township, Erie County, PA Sept. 5, 1809_1, died Galesburg, Knox County, IL Aug. 15, 1851_2, married 1. Erie County, PA JANE _____ born 1809, died Washington Township, Erie County, PA Dec. 15, 1837 Æ 28_3, possibly as a result of childbirth, married 2. Erie County, PA Jul. 28, 1838 ESTHER BELDEN daughter of David and Anna [Ensign] Belden, born NY Mar. 1, 1811_4, baptized at the Congregational Church in Greenfield, Saratoga County, NY Mar. 31, 1811_5, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Erastus Fuller, Galesburg, Knox County, IL Sunday, Feb. ?, 1894_6.

William and Esther Stancliff left Erie County, PA and moved to Galesburg, Knox County, Illinois in 1843. Esther's parents had settled there in 1840. After their move they lived nextdoor to Esther's parents, David and Anna [Ensign] Belden$_7$. Both the Belden and the Ensign families originated in CT. William had owned land in Washington Township, Erie County, PA and evidently did not sell it before leaving the area. The land was taken for non-payment of taxes on Nov. 7, 1846_8.

William's untimely death left Esther with a step daughter and four young children of her own, and a fifth child yet to be born. David Belden Stancliff, her youngest child was born five months after William's death. Neighbors and friends offered to take several of her children, but rather than see her family split up, Esther chose instead to keep the children together and face the struggle of raising her children alone. William's daughter, Nancy, returned to Erie County, PA, where she probably lived with her grandparents, Russel and Desire Stancliff until her marriage to their neighbor, William Ore.

On August 4, 1881 Esther applied for a federal pension based on the Civil War service of her son David, and was awarded the pension Certificate # 221174.

(184) PERRY[6] STANCLIFF (David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of David B. and Amy [Miles] Stancliff born Athens County, OH Jan. 21, 1822, died Wyoming, Stark County, IL Sept. 25, 1898, buried Wyoming Cemetery. He married Stark County, IL by Josiah Moffit, JP Aug. 17, 1848 MARTHA CAROLINE DAVIS[1], daughter Daniel and Rachel [Ennis] Davis born Switzerland County, IN June 3, 1828[2]. Martha died Houston, Harris County, TX, Jan. 19, 1911[3] while visiting the family of her son, Charles Herman Stancliff. She is buried Wyoming Cemetery, Wyoming, Stark County, IL with her husband.

When Perry was aged seventeen, his father arranged an apprenticeship, so that Perry might learn the brick mason's trade. The apprenticeship provided for wages of eighty dollars per year, and a portion of that was to be paid at the conclusion of the contract. At the end of three years Perry "bought his time of his father", and worked as a mason in Ross County, OH for another two years

In 1844 a large group of people in Vinton and Ross counties Ohio decided to move westward into the new and sparsely settled area of Stark County, Illinois. There had been only 350 legal voters in the locality at the time the new County of Stark was formed on March 2, 1839. Five years later, in 1844, Perry Stancliff moved to Illinois[4] and purchased the land one mile south of the Village of Wyoming, Stark County, Illinois, upon which he developed "Sunnyside Farm".

The house built by Perry stands today on the outskirts of Wyoming. Vera [Ingram] Jacquin remembered the house well and wrote about it-

"The entry hall contained a glass cabinet that housed Martha's collection of stuffed animals, and a peacock perched upon the newel post. Martha was a taxidermist. On the first floor, there was a large kitchen and an outside summer kitchen, there was also a huge dinning room that could seat twenty people and a smaller parlor with mohair furniture, that the children were seldom allowed to enter. The two bedrooms on the first floor were occupied by Perry and Martha and by the two girls in the family. The entire upstairs was a dormitory for the eight boys."

Perry became well known for his expertise in Horticulture. He planted and maintained a large fruit orchard upon his farm. In addition to the trees, Perry also raised stock and kept bees. To process the apples that he grew, he built a cider mill for his own use and that of his neighbors. It was said that he did not want for help operating that mill, the local youths volunteered in numbers when it became known that wages included "all you can drink" of the sweet cider[5].

Perry helped to lay out Thomas Park in Wyoming, and he planted the native trees that stand there today. He also selected and set out the "Garfield Oak" which was planted in the Wyoming Cemetery to commemorate the death of President James A. Garfield. It still stands in 1993.

The last Indian raid that occurred in Stark County, IL took place over ten years after the Black Hawk wars had ceased. An indian raiding or hunting party was travelling by boat down the Spoon River, which the indians called "Feather River", and on this occasion the indians disembarked near Modena, Stark County, IL and killed a settler and his red haired wife. The indians again moved down river, but the news of the attack reached Wyoming first and the settlers were ready. The settlers determined that the indians would probably come ashore again at the bend of the river where General Samuel Thomas had a cabin located near the bank of the river. A number of the men of Wyoming armed themselves and waited in the cabin[6]. When the indians came ashore and surrounded the cabin, the chief was wearing the apron he had taken from the body of the murdered woman and her easily identified scalp of red hair hung from his belt. Perry Stancliff "had an old army rifle, muzzle loader, loaded with a greased lead bullet. He placed it to the keyhole in the door, which was a large one using a key twice the size of the ones of today, took good aim and killed the chief. That broke up the raid and the Indians never returned after that[7]."

In 1885 the family gathered at Sunnyside farm for a family reunion. All of the family was able to be there and there were group photographs taken at the time. One of those was sent to his brother James Allen Stancliff back in Ohio. Perry included the height and weight of his children with the photo and noted "you can see I beat you in number if not in height". James Allen was slightly over seven foot tall and was said to be the tallest man in Ross County, OH. Perry's description of his family as follows-

In the last years of Perry's life his son, Lewis Albert, rented and farmed the land at Sunnyside farm[1]. Perry and Martha shared the house with Albert and his wife, Maggie[2]. After the death of Perry, Martha remained on the farm with Albert's family for another two years[3], and then made her home with her other children, visiting each family in turn. Glenn Willard Stancliff remembered her visits to his family when he was a child and said of his grandmother "She was a stern looking lady and when she told you to do something, you did it!"

Perry was one of the early settlers in the Wyoming area and was a highly regarded member of the community for many years. Shortly before his death, he and Martha celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary at Sunnyside Farm in 1898, but less than ten years after this date Perry's children had all left the area and there were no longer any Stancliffs living in this locality.

(189) THOMAS[6] STANCLIFF (David[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of David B. and Amy [Miles] Stancliff born Athens County, OH Sept. 28, 1827, died Leavenworth, Leavenworth County, KS Nov. 14, 1912_1, married 1. Sullivan, Moultrie County, IL by Rev. Henry Y. Keller Oct. 19, 1853_2 NANCY BLUE born Fayette County, OH, probably in Madison Township, between Oct. 19 and Nov. 4, 1832_3, died after 1893, daughter and only child of Peter and Mary [Durham] Blue of Madison Township, Fayette County, OH_4.

Thomas purchased land in Putnam County, MO on Sept. 23, 1857, from his brother-in-law Alexander Beam husband of Susannah [Stancliff] Beam. They lived Trenton, Liberty Township, Grundy County, MO in 1860_5, and Nancy's mother, Mary [Durham] Blue Penniwell, was in their household at this time.

Nancy's father had died in 1834 when she was very young. By 1850 Nancy and her mother were living with her grandfather, John Durham, near the town of New Holland, Perry Township, Pickaway County, OH_6. Nancy's mother married in Pickaway County, OH Jul. 20, 1851, the next door neighbor, a widower named James Penniwell. When the Penniwell family moved to Moultrie County, IL, Nancy was part of that family. Mary [Durham] Blue Penniwell evidently left her second husband before 1860, as he was still living Moultrie County, IL with the rest of his family at that date, and Mary was living with Nancy and Thomas.

Thomas served in the Army during the Civil War. Nancy said he went to Illinois to visit his brother, Perry, in 1861, and while there he enlisted in the Army, and she never saw him again. After he left home, his brother, William Stancliff, came and took Nancy and her children to his home in Sullivan, MO about twenty miles away. Nancy said she stayed in that vicinity for some ten years. She knew that after his discharge Thomas went again to visit Perry in 1864 but neither she nor any of Thomas' relatives had any communication from Thomas after that time.

Thomas enlisted at Quincy, IL_7 Aug. 5, 1861 as a private in Company F, 3rd Regiment of Illinois Cavalry. The description of him from Service records is that he was 5' 10" tall, dark complexion, black eyes, and dark hair, his occupation was a farmer. Thomas was in a hospital in Memphis, TN from Feb. 5 to Sept. 1, 1863. He was discharged from the Army at Springfield, IL Dec. 5, 1864 and on his way home he again went to visit his brother, Perry, in Wyoming, Stark County, IL. When he was ready to leave, Perry accompanied him to the train Depot at Peoria, IL and there began a strange odyssey. Thomas was to take a train to go home to MO and his family. He disappeared and was not heard of again for some twenty eight years.

In 1870 Nancy was not far from Perry Stancliff in Stark County, IL_8. Nancy was living in Valley Township next door to the Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff's sister, Adaline Winneford [Davis] Ellis, and very near David Stancliff who was another brother of Thomas and Perry. Nancy's mother, Mary Penniwell, was enumerated as part of David Stancliff's household in 1870. So Nancy was indeed in contact with at least three of the brothers of her husband, Thomas Stancliff.

Nancy and daughter, Jane, moved by 1880 to an area near Xenia, OH in Jefferson Township, Greene County, OH where both Nancy and Jane were listed as "servants" on a farm owned by Calvin Haughey. She listed herself that date as a $widow_9$. The census shows an unidentified child named Floyd Stancliff born OH 1875 with them.

After eighteen years had past, Nancy, believing that Thomas must have died, applied in 1882 for a "Widow's Pension" based on his Civil War service. She again applied for a widows pension in 1892, and this time Perry Stancliff wrote a deposition supporting her application. Nancy and the children were living by 1892 in the Town of Nevada, Vernon County, MO. Her application was witnessed by Mrs. Wm Stancliff.

Thomas was not dead, after the war he had wandered across the country. He said that after leaving the Army he lived at Middletown, Montgomery County, MO, north west of St. Louis, at Caldwell, Sumner County, KS a few miles from the Oklahoma border, and finally on the Pacific coast at Copalis, Chehalis County, WA. At some point he may have applied for a Government pension himself or admittance to a care facility, and after Nancy's application for pension, he was located by the Government. He and Nancy were divorced in 1893, a year after Nancy's second application for a widow's pension.

Thomas was admitted to the Soldier's Home at Orting, Pierce County, WA on Mar. 1, 1894 and he was at that time quite deaf and suffering from Heart disease and rheumatism. While living there he received a pension Certificate #883954. He married 2. Tacoma, Pierce County, WA[1] March 30, 1895 HARRIET ANN [THOMAS] LEE[2] born IN April 1836, died before 1910. At the date of the marriage Thomas was listed as a resident of Chehalis County, WA. His Pension records indicate that he was a resident of Copalis, Chehalis County, WA. Chehalis County was changed to Grey Harbor County in 1915. Thomas and Harriet Ann were together in 1900 living Chehalis County, WA[3].

By 1910 Thomas was living with his son William and his family in Kansas City, MO and he was termed a widower[4]. In his final illness Thomas was admitted to the home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Leavenworth, KS, where he died Nov. 14, 1912. His son, William living at 2526 Olive Street, Kansas City, MO was named next of kin.

CHILDREN: Thomas and Nancy [Blue] Stancliff

399- 1. ANA or AMY STANCLIFF born IL 1855[5] There is no record of her after 1870 and only two living children were cited in Thomas' pension records in 1898, Jane and William.

400- 2. JANE STANCLIFF born MO Dec. 3, 1858, married Sullivan County, MO Aug. 25, 1884 GEORGE W. HONECHER She is mentioned by both parents in their Pension applications. She was listed as a resident of Xenia, Greene County, OH on Nov. 4, 1882, when she appeared as a witness for her mother on an application for widow's pension.

401- 3. WILLIAM STANCLIFF born MO May 30, 1860, married 1896 KATIE B. TAFT daughter of William and Amanda E. [____] Taft of Nevada, Vernon County, MO. Katie was born in MN in Dec. 1869 and her family had moved to MO by 1876. Katie B. Stancliff was in the household of her parents in Nevada, Vernon County, MO in 1900[6]. William was a Railroad Engineer and may have been away from home when the census was taken. In 1910 William and Katie were living in Kansas City and William's father, Thomas, was living with them[7]. They had no children.

See Appendix A: BLUE

(190) DAVID H.[6] STANCLIFF (David[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of David B. and Leah [Burch] Stancliff born OH 1834, died MO Dec. 8, 1895, probably living in Bates County, MO that date, married 1. JANE J. LOWRY[8], however his wife in 1870 census was listed as MARGARET born IN 1846[9], listed in his pension records specifically as "first wife died Jan. 19, 1879"[10] married 2. Savannah, Andrews County, MO Sept. 20, 1892 REBECCAH [____] HARLOW, widow of George Harlow, who drowned in 1880. Rebeccah was listed as age 60 in 1896 when she applied for a widow's pension.

He seems to be the David Stancliff age 15, born OH, living and working as a farm laborer in 1850 in the household of Robert and Anna [____] Bailiff and family in Clark County, IL[11]. There were several Burch families in the area, which combined with the family story that Leah [Burch] Stancliff, David's mother, had "taken her two boys and moved to Illinois" suggests that this was the reason David was in this area.

After marriage David lived for a time in Indiana and his first two children were born in Indiana and third born Illinois. David enlisted in 1861 in an Indiana Regiment. He probably returned to IL after the Civil War, about 1865. In 1870 he was living, Valley Township, Stark County, IL, not far from brother Perry and very near his sister-in-law, Nancy [Blue] Stancliff. In his household was Mary [Durham] Blue Penniwell, Nancy's mother[12].

David served during the Civil War, enlisting on Sept. 19, 1861 in Company I, 10th Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, as a private[13]. He fought at the battle of Chickamauga and though not wounded, he cited this battle as being responsible for varied later illnesses. He was discharged Sept. 19, 1864 at Indianapolis, IN. He applied on July 21, 1892 for an invalid Pension at age 58, citing infirmities of old age and weak eyes. His records describe him as 5ft 9½ in tall, 155 pounds. He was living at that date at Rosendale, Andrew County, MO. Later that year he married the widow, Rebeccah [____] Harlow, at Savannah, MO about ten miles south of Rosendale.

David was living in Benton, Andrew County, MO with P.O. in Rosendale in 1890 and enumerated at that time in a special schedule to account for veterans of the Civil War and their widows or dependents. This schedule for the state of Missouri was a portion of the Eleventh Census that survived[1].

After the death of David, Rebeccah applied for a widow's pension on Feb. 17, 1896 and she was living that date at Nyhart, Bates County, MO. It is interesting that David's sister-in-law, Nancy [Blue] Stancliff, was living this same date at Nevada, Vernon County, MO, less than 30 miles distance, and that David's son James Sherman Stancliff entered the service in 1898 at Butler, Bates County, MO.

CHILDREN: David and Jane J. [Lowry] (or Margaret) Stancliff

402- 1. WILLIAM P. STANCLIFF born IN 1861

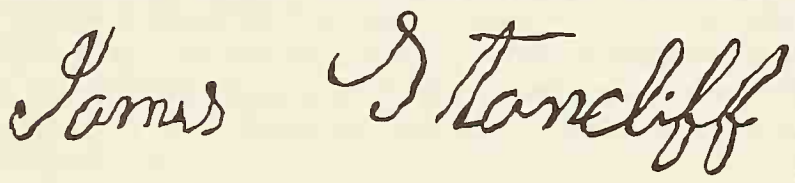
403- 2. CALEB J. STANCLIFF born IN 1864, married Andrew County, MO Sep. 12, 1887 IDA REYNOLDS[2]

404- 3. JAMES SHERMAN[3] STANCLIFF born Wyoming, Stark County, IL Mar. 8, 1866[4], died Callaway, Bell County, KY[5] Aug. 18, 1934, married Modena, Stark County, IL Aug. 3, 1889 EMILOY M. SMITH daughter of George and Melvina [Sharer] Smith of Modena, Stark County, IL, born Bureau County, IL 1874[6]. James was listed at time of marriage as a farmer and a resident of Modena. He was listed as "single" in 1900 and was that date in Pineville, Bell County, KY listed as a laborer and living by himself in a boarding house[7]. There is a conflict in information in 1934 at the time of his death, one document says unmarried and death certificate says he was married, the informant being a Rosie Mae Stancliff.

James served in the Army during the Spanish American War, and received a pension for that service. He enlisted at Butler, Bates County, MO in Company B of the 2nd Missouri Infantry on Apr. 28, 1898 and was honorably discharged at Albany, GA on Feb. 27, 1899. His service records describe him as weighing 130 pounds, height 67 inches, brown hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. While James received no wounds in the service, he suffered a general decline in health in 1926 and by 1929 was considered to be in poor health. The pension application indicated that James had worked for many years as a carpenter and painter. After the Spanish American War he lived in Kentucky where his residence was Pineville, he also had lived in Wallins Creek, Bell County, KY and in Coldiron, Harlan County, KY.

405- 4. ELIZABETH STANCLIFF born 1869

(192) JAMES ALLEN[6] STANCLIFF (David[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])



Son of David B. and Mary [Lane] Stancliff born Ross County, OH Aug. 29, 1840, died there Sept. 15, 1903 and, buried Sigler Cemetery Richmondale, Ross County, OH, married 1.Jackson County, OH by Samuel Fouty J.P. Oct. 22, 1861 MARY JANE BORING daughter of Ephraim and Elizabeth [Fitzpatrick] Boring born Jackson County, OH Sept. 28, 1843, died Jun. 5, 1886. They were divorced. James married 2. Jackson County, OH by A. D. Heaton J.P. Aug. 11, 1878, JULIA ANN BORING also daughter of Ephraim and Elizabeth [Fitzpatrick] Boring born Jackson County, OH Oct. 29, 1850, died Aug. 31, 1927, buried Sigler Cemetery Richmondale, Ross County, OH.

In 1850 James was living with his widowed mother, Mary, half brother, William Tagg, and siblings Ann (Liza), Ascha, and George Stancliff[8]. In 1860 he was in the household of step-father Jesse Hollis, as were all of the siblings above[9]. By 1870 James had a family of his own and still lived Jefferson Township, Ross County, OH[10]. He was near William Tagg who was also married with a family. Besides James and Mary Jane, there were three young children and Mary Jane's younger sister, Julia Boring, in the James Allen Stancliff family. He had not moved in 1900 and still lived Jefferson Township with Julia and his two daughters by the second marriage[11].

Before her marriage to James Allen Stancliff Mary Jane Boring was in the 1860 Census Records. Mary Jane Boring was living with the family of Newton Jones and his wife Sarah, both Æ 26 in Springfield Township, Ross County, OH, P.O.Chillicothe[1]. Sometime after the divorce Mary Jane [Boring] Stancliff married 2. probably about 1877 William Sheline, and lived Vinton Township, Vinton County, OH[2]. She had several more children. Those Sheline children known to be Mary Jane's are Ruth J. Sheline born 1878, Ephraim W. Sheline born Nov.1879, and Elizabeth Sheline born after 1880[3]. Ruth Sheline referred to as a "half sister" by members of the family, lived near Steubenville, Jefferson County, OH.

In 1870 Julia Boring was living with her sister's family. By 1880 Mary Jane and James Allen Stancliff had been divorced and he and Julia Ann were married. James' three children were still living in the household[4]. In 1910 Julia was a widow living alone on Main Street in Richmondale, Jefferson County, OH[5]. In 1920 Julia [Boring] Stancliff was living on Vigo Road, Richmondale and in her household was her half brother, David Boring Æ 47[6].

(200) CLARINDA[6] STANCLIFT "Clara" (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born NY 1810, married in Milton, JAMES LOVE It is not clear whether James Love went with her to Indiana or whether she went there possibly after his death to live with others of her family.

This family appears in the 1840 Census living in the Town of Milton, Saratoga County, NY living near Cyrus and Phebe Jane [Stancliff] French[2]. After she moved to Indiana, her brother, John Stanclift, and his children Lewis J. and Ada C. Stanclift were in Jefferson, Elkhart County, IN in her household in 1870[3]. In addition a Bertha Stevenson born NY 1860 and listed as a niece was living in her household. In 1880 Clara was living with brother, John, and Bertha Stevenson was still in the household and listed as John's niece also. Another child named Agnes Daggert born 1877 in IN was listed as a niece of John and lived in the household[4].

CHILDREN: James and Clarinda [Stanclift] Love

(201) JOHN[6] STANCLIFT (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born 1812 in NY, died Apr.26, 1888 Æ 76, buried Sugar Grove Cemetery, Concord, Elkhart County, Ind. He married LOIS R. SMITH of VT.

An 1858 Saratoga Co. Land transaction[5] lists John and wife Lois R., and William and wife Aneliza as grantors. The Deed was recorded 1867 and John was listed at that time as being of Milton, but by 1870 he was in Indiana at the home of his sister Clara Love and her son Marvin. John had his son Lewis J. and daughter Ada C. with him. No mention of wife Lois. In 1880 John was still in Jefferson Township, Elkhart, IN listed as head of household and sister, Clara Love, lived with him. There was a Bertha Stevenson Æ 19 born NY and an Agnes Daggert Æ 3 born Indiana, living with them, both listed as nieces. Bertha attended the Pine Creek School with the children of John and William Stanclift in 1871-1872[6]. Son, John Stanclift, was this year living with a Lois Smith, leading to speculation that John and Lois may have divorced and she married again taking a young child, John, with her or she reassumed her maiden name.

(202) WILLIAM[6] STANCLIFT (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born Milton, Saratoga County, NY 1815, died Aug. 28, 1890 Æ 76, buried Sugar Grove Cemetery, Concord, Elkhart County, IN. He married in NY ANN ELIZA VAN HOSEN daughter of Jacob and Lucinda [Olmstead] Van Hosen born Hope, Hamilton County, NY Dec. 4, 1824, died there April 22, 1859 Æ 34 years, 4 months and 18 days, buried at Hope Cemetery, Hope, Hamilton County, NY[2].

Jacob Van Hosen's father, Albertus, had served in the Revolution in the Co. of Capt Abner French, who was a native of Southbury, CT. Jacob was an overseer of Highways in Mayfield, Fulton County, NY.

In the same 1858 deed, registered in 1867 that listed John as being of Milton, William was termed "of Mayfield". They were living near Ann Eliza's family, and after her death William joined his own family in Indiana. In 1870 William and daughter, Mary, were living in Jefferson Township, Elkhart County, Indiana near his brothers and sisters. The 1870 census listed his age as 55 and his occupation as farmer[3].

CHILDREN: William and Ann Eliza [Van Hosen] Stanclift

415- 1. MARY STANCLIFT born NY 1854 attended the Pine Creek School with her cousins. It is probable that she is the Mary Stanclift who married Elkhart County, IN Sept. 30, 1875 WILLIAM F. BENDER[4].

(203) PHEBE JANE[6] STANCLIFT (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born Milton, Saratoga County, NY Aug. 5, 1818, died Elkhart County, IN June 23, 1874, married Dec. 18, 1839 CYRUS FRENCH a blacksmith who was son of George E. French[5]. Cyrus French, died Feb. 20, 1859 and is, buried at Burnt Hills, Saratoga County, New York. In 1840 living near Cyrus was Elisha French born 1780-1790 with a female the same age in his household[6]. This suggests that Cyrus' father was probably George Elisha French. Enumerated on the same page was James Love, who also married a daughter of Lewis M. Stanclift

Phebe Jane [Stanclift] French moved to the 500 acre "STANCLIFT FARM" in Jefferson Township, Elkhart County[7], IN after she became a widow in 1859. Stanclift Farm was owned by her brother Lewis James Stanclift of Elmira, Chemung County, NY. She remained there for the rest of her days.

(205) LEWIS JAMES[6] STANCLIFT (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born probably Balston Spa, Saratoga County, NY 1820, married Nov. 20, 1856 JULIA STEWARD ELDRIDGE daughter of Doctor Edwin and ____ Eldridge at Trinity Church Elmira, NY. The marriage was performed by Dr. Hull. Col. S. C. Hathaway and Hannah Devoe were witnesses. Lewis must have died before 1869 for in that year Julia was married a second time, she married Stephen Tuttle Reynolds. She died Dec. 10, 1916 in Atlantic City, Atlantic County, NJ. Her obituary called her Mrs. Julia Stanclift Reynolds which suggests she was a widow when she married Reynolds, and even mentions her wealthy first husband. There seems to be an error for the newspaper article called her husband Edwin Stanclift which was the name of their son, named for Julia's father Edwin Eldridge. It is probable that Lewis was wealthy, he was the first president of Marine Midland Bank of Elmira, Chemung County, New York[1]. He is the man who purchased in Elkhart County, Indiana two parcels of land containing almost 500 acres of land each in August of 1860[2]. One or parts of both of these parcels comprised STANCLIFT FARM. The farm may have been merely an investment or a Vacation home, it did not seem to be a permanent residence for Lewis J. Stanclift.

(206) CORNELIUS A.[6] STANCLIFT (Lewis M.[5], ?Lewis[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Lewis M. and Margaret Jane [Gillis] Stanclift born probably Balston Spa, Saratoga County, NY 1827, married in Schenectady, Schenectady County, NY at the 1st Presbyterian Church by Rev. Backus Mar. 13, 1852 SARAH JANE MILLER[3].

He was living in a boarding house in Schenectady, Schenectady County, NY in 1850[4]. He was said to be "of Logansport, Cass County, IN" when he served as a witness to the marriage of Alma Jane [French] Higgins to Lemuel Cyrus Smith in 1868 at White Pigeon, St. Joseph County, MI, just across the State line from Elkhart County, IN. By 1870 both Cornelius and Lemuel Smith were living in Goshen, Elkhart County, IN. Lemuel sharing a house with Cornelius' brother William[5].

(214) MARTHER[6] STANCLIFT (Danforth[5], William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Danforth and Zilpha [Salmon] Stanclift was also found in records as Mather and as Matthew. born Herkimer County, NY 1822[6], died Lewis County, NY Sept. 5, 1865 Æ 43, buried Rea Cemetery, Turin, Lewis County, NY, married about 1846 ELIZABETH ____ born Lewis County, NY 1826.

Marther and his family were living with his parents in the Town of Turin, Lewis County, NY in 1850[7] and Danforth was the head of the household. By 1860 they still shared a house in the Town of Turin, Lewis County, NY, but at this time "Matthew" was head of household[8]. This living arrangement remained the same in 1865[9]. Elizabeth listed married only once and as having had 6 children in 1865 NY State Census, but only the three below were listed in this census. By 1870 Marther's son, William Ranson, now listed as Ransom W. was married and had a family of his own, but was in a household with his brother and sister and headed by Elizabeth "Clark" born NY 1826. Elizabeth Clark would seem to be their mother Elizabeth [____] Stanclift Clark and suggests that after Marther's death in 1865, his widow married ____ Clark, who may also have died by 1870. Ransom was termed a Farm Hand, and was probably operating his father's farm with the help of brother Henry[10].

In 1850 Lysander and Olive were living in the household of Lysander's brother Newton Higby, along with their mother, Florinda [Ragan] $Higby_2$. In 1860 Lysander, Olive, and son, Francis were living in West Turin, Lewis County, NY_3. In 1880 they still lived West Turin and had with them Matilda Filkins born NY 1858 and listed as an "adopted daughter"$_4$. Several houses away lived Martin Devoe who was engaged in farming with his brother, Alison, and sister, Mary Ann, keeping house for them.

Olive's second husband died in 1907, and in August of that same year Olive went to Alexandria, Thayer County, NE to live with her nephew, Henry Marther Stanclift. She died there in 1920 and Henry brought her home for burial "with her family" at the Constableville Cemetery, West Turin, Lewis County, NY.$_5$

(221) JEROME[6] STANCLIFT (Robert[5], William[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Robert and Mary Ann [Smith] Stanclift born Russia, Herkimer County, NY Mar. 20, 1843, died after 1907_6, married Gravesville, Herkimer County, NY June 19, 1867 ELIZA BAILEY, marriage performed by Presbyterian minister, Rev, V. D. $Waters_7$.

In 1860 Census Jerome lived in the household of Cyrus and Diana [____] Burrows working as a farm laborer, in Whitestown, Oneida County, NY_8. After Cyrus died Diana married Jerome's brother, Charles. It is probable that Cyrus Burrows was a son of Jerome's step-mother Lydia [Allen] Burrows Stanclift.

Jerome saw service during the Civil War. He enlisted at Prospect, Oneida County, NY Oct. 7, 1861 and joined Company E. 97th New York Volunteer Infantry. He participated in battles at Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock Station, Thoroughfare Gap, Bull Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, Antietam, and he was with Burnside's advance at Chancelorsville. He was also at the Battle of Fredericksburg, VA where his brother George was killed. After he appropriated a pair of mules against regulations, he was released from service at Belle Plains, VA, May 24, 1863. He first applied for an invalid pension for his service in 1892. In the application for that pension he listed Russia, Herkimer County, NY as his residence at the time he enlisted. After the war he returned to Russia where he lived between 1863 and 1872 when he moved to the northern part of the County and lived in Ohio, Herkimer County, NY_9. He lived in Ohio, NY, Post Office at Gray, NY until 1879 when he moved to nearby Norway, Herkimer County, NY, where he lived between 1879 and June of 1906. When he submitted the final application for pension in 1907 he lived at Norway, Herkimer County, NY and the Post Office was still at Gray, Herkimer County, NY.

(223) JAMES MANDRON[6] STANCLIFF (James[5], Solomon[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of James and Hannah [Stone] Stancliff born Windham County, VT 1821, died Barkhamstead, Litchfield County, CT Nov. 21, 1876 aged 55_2, buried Center Cemetery, Barkhamsted, married New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT Mar. 26, 1848 MARTHA EDWARDS BLANNOT daughter of Henry and Harriet [Blinn] Blannot[3] baptized Wethersfield, CT Sept. 25, 1825, died Barkhamstead, CT Aug. 8, 1873, buried Center Cemetery, Barkhamsted.

The probate papers of James did not contain a will. There was an extensive inventory indicating a rather large and prosperous farm, one of the crops probably tobacco. There were also guardianship papers in the form of a petition to sell a minor's land and a bond for that specific purpose dated May 4, 1878. Edward Younges of Barkhamstead was given the power to act on behalf of Lelah Stancliff, 10 year old heir of James Stancliff. James' son Howard J. was Administrator on the Estate. Lelah owned rights to ⅓ of the 280 acre farm, with consideration for the widow's dower rights. On May 20, 1878 Lelah Stancliff sold those rights to Howard J. Stancliff[4]. On May 23, 1878, Ella F. Stancliff made a duplicate transaction[5]. This would suggest that Howard had two living sisters, each of whom sold him their ⅓ share of the farm, leaving Howard with sole ownership of his father's farm.

(224) ISAAC STONE[6] STANCLIFF[7] (James[5], Solomon[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of James and Hannah [Stone] Stancliff born Halifax, VT Feb. 22, 1825 died Spencer, Tioga County, NY July 11, 1902, married 1. SARAH M. ____ born CT 1822_8, married 2. in 1854 JANE ANNA COWELL[9] born NY Jul. 10, 1827, died Spencer, Tioga County, NY May 21, 1905.

Isaac moved to Spencer, Tioga County, NY in 1844. There was an article from the August 1900 Spencer, NY Newspaper that is a sketch of Isaac Stone Stancliff, it says-

"Mr Stanclift was born in Vermont of Connecticut parentage and early in life his parents moved back to Connecticut where young Stanclift became associated with Lucius Emmons as salesman, selling silverware and jewelry thru the country for him. When Mr. Emmons came to Spencer in 1844 he offered inducements to accompany him and in this manner came about his permanent residence in 1852. He clerked in Emmon's store and also traveled considerably throughout this section, making many friends among early settlers whose descendants still hold him in affectionate regard. He continued in the employ of Mr. Emmons down to 1860, when the partnership of L. Fisher & Co. was formed, consisting of Myron Ferris and Marvin D. Fisher. That fall Mr. Stanclift and Jerome Platt, now of Horseheads, opened a store on the corner. In the great fire of 1876 they were burned out. During the above period Mr. Stanclift was a leading businessman in Spencer, vigorously engaged in commercial transactions. After the fire he opened his present store.

In 1858 Mr. Stanclift was first elected a supervisor and altogether served 6 terms on the county board. In 1881 he was first elected town clerk; with the exception of an interval of a few years has served the public in that capacity since- 16 years in all. He

(250) PERRY WILLARD[6] STANCLIFF (Ebenezer[5], Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Ebenezer Edward and Polly Sabry [Gore] Stancliff born near Charleston, Lee County, IA Jul. 13, 1846, died Jackson County, OR Apr. 15, 1912[7], married Augusta, Butler County, KS Feb. 14, 1872 ANGELINE WARD "Angie" daughter of Silas Allen and Mary Ann [Baker] Ward born VT Apr. 2, 1850, died after 1920 probably in Bakersfield, CA.

In the 1875 KS State Census Perry Willard, who's occupation was "Miller", and Angie were living Augusta, KS with children Edwin age 2 and Edith age 1[8]. Angie's family lived close by. The family left Kansas and moved to Colorado about 1879, stayed there four or five years and then moved to Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, CA. In 1900 Perry was still in Los Angeles working as an Iron Pipe Maker and was boarding with another family[9], but he was also enumerated with his wife Angie in Sacramento, Sacramento County, CA that same year[10]. Their son Edwin was a farmer living in Sacramento, County in 1900 as head of Household and apparently living alone. There were seven children in this family between ages 19 and 7 who were not enumerated in the 1900 Census. In 1910 Angie was living with her son, Edwin Orville Stancliff on his farm on Rosedale Road in Kern County, CA. Angie listed as having had 13 children, 9 living that date. Perry was not with them. He was enumerated on May 6, 1910 in Phoenix, Jackson County, OR on Front Street next to Job T. and Elvira [Stancliff] Wilder[11]. Perry had evidently established a residence in Phoenix. He listed himself as a widower and a small fruit grower at that date. According to the Bakersfield, CA City Directory, Edwin O. Stancliff was living by 1914 on Rural Route #6, he was listed at that address every year until 1928. Arthur was also living on Rural Route #6 and Route A in Bakersfield, probably near Edwin as in 1928 Edwin was at P.O.Box 15 and Arthur was at P.O.Box 19. Angie was still in Edwin's household in 1920 but they were no longer on the farm but living on Magnolia Avenue, Bakersfield, Kern County, CA[12]. Perry seems to have remained in Oregon.

CHILDREN: Perry and Angeline [Ward] Stancliff

458- 1. EDWIN ORVILLE STANCLIFF born Augusta, Butler County, KS Oct. 4, 1872, died after 1960 probably at Bakersfield, Kern County, CA. He was listed as single in all Census records. He was living by himself and listed as a farmer in 1900 in Sacramento, CA[13]. He moved by 1910 and owned a farm on Rosedale Road, Kern County CA, occupation farmer. Living with him was his mother Angie, brother Earl and sister Beulah and also his cousin, Clifton Llewellyn Stancliff[14]. By 1920 he was living on Magnolia Street, RR 2 in Bakersfield, CA, his

(259) SANFORD LUTHER[6] STANCLIFF (Chester Haven[5], Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Chester Haven and Sarah Eliza [Gore] Stancliff born either near Charleston, Lee County, IA Feb. 1849$_1$ or Des Moines, Polk County, IA Feb. 11, 1846$_2$, died East Alton, Madison County, IL Feb. 10, 1932, buried Alton, Madison County, IL, married 1. Mitchell County, KS at home of O.S. Jones by W. S. Farnsworth JP Apr. 30, 1874$_3$ EMMA JULIA FLEMING daughter of Samuel and Harriet Louisa [Farnum] Fleming born Keokuk, Lee County, IA Jun. 8, 1846, died Garner Township, Pottawattamie County, IA Oct. 16, 1912, buried there at the Garner Cemetery. According to his son, Roy, Sanford left home and Roy never knew what happened to his father. Sanford and Julia were divorced in 1890. Sanford married 2. Curry County, OR Jun. 11, 1894 "Mattie E. Douglas" by E. P. Anderson JP at the home of C. S. Goodenough, witnesses were Mrs. Goodenough and Mark Mann$_4$. The bride was the widow MARTHA ELIZABETH [McDONALD] DOUGLAS who also used the name "Emma". She was born NY Apr. 1864, died East Alton, Madison County, IL, May 1932, buried Alton, Madison County, IL. She was a daughter of William McDonald, and she had previously been married to a man named Will Douglas and had three children by that marriage. They were Jessie May Douglas born Nov. 1, 1882, died Jan. 9, 1884; Lydia Douglas born Sept. 2, 1886 who married and had at least one child; and Willie Douglas born Feb. 1890, died Nov. 28, 1898. The Douglas children probably part of Sanford's household.

Sanford and Julia lived 1875 in Harvey Township, Smith County, KS and Sanford was listed as a farmer$_5$. In 1880 they were still located in Smith County, KS with daughters Isadora and Maude, Earl was also listed and marked as deceased. They lived near Sanford's cousins Job and Elvira Wilder$_6$.

Sanford and Emma Julia [Fleming] Stancliff were divorced and she moved to Des Moines, IA by 1893. In 1895 she was living there and had all five of her children in her household$_7$. She was still there in 1900 at Des Moines, Polk County, IA in 1900$_8$ with sons Harry, Roy and Frank. Emma appeared in the Des Moines City Directory between 1893 and 1905$_9$. In 1910 Julia and her three sons were all living at Kent City, near Seattle, WA. They were in the household of son, Roy, who owned his own home, and was a Landscape Artist. Frank was a Nursery Man and Harry was a Farmer "working out"$_{10}$. In that 1910 census Julia said she had seven children and only three were living at the time$_{11}$. Julia, Roy and Frank returned to Iowa and Julia died there in 1912. Roy and Frank were still in Iowa in 1920, Roy in Council Bluffs and Frank in Hardin, Pottawattamie County, IA.

According to family records$_{12}$, after his second marriage, Sanford established a homestead near Bandon, Coos County, OR and worked in that area cutting lumber. In 1900 the Sanford and Emma [McDonald] Stancliff and daughters Hattie and Ora lived Floras Creek, Curry County, OR$_{13}$ and Sanford was also enumerated working on the Dairy Farm of John D. Stewart in Coos County, OR$_{14}$ Sanford spent time in both Los Angeles, CA$_{15}$ and in "Esparto, Nevada$_{16}$ at home of his sister Sadie". Sadie was actually sister-in-law, as she was the sister of "Emma" McDonald, and was married to a man named Teach and had a son, Delbert Teach, she subsequently married again to a man named Daniel S. Ruport$_{17}$. Sanford traded the Bandon, OR Homestead for land in Cherry Valley or Stringtown, MO, sight unseen and about 1904 Sanford and family moved to MO. The trip from Oregon to Missouri took the family with all their possessions over a year to complete. At times they went by rail, traveling in box cars. Sanford worked at Cherry Valley Iron Mine #1 and at the Westover Cattle Ranch. In addition he was employed changing horses, both morning and night, for the Mail Coach which ran between Branson, MO and Steelville, MO.

In the 1910 census Sanford was located at Courtois Township, Crawford County, MO, about 60 miles South West of St Louis, and was self employed as a Truck Farmer$_{18}$. In 1912 he moved to Hillsboro, Montgomery County, IL. In 1920 the family

(267) JOHN WELLS[6] STANCLIFF (Joseph[5], James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Joseph and Electa [Tennant] Stancliff born Middle Haddam, Middlesex County, CT[2] Sept. 28, 1813[3], died Hartford, Hartford County, CT Mar. 13, 1891[4], buried at the Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford, Hartford County, CT married AMELIA M. PROUT born CT 1816, died Hartford, Hartford County, CT Mar. 23, 1900 Æ 84[5], buried with her husband at the Spring Grove Cemetery.

John was trained as a carriage painter and copper plate engraver, studied oil painting with Alexander H. Emmons and Jared B. Flagg and watercolor painting with Benjamin H. Coe[6]. John was a Daguerreotypist and a noted Marine Artist. He took his family to Louisville, KY, where they lived for several years while John conducted experiments with artificial light with Professor Benjamin Stillman Jr. Mr. Stillman was a professor of Medical Chemistry and Toxicology at the University of Louisville who had done research in galvanic light in daguerreotyping at Yale University at New Haven, CT[7]. John Wells Stancliff returned to Connecticut shortly after 1851 where he maintained a studio at Hartford, CT. In 1878 he was President of the Connecticut School of Design in Hartford.

John's brother, Charles, had also moved to Louisville, Jefferson County, KY at an earlier date, but after John returned to Connecticut, Charles remained in Louisville. John was enumerated in KY in 1850 with his family[8]. By 1860 he once again lived Hartford, Hartford County, CT[9]

John's brother, Gilbert, told in his writings that John had painted a picture of the house of the first James Stanclift, the first house in Portland as it must have appeared overlooking the river. That picture was for many years on loan to the Middlesex County Historical Society, but today may be seen at the Portland Historical Society.

John left no will, and it was almost twenty years after his death that the Estate was finally settled. His younger son, Henry Trumbull Stancliff, was made the Executor, but he died before the estate was settled, leaving his son Henry T. Stancliff Jr to assume the job as executor on both estates. The other heirs to the estate claimed that many of John's valuable paintings had been sold or disposed of without an inventory or an accounting. After some eighteen years had passed, Hattie [Stancliff] Lord and Frances [Overton] Stancliff asked for an accounting and distribution of the Estate on May 5, 1909. The following heirs were notified of an impending hearing; Henry T. Stancliff, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.; Charles J. Stancliff, Bureau of Science, Manilla Philippine Islands; John O. Stancliff, % J. W. Lord, Mystic, CT; Frances O. Stancliff, R.F.D.1, Stonington, CT and Hattie M. Lord , Box 273, Mystic, CT. Henry Trumbull Jr indicated that some of the paintings had been sold to provide for the maintenance of the widow, Amelia Stancliff. As a result of the hearing a new Administrator was appointed. The major assets of the Estate were stock in the Brainerd Quarry and a collection of paintings left by John W. Stancliff.

John painted a picture of the house built in 1690 at the time the first James Stanclift opened the Quarry on the east side of the Connecticut River. It was said that John himself had been born in that house. There is a sketch of that painting at the beginning of Generation One.

(268) CHARLES LEE[6] STANCLIFFE (Joseph[5], James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Joseph and Electa [Tennant] Stancliff born while the family lived Middle Haddam, CT Feb. 18, 1814[1], died Louisville, Jefferson County, KY Jan. 10, 1873, buried Cave Hill Cemetery Louisville, Jefferson County, KY, married Louisville, Jefferson, KY by Rev. James Craig, Episcopal minister, Dec. 24, 1844[2] CAROLINE GILFERT READ daughter of John Mulharen and Nancy Fielding [Kendrick] Read born New York City, NY Dec. 26, 1826, died Louisville, Jefferson County, KY Aug. 2, 1899, buried Cave Hill Cemetery. He preferred the spelling Stancliffe. He probably added the E at the end of his name after 1844, as he sign his name Stancliff at the time of his marriage.

According to Murray Stancliffe Kice Jr., a great grandson of Charles Lee Stancliffe "He left Connecticut at the age of eleven, in fact on his eleventh birthday. He had some sort of a disagreement with his father over his prospective trade and education and he struck out for himself." This would have been about the time Charles would have been apprenticed to learn a trade. Whatever the trade that his father had selected for his son, Charles became, on his own, an Architect.

Charles worked in Louisville most of his life as a Builder and an Architect. Among his notable accomplishments was the construction of the original First Christian Church of Louisville. The Corinthian columns from this church were preserved and moved to the new church located at 4th and Breckenridge, Louisville, KY.

Charles' brother, John Wells Stanclift, joined him in Louisville for several years. John came to work with a professor at the University of Louisville and develop his career as a daguerreotypist.

The marriage of Charles and Caroline was announced in the Connecticut newspapers[3], but he may never have returned to Connecticut after his departure at such an extremely young age. In 1860 he was enumerated in Louisville, KY with five children[4]

The marriage was performed by Rev. Samuel M. Emery$_1$. Rev. Emery was pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church.

George W. Hilliard was the Master of a schooner built and owned in 1845 by Erastus and Silas Brainerd$_2$. The schooner was probably used to transport stone from the Brownstone Quarry to Boston and New York City.

They were living 1850 in Portland, CT, they had two children, and were sharing a house with the family of Jerusha's sister Laura$_3$. In 1870 they were still in the Town of Portland, Middlesex County, CT, with three children$_4$. In 1850 George described himself as a sailor, but by 1870 he was "Master of a Vessel". There are stones in the Trinity Cemetery, Portland Middlesex County, CT for Jerusha, her husband and a G.S. Hilliard, who is probably George below, but there are no dates upon these stones.

In 1900 Jerusha's three children were all living in the same household. Leora Wilkins was the head of the household, they shared a house with Samuel Bartlett's family. Leora's husband was absent, and her two brothers lived with her. Neither George or Jerusha were present$_5$.

(272) GILBERT LEWIS[6] STANCLIFF (Joseph[5], James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Joseph and Electa [Tennant] Stancliff born Chatham, CT Sept. 22, 1822$_{10}$, died there Mar. 30, 1902, buried Trinity Episcopal Church Cemetery, Portland, Middlesex County, CT, married Portland, Middlesex County, CT, by Rev. Samuel M. Emery of the Trinity Church on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, 1845 ELIZABETH PERKINS SOUTHMAYD$_{11}$ daughter of Jonathan B. and Emily [Griffith] Southmayd born Middle Haddam, Middlesex County, CT Jan. 11, 1826$_{12}$.

Gilbert wrote an article for the Middletown Connecticut Penny Free Press, issue of March 4, 1898 and the following is an excerpt from that newspaper article-

> " The old Smith Shop was first occupied by David Bates, who did ship work for the Bush shipyard near by, which was subsequently bought by Mr. Stancliff. From old books in my possesion$_{13}$, it is evident that he was the first to make a business of quarrying and cutting stone for sale, which was in 1690. He or they continued the business until 1796 or thereabouts. The picture was taken from an old faded oil painting by John W.

13.Efforts to trace these Books of the original Stancliff Quarry through descendants of Gilbert have thus far been fruitless. It is believed that they were disposed of years ago.

Stancliff, the late marine artist of Hartford, somewhere in the 40s. I believe James occupied the old house until 1720, when he built a larger house on the six acre lot adjoining the old cemetery on the west[1], and fronting Commerce Street on the north. This house was an old-fashioned one, with a long shed roof running far back in the rear. On the outside of the chimney near the top were the figures cut large and plain '1720'. This old house was torn down, and the land it occupied was exhausted in quarrying many years ago.

The house near the river built in 1690 was the birthplace of the writer in 1822 (he being of the fifth generation)[2], and was his home until he was 10 years old. It was torn down about 1840, after being owned by the Stancliff family for many years. The land together with the other quarry land, owned by the Stancliff family, became the property of the Brainerd Quarry Company in 1847.

.....There were three James Stancliffs, father, son and grandson, representing three generations, working together or in succession[3]. There was also one William and one named Comfort. From the old books, it seems difficult to tell where one left off and where another began.....I find from accounts on Mr. Stancliffs old books, he dealt in stones for many purposes. He made and placed many gravestones in the old cemetery near the quarries and in other places. I find many charges for cellar stones, leach stones, hearths and jambs, steps, underpining platforms, etc. made to later settlers who built houses, also for persons in Middletown, Hartford, Rocky Hill, and elsewhere..... "

Gilbert worked in his father's blacksmith shop in his early days, after the close of the shop he entered the quarry business and was for many years the Superintendent of the Brainerd Quarry. His aunt, Mary Wells Stancliff, had married Erastus Brainerd who was one of the owners of the former Stanclift Quarry. There was a sloop owned by the Brainerd Quarry Company, used to transport stone, that was named after Gilbert. He was also well known in Portland for building two "octagonal shaped" houses which were still standing in 1985.

Gilbert and Elizabeth were living in the Town of Portland, CT in 1850, and a few houses away were his sisters Jerusha Hilliard and Laura Williams and their families. Gilbert was a stonecutter at this time[4]. By 1860 he had become a "quarry foreman" and they had two more children[5]. In 1870 they still lived in Portland, had another child and Gilbert called himself a Quarryman[6]. In 1870 Gilbert listed "Employed at Quarry" as occupation, their son Irving had established his own home, but the other children were in the household[7]. Gilbert and Elizabeth appeared twice in the in the 1900 Census records, once at their home in Portland[8] and once while visiting daughter, Emily [Stancliff] Wood, in Meridan, CT[9]

1.It was the second James Stanclift who built the larger house. The six acre lot was the homelot of the first James Stanclift and after his death was owned by his son, James Stanclift. The old cemetery on the west was the "Old Quarry Cemetery" which was moved to a location behind the Trinity Episcopal Church as the Quarry expanded. Neither the Cemetery nor the homelot remain today.

2.Gilbert was actually of the sixth generation.

3.Gilbert was confused about the men named James Stanclift. He said the first James died 1772; the second 1778; and the third in 1831. There were really four generations in succession. Records prove the first James died in 1712, his son, James, died 1772, his son, James, died 1789, and his son, James, died 1831.

(274) HENRY J.[6] STANCLIFF (Joseph[5], James[4], James[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Joseph and Electa [Tennant] Stancliff born Chatham, Middlesex County, CT 1826[2], died Hartford, Hartford County, CT Mar. 16, 1905, buried Old Church Cemetery, Glastonbury, Hartford County, CT, married Apr. 10, 1853 FRANCES A. NEWELL born CT 1834.

In 1850 Henry was living with the family of his brother, George, in Middletown, Middlesex County, CT and he was "a Tinner" [3]. In 1860 Henry was married and his family lived in Middletown in a Hotel, and Henry was a Manufacturer[4]. His brother, George and his family occupied quarters at the same Hotel. On Feb. 5, 1865 George was baptized "as an adult" in the Middletown Church of Christ on the same day his daughter was baptized[5]. Sometime after 1865 Henry moved to New York, but he returned to CT to live by 1900.

His Will was written Feb. 5, 1890 at Glastonbury, CT, but at that date he calls himself "Henry J. Stancliff of New York". He bequeathed his entire Estate to wife Frances A. Stancliff and appointed J. Howard Hale as Executor. His only heirs were Frances A. Stancliff and Addie S. Hale. Henry left a sizable estate, much of which was in Stocks, the largest block of stock being in son-in-law J. H. Hale's "Hale Georgia Orchard Company" of Fort Valley, Peach County, GA.

church on Nov. 13, 1830.

He came to Michigan about 1834-1836. Thomas petitioned for a grant of land from the Michigan Territory in 1836. At that date he was probably living Richland Township, Kalamazoo County, MI, he was in that place by 1837 according to the 1837 Michigan State Census[1]. Between 1840 and 1842 he moved to Martin Township, Allegan County[2] where he remained for the rest of his life.

A biography of Thomas' daughter, Julia quotes her as saying "My parents were pioneers in the state of Michigan". The biography states that "Thomas was a school teacher and had come from the state of New York bringing his wife, Esther Stuart, and a baby, Andrew Burr Stanclift", and that he had married Esther, one of his students, when she was aged sixteen. It is probable that they were accompanied by Esther Stuart's family as they moved into the Michigan territory. A Stuart family related to the Stanclift family lived Gun Plains Township just south of Martin Township in Allegan County, MI. Thomas and son Andrew were the witnesses there at the marriage of Admiral Stuart in 1849.

Thomas Stanclift's Probate records were not filed until 1859[3], when a creditor petitioned the Court for payment. The estate was not insolvent, but a portion of land was sold to satisfy claims against the estate. Andrew B. Stanclift and Daniel Davis were summoned to appear at the proceedings. In the Probate records for Thomas it indicated that his farm was 80 acres located in what is today the north east section of the Town of Martin. Daniel D. Davis was appointed guardian to minor children and in the 1860 Census, Annah Stanclift was living in his household. Davis had married in 1841 Sarah Stuart/Stewart, which suggests that Daniel was a brother in law of Thomas Stanclift. In the biography of Julia Stanclift he is termed an Uncle.

The death of Thomas came at a time when he planned to replace the log cabin on his farm with a more modern building. The log cabin was described as having lilac bushes by the door and a cherry tree at the side by which Andrew was wont to climb to his room in the attic. Julia described a basket of sand that was set down on the floor and the sand used as they swept the wood floors to clean them. Esther struggled without Thomas for two more years before her death, it is said "of a broken heart". Andrew had already married and the four little girls went to live with relatives or other families in the farming community.

Son of Martin and Olive [Stanclift] Stanclift born while the family was still living in Jefferson County, NY Nov. 18, 1807, married MATILDA WHITNEY born MA Oct. 1810[6].

Lived McKean, Erie County, PA in 1830 and 1840 and moved by 1850 to Monroe Township, Ashtabula County, OH[7], some 15 or 20 miles west of McKean, PA and on the Ohio and Pennsylvania border. They sold land in Conneaut, Crawford County, PA in 1858[8]. By 1860 they were living Beaver Township, Crawford County, PA[9]. They remained in Beaver Township through 1870[10]. In 1862 Matilda purchased or gave a mortgage on land of her son, Samuel Martin Stanclift, the land located in Beaver Township, Crawford County, PA[11]. On Feb. 1, 1871 Matilda sold that same parcel of land in Beaver Township to William Christy[12], both Matilda and Alpheus signed the deed. William Christy was probably the husband of daughter Morilla. In 1870 William Christy age 46 and wife Charlotte age 26 lived in the household of Alpheus and Matilda Stanclift. The Christys had two small children this date. Both Alpheus and William Christy were listed as farmers. Charlotte is the same age as their daughter called Morilla in other census records.

(282) SILAS[6] STANCLIFT (Martin[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Martin and Olive [Stanclift] Stanclift born Aug. 5, 1809 before his parents left Jefferson County, NY, died Saline County, NE Jan. 13, 1875_1 married 1. Erie County, PA Aug. 27, 1834_2 MARGARET BEALS born Jul. 6, 1816_3, died "Oplend" [sic] Oakland County, MI_4 Oct. 10, 1845, married 2.at Dryden, Lapeer County, MI Mar. 26, 1846 SYLVANIA HAIGHT daughter of Hiram and Anna [Allen] Haight or $Hoyt_5$ of Bristol, MI born Mar. 20, 1816_6, died Erie County, PA in Aug. 30, 1848_7. At the time of the marriage Silas was termed "of Dryden, Michigan" and Sylvania was "of Bristol, Michigan" and they were married at the home of Schuyler Irish who later married Sylvania's sister, Fernanda Haight. Silas married 3. Erie County, PA_8 Oct. 17, 1848 the widow LOISIA LUCINDA [JENKINS] $KING_9$ born NY May 24, 1826. She was the widow of William King and the mother of Willard King born Apr. 1, 1841_{10}. Census records indicate she was born 1816 or 1814 in NY. As in the case of Silas' family, she must have had in her background a propensity for twins. The couple had four sets of twins between 1848 and 1857 plus a single birth.

Silas married his first wife in Erie County, PA and four children were born to them in that area. They moved just north of Detroit, Michigan where Margaret died and Silas took another wife. He soon returned to Erie County, PA, where his second wife, Sylvania, died after only one year of marriage. Silas married a third time and lived in PA until about 1849 or 1850 when he moved his family to Benton, McHenry County, IL. Sometime after 1850 the family moved again to an area 12 miles north of Madison, Dane County, WI. Silas must have returned to McKean, Erie County, PA after his father died at least for a visit as in May 4, 1854 he and his mother sold to Asa L. Wiswell that portion of Martin Stanclift's land that came to Silas in the distribution of the $Estate_{11}$. The deed was not complete until Loisia Lucinda had released her dower rights. On July 9, 1855 Lucinda Stanclift, wife of Silas Stanclift of Dane County appeared before witnesses in Dane County, Wisconsin and for the sum of $1.00 signed over the $land_{12}$. About 1856 the family moved to a farm in Amherst Township, Fillmore County, MN_{13}. Sometime after 1857 and until 1870 they lived Mansfield Township, Freeborn County, MN. Silas was a man with a true wanderlust. He once again moved, this time to reside near his son, Timothy, in Saline County, NE where Silas died in 1875. Loisia Lucinda this date seems to be called Louisa in the records. The entire Estate of Silas was willed to "beloved wife" and son, Ezra. His widow was referred to as Mrs. L. L. Stancliff, by the Executor on the Estate, Mr. R. F. Courtright. She acknowledged the distribution papers with her mark in 1879, as Louisa L. Fowler, formerly Mrs. L. L. Stancliff. Loisia Lucinda [Jenkins] King Stancliff had married again to a man named Fowler.

534- 1. MARY E. or MAREY STANCLIFT$_{14}$ born McKean, Erie County, PA Sept. 2, 1835. When her family moved from the Pennsylvania area, Mary stayed in McKean. She lived with the Alpheus Bates family in 1850. She married 1. Erie County, PA Aug. 10_{15}, 1852 FRANKLIN FELLOWS who died before 1859 as she was a widow when she married 2. Erie County, PA May 15, 1859 FREDERICK SAWYER.

535- 2. DAVID W. STANCLIFT born Erie County, PA Jan. 1, 1839, killed at the Battle of Malvern Hill during the Civil War according to the pension papers of his brother, Timothy. The Battle of Malvern Hill in Virginia took place on July 1, 1862.

1.Death date recorded in Probate papers of Silas Stanclift. Will written Nov. 29, 1874, proved March 1, 1875, Recorded Saline County, Nebraska Will Book 1, page 2. The Roseburg Bible Records indicate he died on the 14th day of the month.

2.Exact date given in Roseburg Bible Records.

3.Roseburg Bible Records

4.MILITARY PENSION FILES, National Archives, Washington, D.C., researched by Dr. William Stanclift, the pension file of her son, Timothy, states the location of Margaret's death as "Oplend" County. There is no county of that name in Michigan and it was probably Oakland County as the family was known to have been at Dryden, MI very near the point where Lapeer, Macomb and Oakland counties intersect.

5.TIMOTHY ALLEN OF RUTLAND COUNTY, VERMONT AND EBENEZER ALLEN OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, NEW YORK, from Records in Burton Historical Collection, Detroit Public Library, page 115

6.Roseburg Bible Records

7.The place of death cited in the pension records of Timothy Stancliff, but the year specified was 1847.

8.The Roseburg Bible gives the marriage date as Oct. 17, 1848.

9.She appears in some records as Lucinda and in others as Louisa, in the Bible records as Loisia and on probate documents for Silas as Mrs. L. L. Stancliff so her name seemed interchangeable. The birth of son, John Henry, is listed in the Church of the Latter Day Saints' International Genealogical Index as son of Silas Stanclift and Lucinda Jenkins.

10.Roseburg Bible Records give exact date of her birth, marriage and birth of Willard King.

12.ERIE COUNTY LAND AND PROPERTY, Vol. 5, page 636

13.MILITARY PENSION FILES, National Archives, Washington, D.C., researched by Dr. William Stanclift, Timothy stated that he lived on his father's farm in Fillmore County, MN between 1854 and 1857. There is, however, an Erie County, PA land record of July 9, 1855 in Book 5, page 636 a document that indicates Lucinda for the sum of $1.00 released her rights in land left to Silas by his father, and this document was written in Dane County, WI.

14.She is in the records as Marcy also and in the Bible Records as Marey

15.Erie County Marriage Records. The Roseburg Bible Records say the date was Aug. 9, 1852

(290) EZRA[6] STANCLIFT (David[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of David and Caroline Matilda [Stewart] Stanclift born Sept. 7, 1819, died Agosta, OH Dec. 1, 1872, buried at La Rue, OH. He married at Bucyrus, Crawford County, OH by Rev. Peter Howenstern$_{11}$ Oct. 23, 1842 MINERVA BACON daughter of Ralph and Mary [Jourdan] Bacon born Mentor, Lake County, OH Sept. 22, 1813, died Agosta, OH Apr. 23, 1886, buried LaRue, OH.

Minerva had acquired an education that enabled her to become a school teacher. Before her marriage, she devoted two years between 1839 and 1841 to teaching the Indians at the Upper Sandusky Mission, Wyandot County, OH.

1.NE 1870 Census, Pawnee County, Pawnee City, page 054 says born 1843 in "Wis", but his pension record specifies 10 miles south of Erie City in Erie County, PA.

2.There is a conflict among the dates that appear in his Pension records, one date, Aug. 27, 1847, even occurring long after the death of his mother. Aug 27 and Aug 28 in the years 1842-1844 are the most frequent birth dates mentioned. In the 1850 IL census he was aged 9 years.

3.Family records of James Stancliff of Roseburg, OR

4.Though there is some confusion in the Family records on the middle names of the twins named Lewis and Louis. This man appeared in the Roseburg Bible Records as Lewis S. or Lewis Samuel Stanclift and was married to Laura Briggs, his twin referred to as Louis M. which probably is Louis Martin Stanclift was married to Ambrosa Sheldon and Loretta Jane Tompkins.

5.MN 1870 CENSUS, Freeborn County, Mansfield Township, only one of the twins survived and the son Edward in 1860 census records now called Ezra.

6.MN 1860 CENSUS, Fillmore County, Amherst Township, lists the surviving twin as Edward.

7.Roseburg Bible Records

8.First six children listed in 1850 Census records, last three children in 1860 Census records living McKean, Erie County, PA.

9.Listed as Mary L. in 1850 and as Loeza in 1860 Census records.

11.Marriage Records at Court House, Bucyrus, Crawford County, OH Vol.1, page 180

About 1846 they moved to a farm north of Wyandot, OH and then moved into the Town of Wyandot, Wyandot County, OH where they kept a grocery store. About 1858 they returned to the farm they had left and remained there until 1860. In 1860 they moved to Lake Ridge, Lenawee County, MI "to care for Ezra's parents". While living in this area Ezra was a Justice of the Peace for Lenawee County and in that capacity performed the marriage of his brother in law, Ralph Bacon in 1866. After the deaths of his mother, Matilda [Stewart] Stanclift and step-father Ansel Stanclift, Ezra's family returned to Ohio and settled in 1866 at the town of Nevada, Wyandot County, OH where they again ran a grocery business until 1870. In 1870 they moved to Agosta, Marion County, OH where they died. Both are, buried at La Rue, OH_1.

CHILDREN: Ezra and Minerva [Bacon] Stancliff

\+ 547- 1. MARTIN GLYNES STANCLIFT born Crawford County, OH Aug. 16, 1843, died Montgomery, AL Nov. 1909, buried Toledo, OH, married Bridgewater, Washtenaw County, MI Sept. 20, 1865 PHILINDA ELIZA KING.

548- 2. DAVID T. STANCLIFT born Crawford County, OH 1846. David had an interesting War record during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Private in the 67th Ohio Regiment of Volunteer Infantry for a period of three years at Toledo, Ohio on Jan. 8, 1864 at the age of eighteen. At this date the records show that he had previously served in the 12th Regiment of New York Volunteer Infantry and was discharged from that Regiment on May 22, 1863. The Record shows he was born Crawford County, Ohio, had Hazel eyes, Brown hair, Fair Complexion and was 5 ft 9½ inches in height and had formerly been a farmer. The Pay record indicates a bounty of $300.00 was to be paid in installments. His Regiment was sent to St. Helena Island, SC and David received a discharge on April 28, 1864 to enable him to join the Navy$_2$. Records of Naval Personnel show that he enlisted in the U. S. Navy on board the U.S.S. MINNESOTA at Hampton Roads, VA on that same day, Apr. 28, 1864, his age was eighteen and he was born in Crawford County, OH. The muster role of the U.S.S. ROANOKE shows that the same David T. Stanclift deserted on Sept. 28, 1864.

549- 3. ANN ELIZA STANCLIFT born OH 1849, died Marion, Marion County, OH Jun. 29, 1918 married Ada, Hardin County, OH Mar. 7, 1877 EASTON E. DROWN son of Gilbert G. and Elvina [Perkins] Drown born Montgomery Township, Marion County, OH Aug. 25, 1852. They lived on a farm near Agosta, Marion County, OH for many years. They spent two years in Pomona, CA, but returned to Marion County, OH. The Drown family moved to Crawford County, OH from Marrietta County, OH in 1824. Easton was elected sheriff of Marion County in 1905$_3$. After the death of Ann Eliza, Easton Drown, married 2. in 1921 HATTIE MAE STANCLIFT daughter of Martin Glynes and Philinda Eliza [King] Stancliff. They were divorced.

(292) ELIAS CHANCEY[6] STANCLIFT (Ansel[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Ansel and Caroline Matilda [Stewart] Stanclift born probably Jefferson County, NY_1 Nov. 19, 1823, died Brentwood, Williamson County, TN May 18, 1891, married 1. St. Mary's, Auglaize County, OH Mar. 9, 1852 ELIZA ANN BROADWELL daughter of Lewis and Nancy [Valentine] Broadwell born OH 1829_2, married 2. at Leslie, Ingham County, MI Oct. 20, 1872 the widow, ELEANOR M. [PERRIN] BROWN of Rives, MI_3 born NY 1836. His occupation this date was a mechanic. After the death of Elias, Ellen married Jan. 22, 1908 Robert Hatber. They were divorced and she moved to Jackson County, MI.

Elias saw action during the Civil War. He mustered into the Army at Camp Dennison near Cincinnati, OH for a term of three years on Aug. 13, 1862_4. He was a First Sergeant in "G" Company under the command of Captain J. W. Cahill, 50th Regiment of Ohio Infantry. The Regiment saw a great deal of action at Perryville, and was in pursuit of Brig. Gen. John Hunt Morgan and "Morgan's Raiders" at the time of Morgan's "Third Kentucky Raid" called "The Christmas Raid", a twelve day raid designed to destroy the Rail Road lines of supply to the Tennessee theater of action. On Christmas day 1863 Elias' unit was ordered to Knoxville, TN, they crossed the mountains during severe winter weather, dragging the Artillery pieces and wagons over the mountains by hand and sleeping at night on frozen ground and subsisting on parched corn. After arriving in Knoxville they received orders to join Sherman's Army in Georgia. They were almost constantly in battle, Pumpkinvine Creek, New Hope Church, Lost Mountain, Pine Mountain, Kenesaw Mountain, Culp's Farm, Nicojack Creek, Chattahoochie River, Howard House, Atlanta and Jonesborough. They were in pursuit of Hood's Army, and on the 30th of November 1864 the Regiment arrived in Franklin, TN. It went into the battle that followed with 225 men and came out of that battle with 112 men_5. On Nov. 30, 1864 Elias Stanclift was one of those men who were wounded in action. He spent time in the Army Hospital at Wheeling, WV, he was still there in Feb. 1865 when he was granted furlough and transportation to Wapakoneta, Ohio. He was a patient at the Hospital when discharged on June 10, 1865, two weeks later his Regiment was mustered out of service in Salisbury, NC. The Regimental Descriptive Book describes him as 37 years old, 5ft 9 inches tall, light complexion, grey eyes and sandy hair, a carpenter by occupation. The Book incorrectly lists Auglaize County, OH as his birth place, but that was his residence at time of enlistment. His Certificate says born in State of New York.

It seems a bit ironic that Elias chose to settle in the very area where he was wounded during the Civil War. His war record indicates that he was "missing in action at Spring Hill" the record later amended to wounded in action near Franklin, Williamson County, TN. After the War Elias and his family moved to this area to $live_6$. Family lore says that they were not welcomed into the area by the entire community. Some of their neighbors maintained for some time that they were "Yankees", but here they $stayed_7$.

CHILDREN: Elias Chancey and Eliza Ann [Broadwell] Stanclift

554- 1. RUFUS L. STANCLIFT born St. Marys, Auglaize County, OH about 1857, married Franklin, Williamson County, TN Oct. 17, 1882 LUELLA T. CLARKE He was living in 1910 in San Jose, Santa Clara County, CA_8 and was listed as a widower that date. He was a Carpenter by trade. Rufus was still living alone in 1920 in Santa Clara, Santa Clara County, CA_9

\+ 555- 2. LURAH ANN STANCLIFT born St. Marys, Auglaize County, OH Aug. 10, 1861, died Cincinnati, Hamilton County, OH Jul. 20, 1936, buried Maple Grove Cemetery, Cleves, Hamilton County, OH, married Franklin, Williamson County, TN Feb. 27, 1886 WALTER S. SCOTT.

(300) JOHN[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Timothy and Jean [Campbell] Stanclift born Canada[2] Jan. 11, 1811[3], died probably in OH before 1900. He married probably in Erie County, NY 1. LUCY S. ____ who died Erie County, PA July 12, 1847, buried Sharps Corner Cemetery and her stone says she was "wife of Rev. J. Stanclift", married 2. probably 1848 ESTHER JANE SEAGER born Mar. 9, 1826[4].

He was a preacher and sometimes called Reverend. John came to Erie County, PA with his father and on June 20, 1835 he purchased 50 acres of land in LeBoeuf Township (formerly Waterford Township) from Julius and Chloe Jefferies[5]. On Aug. 1, 1841 John Stancliff and wife Lucy S. of McKean Township sold that same land[6].

John and Lucy appeared in the 1840 census living McKean, Erie County, PA near his father and the other members of his family who had come from Erie County, NY. There were no children in his household[7]. By 1850 his wife Lucy had died and he had married Esther and had a four months old daughter. His household also included his brothers, Samuel and Reuben[8]. By 1860 the south east corner of McKean Township had become Waterford Township and John had remained in the same place surrounded by relatives. At this date there were four more children in his family and he was a "Methodist Minister"[9]. Between 1860 and 1870 the family moved to OH. In 1870 he and his family were living in New Lyme, Ashtabula County, OH, the two oldest girls were no longer with the family[10]. They still lived Ohio in 1880 and were now in Richmond Township, only the youngest two daughters were at home. Son, Edgar was enumerated with the family , but he was counted twice and also enumerated at the "brick yard" where he worked[11]. In the 1900 Ohio Census Esther Jane was living Geneva Village, Ashtabula County, OH with son Edgar's family[12]. In 1920 Esther was living in the household of her married daughter, Delia Elizabeth [Stanclift] Phelps in Madison, Lake County, OH[13].

(301) WILLARD[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born NY or Canada[1] Feb. 14, 1814, died Dec. 23, 1896, buried Golden Cemetery[2], married 1. HANNAH ____ born NY, married 2. ADALINE STANCLIFT daughter of Seth and Adaline [McIntyre] Stanclift born PA Dec. 1819[3], died McKean, Erie County, PA Mar. 26, 1914[4].

He appeared in the 1840 census married at that date to a female born between 1810 and 1820[5]. Willard, Adaline and 10 year old William Henry were in McKean Township in 1850 living among the related Stancliff, Ward, Comer and Crow families[6]. By 1860 William had left home and Willard and Adaline were still on the farm[7]. In 1870[8] and 1880[9] they remained in the same place. In 1900 Adaline, now a widow aged 80 years old was living in Middleboro, she indicated that she had borne two children but neither were living that date[10]. Adaline was in the 1910 Census, a widow listed as a boarder in the home of Viena Peck, also a widow, in Middleborough, McKean Township, Erie County, PA[11]. It was Alvina Peck who witnessed Adaline's Will and provided a deposition included in Adaline's probate papers, that specified the relationships of the heirs to Adaline. Adaline's heirs were her siblings Ely and Ellen, and daughters of her brother James, and daughter of her brother Lester. There was no mention of W. H. (William Henry) Stanclift, son of Willard[12]. Subsequent census records indicate that William's mother was born in NY and Adaline was born PA, which suggests that W. H. was son of Willard's first wife.

Willard was 21 years old when his family left New York, it is possible that he married Hannah before leaving NY. Willard has a GAR flag holder decorating his grave.

(302) LAURA[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Daughter of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born Canada Sept. 15, 1815, died Erie County, PA Mar. 1, 1871, married HIRAM CROW born Jan. 24, 1802, died Erie County, PA July 20, 1869, both buried Sharp's Corner Cemetery[15]. Census records conflict on birthplace of Hiram, born NY or Canada. Hiram served as executor on the will of Clark Nichols.

They lived within the community of Stanclift families in McKean. In the 1850 Census they were next door to the widow of Thomas Stanclift, Polly Ann and her family. Laura and Hiram had five little girls and a one year old son at that date[16]. In 1860 there were two more little girls in the family. Their daughter, Sophronia, was over in Collins, New York with relatives. Both Laura and Hiram specified their birthplace as Upper Canada[17]. Laura remained on the farm after Hiram died and in 1870 she was living with three grown daughters, Zilpha, Mary and Eliza[18].

(303) AMASA[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born NY June 21, 1817, died Erie County, PA Feb. 15, 1865, married after 1843 MELINDA ____ born NY 1822_1, died Mar. 9, 1883_2.

On May 5, 1843, Amasa Stanclift, "single man", purchased from his parents just over 100 acres of land, part of his father's large land holding$_3$. He lived on land surrounded by members of his immediate Stanclift family and near land belonging to uncles and cousins. This is the area where the sons of John Stanclift settled after their move from North Collins, Erie County, NY. They lived in the South East portion of McKean Township, part of which was annexed to Waterford Township between 1850 and 1860.

On Sept. 20, 1866 Franklin Stanclift minor son of Amasa Stanclift, deceased, over age 14 was placed under guardianship of George Fritts$_4$. The appointment of a man named Fritts as a Guardian, a position which often involved family members, and the fact that Melinda's son married a Fritts, suggests the possibility that Melinda was part of that family. Melinda also survived Amasa and sold property belonging to the estate of Amasa Stanclift. On October 18, 1866 a deed was recorded in which Melinda was the grantor and Thomas Waterhouse was the grantee$_5$, property located McKean Township, Erie County, PA.

In 1850 Amasa and Melinda had two children and were living within the family community$_6$. They were still on the same farm in 1860$_7$. Melinda did not seem to be in subsequent Census records as Melinda Stanclift.

(304) WILLIAM[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born Mar. 12, 1819_8 while his family was living in North Collins, Erie County, NY, died Waterford Township, Erie County, PA Aug. 5, 1896 Æ 74 years, 4 months and 23 days, buried Sharp's Corners Cemetery$_9$, Erie County, PA, married Erie County, PA Dec. 31, 1843 ADELIA WARREN WHITNEY$_{10}$ daughter of Leonard W. Whitney born Chautauqua, NY Aug. 29, 1824, died Erie County, PA Nov. 17, 1896 Æ 72 years, 2 months and 19 days$_{11}$, buried Sharp's Corners Cemetery, Erie County, PA.

William moved to Erie County, PA with his father and brothers in 1835. William and Delia owned land in the South East corner of McKean Township in the "Pennsylvania Population Company Tract Lots #415 and #408". This area was annexed to Waterford Township between 1850 and 1860, so while records indicate that William lived first in McKean and then in Waterford Townships, he remained on the same property, and lived near the other sons of Timothy, and also near Delia's father Leonard Whitney$_{12}$. He was a farmer and a painter. In 1894 William and Delia sold land in Lot #408 to their daughter Mertie and her husband Charles L. Giddings.$_{13}$ This was probably their homestead, which had become too much to manage in their advanced age. They both died two years later.

In 1850 William and Delia had four small children and lived on their farm in McKean Township$_{14}$. By 1860 they had nine children and William indicated that his occupation was a painter$_{15}$. In 1870 there was only one new child in the family, Mertie.

(305) HIRAM[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born North Collins, Erie County, NY Apr. 21, 1821 died Brookfield, MO Sept. 24, 1872 "of Milk fever", married 1845 his first cousin, SARAH WARD, daughter of John and Christina [Hough] Ward born Kingston, Ontario, Canada May 11, 1823, died Sheridan, Placer County, CA June 7, 1903.

John Ward married Christina Hough July 26, 1807 at Ernestown, Ontario, Canada by Rev. Robert McDowall[3] this same minister performed the marriage of Christina's sister Lucy to Timothy Stanclift.

Hiram received his father's farm in return for the promise to care for his parents.

Hiram sold 100 acres located in Waterford on Sept. 14, 1868 to Thomas Taylor for $4,000.[4] and about this time moved his family to a 160 acre or quarter-section plot of undeveloped prairie land near Brookfield, MO. Daughter, Lucy described the move to Missouri saying that she, her sister Addie and brother Quincy along with a hired driver, drove a team and wagon to Allegheny and took a boat to Missouri while the rest of the family took the train. Living conditions were primitive in the new land and the family lived in a one room log cabin while their new house was being built. Hiram's first chore was to plant fruit trees to establish an orchard on the new land. It was a difficult ordeal to carve a working farm from the prairie. They all helped with the plowing and Lucy said that her mother took the sheared wool from their flock of sheep and carded, spun and wove the fabric to sew clothes for the family. The girls all spent evenings knitting while someone read out loud. Lucy wrote "I often wonder how a frail little woman like our mother could have cared for us as she did, with the work she did, and always a baby to care for. Spinning and weaving and even carding the wool she spun, making butter from eight or nine cows and packing it in kegs to send to town, carrying the sour milk to the pigs after skimming it off, and the three meals each day for a horde of hungry youngsters besides one or two men. All our clothes, even the men's, she made till the wonderful little sewing machine came which by the way made a chain stitch which if broken anywhere was likely to ravel the length of the seam. She was a wonderful cook too. I wonder what the folks of today would think to sit down to a breakfast of sausage, home-made, with griddle cakes and maple syrup and maybe a mince pie hot from the oven to finish off with."

Hiram used to sit out at night to guard the crops from neighbor's stock, it was this that she believed caused Hiram to contract a fever and die in 1872. The two oldest girls taught school to help support the family and a young man named Orville Francis rented the farm land and would later marry one of Hiram's daughters.

Members of the family began moving to California. Quincy was the first to seek his fortune in the west, he probably went to California in 1874 or 1875. Addie and Lucy moved out there 1877 and the others followed. When Lucy returned to Brookfield, MO for a visit in 1880, she took her mother, Sarah, and sister, Effie, back to California with her. Sarah was in poor health and her

In 1850 Hiram was the head of the household on the family farm. Besides his wife and two small children the family included his brothers Samuel, and James and his sister Ellen. Their parents were listed next to them as a separate family[1]. Lucy and Timothy were part of his household in 1860. They had seven children at that date[2]. Hiram sold the family property and moved to Brookfield, MO where he was enumerated in 1870 with his ten children[3], but his parents remained in McKean. It is not certain where they were living after Hiram left the area. All of the children of Timothy and Lucy appeared in the 1870 Census and Timothy and Lucy were not with any of their families. After Hiram died the family remained on the farm and Sarah was there in 1880 with six of her children in the household. The family included daughter Eva's husband, Orville Francis, and their new baby[4]. Sarah's daughter, Lucy took her mother back to California with her in 1880 and Sarah was again enumerated out there while in the household of her son-in-law Eugene Clinton Rogers. Lucy and husband Wallace McAllister were also in that same household[5]. By 1900 the rest of the family had moved to California too, and in this year Sarah was living in son Everett's household, along with daughters Flora and Effie[6].

576- 1. ADELAIDE PARMELIA STANCLIFT "Addie" born Erie County, PA June 2, 1847, died Sheridan, Placer County, CA Aug. 11, 1928, buried Sheridan, Cemetery, married CA Sept. 19, 1877, EUGENE CLINTON ROGERS son of Samuel and Rhoda Smith [Miner] Rogers born Norwich, New London County, CT Feb. 4, 1823[7], died Sheridan, Placer County, CA Aug. 14, 1911[8], buried Sheridan Cemetery. Eugene was said to be a "forty niner" going to California because of the Gold Rush. If he went at that early date, he evidently remained in that area and twenty five years was living in Sheridan, Placer County, CA when Quincy Morrison Stanclift went out to California, became ill and died. Eugene C. Rogers was with Quincy and notified the family of his death in Auburn, CA. That letter started a correspondence with Adelaide that led Adelaide and Lucy to move to California. They arrived in California in February 1877 and started teaching school. Eugene and Adelaide were married the following September. Eugene Rogers "settled in Placer County, California in 1855 and founded the town of Sheridan. In 1857, he constructed a 24 by 80 foot house with an open shed in front that became known as 'Rogers' Shed', which became a social center for the town as well as a place for teamsters to stop to eat and to service their horses and wagons. The 'Shed' burned down in 1868. On May 7, 1864, Rogers started a school and hired a teacher. The Sheridan post office opened July 10, 1868. Rogers' partner, Young Dougherty, was the first postmaster; Eugene Rogers took over as postmaster in 1870 and served 16 years in that post. Rogers was also the railroad land agent."[9] After her death, sister Lucy wrote of "Addie" this epitaph- "She seemed to live for others most of her life. In the little town we lived it seemed no one was sick or died but she was with them to do all a kind neighbor could do."

See Appendix A: ROGERS

577- 2. QUINCY MORRISON STANCLIFT born Erie County, PA June 28, 1849, died Auburn, CA July 27, 1875, buried Sheridan Cemetery, Sheridan, Placer County, CA. He was the first of Hiram Stanclift's children to leave Brookfield, MO and go west to seek his fortune in California. Lucy wrote in her Autobiography "After a few years my oldest brother thought he would go West, as several of the other boys were going but he went by himself to California, where he had an Uncle working a mine." Lucy said he lived in the mountains above Auburn. The uncle was probably Reuben Stancliff, brother of Timothy, who in 1860 was living at Long Bar, Yuba County, CA. Reuben was that date engaged in Dairy farming but so many of his neighbors listed their occupation as "mining" that the area must have been a mining community and Reuben no doubt tried his hand at mining too. Quincy became ill after reaching California when he drank water from an unused well, and Eugene Rogers did everything he could to help Quincy before his death. Evidently he improved after his initial illness as Lucy said he was on his way to their uncle's place and Quincy only got as far as Auburn when he died. Mr. Rogers notified the family of Quincy's death by letter and established a correspondence with Quincy's sister Adelaide that culminated in their marriage.[10]

McALLISTER born ME Jan. 22, 1856, died Aug. 4, 1905, buried Sheridan Cemetery, Sheridan, CA. He was the son of Dr. McAllister of Eugene, OR. After her marriage Lucy went back to Brookfield, MO to visit her family, she found her mother quite ill. Lucy persuaded her mother and youngest sister to return to California with her as Orville Francis and sister Emma had married by this time and had already moved to California. They left Harvey and Everett to work the farm. Lucy wrote a manuscript of her life that has added a great deal to our knowledge of this family and the lives they led. She painted a picture of life in an age when families were moving west and living the adventures and hardships that we can only read about today. Lucy died as a result of burns incurred when she was trapped in a fire that destroyed her home. The family account of her death indicated that she was rummaging around in a closet using a kerosene lamp for illumination and either the lantern was upset by accident or she suffered a seizure or heart attack and dropped the lantern causing the fatal fire.

(306) REUBEN[6] STANCLIFT (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born Erie County, NY Mar. 25, 1823, died between 1900 and 1910, married 1. Jan. 13, 1852 MELISSA PINNEY daughter Elisha and Rachel [Belden] Pinney born MA Apr. 10, 1813, died June 24, 1894, buried Waterford, PA. Melissa's brother, Martin Pinney, married Reuben's sister, Adaline, below. Reuben married 2. June 6, 1895, MRS. ADA [WRIGHT] TENENT "Adie" of Washington Township, born NY Aug. 1826_2, died Washington Township, Erie County, PA July 7, 1911_3.

Reuben was living with his brother John's family in 1850_4. By 1860 Reuben was married and had an eight year old son and lived in the Stancliff Community, next to brother Amasa[5]. They were still there in 1870, and Reuben was listed as a Farmer[6]. Melissa died and Reuben married again in 1895, but five years later in 1900 Reuben Stanclift was living in McKean Township, Erie County, PA with his son Melvin E. Stanclift and Melvin's wife Alice I. [Wright] Stanclift, and he listed himself as a widower[7], but Ada had not died. She was living alone in Washington Township, Erie County, PA[8]. Ada was still living alone in 1910_9, this time she is termed a widow.

Ada left her estate to the children of her brother, Lewis Wright, and they received property recorded to Mrs. Ada Tenant. Ada's step-son Melvin was the executor on her estate, but he was not one of her heirs. Melvin's wife, Alice, was a niece of Ada [Wright] Tennant Stancliff and she was an heir.

(310) SAMUEL[6] STANCLIFF (Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Timothy and Lucy [Hough] Stanclift born Mar. 23, 1831, died Apr. 16, 1890 Waterford, PA[4], buried Waterford Cemetery[5], Erie County, PA, married 1856[6] JERUSHA ____ (perhaps Jerusha Anderson[7]) born NY Feb. 1836, died after 1910 and buried Waterford Cemetery, Erie County, PA.

Samuel was enumerated twice in the 1850 Census. He was living in household of brother, Hiram, and just a few doors away Samuel and brother Reuben were enumerated in the household of brother, John, in McKean, Erie County, PA. Both of them were termed Laborer on John's farm[8]. They were next door to brother Amasa's farm on one side and the farm of John Ward on the other. Next to John Ward was their brother Willard and next to Amasa was the Jacob Comer family. Brother William was not far distant. There was a congregation of the families that had been in Canada together. In 1860 Samuel and "Jerosia" were living McKean between James Patterson Stanclift and Jacob Comer and still living within the area where members of the Stanclift family owned contiguous tracts of land. Samuel was a painter by trade and also a farmer[9]. By 1870 the family had moved to Bloomfield Township, Crawford County, PA[10]. They were in that location in 1880[11]., and in 1889 they still lived Bloomfield Township[12].

After Samuel's death Jerusha seems to have made her home with her children. In the 1900 Census Jerusha called "Jessie", was living in household of daughter Agnes and her husband, William Garland in Waterford, Erie County, OH. The 1900 Census indicates that Jerusha had 9 children, 8 living that date[13]. In 1910 Jerusha was with daughter Fanny and husband Howard J. Mays and living next to her another daughter, Celia Ladency [Stancliff] Bidwell and her husband. They all lived in Bloomfield Township, Crawford County, PA and in this census Jerusha said she had 10 children, 8 living[14].

Their gravestone in Waterford Cemetery indicates they preferred the spelling Stancliff.

On Sept. 6, 1862 at Buffalo, NY Edwin Volunteered for service in Company 8, Lt. Pierce's Company, 1st Battalion N.Y. Sharpshooters, Army of the Potomac. He was described as having hazel eyes, black hair and a fair complexion. He was 6 foot 2 inches in height. The unit to which he was assigned was called "Berdan's Sharpshooters"[10].

Hiram G. Berdan, ranked as the top amateur rifle shot in the nation since 1846, organized BERDAN'S SHARPSHOOTERS and was commissioned colonel of the 1st Regiment. The unit was made up of the finest marksmen in the northern states. In order to qualify, a man had to be able to place 10 shots in a 10 inch circle at 200 yards, firing a gun of his own choice. Sniping or Sharpshooting was a recognized psychological weapon at the outset of the Civil War. The troops of this regiment wore different uniforms to distinguish them from other units. The Sharpshooters Regiment saw service in every Eastern campaign through autumn of 1864, and played a decisive role at the Battle of Gettysburg. Of the 2,750 men in the Sharpshooter Regiments, almost 40% were

In 1830 Emily's family lived very near the Stancliffs in Collins, Erie County, NY[7]. Alden's family left Collins, Erie County, NY and traveled to Erie County, PA in 1835. Amelia's family seems to have travelled with them or joined the Stancliff family in McKean Township, Erie County, PA. Enoch Brooks and family was located within the Stancliff community in 1840[8]. Alden was educated at the Sharp's Corner School and his first teacher was David Stancliff, son of Lemuel.

Alden pursued farming for most of his life, but was also termed "a painter" and said to have been engaged in the manufacture of "handles". He was a Road Commissioner and School Director in Waterford Township, Erie County, PA[9].

In 1850 Alden and Amelia lived Washington Township with two small children, Adeliza and Thomas. Alden's brother, Joseph, lived in their household[10]. In 1860 they had with them children Adeliza now called Emma, and Jackson age 7, Alden's mother, Polly, was living with them[11]. By 1870 they lived among the other Stancliff families and at this date they had three children[12]. In 1880 Emma and Jackson were married and had their own homes. Minnie still lived with her parents[13]. In 1900

(334) ELLSWORTH[6] STANCLIFF (Thomas[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Thomas and Mary Ann [Peek] Stancliff "Polly" born Mar. 24, 1827, died McKean, Erie County, PA Aug. 4, 1897[4], buried Waterford Cemetery, Erie County, PA[5]. He married 1. EMELINE P. SHERWOOD daughter of Cyrus and Harriet [Attwater] Sherwood born Collins, Erie County, NY 1838, died Erie County, PA Jan. 27, 1883, buried Waterford Cemetery, Erie County, PA. Her Probate records name son L. E.[6] as Executor and children as heirs, but does not mention Ellsworth. He married 2. Edinboro, PA Dec. 24, 1885 MRS. MARY B. [____] VORSE born 1842. Mary was found in the 1870 Census as the wife of Thomas Vorse, a grocer, in Edinborough, Erie County, PA. Mary had sons Henry Vorse born 1864 and Frank Vorse born 1866. Her husband's mother Caroline M. [____] Vorse was part of the family at that date[7]. Ellsworth married 3. Waterford, PA Aug.30, 1891 MRS. SARAH A. [____] GODARD. An Anna D. Stancliff born July 1830, mother of Frank C. Godard was living south of Erie County with her son in Butler County, PA in 1900[8]. Anna D. and Sarah A. are probably the same person, and her name was Sarah Anna.

In 1842 Ellsworth sponsored Jacob Comer of Lennox and Addington County, Ontario, Canada when he came to Erie County, PA. Jacob's son Charles married Ellsworth's sister, Lorinda.

In 1850 Emeline Sherwood's family lived near Ellsworth's brother Alden in Washington Township, Erie County, PA. After their marriage Ellsworth and Emeline lived within the Stancliff Community in that area that changed from McKean Township to Waterford Township. They lived there in 1860 with three small children, Ada, Cyrus and Thomas[9]. In 1870 they were in McKean Township living between the Crow and the Comer families. They still had three children, their daughter Ada now called Anette, and sons Thomas and Lynn[10]. By 1880 Ellsworth's mother Polly [Peek] Stancliff was living in their household and the three children were Lynn now called Leon E., Hattie M. and John Sherwood[11].

(335) LORINDA[6] STANCLIFF (Thomas[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann [Peek] Stancliff "Polly" born Eden Corners, Erie County, NY Apr. 20, 1833, died Parsons, Labette County, KS Apr. 17, 1926, buried Galesburg, Neosho County, KS[2] married 1855 CHARLES T. COMER son of Jacob and Elsie [____] Comer of Ernestown, Lennox and Addington County, Ontario, Canada and McKean, PA. Charles Comer was born in Canada Sept. 26, 1831, died Aug. 26, 1900, buried Galesburg, Neosho County, KS. The Comer family had lived in the same area of Canada as the Stancliff family.

In 1842 Jacob Comer, father of Charles, was sponsored by Ellsworth Stancliff, brother of Lorinda, at the time he entered this country and settled Erie County, PA.

Charles Comer was a Veteran of the Civil War. A granddaughter said that "after the Civil War, my grandparents moved to Illinois, then Kansas. Many years later they moved to Seattle. After Grandfather died, Grandmother came back and stayed with mother until her death."[3] Lorinda was said to have mentioned an English "Stancliff Coat of Arms" that was lost in colonial times.

CHILDREN: Charles and Lorinda [Stancliff] Comer

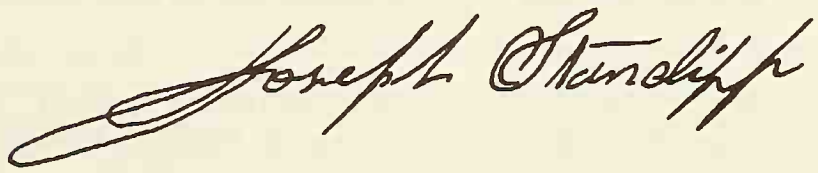
(336) JOSEPH GARRET[6] STANCLIFF (Thomas[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



Son of Thomas and Mary Ann [Peek] Stancliff "Polly" born PA May 7, 1835, died Edinboro, Erie County, PA Jan. 1917, married 1. Erie County, PA Mar. 12, 1861 ROXANNE HULL daughter of Lucians A. and Margaret [____] Hull born Summit Township, Erie County, PA Aug. 19, 1837, died Dec. 10, 1866, married 2. Parsons, Labette County, KS, Jan. 7, 1871 SARAH JANE MILLER daughter of William and Sally [____] Miller born near Terre Haute, IN Oct. 12, 1849, died Edinboro, Erie County, PA July 25, 1936, buried at Edinboro Cemetery with husband and son, David.

Joseph Stancliff's tombstone in Edinboro Cemetery says he was "Master At Arms U.S.N."[6]. His son David said he was in the United States Navy Marine Corps. Joseph was a sawmill operator before the Civil War, during the war he served in the "Upper Tennessee Fleet" on a gunboat which operated on the Tennessee river during blockade operations.

In 1850 15 year old Joseph was enumerated twice, once with his mother and brother Ellsworth and sister Lavinia living on the family farm[7], and also living in the household of his brother, Alden, in Washington Township[8]. By 1860 Joseph was married to Roxanne and living in Waterford Township, he was listed as a "Sawyer" and Roxanne's brother, Julius, a carpenter was in their household[9]. Roxanne died in 1866 while Joseph was engaged in the Civil War. After the war Joseph travelled to the western part of the country. He probably travelled with his sister, Lorinda, and her husband Charles T. Comer, both of whom lived for many years

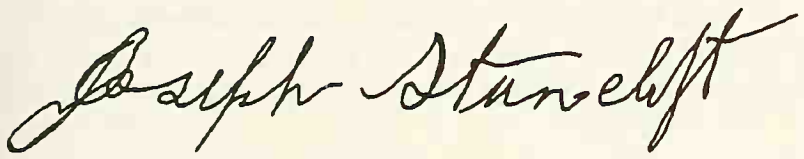
(337) JOSEPH SHELDON[6] STANCLIFT (Reuben[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])



Son of Reuben and Elvira [Adams] Stanclift born Collins, Erie County, NY Sept. 25, 1825[6], died Julian, San Diego County, CA June 2, 1918[7], married Collins, Erie County, NY Oct. 15, 1852 CORNELIA PHILLIPS[8] daughter of Solomon and Caroline [____] Phillips born Hudson, Columbia County, NY 1834, died Wynola, San Diego County, CA Apr. 1878.

In 1850 Joseph was a Blacksmith living in the household of William Brayman also a blacksmith. William Brayman was married to Joseph's sister, Harriet[9]. They were living very near Mary [Wood] Stanclift, widow of Willard, and several of the related Wood families. They were located a few doors away from Cornelia Phillip's family.

Joseph's daughter was born Berrian County, MI in 1853 or 1854. His sister, Harriet [Stanclift] Brayman, and her husband and family also moved to Berrien County, MI. Others from this community settled near them in Cass County, MI.

Joseph first entered military service at Anna, Union County, IL on May 28, 1861, but he enlisted as a 2nd Lt. under an

The deposition, contained in his pension records, given by Joseph on Mar. 28, 1915 states his birthdate was Sept. 25, 1825, this same document gives maiden name of wife and her death date and birth date for Libbie. Birth date of Sept. 12, 1824 Æ 93-8-21 on Death Certificate. Pension Application Mar. 16, 1907 indicates he was age 80 and born Collins, NY 1827. His age given at time of enlistment in Fifth MI Cavalry on Aug. 16 or 18, 1862 was 24.

assumed name as Joseph Williams, later saying he was well known in several southern states under his real name. He resigned the following December because of a disability.

He again enlisted for a period of three years on Aug. 16, 1862 at Port Huron, St. Claire County, MI as a Sergeant and this time under his real name. He served with the 5th Michigan Cavalry until Mar. 12, 1863. He received a discharge Feb. 24, 1864 at Detroit, MI again with a Certificate of Disability[1]. He was a widower, living with his only child, Libbie Wilcox when he died.

On Pension Application he listed Port Huron, St. Clair County, MI, Blandinsville, McDonough County, IL, and "California since 1869" as places of residence after service. He did not mention being in Arizona Territory in 1880 alone[2]. That was less than a year after his wife died and since he was termed a "Gold Miner" on his death certificate, he may have gone to Arizona searching for gold. In 1900 Joseph lived in Julian Township, San Diego County, CA in the family of his married daughter, Libbie and her husband Loren Leroy Wilcox. In 1910 at age 84 Joseph was a lodger in the home of retired farmer Jesus and Carmen Ojos. They lived on Warner Springs Road, Cleveland National Forest Reserve, Julian Township, CA[3].

(339) GEORGE[6] STANCLIFT (Reuben[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Reuben and Elvira [Adams] Stanclift born "near Buffalo, NY 1837"[7], married probably in CA Jan. 8, 1867, MARY C. [STEPHENS] HILL BELL as her third husband. Mary was the daughter of Gabriel Bowman and Mary [Griggs] Stephens born Bourbon County, KY[8] Feb. 1833 or 1840[9]. Since it is unlikely that Mary had become a widow at age 11, the 1833 birthdate is probably correct. Mary had married 1. John W. Hill in MO, who died Green County, MO about 1851, they had a son John Hill[10], she was a widow at 18 years of age. She married 2. Sierra County, CA 1854 George Bell, from whom she was divorced in 1860.

In the 1860 Census George's father, Reuben, was living in Yuba County, CA and while his family was not with him that date they probably did join him in CA, where George met Mary. George and Mary Stanclift lived for a time in California, then settled at Harney Point or Burns, Grant County, OR.

CHILDREN: George and Mary C. [Stephens] Hill Bell Stanclift

(340) SAMUEL[6] STANCLIFT (Samuel[5], Samuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Samuel and Anna [____] Stanclift born NY July 1810, died Village of Omro, Winnebago County, WI July 12, 1901 aged 91_1, buried Salem Cemetery, Nekima Township, Winnebago County, WI, married 1. JANE C. ____ born NY 1817, married 2. PAULINE R. SWEET daughter of _____ and Amy [____] Sweet born NY 1813, died after 1870 and before 1900. She did not appear in the 1900 Census and Samuel, was termed a widower.

Land records of Elkhart County, IN_2 reveal Samuel Stanclift and wife Jane C. [____] Stanclift purchased land in Elkhart County, IN 1841 and were residents of Elkhart County in 1843. When the parcel of land was sold in 1846 they were called residents of St. Joseph County, IN. Samuel Stanclift and wife Jane C. of Racine County, WI purchased land in Walworth County, WI in 1848. Samuel sold that land in 1857.

This is the Samuel in the 1840 census living St.Joseph County Indiana, with wife and two females born between 1835 and 1840_3 and consistent with the 1850 WI Census which shows his daughters born in IN. Samuel moved to Omro Village, Nekima Township, Winnebago County, WI where he was a blacksmith and a farmer. He is shown there in 1850 with his two daughters and a wife named $Jane_4$. In 1860 Samuel is still in Nekima Township, but wife is now P.R. or Pauline Stancliff and there is a 13 year old step-son in his family as well as a very young $daughter_5$. Pauline's mother, Amy Sweet, was born in CT 1788/9 and living in their household in 1870_6. The presence of George Ashley in Samuel's household and the reference to him as a stepson suggests that Pauline may have married first a man named Ashley before her marriage to Samuel. By 1900 Samuel aged 89 lived in Omro with his youngest daughter and step-son George $Ashley_7$.

Samuel died intestate and his daughter, Frank E. Stanclift, was appointed Executrix on his estate and termed his "sole heir at law" at that time. George B. Ashley was surety on the $Bond_8$.

CHILDREN: Samuel and Jane C. [____] Stancliff

649- 1. WEALTHY A. STANCLIFT born IN 1835, she was a dressmaker. Not listed as an heir in father's probate settlement 1901.

650- 2. MALISSA STANCLIFT born IN 1838. Not listed as an heir in father's probate settlement 1901.

CHILDREN: Samuel and Pauline R. [Sweet] Stancliff

651- 3. FRANK E. or FRANCES STANCLIFF born WI Jul. 1856. She was the sole heir of Samuel Stancliff living in 1901.

4. GEORGE B. ASHLEY born WI Sept. 1846 and referred to as a stepson of Samuel in the 1860 Census and was still in Samuel's household in 1900 and again listed as stepson. He was not an heir to Samuel's estate but acted as witness to some of the probate documents.

(342) ALONZO E.[6] STANCLIFT (Elias[5], Samuel[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Elias and Lydia [Wood] Stanclift born South Bristol, Ontario County, NY May 20, 1812, died Waupun, Fond-du-lac County, WI June 21, 1869 Æ 57 years, married at Nelson, Madison County, NY Sept. 16, 1835 SELURA $KEITH_9$, daughter of Lincoln and Submitty [Doolittle] Keith of Nelson, NY born Nov. 8, 1814, died Waupun, Fond-du-lac County, WI Sept. 24, 1886.

In 1860 they were still in Nelson, Madison County, NY_{10}. Alonzo moved from Nelson, Madison County, NY to Waupun, Fond-du-lac County, WI. Waupun, is about 40 miles south of Omro Village, Winnebago County, WI, where his cousin, Samuel, lived. Alonzo died in Waupun in 1869. Selura lived with married daughter Jennett [Stanclift] McCray's family by 1880_{11}. Also living in Waupun this date was Selura's sister, Lorenda [Keith] Whiting and family. Lorenda had married Rev. Warren Whiting, a Baptist minister, and they too moved to Waupun, WI probably at the same time that Selura's family made the move. Besides being a minister, Warren Whiting also engaged in farming and in 1880 they shared a house with Hiram Chandler, wife Emma, and son James. It is probable that Emma Chandler was the daughter of Warren and Lorenda [Keith] Whiting. Lorenda died in 1884 and Selura seems to have gone to live with the Chandler family. Selura [Keith] Stanclift's Obituary in the Waupun Leader, issue of Oct. 1, 1886 read-

"Stanclift: At the residence of Hiram Chandler, in the town of Waupun, Friday, Sept. 24th, 1886, Selura Stanclift, aged 72 years. Deceased was a sister-in-law of Warren Whiting. She had been feeling bad for some days, but was not considered ill. Friday she had her dinner with the family, and went upstairs to do some writing and fell to the floor dead. She was discovered about 40 minutes

Son of Seth and Abigail [McIntyre] Stanclift born Erie County, PA Feb. 12, 1830, died Erie City, Erie County, PA Jan. 4, 1920, married at Erie, Erie County, PA by Rev. J. F. Spaulding Dec. 14, 1871$_{10}$ ADELAIDE LEE STRONG daughter of Martin and Caroline [Lee] Strong of Moorheadsville. Adelaide was born Nov. 12, 1843, died Nov. 29, 1936$_{11}$. Ely's will written Mar. 17, 1908 and proved Jan. 12, 1920 left everything to his wife and Adelaide was specified and later appointed to be executrix on the Estate.

Among the effects in Ely's inventory was "A Revolutionary War Musket on display at the Public Library, and a cane made of wood from the Flagship Lawrence" It is interesting to speculate on the origin of the musket. Perhaps this was the gun carried by Lemuel Stanclift during the Revolutionary War, and the gun used to provide food for the family on the long trip from New York to Erie County, PA.

Ely's parents, Seth and Abigail both aged 87, were living in this household in 1880[1], at 129 16th Street, Erie City. Adelaide was named executrix on estate of Seth, and had agreed to care for her mother in law, Abigail, for the remainder of her life. In 1900 Ely and Adelaide lived in the City of Erie where Ely was listed as being a Cigar Manufacturer[2]. Ely was not mentioned specifically in the Internal Revenue Service's tax assessments in the 1860s, but his brother, James Harvey, was mentioned by name. In 1866 they were listed as "Stancliff Brothers, Tobacconists", located that year at McKean. In 1910 Ely and Adelaide were still in Erie City, living at 129 West 16th Street and Ely had a private income.[3]

657- 1. RAYMOND ELY STANCLIFT born Nov. 27, 1878, died Aug. 24, 1894. He was said to be exceptionally bright and promising and was ready to enter college at age sixteen, he was expected to become a lawyer. His tragic death was described about 1936 by his cousin Ella [Stancliff] Cottrell as follows-

"The life of Raymond Ely Stancliff was cut short by an accidental shot inflicted by a cousin who was a guest from the State of Maine. They were hunting in the woods of Major Strong, Grandfather of Raymond. After hunting, the boys concluded to 'play bear'. Cousin Raymond emptied his gun and the Cousin from Maine supposed he had emptied his. The Cousin from Maine playfully exclaimed, 'Look out, I'm going to shoot you' and pulled the trigger. The shot struck my Cousin in the heart, and he ran a few steps and dropped dead. When the other Cousin saw what he had done, he swooned away. My Cousin was carried in a corpse and his Cousin was carried in unconscious and it was feared for a time that he would loose his mind, so great was his grief...."

(372) ALICE O.[7] STANCLIFFE (Sherman[6], George[5], George[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of Sherman and Dellcy [Earle] Stancliffe born Malone, Franklin County, NY Feb. 14, 1855, died 1955 or 1956 after surpassing he 100 year old mark, married Feb. 3, 1878 WALTER McFARLAND son of Reuben McFarland of Upper Jay, Essex County, NY.

They lived at Lake Placid, Essex County, NY in 1928.

CHILDREN: Walter and Alice O. [Stancliffe] McFarland

1. OTTO McFARLAND married and had a daughter who married Stanley Metcalf. He lives NY.
2. IRENE McFARLAND accompanied her parents to Morrisville, VT in 1928 to attend the 50th Wedding Celebration for George Sherman and Abbie Lucy [Wescott] Stancliffe.

(373) GEORGE SHERMAN[7] STANCLIFFE (Sherman[6], George[5], George[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Sherman and Dellcy [Earle] Stancliffe born Malone, Franklin County, NY June 18, 1858, died Mar. 15, 1952, buried Morrisville, Lamoille County, VT, married Aug. 15, 1878 ABBIE LUCY WESCOTT daughter of Joseph B. and Lucy M. [Spicer] $Wescott_2$ of Malone, NY born NY Feb. 1862_3.

On a hunting trip in 1877 to Mountain View, Franklin County, NY just south of Chasm Falls and Owls Head George and other Stancliffe relatives were at the "State Dam House", a hotel in the Adirondak Mountains said to have been built by Stancliffes. George signed a guest book along with a George Odell and wife of Lacolle, Quebec, Canada. This was his cousin, George Odell, the son of Annis [Stancliff] Odell.

In 1880 "Abey L. Stancliff" age 18 was head of household living Malone, Franklin County, NY with only son, Herman, age 1 year old_4 It may be that George had gone to Minnesota with their Wescott relatives, and they had not yet joined him. In 1885 their son, Rufus, was born Rock Creek, MN. Rock Creek, Pine County, MN, is located about 50 miles north of Minneapolis, MN. George Sherman Stancliffe as well as Ira and Dellcy [Safford] Wescott, and George and Emma Dora [Earle] Wescott, all relatives of Abbie, were living in Rock Creek, Pine County, MN_5 where George was engaged in farming.

They moved back to $Chasm\ Falls_6$, Franklin County, NY about 1886 or 1887 as their son Rufus said they moved to Chasm Falls when he was about a year old. The were located in that area by 1900_7. The census records confirm that seven children were born to this family and all were living in 1900. In 1906 or 1908 they moved to Morrisville, Lamoille County, VT.

George was a Farmer by Occupation, and owned a large Dairy Farm in Vermont. This is the man who commissioned Dr. Anson Titus of Tufts University to prepare a Stancliffe family Genealogy.

1.The 1900 census gives his age as 15 born March 1884.

2.The gravestones of Joseph and Lucy M. Wescott are in the Titusville Cemetery south of Chasm Falls, NY. Joseph B. Wescott died June 26 1906 AE 67 years, Lucy M. Wescott died July 24, 1885 AE 40 years 5 months and 2 days. These stones very near the stones for Rufus A. and Jane M. [Earle] Wescott, daughter of Charlotte [Stancliffe] Earle.

Della taught school before marriage and during WWII she was employed at Hunters Point Naval Dry Docks in San Francisco, CA. William Berry was a mariner and served in the U. S. Navy during WW II between 1942 and 1945 as a Bosun's Mate First Class. He spent part of his tour of duty at Pearl Harbor calibrating compasses on U. S. Navy ships. After returning to civilian life, he "skippered yachts" and even after retirement he calibrated compasses for some of the major yachts on the East Coast. They lived 1995 at Seal Harbor, Hancock County, ME. For many years Bill and Della have actively researched the Stancliff Family, and have contributed greatly to our knowledge of this family.

Daughter of Sherman and Dellcy [Earle] Stancliffe born Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY June 13, 1861, died there Nov. 10, 1958, married there Feb. 26, 1889[3] WILLIAM WALLACE CUNNINGHAM "Wallace"[4] son of Russell J. and Lura E. [Earle] Cunningham born Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY May 2, 1864, died there Feb. 16, 1954 after being run over by a truck in his own yard, buried there at the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery with Emma. Wallace was a farmer, but as a young man he had been apprenticed to a Blacksmith to learn that trade.

The relationships in this marriage are truly complex. Lura E. [Earle] Cunningham was born Jan. 23, 1841, a daughter of Willard and Orpha [Keeler] Earle. Willard's first wife had been Emma's aunt, Olive Stancliffe. Orpha Keeler married first Willard Earle as a second wife and then she married Willard's brother, William Earle, both men were first cousins of Emma's mother. A quote from the scrapbook of Emma L. Cunningham says "Russell and Wallace Cunningham's mother was a sister of Hiram Winslow. A Capt Winslow was also a brother of Hiram Winslow" Hiram Winslow married Emma's aunt, Maria Stancliffe, sister of Sherman Stancliffe. The Russell and Wallace Cunningham mentioned were the father and uncle of Emma's husband Wallace. Emma's sister Dellcy was married to their second cousin, William son of William and Orpha [Keeler] Earle. Emma's mother in law was her second cousin and Emma's brother in law and also second cousin was her mother in law's half brother. Emma's father in law was her aunt Maria's nephew. Emma's own husband was her second cousin once removed.

CHILDREN: Wallace and Emma [Stancliffe] Cunningham[5]

1. CALLIE CUNNINGHAM born Dec. 21, 1890, died 1891, buried with parents at the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery, Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY.
2. BEULAH CUNNINGHAM born Dec. 12, 1898, died 1935. She appeared in the 1900 Census as Bernice B. Cunningham. This discrepancy cannot be blamed on a careless census enumerator as it was her grandfather,

(375) JAMES A.[7] STANCLIFF (James[6], Russel[5], James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of James and Margaret A. [Graham] Stancliff born while his family lived in Edinboro, Washington Township, Erie County, PA 1835, married SARAH A. ____ born PA 1838_1.

On Jan. 28, 1858 the children of Margaret [Graham] Stancliff consisting of James Stancliff and Sarah his wife, D. C. Whitney and wife Desire, late Desire Stancliff sold to Frederick Frey for the sum of $1.00 the land that their mother had inherited from her father, James Graham$_2$.

They lived Mead Township, Crawford County, PA in 1860_3.

CHILDREN: James A. and Sarah A. [____] Stancliff

675- 1. MARY STANCLIFF born PA 1859
676- 2. WILLIAM STANCLIFF born PA 1860

(377) NANCY JANE[7] STANCLIFF (William[6], Russel[5], James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of William and Jane [____] Stancliff born Erie County, PA 1836_4, died Erie, Erie County, PA July 9, 1903_5, married in Erie City by her grandfather, the Reverend Russel Stancliff, Jan. 9, 1853 WILLIAM ORE son of Benjamin and Ann [____] Ore born Bodman, England near London May 26, 1832, died Erie County, PA Oct. 19, 1911_6.

Nancy Jane moved with her father and his second wife to Illinois in 1843, she was with him there in the 1850 Census. She probably returned to Washington Township, Erie County, PA soon after his death in 1851.

There is a naturalization Record for William Ore born 1832 that indicates he emigrated from England to Erie County, PA in 1841_7. William Ore's father, Benjamin Ore, was known to have been born in England$_8$. In 1851 Benjamin and Ann Ore for $300.00 purchased 50 acres of land in Washington Township, Erie County, PA from Russel and Desire [____] Stancliff$_9$. The land was next to Russel's own farm.

Nancy and William Ore inherited land from Russel Stancliff in Washington Township after his death in 1856. The land was part of Russel's farm and was conveyed with the provision that proceeds from the land would be used to support Russel's widow for the remainder of her life. On Jan. 13, 1859 William Ore also purchased 25 acres, or one half of the parcel, of land that Russel Stancliff had sold to his parents Benjamin and Ann Ore in 1851. William gave a deed for that land to Margaret A. [Graham] Stancliff in what may be a mortgage agreement or even a swap of land on Nov. 2, 1861_{10}. On the same day William Ore purchased a parcel of land from James and Margaret A. Stancliff. For the sum of $200.00 James and Margaret A. Stancliff conveyed 25 acres of land in Washington Township$_{11}$, and the description determines that this was the land that was bequeathed by Russel Stancliff to Nancy's Uncle James as directed in Russel's will. The remainder of Russel Stancliff's farm was purchased by William Ore from the other heirs, Nancy's siblings, in Knox County, IL$_{12}$.

William and Nancy Ore remained in Washington Township on the Farm until 1884, when they moved to Conneaut, Ashtabula County, OH and were in the restaurant business for a year or so. They moved back to PA and resided in the City of Erie.

On July 17, 1900 William Ore then aged 68, applied for an Invalid Pension for his Military service during the Civil War. He declared at that time that he was a resident of the City of Erie, Erie County, PA, and that he was mustered into the service at Ridgeway, PA on Mar. 6, 1865 for a period of one year in Company E, 18th Regiment of Pennsylvania Cavalry. He was discharged at Cumberland, Allegany County, MD on July 3, 1865. William seems to have spent much of his time in the hospital at Cumberland, Md before being given what was probably a medical discharge. At that date he evidently was suffering from the liver disease that caused him much pain in following years.

In reply to the personal questions he stated his wife was Nancy Jane Stancliff and gave dates for the marriage and for the births of his children.

J. R. McAllister to MARY J. HOOVER daughter of Eli and Susannah [Means] Hoover born PA July 1844[4].

William enlisted at Monmouth, Warren County, IL or at Knoxville, Knox County, IL[5] on Aug. 7, 1862 in Company E of the 83rd Regiment of Illinois Volunteer Infantry. He saw service along the Ohio and Tennessee rivers. William suffered an injury from which he never fully recovered and after was discharged at Fort Donaldson on Nov. 19, 1863. His brother David served in the same unit. The description of William at age 43 was 6ft 3½in. tall, 178 pounds, light complexion, sandy hair and gray eyes.

According to his pension papers William owned land in 1900 near Viola, Mercer County, IL described as 80 acres in West ½ of South East ¼ of Section 22 and Mary, his wife, owned lots 12 and 13 in Block 18 of the Shepard and Fords Addition of the Village of Viola, Mercer County, IL.

He died in a tragic Railroad accident while attempting to board a moving train. He lost his balance and slipped beneath the train and was killed almost instantly. He was bound for Chicago with a carload of cattle when the accident happened. His wife was already in Chicago at the time undergoing surgical treatment[6].

The family belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church. This man appeared in family records and the Census records as Henry Stancliff.

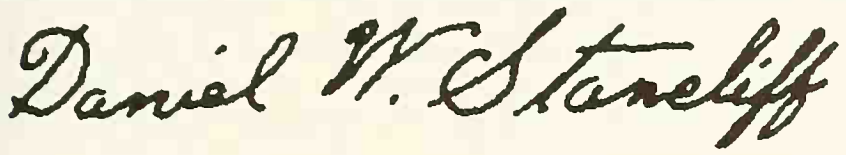
(389) DANIEL WEBSTER[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])



Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Township, Stark County, IL Sept. 24, 1849, died May 3, 1922_1 at Corsicana, Navarro County, TX, where he was living in a I.O.O.F. "Odd Fellows" $Home_2$, buried there at Oakwood Cemetery on May 4, 1922. There is a large white monument, about twenty feet high, with a carved statue at the top in the Cemetery. It stands in the center of a large lot where those from the Odd Fellows home are buried. There are a few individual markers but there is not one for Daniel. He married Trivoli, Peoria County, IL, by Rev. William Walters, Sept. 4, 1878 SARAH STANDEVEN of Oak Hill, Peoria County, IL, and the ceremony was witnessed by Miles Stancliff and Thomas $Wrigley_3$. She was the daughter of Abraham and Eliza [Van Zile] or $[Vanziel]_4$ Standeven, born Paterson, Passaic County, NJ_5, Oct. 19, 1848 died Harris County, TX Jan 29, 1920, where she had been living for four months while being treated for Tuberculosis. Sarah's Death Certificate stated that she was at time of her death, a resident of Alvin, TX.

Daniel was a farmer for many years in $Valley\ Township_6$, Stark County, IL on 80 Acres in Section 16_7, just south east of his parents home. Daniel's family moved to Kewanee, Henry County, IL about 1889, and in 1900_8 they lived at 207 Lyle Street in the City of Kewanee, Henry County, IL, where Daniel was a carpenter. Sarah's father, Abraham Standeven Æ 75, was living with them. They were located next door to Daniel's brother James Allen Stancliff and his wife Esther, who was a sister of Sarah. With several brothers already located in Texas, it is not surprising that Daniel also moved to that State by 1910. He settled in Alvin, Brazoria County, TX. At this time he had living with him, Lyle Neely Æ 15_9, the son of Daniel's deceased sister, Mary Etta [Stancliff] Neely Duffy. In a fascinating circumstance they lived in Alvin, TX next door to another Daniel Stancliff, a third cousin, Daniel Belden[7] Stancliff (William[6], Russell[5], James[4], James[3], William[2], James[1]) son of William H. and Esther [Belden] Stancliff, born 1852 in Galesburg, Knox County, IL. This suggests that there may have been previous contact between the Stancliff family in Wyoming, Stark County, IL and the Stancliff family in Galesburg, Knox County, IL. Daniel and Sarah were living alone in Alvin, Brazoria County in 1920_{10}. Daniel Webster Stancliff, like several of his brothers, suffered with asthma, and the weather in Texas may have made the move even more attractive.

While the Birth Record for daughter, Ethel, indicates she was "the third child" and "delivered by Martha Stancliff", no record of other children for this couple has been found.

CHILDREN: Daniel Webster and Sarah [Standeven] Stancliff

(390) WILLIAM PERRY[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Aug. 15, 1851 Wyoming, Essex Twp, Stark County, IL, died Tobias, Olive Precinct, Saline County, NE Dec. 28, 1926 as a result of kidney problems, and was buried in $Tobias_{11}$. He married Wyoming, IL Oct. 28, 1875_{12} by William Walters, Minister of the Congregational Church to EMELINE ARGENBRIGHT daughter of Abram and Susannah [Tweed] Argenbright born April 14, 1854 in Vinton County Ohio, died De Nova, Washington County, CO, April 24, 1934_{13}, buried Tobias Cemetery, Tobias, Saline County, NE.

Perhaps influenced by the glowing reports of his brother, George Washington Stancliff, on the beauty and opportunities of this area, William and his family moved to Saline County, NE about 1879 and they were located in Atlanta Precinct in 1880_{14}. The Town of Tobias, originally known as Castor, was laid out in Olive Precinct just south of Atlanta, NE in 1884. By 1920 their children had married and William and Emeline were alone still living in $Tobias_{15}$.

In a Warrantee Deed William Perry Stancliff, for the sum of $60.00, purchased from the Lincoln Land Company Corporation Lot 3, Block 1, First Addition to the Town of Castor, on September 30, 1886. In a second Warranty Deed, William sold this same property for the sum of $600.00 to his wife, Emeline Stancliff, on February 26, 1904. Emeline had purchased for the sum of $50.00 from Edward A. and Sarah L. Taylor Lot 3, Block 1 in the original Town of Castor on Feb. 25, 1902. On June 7, 1933, Emmeline Stancliff, widow, conducted a transaction which put the property in both her own name and that of her daughter, Myrtle [Stancliff] Fitzgibbon, as joint tenants.[1]

William and Emmeline may have returned to Wyoming, IL for a visit when their son Charles died in 1887, for he was buried in the Wyoming Cemetery near his grandparents, Perry and Martha Stancliff. In 1897 the family travelled from Tobias, NE to Wyoming, IL for the 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration of Perry and Martha Stancliff. William was a farmer and a stock dealer and the 1910 Census also listed his occupation as an Ice Dealer.

(391) GEORGE WASHINGTON[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Twp, Stark County, IL May 15, 1854, died of a Heart Attack Nov. 27, 1931 at Independence, Montgomery County, KS, buried Mount Hope Cemetery, Independence, KS[6]. He married Mira Creek, Valley County, NE[7] April 1, 1885 MARY CAROLINE OLLIS "Callie" daughter James Armstrong and Martha [Brown] Ollis[8] born Appanoose, Hancock County, IL Nov. 20, 1861, died Dec. 5, 1952 Kansas City, MO[9] buried Mount Hope Cemetery, Independence, KS. The marriage was performed by Rev. C. Slack at Callie's home, and witnesses were James Hastings[10] and Milla C. Brown.[11]

About 1880 the Wyoming Post Herald published a letter written by George Washington Stancliff, which chronicled the travels of George and two of his friends, as they drove a wagon to the "Western Country". About 1878 George set out from Wyoming, Stark County, IL to explore the country that lay to the west of his home. Accompanied by J. Drinnin and M. Cornwell, George drove, first to Galesburg, IL, across the Mississippi River at Burlington, and thence across Iowa. He remarked upon the change in landscape and felt that the southwestern portion of Iowa must be "the garden spot of Iowa". They entered Nebraska and spent some time in Lincoln before going south to Hastings. George said of Nebraska "Of all the countries I ever have seen, this is one of the most beautiful". They traveled south into northern Kansas, visiting for some time in Cawker City, Mitchell County, KS. George described knowledgeably and in detail the geological composition, soil, and timber found in northern Kansas. He was impressed by the sod houses of the Kansas settlers, the good crops and the unlimited opportunities available in the area. Making note of the shortage of skilled workmen, he remarked that "I am fully persuaded that the West is the place for Mechanics". George was such a mechanic and chose to move west. He applied for a 160 Acre homestead in Kansas[1] but did not remain there long enough to receive the title. He must have been impressed with the areas which he had visited, for he chose in later years to live in both Nebraska and in Kansas. It is not unlikely that his report of the merits of Iowa and Nebraska may have influenced several members of his family. His brothers, David and Stephen Stancliff, made their homes in Fairfield, Iowa for a time. His brother, William Perry Stancliff, moved to Tobias, Saline NE in 1879 and remained there the rest of his life.

Mary Caroline Ollis qualified for and received land in Valley County, NE under the Homestead Act in 1883. The Clerk of the Receivers' Office at Grand Island, NE issued Patent #1996 on Dec. 14, 1883 to Mary C. Ollis of Valley County, NE. For the sum of Two Hundred dollars Callie received a 160 acre quarter section of land described as "the South West Quarter of Section No. 10 in Township No. 18 North, of Range No. 14 West, containing 160 acres at $1.25 per acre."[2] The United States of America Patent was recorded at the General Land Office at Grand Island, Nebraska in Vol. 4, page 72 on Mar. 7, 1885. The following month George and Callie were married, and the month after that they sold the land. On May 8, 1885 Mary C. Stancliff, formerly Mary C. Ollis and her husband George W. Stancliff sold for the sum of $400.00 to Thomas J. Nethery the land that she had received under the homestead act[3].

After his marriage George lived for some time at North Loup, Valley County, NE. In January 1890 the family moved to Grand Island, Hall County, NE where George operated a feed mill and sold windmills for the "Duplex Manufacturing Company"[4].

David Marion Stancliff, brother of George, was also living in NE about this time and he too, was a windmill salesman. In Feb. 1903 George and brother David moved their families to El Campo, Wharton County, TX.[5] The brothers drilled irrigation wells for the rice fields and George, the Mechanic and the Inventor, began work on an Oil Well Screen. He applied for a patent on the screen May 27, 1904 and the patent was granted Oct. 18, 1904[6]. In 1906 George moved his family to Houston, Harris County, TX where the Stancliff Well Screen Manufacturing Company was organized and production began on the Well Screen. After a disagreement with partner, Howard Smith, George sold his share to Smith for $21,500 in 1908, a substantial sum of money at that date. The Smith Company of Houston, TX still markets the "Stancliff Screen".

The family once again moved back to Nebraska, and George invested in orchard land in Lincoln, NE, but after problems clearing title on that property, he decided to move on. The family moved to Pecos, Reeves County, TX in 1909, and on June 1, 1909 George W. Stancliff for the sum of $7,360, purchased from O. W. Lignon of Midland, Texas 640 Acres of land situated in Reeves County, Texas described: Survey No.225, Block No.13, located by virtue of Certificate 7/1315, issued to the Houston and Great Northern Railroad Company and patented by the State of Texas, Patent No. 269, Vol.2 dated January 5, 1874.[7] Soon after the purchase the family moved to Saragosa, Reeves County, TX. The entire family was in Pecos in 1910[8], but soon after that time the older sons went off to college leaving George and young son, Glenn, to operate the farm. George, suffered with asthma, and hoped that the climate of this area would be beneficial for his health. The land was good but dry, so using his knowledge of drilling, George sank wells to irrigate the land, and successfully raised cantaloupes. Shipping problems and production costs, however, prevented the venture from being an economic success. Today the "Pecos Cantaloupes" grown in this area are considered to be some of the finest in the Nation. George was ahead of his time, and while the idea was good the time was not. Life in West Texas was not easy, the family was forced to endure hardship, and George even survived a rattlesnake bite. Partially incapacitated with his asthma, George moved one last time, to Independence, KS about 1922 where his son, Arthur, was then living. He continued his hobby of Bee-Keeping just as his father had done before him, and even in his last years George was working on the invention of a machine for installing starter combs in bee hives.

After his death "Callie" [Ollis] Stancliff went to live with her daughter Eva Stancliff in Kansas City, MO. In the last years, as fading health and waning eyesight overtook her, she lived for a time with son, Glenn Stancliff and his family, in Iola, KS. All who have spoken of Callie, have used the word "Gentle" to describe her.

(392) STEPHEN MILES[7] STANCLIFF "Miles" (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Stark County, IL, May 19, 1856, died February 9, 1930 at his home in Richmond Hill, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY but is buried in Philadelphia, PA where he lived for many years and where his daughter, Bernice, was buried. He married 1. Wyoming, IL by Rev. William Walters Feb. 21, 1878 MARTHA JORDAN daughter John and Frances E. [McGraw] Jordan born Stark County, IL 1860. The witnesses to the ceremony were Charles McCorkle and Eliza Ennis[2]. The McGraws were from Ross Co. Ohio. Martha died Valley Township, Stark County, IL Feb. 5, 1881 Æ 21 years 20 days, shortly after the birth of her first child[3]. She is buried near her parents in the Wyoming Cemetery along with the infant girl, Eva May. Stephen Miles Stancliff married 2. at the home of Thomas Wrigley in Rosefield Township near Trivoli, Peoria Co. IL. Feb. 15, 1882, by Rev. Harry A. Peters to HANNAH MAE STANDEVEN of Trivoli, and the ceremony was witnessed by James A. and Esther [Standeven] Stancliff[4], who had been married just the week before. Hannah was the daughter of Abraham and Eliza [Van Zile] Standeven, born Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL Dec. 26, 1860[5]. Hannah died as a result of Pneumonia at Dallas, TX, Feb. 10, 1946, and is buried at Laureland Cemetery, Dallas, Dallas County, TX[6].

In 1880 Stephen Miles Stancliff was a Farmer living Valley Township, Stark County IL. By 1887 he was in the Ice business in Fairfield, Iowa[7]. A Photograph taken at Fairfield, Iowa shows two large Ice Wagons, each drawn by a two horse team. The wagons have emblazoned on their sides "STANCLIFF BROS." and "CRYSTAL LAKE ICE". Stephen Miles Stancliff stands by one wagon, and Steven's brother David Marion Stancliff stands in the other one.

The newspaper account of his parents' 50th Anniversary Celebration in 1897, indicates "Miles" was living Hagerstown, MD, at that date, as was brother, Herman. By 1900 he was living at 5564 Girard Ave. Philadelphia, PA. where he was employed by the New York Life Insurance Co. In 1910 his mother, Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff was visiting or living with him as well as his daughter, Hazel, and her husband, James D. Whitaker[8]. About 1920 he moved, to Richmond Hill, Long Island, NY where he was in charge of a branch office of the Insurance Co. About this same time he suffered from blood poisoning which caused him to lose the lower portion of one leg and part of the foot on the other leg. Despite this physical set back, he continued to work and lead an active life. He was said to be cheerful, even jolly in his relationships with others[9].

After Miles' death on Long Island, NY in 1930, Hannah Mae [Standeven] Stancliff moved to Evanston, IL to be with her daughter, Hazel M. Beck, and the Beck family. About 1940 they all moved to Dallas, Dallas County, TX and soon after that date Jack W. Beck died. Hazel remained in Dallas until after her mother's death and then moved to nearby Richardson, TX[10].

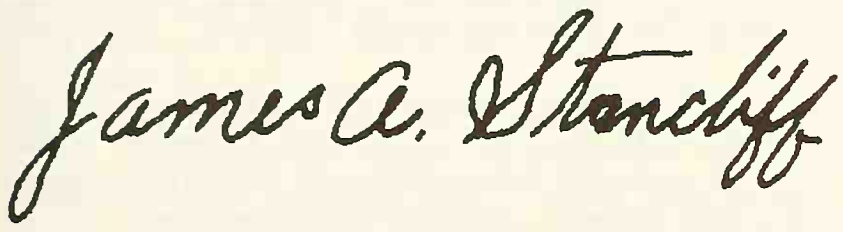
(393) JAMES ALLEN[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])



Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff, born Wyoming, Essex Township, Stark County, IL, June 10, 1858 died Houston, Harris County TX, Sept. 1, 1927 as a result of Heat Stroke$_4$. He married at Trivoli, Peoria County, IL, by Rev. D. H. Gray on Feb. 9, 1882, ESTHER STANDEVEN of Trivoli, Peoria County, IL, and the ceremony was witnessed by Thomas Wrigley and Perry Stancliff$_5$. She was a daughter of Abraham and Eliza [Van Zile] Standeven born Bloomington, McLean County, IL Feb. 20, 1857_6, died Houston, Harris County, TX, Aug. 10, 1925 as the result of a Stroke$_7$. Both James Allen and Esther Stancliff were buried at Hollywood Cemetery, Houston, TX.

In 1900 they were living in Kewanee, Henry County, IL next door to brother, Daniel Webster Stancliff and his wife, Sarah [Standeven] Stancliff$_8$. Living in the household of Daniel Stancliff that date was their common "father-in-law", Abraham Standeven. James Allen Stancliff was a merchant while living in Kewanee. Soon after 1900 the family moved to Texas and James settled in Houston, Harris County, TX where they lived in a home on Fairview Avenue, Houston in 1910$_9$. James was a wholesale poultry merchant. By 1915 James and Esther were living on a farm in Sweeny, Brazoria County, TX. Ruby Mae [Stancliff] Lee remembers that about this date her father, Lewis Albert Stancliff, took his family to live on "Uncle Jimmy's farm" at Sweeny, Brazoria County, TX. It is possible that this was a temporary move on the part of James and Esther, to help their widowed daughter-in-law, Mabel [Morrison] Stancliff, and their grandson, Lester. They all lived together on the farm. Their son, Raymond, who had been living Brazoria County in 1910, may have been the one who originally purchased the farm. James Allen and Esther [Standeven] Stancliff returned to the City by 1920 bringing Mabel and Lester with them$_{10}$. At the time of Esther's death in 1925, they still occupied the house at 1320 Fairview Avenue, Houston, TX. James remained at that address for the next two years after his wife died, until his own death in 1927.

Hagerstown, Washington County, MD Aug. 30, 1866, died at her home in El Campo, Wharton County, TX as the result of a stroke June 28, 1938, buried El Campo, O.D.H.S. Cemetery[1]. As she had requested, Annie [Niebert] Stancliff was buried in a white dress, made for her by daughter-in-law, Florence May [Powars] Stancliff.

At the time of this couple's marriage, Annie was living in Kansas City, MO, and David was in business with his brother, Stephen Miles Stancliff, in Fairfield, Jefferson County, IA. Their marriage was witnessed by Annie's brother Jacob Philip Niebert and his wife. They returned briefly to Wyoming where a wedding reception was held at the home of Perry and Martha Stancliff and then went on to Fairfield, IA.

There is a photograph taken in Fairfield, IA of Miles and David Stancliff and their wagons[2], and emblazoned across the sides of these wagons was "STANCLIFF BROS." and "CRYSTAL LAKE ICE COMPANY". David returned to live in Wyoming, IL for a time. Fay Le Roy, eldest child of this couple was born there in 1889. The family was living Broken Bow, Custer County, NE between 1891 and 1894, where David was a Windmill Salesman. During that time his brother George Washington Stancliff, also a windmill salesman, was living about eighty miles South West of Broken Bow, at Grand Island, Hall County, NE. David's family again returned to Stark County, IL by 1896. They lived in Essex Township where David was engaged in farming[3]. They moved one last time to El Campo, Wharton County, Texas in February 1903.

At that time, the three oldest boys, Fay, Perry and Charlie, accompanied the family furniture and belongings on the railroad car as it was shipped to their new home, bringing with them enough food for the trip[4]. At El Campo David joined his brother George, who had gone to the area earlier and established a Machine Shop. He worked for a time with George, and had a part interest in the Machine Shop. The Stancliff men had a reputation for being wizards in mechanics and David was no exception.

By 1906 David established a water well drilling company. These wells were needed to irrigate the rice crop. In 1910 David was listed as a driller. With the exception of Fay who had married and established his own home, his children were all living in his household at that date and his son-in-law Ernest Barron was also with the family[5]. David drilled water wells in the El Campo area, until he was injured in 1916. A Steam Engine driven by a man who had too much to drink, backed over him, crushing his legs. No longer able to withstand the physical demands of the drilling business, David was forced to find a less strenuous line of work.

He went into business dealing in Fruit, Produce, Poultry and Eggs. About 1919 he organized and ran a "Cream Station", where cream was collected from local farmers, tested and shipped to Houston to be churned into butter. After his death in 1921, Annie continued to operate the Cream Station[6].

David Marion Stancliff's son, Frederick J. Stancliff, remembers his father as easy going, certainly not as serious as some of his brothers. He could be stern about the chores and all the children were expected to do their share. Annie was a strong but gentle woman, having the finest and most necessary attributes of the pioneer women of her day, the will to endure and survive.

The house in El Campo was noteworthy. It was one of the first prefabricated homes sold by Sears and Roebuck Company and assembled by the Stancliff family, as such it became almost a landmark in El Campo. The family belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

(395) MARY ETTA[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Daughter of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Twp, Stark County,IL Jun. 16, 1864, died Sept. 17, 1905 somewhere in Iowa. Her second husband, Mathew Duffy, brought her back to Wyoming and she is buried with his family, in St. Dominic Catholic Cemetery Wyoming, Stark County, IL[3]. She married 1. Wyoming, IL by Rev. D. G. Stauffer on Aug. 26, 1882, ALFRED NEELY of Peoria, Peoria County, IL[4] son of Nelson Neely born in West Virginia Dec. 13, 1860[5] or Nov. 12, 1859[6]. He died in North Dakota Feb. 25, 1896 as the result of a Railroad accident. He is buried Wyoming Cemetery with two young daughters of the couple. Mary [Stancliff] Neely married 2. about 1901 MATHEW DUFFY "Matt" son of Mathew and Ellen [____] Duffy, both of whom were born in Ireland. Matt was born Wyoming, Stark County, IL June 1873[7].

In 1884 Mary and Alfred Neely moved to Peoria, Peoria County, IL where Al hoped to establish himself as a Methodist Minister, but that did not come to pass. Perry said that in 1894 they had decided to move to West Virginia, and they may have lived there. At some date they moved to Hagerstown, Washington County, MD. Alfred Neely went to work for the Great Northern Railroad, and obtained employment as a Conductor on a run between Minnesota and North Dakota. He left his family in Hagerstown, MD perhaps living with Mary's brother, Herman. Alfred planned to send for his family in the spring, but on Dec. 7, 1895 he was injured in an accident. He and his two brakemen were in a caboose on a siding at Breckenridge, Wilkin County, MN when a switching engine crashed into them destroying the caboose and injuring the men. Alfred was taken back to the Sherman House Hotel at Larimore, Grand Forks County, ND where he had been living. He seemed to be recovering from his injuries when peritonitis set in and he died suddenly. Mary's brother, Herman, traveled to North Dakota to make arrangements, and then returned to Hagerstown, MD to accompany Mary Etta and her two children back to Wyoming, IL for the funeral of Alfred Neely[8].

In 1897 Mary Neely was listed as living in Kewanee, Henry County IL when she attended her parents' 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration. In 1900 widow Mary Neeley with children Emma and Herman Lyle was living in Kewanee, IL at 206 Lyle Street, across the street from her brothers Daniel and James Stancliff and their families[9]. She was working as a dress maker. Also in Kewanee Mathew Duffy was listed as a roomer in the household of Mary N. Brenton at 420 Main Street, Kewanee. His occupation was Jeweler and Engraver. Mary remained in the area until her marriage the following year to Matt Duffy and their subsequent move to Iowa.

(396) EMMA ELIZA[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Twp, Stark County IL Aug. 12, 1867, died Caldwell, Essex County, NJ Oct. 14, 1958, buried Caldwell, NJ, married Wyoming, IL Oct. 22, 1891 FREDERICK ALVIN INGRAM son of Henry and Jane [Wrigley] Ingram[2] born Dec. 12, 1868, died Wyoming, Stark County, IL Feb. 1900, buried Wyoming Cemetery. He has a stone shared with his daughter Hazel.

Their marriage was performed by Rev. William H. Jordan. Witnesses were the brides brother, James A. Stancliff, and his wife, Esther [Standeven] Stancliff. The wedding took place at 7:30 in the evening at the home of the bride with about eighty guests in attendance, and a banquet followed the ceremony[3].

Emma Ingram lived Caldwell, Essex County, NJ and must have moved to that area after the death of her husband. She and Frederick lived Wyoming, IL at time of her parents 50th Anniversary Celebration in 1897. They lived next door to Frederick's brother Jesse[4]. Vera [Ingram] Jacquin remembers the family also lived in Kewanee, Henry County, IL and that for a time her grandmother, Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff, lived with them.

Emma was very interested in her heritage and corresponded with many people on the Stancliff genealogy.

(397) CHARLES HERMAN[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Township, Stark County, IL Mar. 7, 1870, died Houston, TX Sept. 12, 1945, buried Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery[5], Houston, Harris County, TX, married Farmington, Fulton County IL Feb. 1, 1899 JENNIE WRIGLEY[6] daughter Thomas and Elizabeth [Standeven] Wrigley born Mar. 25, 1870 in Trivoli, IL, died Houston, Harris County, TX Nov. 1, 1967, buried Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery[7]. Witnesses to this marriage were Emma Eliza [Stancliff] Ingram and Eva M. Wrigley.

At the time of his parents' 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration in 1897, Charles Herman Stancliff lived in Hagerstown, Washington County, MD, as did brother Steven Miles Stancliff[8]. He had lived there for over a year and was a travelling salesman for a School Supply House. Sister Mary Etta [Stancliff] Neely was living in Hagerstown when her husband was killed in March 1896[9]. Charles Herman Stancliff accompanied Mary Etta and her children back to Wyoming, Stark County, IL for the funeral and then went to Larimore, ND to see to the return of Mr. Neely's body.

Charles Herman returned to Illinois by 1899, when he married Jennie Wrigley and evidently remained in Farmington, Fulton County, IL for several years, as their son Thomas was born there in 1903[1]. That same year the family moved to Houston, Harris County, TX. Death Certificates for both Charles Herman and Jennie, and the Obituary for Charles Herman all agree that they arrived in Houston in 1903. This was shortly after the time that brothers, George Washington and David Marion Stancliff moved to El Campo, TX.

The 1920 census shows the family living 801 Alabama Ave., Houston, TX and Jennies' father Thomas Wrigley, aged 80 was living in their household, as was son, Thomas[2]. Charles Herman was an Insurance Salesman and a Real Estate Agent. At the time of his death he owned the C. H. Stancliff Land Company[3]. He was a past president of the Houston Real Estate Board, and was very successful in his business. Charles Herman once gave advice to nephew, Frederick J. Stancliff "Go out of town far enough so that the land is not sold by the foot but by the acre, and then invest". He was active in St. Paul's Methodist Church.

(398) LEWIS ALBERT[7] STANCLIFF (Perry[6], David B.[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])

Son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff born Wyoming, Essex Twp, Stark County, IL Jan 16, 1872, died Dallas, Dallas County, TX Mar 9, 1941 as the result of an automobile accident, buried Laureland Cemetery, Dallas, TX, married Albany, Albany County, NY Feb 23, 1898 MARGARET ELIZA KARKER daughter of Isaac and Catherine [____] Karker born in Town of Seward, Schoharie County, NY May 17, 1866[4], died Dallas, Dallas County, TX July 23, 1955, buried Laureland Cemetery, Dallas, TX[5].

The wedding invitation[6] read as follows-

Mr and Mrs Charles E. Rockefeller request your presence at the marriage of their sister

Maggie E. Karker,

to

Albert Stancliff,

Wednesday, February 23rd, 1898, 12 o'clock

No. 117 Perry Street,

Albany N. Y.

Mrs. Charles E. Rockefeller was Catherine [Karker] Rockefeller "Kate". Maggie Karker had been living in Chillicothe, Peoria County, IL with another sister, when she met Lewis Albert Stancliff[7].

Albert Stancliff brought his bride to Wyoming, IL to live and shortly after this time, on April 9, 1898, Albert and his brother-in-law, Frederick Ingram, had an altercation with Harry W. Kerns who charged "Albert Stancliff and Fred Ingram did unlawfully attempt to strike, beat, abuse and ill treat the sd Harry W. Kerns". It seems that in the heat of an argument, Albert swung a piece of a fence at Harry Kerns and Frederick Ingram urged him on. Mr. Kerns forced them into Court but perhaps because he was not without blame himself, the Case was dismissed[8].

In 1900 Albert was living in the Village of Wyoming, IL at 305 South Seventh Street, and was engaged in the Transfer Business. His mother, Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff, was living in his household[9].

In 1905 this family was living in Lucerne, Putnam County, MO, by 1910 they had moved 50 miles to the North East and were living in Ottumwa, Wapello County, IA where Albert was a Lightning Rod Salesman. By 1911 the family had moved twenty miles northwest to Oskaloosa, Mahaska County, IA where Lewis Albert purchased a Confectionery Shop and made his own candy, and wife Margaret ran a Boarding House. In 1913 they were in Moline, Rock Island County, IL, and in 1915 Albert followed the other family members to the State of Texas.

They travelled to Sweeny, Brazoria County, TX and lived on the farm of James Allen Stancliff[1]. In 1917 they moved to the northeast portion of the state, to Longview, Gregg County, TX, where Lewis Albert engaged in the Produce Business. They were living in Longview, TX in 1920 on Fifth Street with daughters Ruby and Veva in the household[2].

About 1923 they moved to Dallas, Dallas County, TX and Albert remained in the produce business. They were living in Dallas in 1941 when Albert died. He was run down by a speeding automobile, while crossing a street and died as a result of the injuries. His brother, Charles Herman Stancliff believed that since he was already in poor health due to severe asthma, he was unable to survive the additional shock of the accident[3].

(489) ISADORA[7] STANCLIFFE "Dora" (Sanford L.[6], Chester Haven[5], Eldah[4], Josiah[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of Sanford Luther and Emma Julia [Fleming] Stancliff born KS 1878, died Hammond, Lake County, IN Apr. 6, 1900[1], married Polk County, IA Apr. 29, 1895 WILLIAM D. McQUISTON[2] son of William and Margareth [____] McQuiston born IN Sept. 1872. William and Margareth McQuiston came to this country in 1867.

Dora died young, and two months after her death, William McQuiston was living in the household of his parents in Hammond, Lake County, IN. William was an Engineer at a glue factory at that date. Dora's letters to her mother had mentioned the glue factory. He had two young children with him, and included in his parents household was not only a younger brother, Wilson McQuiston, but also a german girl named Minnie Dravance, termed "a servant"[3]. Minnie Dravance born Germany Dec. 1883, had come to this country at age 1 in 1884. Ten years later William married a woman named Minnie born at about the same time. They lived in the household of the senior William McQuiston, and in the Apr. 15, 1910 census it said that they had been married for 1/12, or one month[4]. The Lake County, IN Marriage Records indicate that William married on Apr. 12, 1910 Minnie Ulrich not Dravance, and the Birth records specifically cite her as mother of (unnamed) male children born Hammond, IN Mar. 11, 1915 and Sept. 13, 1917. The two families continued to share a home, but in 1920 it was William McQuiston Jr. who was the head of household and they lived in East Chicago. Minnie in this census had not been previously married, was age 25, born IL and both parents born Germany. William and Minnie had at this time four sons, but both Nellie and Earl were living elsewhere[5].

CHILDREN: William D. and Isadore [Stancliffe] McQuiston[6]

1. NELLIE McQUISTON born IL Mar. 1896. In an April 12, 1896 letter to her mother "Dora" mentions she wants to "get little Rosie a wrap". She may have been referring to a child afterwards known as Nellie. If not there was a child named Rosie in this family who was not mentioned again. Nell McQuiston married Lake County, IN Apr. 28, 1917 BODVUR LEHMANN[7]
2. EARL L. McQUISTON born IL Feb. 12, 1898 since a letter written Feb. 14, 1900 by Dora to her mother says "Earl was two years old last Monday Lincoln's Birthday"[8]. Earl L. McQuiston married MILDRED I. DARLING and had children born Hammond, Lake County, IN, Loraine O. McQuiston born Oct. 20, 1915, and Leonard E. McQuiston born May 18, 1917[9].

Edgar Price Apr. 22, 1915 BESSIE BAYLISS WINCHESTER[11] daughter of Savillian Augustus and Rachel Elizabeth [Clark] Winchester, born Garner Township, Pottawattamie County, IA July 5, 1886, died Lincoln, Lancaster County, NE Feb. 6, 1981, buried Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie County, IA.

Roy was a Commercial Artist. About 1901 one of his drawing books indicated that Roy spelled his name at that date with the FF ending, but at later dates he used the FFE ending. A copy of the wedding invitation in 1915 indicates that at that date Roy used an E at the end of his name. Today his descendants use the FFE ending.

Roy, his mother and brothers and sisters, moved before 1893[12] from Kansas to Des Moines, Polk County, IA. In 1900 Roy and his brothers were still living with their mother in Des Moines, but in 1910 they were all enumerated near Seattle, WA at Kent City, King County, WA, where they shared a house with Joseph R. and Maimie M. Lee and their family[13]. Roy, his mother, and brother, Frank, returned to Iowa before 1914. By 1920 Roy was married and had his own farm on Raymond

(527) JULIA MARIA[7] STANCLIFT[1] (Thomas[6], Thomas[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Daughter of Thomas J. and Esther A. [Stuart] Stanclift born while the family was in Martin, Allegan County, MI Dec. 31, 1849, died Berkeley, Alameda County, CA May 6, 1924, married 1. at home of her sister Annah [Stanclift] Seamon in Allegan, MI Oct. 17, 1881 GEORGE GOVE STEVENS son of Charles Chandler and Nancy Mathilda [Bowers] Stevens born Warwick, Franklin County, MA Feb. 7, 1853, died Indianapolis, Marion County, IN Jan. 20, 1894. She married 2. ca. 1896 ARTHUR H. SANBORN born MA about 1855 and a friend of her first husband, he died after 1906.

Julia was enumerated in the 1860_2 Census with her brother Andrew and his family. "At twelve, Julia Stanclift went to live with the Fletcher family". The arrangement was not altogether a happy one for Julia and after six years, at age eighteen, she left and embarked upon a career of a teacher. She traveled from one farm to the next, spending each night with a different family whose children she taught. Realizing that there was much more she wanted to learn of the teaching profession, Julia approached her Uncle Daniel D. Davis the guardian of her father's estate. "She badgered him into giving her one thousand dollars so that she could go to the State Normal School at Ipsilanti, from which she graduated."

Julia was with sister, Annah Seamon's family in 1870_3 listed as a teacher at that time. Julia then went south to Indianapolis as the schools there were said to be very good. She lived in a Boarding house owned by a Mrs. Way and there met another boarder named George Stevens. George had come to Indianapolis from Medford, MA to work in a branch of his father's business, dealing in leathers and hides. It was the Allerdice and Stevens Co.

In 1880 Julia was the head of the training department of the Normal School in River Falls, WI. The following year she married George Stevens in Michigan and returned to Indianapolis, IN to live. Her daughter used the wonderful description "She was not a good housekeeper but a good home maker". The family was active in cultural activities and in the Baptist Church. While in George's hometown, Medford, MA their first child died and is buried there. Only ten years later and at age forty her husband, George, died of Typhoid fever.

About two years after his death Julia married a childhood friend of her husband who was also from the Boston area and had been a frequent visitor in the family's Indianapolis home. Arthur H. Sanborn lived in California after leaving Massachusetts. He was a civil engineer and had been part of a surveying team that laid out a railroad through Yellowstone Park. He had seen the final defeat of the Indians and could tell of shooting a wild buffalo. He had managed a cattle ranch in Montana that had belonged to Charles Chandler Stevens, Julia's father in law, and was part of his leather and hide business. Mr. Sanborn introduced Julia and her children to the wonders of California and took them there to live in San Francisco and Berkeley where Julia died in 1924.

813-11. LUCY STANCLIFF born 1888 and living in 1920 with her mother next door to Leonard above.[6]

(532) CHARLOTTE or MORILLA[7] STANCLIFT (Alpheus[6], Martin[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Daughter of Alpheus and Matilda [Whitney] Stanclift born PA 1843 or 1844. She is also called Marilda and after marriage Charlotte. Her family all seemed to change names from record to record. She married WILLIAM CHRISTY born PA 1824. They lived with her parents in 1870[7] and both William and her father, Alpheus, were farmers.

On Feb. 1, 1871 William Christy purchased from Charlotte's mother, Matilda [Whitney] Stanclift, the parcel of land in Beaver Township, Crawford County that Matilda had purchased from, or advanced mortgage money to, her son, Samuel Martin Stanclift in 1862[8], both Matilda and Alpheus signed the deed.

(533) SETH[7] STANCLIFT (Alpheus[6], Martin[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Alpheus and Matilda [Whitney] Stanclift born OH or PA 1846-1848[9], probably born while the family lived Monroe Township, Ashtabula County, OH Oct. 1848[10], died Conneaut Township, Erie County, PA Jan. 2, 1926[11], married 1864 ANGELINE WHITTAKER. She appeared in records also as "Evangeline" and as "Eva" and was born PA Sept. 1844. She is probably the daughter of Dr. Rodman Whittaker as she was listed on an 1880 land deed along with Whitaker siblings who were listed in Rodman Whitaker's household in 1870 Census. Angeline was listed as an heir in the distribution of land in Crawford County in the 1880 deed, there is no mention of the name of the original owner, but it would seem to be property of her father.

There is some question as to whether Myrtle Stancliff born 1874 is a daughter of Angeline or not. The 1880 census lists

(536) TIMOTHY M.[7] STANCLIFT (Silas[6], Martin[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Silas and Margaret [Beals] Stanclift born about 10 miles south of Erie City, Erie County, PA[4] Aug. 27, 1841[5], died Bixby, Tulsa County, OK Oct. 25, 1922 and was buried in Bixby, married at Beatrice, Gage County, NE by Judge Lamb 1873 ELIZABETH [HARRIS] WOODLAND, widow of John Woodland. Elizabeth was born OH 1847, died Bixby, Tulsa County, OK Apr. 28, 1913. She had married John Woodland of North English, Iowa County, IA in 1868 and he had died two years later in 1870. Elizabeth Woodland received a patent on land in the NW ¼ of Section 30, Township 6, Range 3, Saline County, NE in 1873. She and husband, Timothy M. Stanclift, sold that property in 1875[6]

Timothy may not have lived full time in his father's household, or may even have attended school away from home, as he says in Pension application that he lived summers between 1854 and 1857 on his father's farm in Fillmore County, MN. He says that in 1860 he was in Rossville, Allamakee County, IA living with Jerry Lease and William Henderson and occupied as a sawmill worker, worked in logging camps and trapped[7].

He seems to have regarded Wisconsin as his home state, for it was at Token Creek, Dane County, WI near the town of Madison that he enlisted in Company H. of the second Regiment of the Wisconsin Infantry on May 24, 1861 to fight in the Civil War. He was discharged at Madison, Dane County, WI on June 6, 1864 and may have been wounded while in the service as he cited in his pension application a "bullet wound in the right knee"

After the Civil War, Timothy states[8] that he "moved from Dane County, WI to Iowa in 1866 and to Nebraska in 1873", but in 1870 Timothy was enumerated near Pawnee City, Pawnee County, NE in the household of C. W. Reeves and in that same household were his niece and nephew, George and Eva Loomis, children of his sister Harriet. Timothy was listed as a Well Digger[9]. He further stated that he "moved from Nebraska to Texas in 1876 and finally in 1888 he moved to Indian Territory". By 1880 Timothy and Elizabeth were living Eastland County TX with their three oldest children[10] and Eav Loomis, daughter of Timothy's sister, Harriet, born MN 1867 was living with them. The "Oklahoma land rush" took place in April of 1889 and perhaps Timothy was a part of that event. He still lived within the Creek Nation, Western District, Indian Territory of Oklahoma as of Mar. 5, 1907, the year Oklahoma became a state. There was a Pat Stanclift born 1895 in NE living in Duprey Teaming Contractor Camp, Ranger City, Eastland County, TX in 1920[11], and he may be related to this family.

CHILDREN: Timothy and Elizabeth [Harris] Woodland Stanclift

5.Timothy's date of birth was an elusive detail and varied with each record. The August 27 was constant, but the year seldom the same. The 1850 IL Census record shows him to be aged 9 and listed before Harriet age 7.

BRIGGS daughter of Edwin and Harriet Hannette [____] Briggs of Waterford Township, PA. She was born NY 1848, died before 1900.

In the 1870 Census Lewis was living with his parents in Mansfield, Freeborn County, MN and Laura was with her family in Waterford, PA. After their marriage they moved to Nebraska. In 1880 they are found in Spring Green Precinct, Furnas County, NE$_6$. By the 1900 Census Lewis was listed as a widower and living with his three children and the orphaned son of his twin brother in Roseburg, Douglas County, OR$_7$. From the birth states of his children it seems that he lived in Nebraska shortly after his marriage in 1870 and until at least the mid 1880s.

1856[1], died Lawrence, Douglas County, KS Aug. 27, 1916, buried Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence, Douglas County, KS.

John Henry married Bell Clayton probably in NE. Their son Charles was born the following year. They did not stay together. By 1880 Bell was living with her family in Nemeha County, Nebraska and called herself "single". She was also listed under the name Clayton and her five year old son, Charles Stanclift, had been adopted by her father, S. H. Clayton[2].

After his marriage to Hannah, they lived for a time in Iowa before moving to Kansas, as son Harry was born IA. In 1900 he and Hannah [Trembly] Stanclift were living Lawrence, Douglas County, KS and Hannah Matilda's son, James A. McConkey, born KS May 1875 was included in the household[3]. They were still there five years later, son Harry had a wife and home of his own in Lawrence, KS. James McConkey was still with them and called an invalid. Both John Henry and son, Harry, were painters[4]. In 1910 John Henry was termed a "painting and wall papering contractor" living 306 Elliot Street, Lawrence, KS. Their son, Earl Stanclift, was single and still living at home as was stepson James McConkey[5], and Harry Stanclift and family, on this date, lived next door. By 1920 Harry had moved to Kansas City and John Henry, now a widower, lived in his household[6].

(547) MARTIN GLYNES[7] STANCLIFT (Ezra[6], David[5], Comfort[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

Son of Ezra and Minerva [Bacon] Stanclift born Crawford County, OH Aug. 16, 1843, died Montgomery, Monroe County, AL Nov. 28, 1909, buried Toledo, OH, married Bridgewater, Washtenaw County, MI by Rev. Hiram Elmer on Sept. 20, 1865 PHILINDA ELIZA KING[7] daughter of Rufus Swan and Mary [Nichols] King of Clinton, Lenawee County, MI born MI 1841, died Jun. 1, 1900.

Martin was a resident of Macon, Lenawee County, MI when he enlisted in the service during the Civil War[8]. Martin served three years in Company E. of the 4th Michigan Cavalry during the Civil War. He enlisted at Macon, Lenawee County, MI August 9, 1862 and mustered at Bridgewater, Washtenaw County, MI on Aug. 28, 1862 and discharged as a corporal at Nashville, TN Jul. 1, 1865. He spent some of that time in the Hospital in Nashville, TN suffering from camp dysentery. During the time in the hospital he was appointed assistant nurse. He wrote home suggesting foods that would help him and hoped the neighbors would send food too so that he could give it to the sick soldiers on his ward, he particularly requested cheese and preserves. He begged his family to rewrite any letters that they had sent over a two month period, he had not received mail in that time, feared the letters were lost and really wanted to hear from his family.

After he returned to Lake Ridge, Lenawee County, MI he purchased from "Cass" Montonye, his Aunt Sarah's husband, a one half interest in a shingle factory. The other half interest was owned by his uncle, Ralph Bacon. He shortly thereafter sold his interest in the shingle factory to Ralph Bacon and moved to Agosta, Marion County, OH.

Martin appeared in a confusing and inaccurate 1870 census in Marion County, OH[9]. By 1880 the family was living in Lima, OH near Martin's parents[10]. They must have moved to an area near Toledo, Lucas County, OH. An individual who is probably Philinda Eliza [King] Stanclift is found in the 1900 Ohio Census living 572 W. Washington Street, Toledo, OH in the household of Charles F. Holden and listed as his "father-in-law", Charles' wife at that time does not seem to be a daughter of Martin and Philinde[1]. The census was taken on June 1, 1900, which is the very day Philinde Stancliff died, and may be an explanation for the confused information. Martin was not enumerated but part of the record may apply to him and was mistakenly transcribed. Martin's pension records state Philinde had been an invalid since 1896 and gives the exact date of her death. The same records indicate Martin died in Montgomery, AL while boarding in the home of Flora Heller after an illness of 10 days, he was buried in Toledo, Lucas County, OH in 1909.

On Nov. 18, 1896 at age 53, Martin was described on pension documents as being 5ft. 5½in. tall, 150 pounds, sandy complexion, blue eyes and brown hair.

(565) FRANKLIN E.[7] STANCLIFT (Amasa[6], Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Amasa and Melinda [____] Stanclift born Erie County, PA Jun. 6, 1850[1], died Allegan County, MI Mar. 20, 1885, married JENNIE LIND FRITTS, daughter of William H.[2] and Hannah [Leland] Fritts born Erie County, PA Aug. 4, 1853, died Allegan County, MI Mar. 17, 1937.

The year following his father's death, Franklin was termed "a minor over 14 years of age" on Sept. 20, 1866 when George Fritts was made his guardian in Erie County, PA[3]. His mother was still living and this was probably a guardianship for the purpose of protecting Franklin's interests in the sale of property from his father's estate. The sale of land from Amasa's estate by Malinda Stanclift was registered on Oct. 18, 1866[4].

Franklin and Jennie moved to Michigan. In 1872, when their son was born, they were living Fowlerville, Livingston County, MI. In 1880 they were living Williamston, Wheatfield Township, Ingham County, MI where Franklin was working as a cooper[5]. The family next moved to Allegan County, Michigan.

After Frank's death Jennie [Fritts] Stancliff married 2. Hiram Ralston and married 3. in 1894 Seymour Severens as a second wife. Jennie and her son, Fred Stanclift, were living in the Seymore Severens household in the 1910 Census[6] and Fred was married to Seymore's daughter, Elva. Seymore Severens was born VT, and his father, Franklin, was born VT. Next door to Seymore Severens in 1910 is Frank J. Severens born 1871 in Minnesota, and not far away is Charles Severens born Minnesota in 1873. They are possibly children of Seymore Severens by his previous marriage. In 1920 Jennie, once more a widow, was living with her son, Fred, and his family in Clyde Township, Allegan County, MI[7].

CHILDREN: Franklin and Jennie Lind [Fritts] Stancliff

Lucy McAllister, sister of Everett said "An important event happened in our family soon after Everett came to Merced. He met and married Eliza Huffman whose ranch adjoined his. We had given him up to be an old bachelor for life but Eliza said that the first time she saw him she said she was going to marry him, so there was no escape for him if he had wanted one which of course he did not"[3].

In 1900 Everett was the head of his family's household in Placer County, CA. His mother, and sisters Flora and Emily lived with him. Everett was engaged in farming[4]. By 1910 Everett lived Merced County, his mother had died but his two sisters remained in his household and now he also had a young wife[5]. He still lived in Merced, CA in 1920, and he and Eliza had three young children[6].

Everett died as a result of a tractor accident on the farm. After his death Eliza married again on Sunday, Feb. 10 or 17, 1952 to Elbert Ernest Greenough. Dr. William Stanclift of Manassas, VA remembers that the marriage took place after the Sunday service at the First Methodist Church, as he played the organ for his grandmother's wedding. Elbert Ernest Greenough was a widowed dairyman, born KS Oct. 15, 1883, died Merced, CA July 1972[7].

(641) REV. THOMAS ALDEN[7] STANCLIFFE (Joseph G.[6], Thomas[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])
Son of Joseph Garret and Sarah Jane [Miller] Stancliff born June 12, 1872 in Kansas, died Dec. 15, 1962 in Waterford, Erie County, PA, buried there in the Waterford Cemetery, married 1. 1900 MAUDE J. ____ born PA Mar. 1878, they probably divorced, married 2. GLADYS E. GARDNER daughter of Barton and Eliza [Briggs] Gardiner born Waterford, Erie County, PA Aug. 27, 1883, died Sunday, Jan. 7, 1973, buried Waterford Cemetery, Erie County, PA$_3$.

When Thomas was about aged two his father returned from Kansas to his home in Edinboro, Washington Township, Erie County, PA and it was here that Thomas spent his childhood. Thomas became a Presbyterian Minister and served churches in various parts of the country. Thomas and Maude J. lived 39 Fort Street, Ashtabula, Ashtabula County, OH in 1900$_4$. In 1910 they were living in Kalispell, Flathead County, MT with three children, and John was listed as a Presbyterian Minister$_5$. By 1919 they had moved to Seattle, WA and he was pastor of the Madrona Presbyterian Church, and in 1920 he was a pastor at the Central Presbyterian Church$_6$, both in Seattle, King County, WA. He and Maude were enumerated in the 1920 Census living at 3624 Whitman Street with three children$_7$. By 1922 the church he served in Seattle was called the Whitman Memorial Federated Church$_8$.

Thomas returned to Erie County, PA after 1923, but Maude remained in Seattle and was living there in 1940$_9$. Thomas was the minister of the Waterford Presbyterian Church, and the Sarah Hearn Memorial Presbyterian Church, Erie, PA. He and Gladys lived City of Erie at 3044 Glenwood Park at the time of his death in 1962$_{10}$.

The obituaries of Thomas and Gladys described dissimilar lists of survivors. The children listed are the children of his first wife Maude. Gladys had probably been previously married and was preceded in death by a daughter Mrs. Louise [____] Orton. Both of these Obituaries used the spelling STANCLIFFE for this family.

(689) GLENN WILLARD[8] STANCLIFF (George W.[7], Perry[6], David[5], Stanbrough P.[4], James[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of George Washington and Mary Caroline [Ollis] Stancliff,born Grand Island, Hall County, NE, Apr. 11, 1899, died Cincinnati, Hamilton County, OH, Feb. 19, 1985, buried Mount Hope Cemetery, Independence, Montgomery County, KS, married Parsons, Labette County, KS, Nov. 26, 1925 LAURA ARLENE ADAMSON, daughter Claude Clay and Addie Estelle [Hulet] Adamson born Wathena, Doniphan County, KS, July 30, 1902, died Cincinnati, Hamilton County, OH. Dec. 13, 1983 buried Mount Hope Cemetery, Independence, Montgomery County, KS.

As a youngster in Saragosa, Reeves County, TX, Glenn rode a horse to school. He was not able to attend school as regularly as he would have liked. His father needed his help on the farm and he worked with the irrigation system on the property tending the pumping station. The pumping station was some distance from the house. Barely a teenager, Glenn would ride out with his horse named Johnny, a rifle, a bedroll and some food to tend that station for days at a time. He told of feeling very much alone particularly when listening to the coyotes howl at night.

In Sept. 1916 he travelled to Des Moines, IA to go to High School and entered the University of Nebraska in 1921.

2.1913 Graduation Program from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Glenn was forced to postpone his University education, but the desire for a degree and a career as an Engineer was strong. In a time when young men seldom assumed the responsibility of a family, an education and a job all at the same time, Glenn did just that. He graduated from the University of Kansas in 1931 and went to work for the Kansas Power and Light Company. In 1937 he began working with the power plants at cement plants in Independence, KS and later in Waco, TX. By 1945 he was supervising the installation of power plants for major Utility Companies and for City Power Plants in Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma and Ohio.

Fred graduated from El Campo High School and set about earning a college education from Rice University at Houston, TX. In a feat of entrepreneurship Fred originated, produced and sold Football programs at the games, and the success of this project lead him to establish a soft-drink and peanut concession as well. His business did not prevent Fred from becoming one of the outstanding Athletes at Rice and the Captain of the track team. He was a finalist for the 1924 National Olympic trials held in Boston$_4$, but missed making the Olympic team that was to compete in Paris that year by the narrowest of margins. He became the secretary of the "R" Association, Rice's Letterman organization, and held the post for 58 years$_5$. Besides attaining a position in the Rice Athletic Hall of Fame, he went on to conduct a successful career in the Insurance business and in Real Estate. Florence, who was also a graduate of Rice, has for many years had a consuming interest in the Circus world.

In the Stancliff's Houston home, they have created a circus museum, and Florence has turned her musical skills to becoming an accomplished entertainer on the giant calliopes that embody the spirit of the circus$_6$. No doubt because of their combined interest in the Circus and Fred's activities in the Arabia Temple Shrine, the Shrine Clown unit was organized and Fred was made President of the Texas Shrine Clown Association. Ever dedicated to all things concerning Rice University, the Potter County, PA Mar. 7, 1879, died Allegany County, NY Dec. 28, 1970, buried Forest Hills Cemetery, Belmont, Allegany County, NY.

Charles was a Cheese Maker of Friendship, Allegany County, NY[1] at the time of their marriage. After their marriage they are said to have lived in that same area, within a ten mile diameter circle encompassing the towns of Friendship, Belmont and Cuba, all in Allegany County, NY. Charles' father David W. Dickens appeared in Friendship Township on the family farm in the 1920 Census. He was aged 75, a widower, and living with a single son named Arthur L. Dickens aged 45[2]. Charles and Josephine did not seem to be in the census in that town at that time. The boundary with Potter County, PA where Charles was born, is only fifteen miles south of these towns.

Thank you for your order for our book, "The Descendants of James Stancliff of Middletown, Connecticut and Allied Families".

We hope that you will be pleased with it and trust that it will help you learn of your Stancliff ancestry. We would like very much for you to advise of your relationship to the Stancliff Family.

Please advise your children, relatives and/or friends especially those who have surnames other than Stancliff who may be interested in "The Book" of its availability. Also please provide us with such names and addresses so that we can follow up.

If you will send us information to supplement and/or correct the information in the book with regard to yourself, your spouse, your children, your siblings and your parents, it will be appreciated. If there is enough interest, there may be opportunity for a supplemental volume. In each case, we would like to include the full name of the individual, their nickname (if any), birth, marriage, and death dates and places and burial places. In addition the names of the spouses parents and a short description of occupations, military service, and where living as the date of the input.

Please let us stay in touch.

Sincerely,

Robert C. and Sherry S. Stancliff

(1061) L. D.[9] STANCLIFF "Eldee"[1] (Frederick[8], Franklin[7], Amasa[6], Timothy[5], John[4], Comfort[3], James[2], James[1])

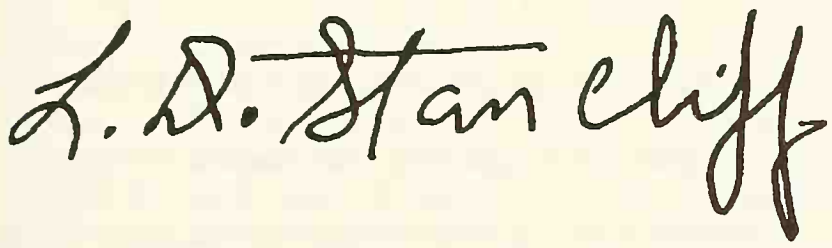

Son of Frederick Amasa and Elva Lena [Severens] Stancliff born July 6, 1905, died of cancer Aug. 28. 1965, married Feb. 7, 1926 BERTHA MAY WEESNER daughter of William Rufus and Sarah Ellen [Carnes] Weesner. They had a farm in Jackson County, MI and later moved to Paducah, McCracken County, KY.

This man had a problem with his name. His son, Leon, relates that the fact that he was given only initials and no first name caused constant inquiries about his "full name". He came to use the name "Eldee" to appease those who were not satisfied with initials only.

In the early years after his marriage L. D. owned and operated a Barber shop in Jackson, Jackson County, MI. Later he engaged in a farming enterprise with his father, Frederick, and brother, Seymour, during the depression years. They purchased a large farm at Cranberry Lake between Napolean and Jackson in Jackson County, MI. Frederick died soon after and the farm was sold.

About 1937 they moved to another farm near Napolean, Jackson County, MI where they lived until 1952 when they moved to yet another farm in Mayfield, Graves County, KY. About four years later they purchased and ran a country grocery store near Paducah, McCracken County, KY until the time of their deaths.

Their son Frank remembers his mother loved to crochet in what little spare time she had, and the family gathering together to sing songs from the church hymnal.

BACON FAMILY

(290) EZRA STANCLIFT married MINERVA BACON
(295) DAVID STANCLIFT married ELIZA BACON

RALPH[2] BACON[4] (Ralph[1])
Son of Ralph Bacon born in New York State in 1777, died near Bucyrus, Crawford County, OH June 15, 1849, married Painesville, Lake County, OH 1801 MARY JOURDAN who died Crawford County, OH Oct. 5, 1845. Mary's sister married Ralph's brother, Dexter.

Ralph's father settled first in Massachusetts and raised four sons, Calvin, Dexter, Ralph and William. He had come from England by way of the Isle of Man. The records of his father are sketchy, and there is no record of his mother's name.

At age eight Ralph was bound to a man named Heath at Boston. At age 17 he moved to Painesville, Lake County, OH. Ralph later moved a few miles to the west where he owned a farm in Mentor, Lake County, OH that became known as the James A. Garfield Farm. Several of Ralph's children were born at that farm. Though some of the buildings had been replaced by that time, it was on this land that James A. Garfield was living in 1880 when he accepted the nomination as President of the United States. The House is preserved to this day as a Museum and Historic site.

In 1820 Ralph Bacon moved to previously unsettled land near Bucyrus, Crawford County, OH. There were only two houses in Bucyrus when the family passed through on the way to their land located partly in Liberty Township and partly in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, OH, and described as being three miles east of Bucyrus.

CHILDREN: Ralph and Mary [Jourdan] Bacon

1. CHARLES BACON

Milwaukee, Milwaukee County, WI Oct. 1, 1846 HARRIET NEWELL RICE daughter of Ransom and Ruth [Burdett] Rice, married 2. Apr. 1866 the widow AMANDA OLDS WHEATON. After a visit to Lakeridge, Lenawee County, MI in 1861 to see his sister Minerva [Bacon] Stanclift, Ralph purchased land near the Ezra Stanclift farm. Shortly thereafter he purchased in partnership with Chauncey C. "Cass" Montonye, a half interest in a shingle factory which was moved from Ezra Stanclift's land to his land. Cass Montonye later sold his portion to Martin Glynes Stanclift when he returned from the Civil War. Ralph eventually bought out Martin's share of the factory. In 1867 he traded his farm in Ohio for a farm in Hillsdale County, MI.
10. DEXTER BACON born 3 miles east of Bucyrus, Crawford County, OH May 6, 1822, died there Apr. 8, 1892. He was bound to his brother Martin and after serving his apprenticeship and receiving his allotted $100.00, he left for Milwaukee, Milwaukee County, WI where he purchased land. He returned to Crawford County, OH to marry Apr. 25, 1844 REBECCA BONEBREAK daughter of Henry Bonebreak of Crawford County, OH. They returned to Wisconsin but later moved back to Crawford County, OH.

Joshua's family moved to Norfolk about 1759. A portion of the land that had originally belonged to Elias Balcom was signed over to a man named Nathan Lee by Comfort Stanclift as a gift in 1794, and this land was very shortly purchased from Nathan Lee by Joshua Moses[4].
8. JACOB BALCOM {twin} born while family was living Winchester, Litchfield County, CT
9. JOSEPH BALCOM {twin} born while family was living Winchester, Litchfield County, CT, he must have been handicapped in some manner as his care for life was specified in the land agreement between Elias Balcom and Comfort Stanclift.
10. ISAAC BALCOM probably belongs here, married Norfolk, Litchfield County, CT Dec. 9, 1790 ANNA BURR and lived next to Elias and Phebe [Foster] Balcom in Norfolk. This couple also lived Jefferson County, NY at the same time that Comfort Stanclift was there. Isaac became an M.D. after going to that area. "Dr. Isaac Balcom was Examined and Licensed at Watertown, Jefferson County, NY on June 4, 1810"[5]. Anna was baptized at the First Baptist Church of Malta, Jefferson County, NY (now Lorraine) on Jan. 14, 1807, the same year that Comfort Stanclift was appointed to a church committee[6].

BARBER FAMILY

(41) OLIVE STANCLIFT married WILLIAM BARBER

WILLIAM BARBER

Born Dec. 29, 1766, place and parents unknown, died Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Feb. 2, 1844[7], married OLIVE STANCLIFF and since she does not appear by her Probate Records to be the mother of William Barber's children, she must be supposed to be at least a second wife. Olive was the daughter of James and Mary [Lewis] Stancliff born South Britain Ecclesiastical Society of Southbury, CT in 1767, died Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY Dec.7, 1857.

A William Barber served during the Revolution and seemed to come from the area of Groton, CT. He came to the Scipio/Ledyard area from Granville, Washington County, NY. William Barber's will written Oct. 10, 1842 and the Probate records of that will indicate the following family. Considering the middle name of his eldest son, his wife may have been a member of the Hobby family.

CHILDREN: William and ____ [----] Barber

1. JAMES HOBBY BARBER
2. WILLIAM BARBER JR said to be in Upper Canada when William senior's estate was settled. He was in Lanark County, Ontario. His children mentioned as heirs were Ira Barber of Lake County, Ohio and Phebe Barber who married Victor Towsley and lived Smithfield, PA in 1842.
3. PHEBE BARBER married THOMAS CUTTING
4. LUCY BARBER widow of GIDEON KNAPP was living in Rochester, NY in 1842.
5. CLARISSA BARBER died by 1842, but had been married and had heirs. She married ____ WEED and had the following heirs of William Barber, Corydon Weed of Springport, Meritt Weed of Ledyard a minor in 1844, Lucy Ann Weed, a minor in 1844 living Bennington, Genesee County, NY, Charles Henry Weed, a minor in 1844 living Coussins, Livingston County, NY, Theodore Weed, a minor in 1844 and living Smithfield, PA perhaps in the family of Phebe Towsley. She may also have had daughters Caroline and Margaret who married men named Force.

1.Family of Christian Beam based upon research of Mary Renner of Tacoma, WA and Brett Berry of Oxford, KS.

2.Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index states a Christian Beam was born Allegheny County, PA Nov. 19, 1792. He may have been born Pittsburgh son of John Beam, but this statement needs proof for this specific individual.

3.Death date from information submitted to the International Genealogical Index by Charles Alexander Beam son of Thomas Nickall and Martha Ellen [Way] Beam. The information is in conflict with her tombstone which indicates she was born 1798. Greenbriar County, then in West Virginia is now part of Virginia.

4.OHIO LANDS, CHILLICOTHE LAND OFFICE, 1800-1829, by Marie Taylor Clark, 1984, page 29-30

5.On Mar. 14, 1829 J. Nickell purchased ½ of the 163.11 acre quarter section located in the North East part of the East half of Section 6 Range 17, Township 11 or Elk Township, now in Vinton County and about five miles North West of the Town of McArthur.

6.An LDS Group Sheet #8102301 submitted by Charles Alexander Beam indicates that Polly, Catherine, Isaiah, George, Sally Ann, Rebecca, and Sussanah were all born "near Toledo" in Lucas County, Ohio. The census records would seem to indicate that the family lived Jackson County, Ohio during the time period when the children were born. The birth and death dates for these children are identical with records in the bible of George Curry Beam.

BOUGHTON FAMILY

(34) ABIGAIL STANCLIFT'S daughter, CURRANCE, married JOHN BOUGHTON

JOHN BOUGHTON

Son of Timothy and Martha [Scott] Boughton born Poundridge, NY (located North West of Milford, CT) May 2, 1770, died Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Mar. 25, 1824, buried Scipio Baptist Church Yard, married 1. South Britain, Southbury, CT Feb. 1, 1793 CURRANCE GARRET or CURRANCE DOWNS, daughter of Abigail Stanclift, born South Britain, Southbury, CT Nov. 1, 1773, died Scipio, Cayuga County, NY May 3, 1810, the grave of Currance was in the yard at the Baptist Church of Scipio and was marked in 1890 with a marble tablet[5]. John Boughton married 2. ABIGAIL STILSON. Abigail was probably Abigail [Beardsley] Stilson, the widow of Zerah Stilson.

Currance was an illegitimate daughter of Abigail Stancliff and after Abigail Stanclift's marriage to Ebenezer Downs she took the name Downs. She was treated in Ebenezer Down's will as one of his own children.

John and Currance moved to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY in 1797 with a yoke of oxen pulling their wagon, the trip took twenty one days. They seemed to be in the first echelon of pioneers from the Woodbury and Southbury area to settle in Scipio, NY, and others in the family either accompanied them or followed soon after. John and Currance were instrumental in organizing the Baptist Church in Scipio in which her uncle, James Stancliff, and cousin William Stancliff were later deacons.

CHADWICK FAMILY

(5) SARAH STANCLIFT married NATHANIEL CHADWICK

THOMAS[1] CHADWICK[4]

Born about 1655 in England, died Lyme, CT Apr. 3, 1731, married Newbury, Essex County, MA Apr. 6, 1674 SARAH WOLCOTT daughter of John and Mary [Tharly] Wolcott.

The Chadwick family originated at Rochedale, Lancashire, England, which is located about 20 miles from Halifax, Yorkshire, England where the Stancliff and Tillotson[5] families first lived. It is probable that the immigrant Thomas Chadwick came from that area. He was in Newbury, Essex County, MA about 1672 and later at Watertown, Middlesex County, MA before moving to Lyme, CT sometime after 1695.

CHILDREN:Thomas and Sarah [Wolcott] Chadwick

1. SARAH CHADWICK born Newbury, Essex County, MA Mar. 16, 1673/4, died there Oct. 3, 1675, at birth she was listed as daughter of Sarah Wolcott. That Thomas was the father was established at the later 1687 baptism of other children at yet another church, which acknowledged his earlier "folly" for which Thomas had evidently given the church adequate satisfaction.
2. MARY CHADWICK born Newbury, Essex County, MA Mar. 6, 1675/6.
3. THOMAS CHADWICK born Watertown, Middlesex County, MA Sept. 1677, married about 1700 MARY BOOS, may have been Boice, or Bowes. He was in Dutchess County, NY in 1718

CHILSON FAMILY

(16) ABIGAIL STANCLIFT married JOHN CHILSON JR
(21) SIBBELL STANCLIFT married DANIEL CHILSON

JOHN[4] CHILSON$_6$ (John[3], John[2], Walsingham[1])
Son of John and Sarah [Jenks] Chilson born Lynn, Essex County, MA about 1675, died Conway, Franklin County, MA Dec. 15, 1774, married 1. Lynn, Essex County, MA Apr. 27, 1706 ELIZABETH JENKS$_7$ daughter of John and Sarah [Merriam] Jenks born Lynn, Essex County, MA Mar. 30, 1683, died Wallingford, New Haven County, CT Nov. 17, 1722$_8$, married 2. Wallingford, New Haven County, CT by Capt. Hamling Sept. 26, 1723 SARAH WETMORE.

John moved from Lynn, MA to Wallingford, CT by 1718, which is the earliest date in Wallingford Vital Records for his family. He moved again to Middletown, then Hartford County, now Middlesex County, CT between 1729 and 1732. Since every entry in the Middletown Vital Records under name Chilson involved members of the family of John Chilson Sr, it is almost certain that the husband of Sibbell Stanclift belonged to this family also. Daniel was probably born before the family moved to Wallingford, CT.
CHILDREN:John and Elizabeth [Jenks] Chilson

1. DANIEL CHILSON born probably in Lynn, MA before 1718, died Woodbury, CT before Dec. 2, 1760 when the Court ordered that his inventory be taken$_9$, married 1.Middletown, CT Oct. 4, 1745 SIBBELL STANCLIFT

DAVIS FAMILY I

(39) STANBROUGH PERIGRINE STANCLIFF married SIBBEL DAVIS

JACOB DAVIS JR (Jacob[4], Jabez[3], John[2], Dolar[1])

Son of Jacob Davis Sr, but it is not certain which of Jacob's wives was his mother, and no record of his exact birth date. His father, Jacob Davis Sr, married 1. Harwich, Barnstable County, MA 1730 KEZIAH CROSBY who died there Dec. 31, 1732_1 married 2. Eastham, Barnstable County, MA June 14, 1733 MARY ROGERS daughter of James and Sussanah [Tracy] Rogers born Eastham, MA Nov. 12, 1698, married 3. before 1747 ANN ____ and we know of her existence only through a gravestone cut by James Stanclift Jr for a child buried in Simsbury which reads "Silas Davis, born 1747 died 1754, son of Jacob and Ann". So this indicates that the Davis family was in Simsbury by 1754. No records of Jacob Senior in the Simsbury Vital Records$_2$, but on May 7, 1763, Jacob Davis and Jacob Davis Jr both signed their names as inhabitants of Simsbury to a petition by the inhabitants of Farmington, Windsor and Simsbury, CT to control the fishing at the mouth of the Windsor Ferry River (now called the Farmington River) James Stanclift also signed the petition$_3$.

Jacob Jr was born before 1742, since he was a freeman and inhabitant of Simsbury in 1763 and therefore at least age 21 at that time. He married Simsbury, CT Mar. 27, 1760, ELIZABETH LEWIS "of New Hartford", Litchfield County, CT$_4$ this date, daughter of Thomas and Mary [Rowley] Lewis baptized Westchester Parish, Colchester, New London County, CT in 1743_5. While Elizabeth was married in Simsbury, just as sister Mary Lewis had been, she was listed as "of New Hartford" this date. Her sister Mary [Lewis] Stanclift was living in the Wintonbury area of Simsbury and James Stanclift was cutting stones in New Hartford, Litchfield County, CT. Another sister, Esther [Lewis] Wright, wife of Earl Wright was also living New Hartford at this time. Elizabeth was probably living with one of those families at the time of her marriage.

The family belonged to St. Andrews church in Simsbury. St. Andrews was part of the Church of England and the Pastor, Roger Viets, was imprisoned as a Tory during the Revolutionary War. Jacob Davis Jr evidently did not adhere to the political views of his pastor for Jacob Davis Jr of Simsbury had his tax abated for Military Service in 1778_6. A Jacob Davis served in troops of the Connecticut Line. The National Archives confirms this fact but the records contain no real information on this man.

CHILDREN:Jacob Davis Jr and Elizabeth [Lewis] Davis born Simsbury$_7$, baptized St. Andrew's Church, Simsbury, CT$_8$

1. SILAS DAVIS born Jan. 31, 1761, baptized Nov. 30, 1769 and no doubt named for Jacob's brother who died in 1754. Silas married Simsbury 1788 MATILDA GRIFFEN daughter of Benoni Griffen of Simsbury born there Apr. 11, 1769_9
2. JACOB DAVIS (3rd) born Oct. 3, 1762, baptized Nov. 30, 1769 and probably the man who was listed as Jacob Davis 3rd, private, account of arms in 1777 listed in the Connecticut Archives Military Index XI:27, but the area from which he came was not specified.
3. SIBBEL DAVIS born Aug. 16, 1765_{10}, baptized Nov. 30, 1769, died Athens County, Ohio after 1819, married Hopmeadow, Simsbury May 5, 1784 her first cousin STANBROUGH PERIGRINE STANCLIFF of Woodbury,

FOX FAMILY

(24) COMFORT STANCLIFT married EUNICE [RANNEY] FOX

SAMUEL[6] FOX (Joseph[5], Richard[4], Thomas[3], Lord Henry[2], Sir Stephen[1])
Son of Joseph and Esther [Sparks] Fox of Glastonbury, CT and descended from Thomas Fox, the immigrant ancestor, from England. He was born 1731, according to his age cited in his father's probate records. On Aug. 5, 1746 Samuel aged 15 chose his uncle, Thomas Sparks, to be his guardian$_1$. Samuel married before 1751 EUNICE RANNEY daughter of John and Eunice [Wright] Ranney of Middletown Upper Houses, now Cromwell, Middlesex County, CT$_2$.

Samuel and Eunice Fox appeared in the East Middletown church records as a married couple during the year 1751. Samuel was "lost at sea" and died before December 2, 1756. His inventory was taken on that date. In the letter of Administration his widow, Eunice, and brother, Hosea Fox, posted the bond and Eunice was appointed Administratrix on his estate$_3$.

Her identity was established by the notes of Frank Farnsworth Starr$_4$ based upon a Middletown land record abstracted by Mr. Star as follows "March 14, 1760 Eunice Fox widow of Glastonbury to Obadiah Allen of Midt^n 155 a (acres) west 3 Mile Hill in Westermost range of land in Midt^n land formerly sold by John Ranney & Eunice his wife before she was 21 years old"$_5$. Three Mile Hill is located in Cromwell which was then called Middletown Upper Houses. Obadiah Allen was a cousin of Eunice [Ranney] Fox. Eunice [Ranney] Fox Stanclift had three children before her marriage to Comfort. These children probably lived in Comfort's household while the family lived in Chatham, but seemed to remain in Glastonbury when Comfort's family moved from the Middletown area to Litchfield County, CT.

CHILDREN: Samuel and Eunice [Ranney] Fox

1. ESTHER FOX born about 1751, married May 1, 1771 ICHABOD HOLLISTER son of Charles and Prudence [Francis] Hollister of Glastonbury, Ct$_6$ born about 1747. The couple had seven children before Ichabod died on May 11, 1791 in Eastbury, CT. Esther married 2. at the Second Church of Hartford, CT Jonathan Steele of Hartford$_7$.
2. EUNICE FOX born 1754, married as his second wife, her second cousin, SAMUEL BUCK of Wethersfield, CT son of Samuel and Sarah [House] Buck born Jun. 10, 1738, died Jan. 15, 1821 Æ 83. He had previously married Apr. 22, 1762 Elizabeth Blinn daughter of William and Sarah [____] Blinn who died Feb. 8, 1787. Samuel Buck's mother, Sarah, was the daughter of Eunice [Fox] House who in turn was the daughter of Richard and Beriah [Smith] Fox. Samuel Buck's children were by his first wife, Eunice had no children.
3. On May 1, 1818 at age 65, Amos Gore put up his farm as security for faithful performance of a Deed in which he agreed to turn over the 225 acres of land in Halifax Windham County, VT Lot #48 valued at $4,000.00 to sons, Ebenezer and John Gore, in return for the following conditions- Ebenezer and John will provide Assistance, housing and health care for their father, Amos, and mother, Lydia, for the remainder of their natural lives. In addition they will give their sister, BETSEY GORE, $100.00 on Jan. 1, 1820 and another $100.00 on Jan. 1, 1822 and provide for her so long as she remains unmarried. They will give their brother SAMUEL GORE $200.00 on June 18, 1823 when he reaches lawful age and they will provide for him until that time and provide work for him until age 21. At age 21 they will give him another $200.00. They will also give their sister Eunice $200.00 in October 1824 and provide for her the necessities of life as long as she remains unmarried[4]. Amos discharged the agreement in 1821 and made the same agreement with his son in law Eldah Stanclift[5]. He discharged that agreement less than a year later and eventually turned the land over to his youngest son, Samuel Gore in 1825[6].

Lydia Gore was head of her family in 1830. She was living that date between son, John Gore, and son-in-law, Tarbell Gates, and very near son, Ebenezer Gore, in Kirtland Township, Geauga County, OH[7].

CHILDREN: Amos and Lydia [Carpenter] Gore

1. BENJAMIN GORE said to have gone to Canada and amassed a great fortune. His brother Samuel went to Canada to find him but was not successful
2. AMY GORE born about 1783, died at home of son, Chester, in IA about 1857, married April 9, 1818[8] as his second wife ELDAH STANCLIFT son of Josiah Stanclift.
3. DESIRE GORE born May 20, 1785, married Halifax, Windham County, VT TARBELL GATES born 1780, died Kirtland, Geauga County, OH (now Lake County) May 8, 1832 Æ 52 and there is a stone for him in the Kirtland or Temple Cemetery[9], next to the Kirtland Temple west of Chillicothe Road. The Temple was built between 1833 and 1836 and many of those buried there are of the Mormon faith. It is not entirely clear whether those buried there before the Temple came into existence had any alliance with the Mormon Temple.

   While in Halifax, Windham County, VT Tarbell Gates gave a note for $10.00 to Samuel Gore on Sept. 8, 1822 and when the debt had not been satisfied by Feb. 12, 1824 a judgement was brought against him and the Sheriff seized enough bundles of flax to equal $15.00 to cover the debt and Court costs[10].

   Tarbell Gates lived next to the Gore families in Kirtland, Geauga County, OH in 1830 and seemed to have at that time five sons and three daughters.
4. + EBENEZER GORE born Halifax, Windham County, VT Dec. 22, 1792, died Lee County, IA May 17, 1850, married in Halifax by Rev. Thomas Worden Feb. 28, 1821 POLLY HAVEN[11] daughter of Elijah and Sally [Johnson] Haven born Halifax, Windham County, VT Aug. 3, 1794, died Jan. 16, 1872. 5. LYDIA GORE married at Halifax, Windham County, VT November 25, 1813 PETER ALDRICH[1] of Guilford, Windham County, VT. She was probably a second wife, as a Peter Aldrich married July 14, 1805 Sibbel Rogers and had children in Guilford; Sibbel born June 10, 1806 and Sophronia born Sept. 13, 1809 who married ELDAH STANCLIFT Jr. Lydia and Peter Aldrich had five children-see Appendix A:Aldrich. Land records in Halifax show that Peter Aldrich was living in the North East part of Halifax Township next to the Gore farm by 1828.
6. JOHN GORE born between 1790 and 1800[2], married Halifax, Windham County, VT Apr. 16, 1818 ANNA STANCLIFT[3] daughter of Eldah and Lydia [Ellsworth] Stanclift and as his sister, Amy, was married to Eldah Stanclift, his brother in law was now also his father in law. After John's death Anna married second a Mr. Sawyer.
7. BETSEY GORE born probably about Jan. 1, 1802, married Geauga County, OH by Rev. Thomas Stephenson Mar. 16, 1830 GILES ROBERTS[4].
8. SAMUEL GORE born probably about Jun. 18, 1805, died "on the Green Bay Bottoms", Lee County, IA in 1863 or 1864[5], married 1. Chardon, Geauga County, OH May 10, 1829 by Rev, Ignatius Sackett MARY BEEBE who being under age 18 required the consent of her father Isaac Bebee[6], they had a large family. He married 2. MRS SUSAN McGEE by whom he had son, Christopher. His oldest daughter, EUNICE GORE, married in Kirtland, OH by Orrin Gates, JP Oct. 24, 1852 her cousin Moses F. Gates son of Tarbell and Desire [Gore] Gates above. In 1860 Census he was listed as being aged 58 and born in OH, but he was probably born in Vermont. His wife, Susan, was aged 50 and born in VA. They lived Green Bay Township, Lee County, IA[7].
9. EUNICE GORE born probably Oct. 1806, married Kirtland, Geauga County, OH (now Lake County, OH) by Rev. John Chandler Apr. 19, 1830 ASA C. THOMPSON .
10. MARTHA GORE died at Kirtland Geauga County, OH and never married.
11. LUCINDA GORE referred to by Ebenezer Emory Gore as "Aunt Lucinda, sister of my father" in an 1877 letter, but not remembered in a letter written about 1905, and included in Theodore W. Gore's Manuscript.

EBENEZER[6] GORE (Amos[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], John[1])

Son of Amos and Lydia [Carpenter] Gore born Halifax, Windham County, VT Dec. 22, 1792, died Charleston, Lee County, IA May 17, 1850. His death was caused by an accident. He was married Halifax, Windham County, VT by the Rev. Thos. H. Wood Feb. 28, 1821 to POLLY HAVEN daughter of Elijah and Sally [Johnson] Haven born Halifax, Windham County, VT Aug. 3, 1797, died Morganville, Clay County, KS Jan. 16, 1872.

This family moved about 1826 to Kirtland, Geauga County, OH, now Kirtland, Lake County, OH where they took up government land in the Ohio Western Reserve lands. They lived there until about 1830 when the land was cleared and the farm well on the way to being established. They appeared in the 1830 Census living near his mother, Lydia Gore, his brother John, and brother-in-law Tarbell Gates. Ebenezer sold the farm near Kirtland and bought another "timber farm near Claridon". Claridon Township, Geauga County, OH is a Township in the north west part of present day Geauga County, OH and about ten miles distant from the first farm. Ebenezer's son Ebenezer Emory Gore claimed his father did this in order to give his twins the experience of clearing the timber. Ebenezer again sold the cleared land and removed about 1840 to Charleston, Lee County, IA, where he died in 1850.

In 1865 Polly [Haven] Gore was living in the household of her daughter, Lucy Atwood [Gore] Green, wife of Sylvanus Green.

CHILDREN: Ebenezer and Polly [Haven] Gore

1. POLLY SABRY GORE "Sabry" born Halifax, Windham County, VT Dec. 17, 1821, died Phoenix, Jackson County, OR May 9, 1900, married while her family lived Charleston, Lee County, IA on Oct. 5, 1840 EBENEZER EDWARD STANCLIFT "Eben" son of Eldah and Amy [Gore] Stanclift.
2. EBENEZER EMORY GORE "Emory E." (twin) born Halifax, Windham County, VT Jun. 20, 1824, died Lawrence, Douglas County, KS Apr. 7, 1905. He wrote a letter dated 1877 from Atchison, Atchison County, KS to Theodore W. Gore, author of the manuscript on the Gore Genealogy, saying he helped his father on the farm in Charleston, Lee County, IA until about 1846. He seemed to refer to himself as Emory Ebenezer and his identical twin brother as Emerson Elijah in some of his letters, in other letters the names were reversed.

   After leaving the farm, the twin brothers attended school at Fort Madison, Lee County, IA for a time, and entered into various business enterprises. Ebenezer's brother, Elijah Emerson, got married, and their father died. Members of this family started for Oregon on April 7, 1852, their wagon train which had started with thirty wagons grew to twice that many as others joined the train. The journey took five months to accomplish and they arrived at their destination in Oregon Sept. 7, 1852.

In Jacksonville[1], Jackson County, OR. Emerson took up a claim of land on Bear Creek to establish a farm for his family. The areas nearby were at that time mining communities and the prices for commodities reflected that circumstance. When the twins found that they would have to pay $100.00 per thousand feet of lumber, they solved their problem by building their own sawmill. In May 1860 Ebenezer Emory sold out his interest in the sawmill to his brother, Elijah Emerson, and returned "to the States". In his memoirs he says he was only planning to visit his mother and other relatives who had not been part of the wagon train trip west. Ebenezer decided to take a ship back rather than travel overland. He described the trip, the time at sea, crossing the isthmus of Panama on a sure footed donkey, the problems of carrying a large quantity of gold sewn into a buckskin jacket, and the fact that he suffered greatly from being seasick. He met and married Shelborn Falls, MA April 2, 1863 HARRIET AMANDA GRAVES "Hattie" daughter of Cyrus and Mary [Tucker] Graves of Waverly, Tioga County NY. She was born Delaware County, NY Jun. 18, 1834. Her mother, Mary Tucker had come from Halifax, Windham County, VT. E. E. Gore moved April 7th 1864 to Atchison, Atchison County, KS where they lived for 19 years before moving about twenty miles south to Lawrence, Douglas County, KS, where he and his wife lived in 1905. In that year Ebenezer Emory Gore wrote an account of the years between 1826 and 1858, and the Gore family moving westward[2].

There is a record in Geauga County, Oh for the marriage of Ebenezer Gore to Rebecca C. Cates of Claridon, Geauga County, OH on Jan. 6, 1841[3]. This may suggest an earlier marriage for Ebenezer at a young age.

3. ELIJAH EMERSON GORE "Emerson E." (twin) born Halifax, Windham County, VT Jun. 20, 1824, died Phoenix, Jackson County, OR Nov. 21, 1910, buried Phoenix Cemetery, married Charleston, Lee County, IA by J.M. Anderson JP Sept. 20, 1849[4] MRS. MARY ELIZABETH [GILMORE] ROSE, daughter of Robert and Nancy [Smith] Gilmore and widow of Lewis A. Rose who died Sept. 20, 1846. Mary Elizabeth [Gilmore] Rose Gore born Mercer County, PA Feb. 6, 1827, died Oct. 17, 1893 and is buried in the Phoenix Cemetery, Phoenix, Jackson County, OR. Mary had a son by her first marriage and she and Elijah had nine children.

   Elijah or Emerson E. Gore shared every aspect of his twin brother's life until they were about age 36. Ebenezer or Emory E. Gore left Oregon to visit relatives and did not return for over forty years and then it was to visit the relatives in Oregon. Ebenezer sold his portion of the lumber mill operation to Elijah before he left.

   Elijah moved between 1852 and 1860 from Jacksonville to Phoenix, Jackson County, OR.

4. SARAH ELIZA GORE "Eliza" born Oct. 3, 1828 in Ohio while the family was living Kirtland, Geauga County, OH, died April 12, 1876. She was issued a marriage license in Lee County, IA Mar. 22, 1845 and married while her family lived Charleston, Lee County, IA CHESTER HAVEN STANCLIFT.
5. ORRIN LUTHER GORE born Kirtland, Geauga County, OH April 28, 1831[5], died Elgin, Union County, OR Oct. 27, 1910, buried Elgin Cemetery, married Lee County, IA Sept. 15, 1853 ELLEN FLEMING daughter of Samuel and Harriet Louisa [Farnum] Fleming born IL Nov. 2, 1833.

   He moved with his family from Ohio to Iowa and then to Kansas. In 1880 he lived Colorado and finally settled by 1900 at Elgin, Union County, OR. Orrin served in Company G of the 13th Regiment of Kansas Infantry during the Civil War. His residence when he enlisted in 1862 was Irving, Marshall County, KS, and his occupation was a Miller[6]. He was living Morganville, Clay County, KS in 1877 next to Sylvanus Green below.
6. LUCY ATWOOD GORE born Aug. 16, 1837 married 1. JAMES LOCKWOOD married 2. SYLVANUS GREEN. They lived Morgantown or Morganville, Clay County, KS in 1877. In 1865 KS State Census her mother Polly [Haven] Gore, her daughter, Ada Lockwood, age 8 was in the family as well as Ernest Green then aged 1. Ernest Lincoln Green married Apr. 24, 1884, Uletta Stanclift, daughter Chester Haven and Sarah Eliza [Gore] Stanclift.

James Graham came to the Erie County, PA area in 1800[1] and was active in the Methodist Episcopal Church along with James' father, Russel Stancliff. James Graham was a Circuit Rider for the United Methodist Church. "Rev. John Graham, second preacher on the Erie Circuit, was admitted into full connection and ordained a deacon in 1814, and an elder in 1816. He continued to labor within the bounds of the Ohio Conference until 1825. When the Pittsburgh Conference was formed he became a member of that Conference where he labored until 1833, when he located."[2] The names of both men frequently appeared as those attending early Conference meetings[3]. The will of James Graham indicated that his land adjoined the land of James Stancliff.

LEWIS FAMILY I

(6) JAMES STANCLIFT JR married MARY LEWIS

THOMAS[4] LEWIS (Thomas[3], Thomas[2], George[1])
Son of Thomas and Sarah [Bassett] Lewis, born Middletown, Hartford County, CT Aug. 1698[6], died Middletown, CT sometime before Dec. 17, 1743, married Feb. 25 1720[7], at Colchester, Ct. MARY ROWLEY daughter of Shubael and Catherine [Crippin] Rowley[8] born about 1700[9].

Thomas Lewis was said to be "one of original proprietors" of Colchester. If a Thomas Lewis was an original Proprietor of Colchester, it would have to be Thomas Lewis[3] father of this man, and the rights of that Proprietor status would have been passed down to his heirs. I argue only with the "Original" as Thomas Lewis[4] was 2 years old when Colchester was formed and the "Original" Proprietors organized. That this man was a proprietor, or at least a landowner of Colchester is substantiated by two land purchases within Colchester, but not until 1724.

Thomas Lewis received land in Colchester on June 3, 1724 from his brother in law, Jabez Rowley[10], by Warranty Deed. He purchased land from the "Town of Colchester" on Aug. 14, 1724, land not yet laid out, and to be surveyed[11].

Probate records were generally placed in the area where the deceased owned property. While Thomas may have owned land in Colchester as well as Middletown at the time of his death, the piece of property ordered by the Court to be sold to satisfy his debts was located within the bounds of Middletown. Thomas had as one of his assets a piece of land described as, being in the Three Mile Division of land on the East side of the Connecticut River in sd Middletown being the 38th lottment of sd division containing 35 and ½ acres and 30 rods of land. The Three Mile Division in East Middletown was land located at the site of the present community of New Hampton.

Thomas and his family seemed to have been cared for in Middletown during an illness before his death in that place. His probate records list him as being "of Middletown". Elnathan Rowley of Colchester, brother of Mary [Rowley] Lewis, was granted a letter of Administration on his Estate on Dec. 17, 1743. His probate records indicate he owed money to a large number of Middletown residents as well as people from Colchester and East Haddam.

He owed money to among others, his brother Zebulon Lewis, who lived at Haddam, and to a man who was probably his cousin, John Percivall, who lived East Haddam. He had borrowed a great deal of money by note from a great many people. He seemed to have suffered a lengthy illness and to have sustained major Doctors bills as well as a substantial debt to the Town of Middletown for taking care of him and his family during his illness. John Bevin Jr charged the Estate for making Three coffins. If there was one for Thomas and one for Shubael, who was the third coffin for? There was no mention of charges for a Tombstone, and the graves were dug by John Swa??, unfortunately it is too difficult to read his name and therefore identify the man and the area in which he might have dug those graves.

The fact that both Shubael Lewis and his father, Thomas Lewis, are together in the probate records probably means that one was the Administrator on the other ones estate at the time he died. When Elnathan Rowley, was appointed Administrator on the Estate it was for both men.

Births of all but last two children listed in Colchester Records[1]. The last three children were all baptized together in the second Congregational Church of Colchester, CT in area encompassed by the Westchester Ecclesiastical Society. They were baptized at the same time and only a few months before the death of Thomas.

Westchester was organized as separate Society in 1728. Judah Lewis, son of Benjamin and the first cousin of Thomas was the pastor of this church from it's inception until his death in 1739. Family also said to have lived "Machemoodus" which was name given in earliest conveyances of land in what is now East Haddam, but I have not found any records for this family in East Haddam.

LEWIS FAMILY II

(89) HANNAH [STANCLIFT] BOOTH married EZEKIEL LEWIS JR

EZEKIEL[4] LEWIS (Nathaniel[3], William[2], William[1])
Son of Nathaniel and Abigail [Ashley] Lewis born Farmington, Hartford County, CT Nov. 19, 1718, died Dec. 27, 1757_1. married 1. July 27, 1747 in Farmington SARAH WAIT$_2$ of Hatfield$_3$, Hampshire County, MA daughter of Mary [____] Wait. She died Farmington Nov. 9, 1752_4, married 2. widow ANNA [JUDD] MOODY PORTER daughter of Samuel and Ann [Hart] Judd and widow of Ebenezer Moody and of David Porter$_5$.

In July 1760 "Ezekiel Lewis of Woodbury" served with William Judd as executors on the estate of Ezekiel Lewis "of New Hartford", but when Ezekiel wrote that will in 1755 he was still "of Farmington"$_6$. He died Dec. 27, 1757_7.

His will left all that property that had belonged to his first wife, Sarah Wait, to Sarah's mother, Mary Wait of Hatfield. While he mentioned all of his living siblings and even Noadiah who was deceased, he never alluded to his two sons. They must have received all of their portion of his estate before the will, or at the time of his second marriage, or they were for some reason completely disinherited. He appointed his brother Elisha Lewis to be Executor on his will, and signed the will Ezekiel Lewis Senr. Elisha either relinquished the duty of Executor or was not able to serve. The assignment then fell to Ezekiel Lewis Jr.

MILES FAMILY

(87) DAVID B. STANCLIFF married AMY MILES

NOAH MILES

Born about 1750, died Athens County, OH 1822, married RHODA WILCOX daughter of Daniel and Ann [Rogers] Wilcox "Annie" of Genesee, NY.

Noah served during the Revolutionary War, enlisting in Col. Abraham Brinkerhoff's Regiment of Minute Men of Dutchess County, New York Militia.

He appeared in 1790 Census living Pittstown, Albany County, NY in an area that later became Rensselaer County, NY. The Loveless family that also located in Athens County, OH was found near them in the same census. He was living Sunderland, Bennington County, VT by 1800. He was in Town of Alfred, Allegany County, NY in 1810. Next door to him was son Thomas and son-in-law Noah Wilcox. In 1820 he was in Lee Township, Athens County, OH, still near Noah Wilcox and not far from Stanbrough Stancliff and David B. Stancliff. By 1820 Noah and Thomas Miles, and Noah Wilcox were all in Lee Township, Athens County, OH. In the 1830 Census Stephen, Benjamin and Thomas Miles were all located in Lodi Township, Athens County, OH.

It is probable that Noah is in some way related to Benjamin Miles of Washington County, Ohio whose son John was also a resident of Athens County, OH.

CHILDREN: Noah and Rhoda [Wilcox] Miles[1]

1. BENJAMIN MILES born VT about 1776, died about 1859
2. BENNAJAH MILES born VT 1778, died about 1849, married Athens County, OH Oct. 20, 1818 CATHERINE DUNKLE[2]
3. STEPHEN MILES born 1780.
4. THOMAS MILES born Dutchess County, NY Apr. 29, 1782, died Mendon, Adams County, IL Sept. 29, 1842, married about 1807 SALLY SEGER born Mar. 5, 1788, died Everett Township, Cass County, MO 1870 at home of her son, Adrain Miles.
5. NANCY MILES born 1784, married June 27, 1802[3] NOAH WILCOX, Nancy filed for divorce in Athens County, OH on April 1, 1829 saying that he failed to support her and the children, beat her and committed adultery. They lived next to Noah Miles in the 1810 Census of Allegany County, NY in the Town of Alfred. They were also in the 1820 Athens County Census Records. He purchased spectacles at the estate sale of Stanbrough P. Stancliff in 1820.
6. TAMER MILES born 1786
7. RUTH MILES born 1790
8. AMY MILES born NY about 1795[4], died Athens County, OH 1828, married Athens County, OH July 25, 1820[5] DAVID B. STANCLIFF son of Stanbrough and Sibbel [Davis] Stancliff born "near Niagara Falls" in 1795.
9. ESTHER MILES born May 22, 1796[6], died Athens County, OH May 7, 1882, married Allegany County, NY Jan. 12, 1812 SAMUEL FROST son of Benjamin Frost born VT Nov. 14, 1791, died Cincinnati, Hamilton County, OH Dec. 14, 1855. The birth places of their children suggest that they came to Ohio between 1813 and 1818. In 1860 she lived Lodi Township, Athens County, OH in the household of her son, Abner Frost.

1.Several researchers have contributed group sheets on the Miles Family to the Records of the Church of the Latter Day Saints. These sheets cite "family records" as a source". These records have numerous conflicts in birth years and order of birth for these children.

2.Marriage records of Athens Co OH

3.Athens County Divorce Records, Supreme Court Record 1814-1837 page 178

4.Miles family records indicate her birth year was 1780, but the OH 1820 CENSUS, Athens County, Lee Township, says her birth was between 1795-1804. Considering the fact that her son, Thomas, was born in 1827, it seems unlikely that Amy was born 1780 and bearing children in her late 40s.

5.Athens County, OH Court of Common Pleas Appearance Docket dated 1821-1835, page 79

6.Miles family records say she was born 1788 but the OH 1850 CENSUS, Athens County, Lodi Township, 2155/2175, says she was born VT and age 55. Frost records give exact date of birth.

Benjamin probably arrived in this country with a brother John who was born England 1803. Benjamin and John both owned land in Washington Township, Erie County, PA, and both had a son named William born within a year of each other. The son of Benjamin was referred to in records as William Ore 1st and the son of John as William Ore 2nd. The two Williams emigrated from the same place in England in the same year. William Ore 2nd was sponsored by his father, John Ore[1], who in land deeds is proven to own property next to William Ore 1st.

In 1900 the widow, Ann Ore, was living in the household of Charles Comer and her daughter Rebecca in Washington Township, Erie County, PA[2]. Both Ann and Rebecca indicated that they had come to this country in 1842. Ann reported seven children, four living.

ABRAM PEEK

Born New York 1770[1], died between 1850 and 1860, married _____ born Connecticut 1770-1775[2], died before 1850. The father of Polly [Peek] Stanclift is said to be from the Hudson River Valley in New York State. Another family record says they lived "near Albany". both sources agree the family lived at Eden Corners or Eden Town, Erie County, NY.

This family was constructed from Census records of the only family named Peek in the Town of Eden or in the entire County. In the 1820 Census the name is spelled Peake, in 1830 Peak, and in both 1850 and 1860 the spelling is Peek. In the 1850 census Abram was living in the household of son William, but his wife was no longer with him.

RANNEY FAMILY

(24) COMFORT STANCLIFT married EUNICE [RANNEY] FOX

JOHN[3] RANNEY (John[2], Thomas[1])[1]

Son of John and Hannah [Turner] Ranney born Middletown Upper Houses[2] Oct. 1, 1703, married 1. East Middletown, CT Mar. 17, 1723/4 EUNICE WRIGHT daughter of Jonas and Olive [Stanbrough] Wright born East Middletown, CT Dec. 31, 1704, baptized Jan. 14, 1704/5 at East Middletown, CT. and died Sept. 20, 1730.

After the death of her father and her mother's remarriage Eunice became the step daughter of William Stanclift of East Middletown, CT. Eunice Wright was probably raised in the household of William Stanclift, at least until the death of her mother. Her Uncle, Daniel Wright was her legal guardian as far as finances were concerned and held in trust large holdings that had been the property of Jonas Wright.

John Ranney married 2. Feb. 25, 1730/31 MARTHA MILLER daughter of John and Mercy [Bevin] Miller[3] born Mar. 28, 1705, died Jan. 4, 1799. Martha's sister Margery Miller married John Ranney's brother, Richard.

John Ranney saw extensive service during the French Indian war. He died in the hospital at Oswegatchie, Saint Lawrence County, NY Sept. 18, 1760.

SMITH FAMILY I

JOHN TINKER married ALICE SMITH
Parents of MARY [TINKER] WALLER STANCLIFT

JOHN SMITH OF LANCASTER

John[1] Smith born England and known as "John Smith of Lancaster, MA", had previously lived Sudbury, MA, died Lancaster, MA July 16, 1669_3, he was known to have a wife named MARY ____. Mary Smith, died Lancaster December 27, 1659_4. On the 5th day of the 2nd month of 1669 John Smith transferred his land holdings in Lancaster to son in law, John Moore, in exchange for support and care for the remainder of his life.

It seems that John Moore, husband of John's daughter Anne, was in greater favor with John Smith than others of his own children. In John Smith's will written in 1665 he spoke of "my beloved sonne-in-law John Moore" and designated that Moore be the executor on his estate, a designation usually given to a son. Three of his children were at that date living in Connecticut, Richard in Lyme, Mary in Stonington, and Alice had been widowed and remarried and was also in Lyme, so it is not surprising that he would turn to his daughter and son-in-law who remained in Lancaster. To daughter, Anne Moore he left a red pied cow. He did not appoint as executor his son, John, living sixteen miles away in Sudbury, to John he also gave a cow, an old cow at that, but this does indicate that John Smith Junior was still in the area and close enough to collect a cow. To son, Richard, he bequeathed two shillings "if he demand it", and to Alice the same amount. The pittance given to Richard and Alice prompted a researcher who used initials $S.M.F._5$ in the Boston Transcript to believe that their inclusion in the will at all, was by way of censure as they had somehow displeased their father. This was also an argument for the inclusion of Mary as a daughter of John[1] Smith. S.M.F. believed that the arguments against Mary as a daughter were based almost entirely on the fact that she was not mentioned in the will of John Smith, and even suggested the possibility that there were others missing as well. In the same article he said "There is also excellent reason for believing that Mary the wife of Amos Richardson of Boston and Stonington, Conn. was also a daughter of John[1] Smith of Lancaster". The repeated interactions between Amos Richardson and the brothers-in-law, Richard Smith and John Tinker, support this argument and Mary has been included here as a daughter of $John_6$.

CHILDREN: John Smith of Lancaster not necessarily in correct order.

1. MARY SMITH born in England about 1617, died Stonington, CT 1683, married about 1642_7 AMOS RICHARDSON of Boston. The couple lived Boston where most of their children were born and baptized under Mary's name in the First Church of Boston. Both Amos and John Tinker were business agents for Governor John Winthrop of the Massachusetts Bay Colony while they lived in Boston. Both appeared as attorneys in the Aspinwall Notarial Records. Both men maintained close ties to John Winthrop Junior after he moved to Connecticut and during the time that he was the Governor of the Connecticut Colony. Amos Richardson obtained land in Pequot as early as 1652 and eventually located in what is now Stonington, CT, where his house was raised on Saturday, June 22, 1663_8, and at that place they raised a large family. He died Stonington, CT Aug. 5, 1683_9. Mary Richardson died "early in the following month"$_{10}$.
2. JOHN SMITH JUNIOR married Sudbury, MA Oct. 13, 1647 SARAH HUNT daughter of John Hunt, deceased. The genealogist called S.M.F. who corresponded on the Smith family in the Boston Transcript, said that John and Sarah Smith remained in Sudbury and are buried there. Donald Lines Jacobus says he may be the same man that died

Charlestown, MA Mar. 26, 1673, leaving a widow named Sarah, children, and large land holdings in Lancaster, MA which he had obtained from the Indians, if so he possibly obtained the land with the aide of brother-in-law, John Tinker who was known as "The Nashaway Trader" and traded extensively with the Indians in that area. John Smith of Sudbury "had assigned him lot number 29, being in the second squadron of the two mile grant"[1] in Sudbury.

3. RICHARD SMITH born England possibly 1616-1621, married 1. Sudbury, MA Oct. 6, 1647 MARY KERLEY[2] daughter of William Kerley Senior of Sudbury and Lancaster, MA. Mary died as a result of childbirth at Lancaster, MA May 27, 1654. Richard married 2. at Boston, MA Aug. 2, 1654 JOHANNA QUARLES[3]. The Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, Richard Bellingham, performed the ceremony.[4] Richard moved from Boston to Sudbury, to Lancaster, MA then to the Pequot area of the Connecticut Colony[5], and finally to Lyme, New London County, CT where he died 1681-1683. He appears in the Saybrook, Ct Land records as early as 1663. On Apr. 9, 1663 Amos Richardson deeded to Richard Smith a House, 20 acres of land, and 30 acres of meadow located in that part of Saybrook, CT that would become Lyme. Amos Richardson had purchased the land from John Comstock[6] in 1662. Richard sold a horse to Richard Raymont on Aug. 27, 1664[7] and transferred property to John Comstock on Nov. 14, 1664[8]. Richard was one of those who signed "The Loving Parting", the Articles of Agreement between the inhabitants of Saybrook living west of the River and those living East of the River. Richard Smith along with Matthew Griswold, William Waller, Renold Marvin, John Lay and John Comstock represented the community East of the river that became Lyme, CT in 1665. This distinction and his repeated appearance in the records of the early Lyme Town Records would suggest that Richard Smith was a leader in his community. Richard Smith Senior was listed at a Lyme town meeting held on aug 9, 1681, this was the last mention of Richard Smith Senior in the records, and on Jan. 8, 1683 the records speak of him as deceased. A Will and Inventory were exhibited at the New London County Court session June 6, 1682 for a Richard Smith, but the document has been lost and there is no way of knowing if it was Richard Smith of Lyme or of New London, who is said to have died 1682[9]. If the date of death of Richard Smith of New London is based on the Probate Records alone, it may be suspect.

4. ANN SMITH died Lancaster, MA Mar. 1, 1671[10] on the day that her eighth child was born. She married Sudbury, MA Nov. 16, 1654[11] JOHN MOORE JUNIOR son of John Moore of Sudbury. John Moore was a delegate to the General Court from Lancaster in 1689, he died Lancaster 1702 leaving a widow named Mary. Two sons of John and Ann [Smith] Moore, John and Jonathan resided their entire lives in Lancaster "upon the paternal acres, south of Wataquadock."

5. ALICE SMITH born Nov. 20, 1629, died Lyme, New London County, CT Nov. 20, 1714 "very aged woman of eighty-five years to the day"[12], married 1. Boston, MA 1649 JOHN TINKER married 2. New London, CT WILLIAM MEASURE. Alice and William Measure took the Tinker children and moved to Lyme, New London County, CT. They owned a farm at the north east edge of what is now called Roger's Lake. Alice's daughter Mary and husband James Stanclift owned a farm adjoining their property.

1.HISTORY OF SUDBURY MASSACHUSETTS by Alfred Sereno Hudson, 1889, page 53

2.In THE ANNALS OF LANCASTER page 285 The discussion of Richard Smith under the Lands of William Kerley Sr suggests the possibility that Mary was the daughter of William Kerley Senior and wife Ann of Ashmore, England, Sudbury and Lancaster, MA. About the same time that John Tinker moved from the Lancaster area to Pequot, CT, Richard Smith deeded his dwelling house and 20 acre house lot in Lancaster to William Kerley on June 4, 1658. The records note Richard Smith disappeared from the records at this time.

CANDACE BROWN[1] born RI 1793, died Howard Township, Cass County MI 1836, buried Barron Lake Cemetery. Amasa married 2. as her fourth husband at Cuyahoga County, OH Nov. 11, 1840 by Amos Belding, J.P. ASANATH [HILL] GARFIELD BOYNTON DEACON[2]. She was said to be of the Jacob Hill family of Worcester, MA, she died Newburgh, Cuyahoga County, OH Feb. 2, 1851. Asanath had married 1. Thomas Garfield and had by him four children before she was widowed. She was the mother of Abraham Garfield and grandmother of President James A. Garfield, she married 2. Caleb Boynton by whom she had nine more children before she was again widowed. Asanath married 3. Marmaduke Deacon/Daykon and as Arcinth Deacon she married 4. Amasa Smith.

Born Glocester or Smithfield, Providence County, RI, Amasa moved with his family to Danby, Rutland County, VT, the father, Ezekiel Smith accompanied by sons Richard and Daniel moved by the spring of 1804 to Hamburg, Erie County, NY. Ezekiel brought the rest of his family to this frontier area in the fall of 1804. Deacon Ezekiel Smith was enumerated in the Town of Concord, Niagara County, NY[3] He appears in that place in the 1820 Census and that date he was over 45, has a son under 5, one male 10-16, one male 16-18 and two males 16-26, there were 2 females under 5 and two females 26-45.

Amasa Smith moved by 1835 to Cass County, MI where he remained only three years, moving after the death of his wife to Cuyahoga County, OH[4]. After his second marriage Amasa lived Town of Mentor, Geauga County, OH, where there is a story of the future President, young James Garfield, who disregarded parental wishes and yoked a pair of calves together and then got them mired down in the mud. Amasa Smith helped him out of his predicament, but he was chastised by his grandmother, Asanath Smith. Amasa's second wife died in Ohio and Amasa moved to Colesburg, IA to spend his remaining days with the families of his children living in that area.

CHILDREN: Amasa and Candace [Brown] Smith, there are children missing.

SMITH FAMILY III

(128) GEORGE STANCLIFF married MARY KIRBY SMITH

EBENEZER SMITH[8]

Son of Capt. Ralph and Hannah [Smith] Smith of Middle Haddam, Middlesex County, CT was born Tuesday, May 17, 1791. The fact that both of Ebenezer's parents were named Smith gave rise to the unusual practice in this family of using Smith as a middle name as well as a surname. Ebenezer married December 1, 1814 MERCY CLARK. Mercy [Clark] Smith was born Tuesday, July 3, 1792, and died June 25, 1870 in the 77th year of her age. Ebenezer Smith died September 27, 1864 in the 74th year of his age. The children listed below were found in his Bible Records.

The family of Ebenezer Smith lived Middle Haddam, CT. Ebenezer's mother died when he was only aged ten. His father married for a third time in 1813 Mary Kirby of Cromwell, Middlesex County, CT. Ebenezer named his first daughter after his step mother.

STANBROUGH FAMILY

(2) WILLIAM STANCLIFT married OLIVE STANBROUGH

PERIGRINE[3] STANBROUGH (Josiah[2], William[1])
Son of Josiah and Frances [Gransden] Stanbrough said to be the first white child born eastern Long Island in 1640_5, died Sagaponack$_6$, Southampton, "Island of Nassau alias Long Island"$_7$, Suffolk County, NY, Jan. 4, 1701/2, buried in the Sagaponack Cemetery, married on Dec. 15, 1664 SARAH JAMES$_8$, daughter of Reverend Thomas and Ruth [Jones] James of East Hampton, Long Island.

Perigrine's father, Josiah Stanbrough, was from Cannons Ashby, Northamptonshire, England and was married there in 1636 at St. Giles-in-the-field to Frances Gransden daughter of Henry and Alice [Hatcher] Gransden born Turnbridge, Kent, England and baptized there Nov. 22, 1618. Josiah was one of the eight original "undertakers" or proprietors of Southampton, a part owner of the ship Speedwell, and a major investor, along with other Southampton residents, in large tracts of land in the Elizabethtown, NJ area. While Josiah and several others in this family moved to the Elizabethtown, NJ area for periods of time and owned vast land holdings in that place, Perigrine remained in Southampton.

Perigrine Stanbrough was also an important man in Southampton, Long Island. He was a Deacon of the Southampton Church and active in civic affairs. He inherited wealth and land from his father, and also owned land that seemed to be part of the Jones family holdings in Fairfield, CT through his wife, Sarah.

The gravestone of Perigrine Stanbrough stands today in the Sagaponack Cemetery or Sagg Burying Ground, along with the stone for his daughter, Eunice. Both of their gravestones were cut by William Stanclift and follows the custom that William established of cutting stones dated before the death of his father, James Stanclift, in the style and shape favored by his father.

Perigrine and Eunice Stanbrough have single arched, chamfered edge brownstones from the Stanclift quarry in East

3.HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY, PA, Vol.II, Beers 1884, page 780

4.HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY, PA, Biographical Sketches of McKean Township, Warner,Beers 1884, page 113, lists second child as Jennie L. but the 1860 census clearly says Henry L. male.

5.His father, Josiah, was in Lynn, MA in 1639 according to Essex Court Records Vol.I, page 12 and may not have arrived in Southampton until 1643., however FIRST SETTLERS OF PISCATAWAY AND WOODBRIDGE (NJ), page 1225 cites Southampton Town Records page 3, and says Josiah was in Southampton in 1639.

6.The area of Southampton known as Sagaponack was frequently referred to in early records as "Sagg", not to be confused with Sag Harbor.

7.EARLY LONG ISLAND WILLS of Suffolk County 1691-1703, by William S. Pelletreau, page 233-238. Perigrine Stanbrough's will written May 17, 1699 refers to his area of residence in this way.

Middletown. These stones do not display the best of William's talents, they are not as deeply nor as carefully cut as some of William's better stones. That combined with the fact that Eunice and Perigrine Stanbrough have footstones identical in size and shape to their headstones and all the stones in that yard by William, have identical lettering leads me to the following conclusion; That following the practice of many craftsmen of that day, William took his skills to the area where they were needed. William took a supply of stones already shaped to the Sagaponack area, probably about 1716 and because there was no stone cutter in the area, cut stones for the families who had lost loved ones over a period of time. Because Eunice and Perigrine were related to William's wife, they alone in the Sagaponack yard were provided with large footstones that had originally been intended for use as headstones.

Perigrine's 1699 will distributed his estate to a large number of heirs. It seemed clear that daughters Olive, Sarah, Eunice and Ann were not married at that date, and Ann was not yet "of age". The will provided for the older girls those item needed to set up housekeeping. A number of grandchildren were mentioned and generous provisions for his wife.

CHILDREN:Perigrine and Sarah [James] Stanbrough[1]

1. JOHN STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Dec. 11, 1665, married MARTHA ____ who died in 1726. Martha was mentioned in Perigrine Stanbrough's will as "my daughter Martha... and her daughter Abigail". Martha has been listed as a daughter of Perigrine Stanbrough in some records, but was a daughter-in-law. John and Martha's son Josiah was also mentioned in Perigrine's will.
2. RUTH STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY June 4, 1668, married JOHN GREENVILL who died between Mar. 19, 1689/90 and Oct. 6, 1691. The will of John Greenvill written Mar. 19, 1689/90[2] assigns all of his estate to "my father Mr Perigrine Stanbrough.... for the use of my well beloved wife, Ruth". The Will was witnessed by Perigrine's brother, Josiah Stanbrough, evidently just before he left for New Jersey. Perigrine Stanbrough renounced executorship on the Will. Ruth may have died before 1699 when Perigrine Stanbrough wrote his own Will, as she was the only daughter not mentioned as an heir in her father's will at that time. It is also possible, however, that the bequest to Ruth's daughter could suggest some sort of conflict or estrangement in this relationship and Ruth was omitted because she was in disfavor with her father. Ruth's daughter was mentioned in the will but not by name, and this was the very last item specified in the will "....to Ruth's child if she comes my wife shall give a cow & ten sheep". It must be noted that this bequest was in excess of those granted to other grandchildren and may have represented the share due to the child's mother, Ruth.
3. OLIVE STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY July 18, 1670, died East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Nov. 7, 1719, buried Old Quarry Cemetery under a stone cut by her husband William Stanclift, married 1. between 1699 and 1704[3] JONAS WRIGHT son of James and Dorcas [Weed] Wright born Wethersfield, Hartford County, CT between 1661 and 1674, died East Middletown, Hartford County, CT May 10, 1709[4]. Olive had a daughter, Eunice Wright, born Dec. 31, 1704. After death of Jonas, she married 2. East Middletown, Hartford County, CT Mar. 10, 1710 WILLIAM STANCLIFT son of James and Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift born Lyme, New London County, CT Sept. 25, 1686. William lived next to the Wright family in East Middletown.
4. MARY STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Oct. 14, 1672 married JONATHAN STRICKLAND son of Thwaite and Elizabeth [Shepard][5] Strickland born Jun. 23, 1657. Mary was willed twelve acres of land near that willed to Hannah and John Lupton. The Southampton, Long Island Census of 1698 includes Jonathan and Mary Strickland but no children.[6] A land record in which Perigrine Stanbrough sold land to Jonathan Strickland in 1700 lists Jonathan's trade as a "cordwainer" or shoemaker, a subsequent Land record indicates he was a "tanner" and part of the land transaction was a "tan yard".
5. HANNAH STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Jan. 28, 1674, married JOHN LUPTON. Perigrine's will left her ten acres of land near Sag pond that was to pass on to grandson Josiah Lupton after the death of Hannah and John Lupton. Hannah's daughter Sarah Lupton also mentioned.
6. SARAH STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY May 26, 1677, married JAMES HERRICK. Sarah Herrick's child mentioned in Perigrine's will, no name given.
7. JAMES STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Oct. 28, 1679, married Nov. 16, 1703 his first cousin, SARAH EDWARDS[7], daughter of John and Mary[8] [Stanbrough] Edwards.

7.SOME DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM EDWARDS OF EAST HAMPTON, L.I., by Dr. Arthur Adams, page 379 indicates James born Oct. 28, 1679 was a son of Josiah, however the HISTORY OF SOUTHAMPTON by Geo. Rogers Howell, page 281 specifically lists James son of Perigrine as having that birth date and also a wife named Sarah.

8.Sister of Perigrine Stanbrough

8. EUNICE STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Nov. 8, 1682, died Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Nov. 14, 1701, buried Sagaponack Cemetery, Southampton, Long Island, NY.
9. ELIZABETH STANBROUGH born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY Jan. 24, 1686.
10. ANNE STANBROUGH mentioned in father's will as "youngest daughter" born Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County, NY ca. 1688, died East Middletown, CT between 1710 and 1715, married Middletown, Hartford County, CT Nov. 1, 1707 SAMUEL BIDWELL[1] son of Samuel and Elizabeth [Stow] Bidwell of East Middletown, CT born Middletown, CT Jun. 10, 1677, died there Mar. 1726/7. They lived East Middletown near Ann's sister Olive and Olive's first husband, Jonas Wright. Ann was in the Middletown records when her second child was born in 1710. Her husband married again in 1715.

STANDEVEN FAMILY

(389) DANIEL WEBSTER STANCLIFF married SARAH STANDEVEN
(392) STEPHEN MILES STANCLIFF married HANNAH MAE STANDEVEN
(393) JAMES ALLEN STANCLIFF married ESTHER STANDEVEN

ABRAHAM STANDEVEN

Son of Joseph and Ann Standeven of Milnrow, Lancashire, England[2] born Milnrow, Sept. 26, 1824, married probably in New Jersey ELIZA VAN ZILE[3] or VAN ZEA born New Jersey 1825.

Abraham was a Blacksmith by trade, but turned to farming as he moved west. He evidently immigrated to this country with several brothers, Thomas, William and Joseph Standeven, all Blacksmiths. The brothers settled by 1850, in Patterson, Passaic County, NJ[4], but all had left that area by 1860[5]. The 1900 Census record[6] reveals that Abraham entered this country in 1842 and was naturalized in 1858. According to his daughter Esther's death certificate, she was born in Bloomington, McLean County, IL in 1857. Possibly the family was at that time en route to Peoria County, for they were living in Rosefield Township by 1860[7], living one house away from Abraham's sister Hannah [Standeven] Wrigley and her husband Edmund Wrigley. Abraham and Eliza were not with their family in Rosefield Township in 1870[8]. Two of the daughters were living in the household of their sister Elizabeth, and her husband, Thomas Wrigley. Another daughter was living next door in the household of Edmund and Hannah [Standeven] Wrigley. Abraham does not appear in the Soundex Census Index in IL in 1880. In the 1900 Census Abraham Æ 75 born England was living Kewanee, Henry County, IL with the family of daughter, Sarah, and her husband Daniel Webster Stancliff and right next door to another daughter, Esther, and her husband James Allen Stancliff. Daughter Jennie Orendorf was in Valley Township, Stark County in 1900, but also moved to Kewanee by 1910[9].

CHILDREN:Abraham and Eliza [Van Zile or Van Zea] Standeven

1. ELIZABETH STANDEVEN born February 1844 in Patterson, NJ, died IL in 1916 and is buried in the Texas Union Cemetery, Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL.[10] She married in 1863 THOMAS WRIGLEY, born Lancashire, England September 1839, son of Robert and Ann [Fenton] Wrigley[11]. Thomas died 1923 and is buried Texas Union Cemetery, next to Elizabeth. Thomas came to this country with his father in 1841. They moved almost immediately, to Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL.[12] The reference to living "in Trivoli" referred to their Post Office address. They lived about 17 miles west of Peoria on a farm and remained on the farm until about 1885. During that time the Post Office was changed to Oakhill. When they retired from the strenuous work of farming, Thomas and Elizabeth moved a few miles west to the nearest town, Farmington, Fulton County, IL. They had three children, all of whom were living in 1900[13].
   See Appendix A: WRIGLEY
2. SARAH STANDEVEN born Oct. 19, 1848 in Patterson, NJ, died City of Houston, Harris County, TX, January 29, 1920 but her residence was listed as Alvin, TX. She had been in Houston for four months before her death being treated for Tuberculosis. She was buried in Houston at Hollywood Cemetery. She married in Peoria County, IL Sept. 4, 1878, DANIEL WEBSTER STANCLIFF son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff. They moved by 1900 to the Town of Kewanee, Henry County, IL, and living with them at that time was Sarah's father,

3. FEMALE STANDEVEN listed IGI as born Patterson, NJ July 2, 1851, but not present 1960 Census.
4. JANE STANDEVEN "Jennie" born NJ Feb. 1854, married 1878/9 BENJAMIN J. ORENDORF born Bloomington, McLean County, IL, March 1847, son of Thomas and Malinda Orendorf. He was with his family in 1860 living Bloomington, IL[1]. In 1880 Ben and Jennie Orendorf were living in Bloomington, IL among three other Orendorf families[2]. They were next door to Ben's parents, Thomas and Malinda Orendorf. They were living Valley Township, Stark County, IL in 1900, and Ben was farming[3]. They joined the other members of the Standeven family in the Town of Kewanee, Henry County, IL sometime after 1900 and remained in Kewanee after the Stancliff families moved on to Texas. They lived on South Park Street in Kewanee, and Ben sold Liquor and Tobacco[4]. They attended all of the functions involving the Perry Stancliff family in Wyoming, Stark County, IL. They had only one child; Olin J. or James O. Orendorf born Nov. 1878 and living with parents in Valley Township in 1900 but not in Kewanee in 1910.
5. ESTHER STANDEVEN born February 20, 1857 in Bloomington, IL died after a stroke on August 10, 1925 at her home on Farview Street, in Houston, Harris County, TX and is buried at Hollywood Cemetery in Houston married Trivoli, Peoria County, IL Feb. 9, 1882 JAMES ALLEN STANCLIFF son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff.
6. HANNAH MAE STANDEVEN born December 26, 1860 in IL, died Dallas, Dallas County, TX, February 10, 1946 as a result of pneumonia. Hannah is buried in Dallas, at Laureland Cemetery. She married as his second wife, Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL Feb. 15, 1882 STEPHEN MILES STANCLIFF son of Perry and Martha Caroline [Davis] Stancliff.

STEPHENS FAMILY

(339) GEORGE STANCLIFT married MARY C. STEPHENS

GABRIEL BOWMAN[4] STEPHENS[5] (Joseph[3], Lawrence[2], Peter[1])

Son of Joseph Lawrence and Nancy [Shackelford] Stephens born Ruddells Mills, Bourbon County, KY, Jan. 8, 1787, married MARY GRIGGS. Gabriel's father came from Shenandoah County, VA to Bourbon County, KY in 1784. He brought with him slaves and enough bricks to build his new home. He established the first farm in that area.

CHILDREN:

1. JOSEPH STEPHENS born Bourbon County, KY, died Boone County, MO, married POLLY BRINGER.
2. GABRIEL STEPHENS born Bourbon County, KY July 26, 1834, married Jan. 17, 1856 LENA GETZ born Germany Nov. 17, 1842. He moved to California and was in the mining business.
3. MARY C. STEPHENS born Bourbon County, KY Feb. 1833[6] or 1840[7]. The 1833 birthdate is probably correct. She married 1. JOHN W. STEWART FAMILY

(141) DAVID STANCLIFT married CAROLINE MATILDA STEWART
(142) ANSEL STANCLIFT married CAROLINE MATILDA STEWART

WILLIAM STEWART[1]

Born Londonderry, Ireland in 1768, died Le Ray, Jefferson County, NY Jul. 3, 1839, married probably at the First Presbyterian Church of Albany, NY April 26, 1791[2] CAROLINE BILLSON or BULSEN[3] of Albany, Albany County, NY who died in Le Ray, Jefferson County, NY May 20, 1850. William came to this country from Ireland in 1772 with his parents. He lived for many years in Cherry Valley, Otsego County, NY. In 1811 he came to Le Ray, Jefferson County, NY.

CHILDREN: William and Caroline [Billson] Stewart

1. NELLY STEWART born about 1793
2. DAVID STEWART born about 1795
3. WILLIAM STEWART JR born 1797[4], married before 1820[5] to LUCY ____ born NY 1802. William Stewart Jr purchased 50 acres of land located near Pamelia Four Corners from James D. LeRay on June 11, 1819. This may have coincided with the time of his marriage. William purchased 34.96 Acres from the Mechanic Fire Insurance Company on March 6, 1830. He and his wife, Lucy, sold both of these properties to his brother Stephen Van Rensselear Stewart on Sept. 1, 1835 for the sum of $500.00. In 1860 Lucy was living with the family of Amos Goulding born 1816 and his wife Mary A. born 1821 in LeRay at a location that had Evans Mills as its P.O. address. This suggests that William died between 1850 and 1860, and it is possible that Mary A. Goulding was a daughter of William and Lucy. In the 1830 Census William and Lucy seemed to have a son and a daughter both of whom were born between 1820 and 1825.
4. AGNES STEWART born about 1800
5. CAROLINE MATILDA STEWART "Matilda" born NY Mar. 6, 1801[6], died Lenawee County, MI Jan. 3, 1864, married 1. Nov. 22, 1818 DAVID STANCLIFT, married 2. Apr. 27, 1821 ANSEL STANCLIFT. In all Census records she appeared as Matilda, in Bible record she was called Caroline Matilda.
6. HANNAH STEWART between 1802 and 1809
7. JOHN STEWART between 1802 and 1809 if the birth order as reported in the Gazetteer is correct. If this is not the case then he could be the youngest child in the family and be identical to John Stewart living in close proximity to known members of this family in Evans Mills in the 1860 Census. This man was born NY 1814, and in 1860 he was a fairly wealthy farmer (16,000-2990), he had a wife Sophia born NY 1816, a son Wayne born 1847, and daughter Adah born 1852.

1.Based on information obtained by Margaret Brewer of Macon, GA; Child's Gazetteer of Jefferson County, NY

2.The Child's GAZETTEER OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, NY page 535 states the date as 1792

3.The Church record states her name as Catherine.

4.1850 CENSUS of LeRay, Jefferson County, NY states his age as 53 born NY

5.1820 CENSUS of LeRay, Jefferson County, NY specifically calls him William Stewart Jr., his household consists of himself and a female of same age designation.

6.Bennawy Bible Records, Detroit Society for Genealogical Research Magazine, Volume II, Number 9, June-July 1939, page 192. The Bible Records gives dates of birth and dates of marriages, but there is no mention of places.

8. STEPHEN VAN RENSSELAER STEWART$_1$ born 1810$_2$ while family lived Cherry Valley, Otsego County, NY, died Jefferson County, NY Sep. 1, 1862, married 1. SUSAN JENKINS who lived only one year and eight months after the marriage, married 2. 1850 SARAH ELIZABETH VAN EPPS born NY 1823$_3$. He appeared in the Census as Van Rensler Stewart and later as just Rensler Stewart. He learned the carpenter's trade and built several houses at Pamelia Corners, his own house probably built about 1836 was featured in a Newspaper article. The Watertown Daily Times 1951 article indicates that William Stewart Jr and wife Lucy conveyed property in Le Ray to his brother, Stephen Van Renssalaer Stewart, on Sept. 1, 1835. Land located Le Ray Township and not far from Pamelia Four Corners. Stephen then purchased two more tracts of land adjoining the property. The combined parcels totaled 150.81 Acres of land which he devised to his son Clarence J. Stewart, less than 10 years old at that time, in his will, and the property was occupied by Philander Locke$_4$ that date. Philander Locke lived nextdoor to Rensler Stewart in the 1860 Census.

STILSON FAMILY

(78) MARY STANCLIFF "Polly" married ABNER STILSON

ANDREW[4] STILSON (James[3], Moses[2], Vincent[1])

Son of James and Joanna [Wheeler] Stilson born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT Apr.1, 1744/5$_5$, died Feb.8, 1831 AE 88$_6$, married 1. Apr. 28, 1768 ELIZABETH FOOTE born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT May 1747, died Cornwall, VT Apr. 13, 1789, married 2. probably about 1795/6 ELIZABETH PECK.

Andrew lived Newtown, Fairfield County, CT and Cornwall, VT. His first wife died in VT shortly after the birth of her last child, and Andrew returned to Newtown, Fairfield County, CT.

CHILDREN: Andrew and Elizabeth [Foote] Stilson$_7$

1. ANNA STILSON born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT Mar. 12, 1769, died Riga, NY Feb. 14, 1833, married ELDRED SPENCER.
2. JAMES STILSON born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT Aug.7, 1771, died Scipio, Cayuga County, NY Dec. 23, 1809, married POLLY LACY. He named as Executors on his estate brother, Abner Stilson, and James Stancliff.
3. ELI STILSON born Oct. 28, 1773, died Rochester, Monroe County, NY Sept. 5, 1855, buried Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester, Monroe County, NY$_8$ married Southbury, CT Feb. 27, 1794 BETSEY DOWNS daughter of Truman and Sarah [Porter] Downs of Southbury, CT and Scipio, NY born Southbury Oct. 6, 1778, died Rochester, Monroe County, NY Nov. 30, 1859, buried there at Mount Hope Cemetery.

   He appeared on Southbury rate list 1798, but he emigrated to Scipio, Cayuga County, NY by 1799-1800. This was the time when the East Cayuga Reservation was being sold, and shortly thereafter with father in law Truman Downs, Agur Beardsly and brother in law Wait Downs, Eli Stilson purchased 250 acres in Scipio, Cayuga County, NY. He lived at Barber's Corners which was named after William Barber, husband of Olive [Stancliff] Barber. Eli was a Surveyor and a School Teacher. He taught at the District school in Barber's Corner during the winters of 1815 and 1816$_9$. He lived Brighton, just South of Rochester in 1817 and by 1829 was a resident of Rochester, Monroe County, NY on the East side of the river.
4. ZENAS STILSON born Mar. 22, 1776, died Chili, Monroe County, NY Apr. 20, 1818, married ANNIE BURRET$_{10}$ Annie married 2. Isaac Hemingway.
5. ABNER STILSON$_{11}$ born Newtown, Fairfield County, CT May 30, 1778, died Elkhart County, IN 1844$_{12}$, married about 1799 POLLY/MARY STANCLIFF born Southbury, CT Nov. 30, 1781 daughter of James and Mary [Russell] Stancliff of South Britain, CT and Scipio, Cayuga County, NY.

1.The Newspaper Article tracing the history of the house of Steven V. R. Stewart seems to suggest that the biographies of Stephen and brother William as they appear in Child's Gazetteer are mixed up. The problem has been resolved by finding these Stewarts in the 1850/60 Census records. William was married to Lucy.

2.1850 CENSUS LeRay, Jefferson County, NY shows him as "Van Rensler Stewart age 40 with wife Susannah born NY age 39 and a female named Lydia Stewart, possibly a daughter, age 18 but born Vermont. The Gazetteer says his marriage to Susan Jenkins lasted only 1 year and 8 months, so she is not mother of Lydia.

TINKER FAMILY

JAMES STANCLIFT + married MARY TINKER

JOHN TINKER

John Tinker born about 1614_2 appears in the records of Boston, MA as early as 1635. He is said to have been born in England. We know that his mother was living in the Colonies in 1639, for while on a business trip to England, John Tinker wrote a report or letter to John Winthrop, Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and enclosed a "letter to my mother" and asked the Governor to see that she received it. It did not mention her name. A Sarah Tinker aged 15 came to Boston in the ship "Blessing" in July 1635, her name listed with the William Vassel family, she may have been a relative of John Tinker.

John Tinker was consistently referred to in the Records as "Master Tinker" or "Mr. Tinker", a term reserved for those who are either exceptionally well educated or hold a high social position. John Tinker's social position in England is unknown, but he was a highly educated man. He acted as an Attorney for many of the most prominent men of Boston. He was a scrivener and wrote many legal documents extant today. He acted as a confidential business agent for John Winthrop, Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, for many years, and was possibly even part of the Winthrop household. His name was included on an undated tailor's bill sent to Governor Winthrop as receiving several articles of clothing. Other names on this bill were Winthrop family members and others in the household, it was endorsed by Gov. Winthrop "ffamilye Bill".

He was a trader or merchant, conducting business with the Indians locally and engaging in the shipping trade with England and the West Indies. He owned a part interest in the ship "Susan and Ellen" and traveled at times as "supercargo"$_3$ on that ship and others. He entered partnerships with several of the sons of Gov. Winthrop at various times, but his particular friend was John Winthrop Jr who was instrumental in convincing John Tinker to move to the new community of Pequot or New London, in the Connecticut Colony.

By 1640 Capt. John Tinker was among those listed as land owners in the town of Wethersfield$_4$. It is not known if he ever lived there, but he did leave Boston for Connecticut in 1640_5.

In 1643 He formed a partnership with John Griffen and Michael Humphrey of Windsor to manufacture pitch and tar$_6$ and to collect turpentine$_7$. These products were needed by the British Navy and were nearly the only product that England allowed to be exported from the Colonies.$_8$ Tinker owned large tracts of land in that part of Windsor called Massaco, which later became Simsbury, CT. He returned to Boston by 1648 and divested himself of the Windsor land holdings in 1654_9.

The Aspinwall Notarial records of Boston verified the divorce of a Sarah Barnes from her husband William Barnes by Order of the Court dated 6 (4) 1648_{10}. Sarah had been deserted by Her husband, William Barnes "of Glouster", and according to the law at that time she was able to obtain a divorce after a period of three years. The divorce was not recorded until 29 (8),1649, and the record immediately following this certifies the marriage of Sarah Barnes to John Tinker. The very next record concerned the property of John Tinker's wife Sarah, and referred to Gregory Willshere of Breadstreet, in London,$_{11}$ Ironmonger, as Tinker's "trusty and welbeloved brother". "A letter dated April 1, 1653, from Robert Hawthorne of Bray, to his brother William Hawthorne of New

2.Appearing in Boston in 1635, already a well educated man, might indicate a University education gained in England before coming to the Colonies.

3.A "supercargo" was the business manager or overseer, and the one responsible for the cargo, in John Tinker's case he was also the owner of a significant portion of that cargo.

10.EARLY HISTORY OF BOSTON Vol.32; Aspinwall Notarial Records, Records of William Aspinwall Recorder of the Suffolk County Court 1644 through 1651, Page 251. The month in ( ), year starts Mar. 25. A SEARCH FOR POWER, The Weaker Sex in Seventeenth-Century New England, by Lyle Koehler, Appendix 1, No.5, cites the date of the divorce as 1647. The application for divorce filed by Sarah against William Barnes of Gloucester was filed 19 (8) 1647.

11.Breadstreet was where some of the Stancliffes lived in London at that time.

England was addressed to the care of Mr Tinker at Wm. Willsheers house, Ironmonger....in Bredstreet, London."[1] It would seem then, that John Tinker's first wife was SARAH [WILLSHERE] BARNES, sister of Gregory Willshere or Wiltshire.

At the time the records were recorded Sarah [Willshere] Barnes Tinker had already died. Only three weeks had passed from the date of the divorce until Sarah's Inventory in Suffolk County Records was taken 22 (5) 1648. The inventory and Will from records of Suffolk County, MA are erroneously listed under the name of Henry Kemball[2].

Sarah [Wiltshire] Barnes Tinker had two daughters at the time of her death, Mary and Alice[3]. The eldest daughter was entrusted to the care of Richard Cooke, tailor of Boston, and the younger daughter to the care of John Tinker. It is possible that the wife of Richard Cooke might be the sister of Sarah. In 1651 the Inventory of one Henry Sandyes[4] mentions debts owed to a very great number of people throughout the state of Massachusetts, including John Tinker and "Jno Tinker's other wife's sister" indicating that Sarah [Willshere] Barnes Tinker had a sister living in the Boston area at that time.

John Tinker married before Dec. 9, 1649 as his second wife ALICE SMITH daughter of John and Mary [____] Smith of Boston, Sudbury and Lancaster, MA, born Nov. 20, 1629 and died in Lyme, CT on her birthday, Nov. 20, 1714, at age 85[5]. While the record of John Tinker's second marriage has not been found, there is an entry in Aspinwall's Notarial Records in which both John and Alice act as witnesses to a land transaction in which Amos Richardson was the attorney, dated Dec. 9, 1649. On this date Alice signed her name Alice Tinker.

Although he was listed as an original proprietor of Groton or Groaten, MA along with brothers in law Richard Smith and Amos Richardson, he lived there only a short time if at all[6]. Amos Richardson, tailor, remained in Boston, Richard Smith moved to Sudbury and John Tinker located in Lancaster.

The family was in Lancaster, MA by 1655 and lived there through 1659. John Tinker was granted a sizable real estate holding to entice him to that area. His education and skills in government were needed. He was Clerk of the Town during his entire residence in that place. He never relinquished his private enterprise and remained a trader with the Indians. He was even termed "the Nashaway Trader", Nashaway being the Indian name for the Lancaster area. In 1659, John Tinker sold his land and future rights to land in Lancaster, to Major Simon Willard[7], and removed to Pequot in the Connecticut Colony.

Some of the most important men in the Boston, Lancaster, MA areas organized themselves into a group termed "The Atherton Partners" and purchased a large tract of land in the "Narragansett Lands" an area that was something of a buffer zone between the colonies of Massachusetts and Connecticut. The Atherton Partners were John Winthrop Jr., Major Humphrey Atherton, Capt. Hutchinson, William Hudson, John Tinker, Amos Richardson, and Richard Smith Sr, but the presence in the Pequot area of several men called at various times Richard Smith Sr. precludes a positive identification of the Richard Smith in the Atherton Company as the same man from Sudbury and Lancaster. Both John Tinker and Amos Richardson were married to sisters of Richard Smith[8]. Amos Richardson in 1653 deals with a millwright in Boston whom he called brother and later brother in law. John Tinker, in a 1659 letter to Governor John Winthrop Jr. in Hartford stated that he had just arrived in Pequot and his wife's brother had moved to Pequot with him. Pending an agreement on terms, John Tinker proposed that his brother in law might help the Governor to keep his Saw-Mill working over the winter. Subsequent letters indicate that the proposal was never acted upon. Alice [Smith] Tinker's brother was Richard Smith of Boston, Groton, Sudbury and Lancaster, MA and later of Lyme, CT. He was termed a "Millwright" in Lancaster, MA[9]. Amos Richardson and Richard Smith had land dealings in Saybrook and Amos Richardson signed over to Master Richard Smith all interest and right to land in Saybrook which he had received by deed from John Comstock, signed April 9, 1660. The land appeared in the Saybrook records as there had not yet been a separation making Saybrook and Lyme distinct jurisdictions. Before his death John Tinker gave Amos Richardson a deed for 240 acres of land "on the east side of the river" in trust for his eldest son, an action usually reserved for a relative.

In 1659 the area called Pequot encompassed what today is Groton, Stonington, New London, Waterford, Niantic and parts of Saybrook later called Lyme. John Tinker's land holdings or rights to land were scattered, and were in areas that stretched from Richardson, the author does not believe that the wife of Amos was really Mary Smith, daughter of John Smith of Boston and Sudbury, nor does he believe that Richard Smith in Atherton Company is the same man found in Groton and Sudbury, MA. While the identification of the Richard Smith of the Atherton Company is not clear, it does seem certain that Richard Smith, brother of Alice [Smith] Tinker was in the area. Charles Dyer Parkhurst of New London , CT, Donald Lines Jacobus and William Durant have all researched the family and have all accepted Mary Smith as wife of Amos Richardson.

the "Narragansett lands", now Rhode Island, to Stonington, CT and along the coast to Saybrook, CT[1]. His major business holdings, wharfs and warehouses, were located in the town of New London where he resided with his family.

There is an original document in the Connecticut Archives[2] that was written in the hand of John Tinker himself in which, Mateteamo, a Chief of the Mohegan Indians, for love and affection gave a gift of land to John Tinker on Dec. 30, 1659. A tract of land was also granted to John Tinker by the Town of New London in October 1659[3].

In Pequot John Tinker was active in local and Colonial government as well as Ecclesiastical affairs. Richard Blinman, the minister of the First Congregational Church of New London, left the area soon after John Tinker arrived. Before leaving, Rev. Richard Blinman sold to John Tinker, The Harbour's Mouth Farm, located on the west side of the mouth of the Thames River. Today this area can be identified as being at Great Neck, near Pleasure Beach, Waterford, CT. The Harbour's Mouth Farm was later called "Tinker's Farm"[4]. The town was without a minister for some time and John Tinker frequently served the congregation as a preacher until the new minister arrived[5]. He also carried on his shipping trade business and in 1660 John Tinker was licensed by the Colony to distill and sell liquor in New London and to suppress by law anyone else attempting to do the same. He was granted a monopoly in this area[6].

The government of the Colony of Connecticut was located at Hartford, CT. The Governor, the Council, and the General Court, conducted the business of the Colony. There was a need to oversee the civil matters at the local level too and before "County Courts" were established in 1666, "Assistants" were appointed in major communities to hold court and direct the Government business. In May 1660 the General Court at Hartford granted New London the right to have an Assistant and Commissioners with power to hold Court on small cases. John Tinker was appointed Assistant for the New London area along with Commissioners, Obediah Bruen, James Rogers, Lt. Smith (Samuel) and John Smith[7].

Serving in the capacity of Chief Magistrate of the Court at New London, John Tinker evidently refused to prosecute an individual who had allegedly made derogatory remarks about the King of England[8]. This caused three overly zealous men to accuse John himself of a treasonous act. They were William Thompson, the Indian Missionary, Richard Haughton, and William Morton, the Constable. John Tinker brought charges against his accusers for defamation. He died while attending the General Court session at Hartford in October 1662, before the suit had been resolved. The charges of treason against John Tinker were regarded by the court to have no substance and the men who had sought to malign his character sustained fines. The moderator hearing the charges at the trial of Constable Morton, answered Morton's demand for "justice for the king" by saying to Morton "he should have justice, if it were to hang half a dusen of you."[9]

As an expression of respect, the expense of John Tinker's last illness and funeral amounting to £8-6-4 was assumed by the Public Treasury of the Colony of Connecticut by vote of the General Court. He was probably buried in the Center Church Yard in Hartford, as were many of the important men of the Colony in the early days, even though their residence was in another part of the Colony. If there was a stone for John Tinker, it no longer exists.

In 1663, much too long after the death of John Tinker, it became evident that the widow Tinker was "with child". Since this was not to be tolerated in a Puritan Community, Alice was forced to face the Court and be examined[10]. It is not clear who made the complaint, but Alice admitted the circumstance and further shocked the community by stating that the father of her unborn child was the 21 year old son of the former minister, Jeremiah Blinman. Alice paid a fine. In other Court cases there was frequently a choice of punishment, a woman could be forced to wear some sort of identification pinned to her bonnet proclaiming her sin, but for affluent sinners, the Court was satisfied to exact punishment in the form of money, the usual fine for "impurity" being £5. It is probable that the Court accepted Alice's statement about Jeremiah Blinman, as he too paid a fine of £5 in 1663. But Jeremiah was not the father of the child, and we will never know why he was thus accused. The father was Lt. Samuel Smith, one of the commissioners of New London, and a married man. It was thought that a women in labor would be unable to lie about the paternity of her child. The Court so firmly believed this evidence, that it was sufficient to cause a man to become legally responsible for the financial support of a child when he was identified under these circumstances[11]. Perhaps this was what led Samuel Smith to desert his wife and move to Virginia and finally the Carolinas, perhaps he feared the censure of his peers, but more likely he simply did not want to face up to such an unsettling circumstance. Smith spent a great deal of time at the local Tavern and evidently talked freely as a result. When his wife, Rebecca, applied for a divorce on grounds of desertion, there were letters and depositions supplied that indicated that Samuel Smith had told numerous people that he must leave town before Mrs. Tinker's baby was born, as he was responsible[1]. It would even seem that he took the daughter of the local Tavern owner with him when he left. There were also documents saying Samuel Smith offered to pay a significant sum of money, a reward, to anyone who would take the child and deliver it to him, whether it was weaned or not. So it is the more surprising that several printed sources feign ignorance to the reason that Lt. Smith left town and even suggest that it was an act of self sacrifice on his part to allow his wife to marry another man. Rebecca Smith received her divorce in 1667, returned to her family in Wethersfield, and did indeed marry again.

Samuel Smith's property as may be needed to pay his debts. Seems to indicate that he has already left town, so would guess the time about 1-2 months before the child of Alice was due.

Alice Tinker had a child in the spring of 1664. She then remarried before Jan. 27, 1664/5[2] to Attorney and Scrivener, William Measure. William Measure was born about 1636[3], died on Mar. 24, 1688[4] and his Inventory, registered in Boston, MA was dated July 27, 1688. Gov.E. Andros granted Administration to his relict, Alice, on Jun. 26, 1688. George Dennison, a magistrate of Stonington, CT, was ordered to appear at the Court at Hartford as a result of performing this marriage. Frances Caulkins speculated that it was because of the "scandalous behavior of Alice Tinker"[5] but in her book Miss Caulkins says it was because Capt. Dennison had received his commission from Massachusetts Colony and Connecticut probably did not consider that he had the authority to perform the marriage. What ever the case, George Dennison had a long history of refusing to submit to Connecticut authority, and it will be noted that he refused to appear before the Connecticut Court to answer these charges against him.

William and Alice [Smith] Tinker Measure took the Tinker children and moved to Lyme, CT. soon after their marriage. William Measure's name appears frequently in Town records and it is clear that he was very active in civic affairs. At a Lyme Town meeting on Jan. 18, 1680/81 William Measure was granted the license to run "an ordinary" or an Inn. At the same meeting "Mr. Wm Measure was chosen and Agreed with to keep A Schoole and to teach Children to Read Wright and Cost Accounting According to theire Capasitys" [6].

Amos and Samuel Tinker as well as Alice and William Measure obtained land from the Town of Lyme "by grant". It was by right of John Tinker, who must have been a proprietor of Lyme, as in later divisions of the town property, descendants of John Tinker received headrights by virtue of being descendants of John Tinker. John Tinker Jr. never claimed the land in Stonington or Groton that was put in trust for him by his father, and that land was sold years later by Samuel Tinker with approval of the Court[7]. John Tinker Jr does not appear in any record after the death of his father. So on Jun. 18, 1688 when Amos Tinker presented a grievance at a Lyme Town Meeting because his brother John Tinker, deceased, had not received his portion of the land in the fourth division, the fact that the Town did grant land to John Tinker (Jr) indicates "head rights"[8]. At a much later date land was laid out in the right of Mary as "daughter of John Tinker"[9]. This was after Mary's death and the only reason for mentioning her father would be to establish her right to the land. It is something of a mystery that William Measure did not marry Alice before the birth of Sarah, but possibly as long as Alice remained the legal widow of John Tinker, the law looked upon all of her children as children of John. Sarah [Tinker] Hudson, claimed her "headright" in land of the fourth division of Lyme by virtue of being "daughter of John Tinker"[10]. All of John Tinker's heirs received grants of land in Lyme, with the exception of Rhoda. The only knowledge of Rhoda is her birth and mention of her in her father's will.

4. AMOS TINKER born Lancaster, MA Oct. 28, 1657_1 baptized First Church of Boston May 16, 1658 (16 day 3mo) died New London, CT May 8, 1730 in his 73rd $year_2$ buried in "Ye Towne's Antientest Burial Place" New London, CT married Lyme, CT June 1, 1682_3 SARAH DURANT daughter of George and Elizabeth [Blake] Durant of Lyme and Middletown, CT. He lived in the Lyme area until the death of his mother and then returned to New London.
5. SAMUEL TINKER born Lancaster, MA or New London, CT April 1, 1659_4 died Lyme, CT Apr. 28, 1733 and buried Duck River Cemetery, Lyme, CT under a stone carved by William $Stanclift_5$. He married ABIGAIL DURANT daughter of George and Elizabeth [Blake] Durant of Lyme and Middletown, CT who died Southold, Long Island Dec. 24, 1728_6. Samuel lived Lyme, CT until sometime after 1692, he moved to Shelter Island and then to Southold, Long Island, NY. After the death of his wife he returned to Lyme, CT to live with his son, Samuel.
6. MALE- TINKER born New London, CT April 1, 1660. Alice was ill before the child was born and according to a letter written by John Tinker in New London to John Winthrop (Jr), Governor of the Connecticut Colony in Hartford, she wanted little to eat other than oatmeal. This was in short supply and John Tinker asked the governor to send some as soon as possible. The wife of Governor Winthrop sent the oatmeal from Hartford for Alice. John wrote to extend his thanks in a letter dated (12: 1mo; 1659/60) Mar. 12, 1659/60 and mentioned that the baby was due very soon. In a subsequent letter dated (4th: 2mo: 1660) or April 4, 1660 John Tinker told Gov. Winthrop "My wife through Gods mercy, was delivered the last Lords day, erly in the morning of a sonne"$_7$. Interesting that this was exactly one year to the day from the date of Samuel's birth as listed in Lancaster, MA Records. No further records of this child have ever been found, and the fact that John Tinker's death was included in Lancaster, MA records when he died in Connecticut, brings up the possibility that Samuel's birth may have also been registered in Lancaster records even though he was born in New London, but with an error in year. The confusion in the records concerning the birthdate of Samuel Tinker makes it likely that this was Samuel.
7. RHODA TINKER born New London, CT Feb. 23, 1661, mentioned in father's Probate records as an heir, but no further record of her has been found.
8. SARAH TINKER born New London or $Lyme,_8$ CT in the spring of 1664_9 died Sept. 11, 1746_{10} buried Presbyterian Cemetery, Brookhaven, Long Island married Lyme, CT Jun. 17, 1686_{11} JONATHAN HUDSON born 1658 and died April 5, 1729 aged 71 years and buried in the "Old Quaker Burying Ground" or Sylvester Manor Cemetery, Shelter Island, Long Island, NY. Sarah was listed in the Lyme Land Records as "daughter of John Tinker", and received a headright allowance of land commensurate with that given to an heir of an original proprietor.

3.Lyme Land Records LLR1, page 95.

4.This date listed in the Hartford District Probate Records, Vol III, page 3-4 of John Tinker and repeated in the LANCASTER RECORDS, by Henry S. Noure, APPENDIX page 452. The Durant manuscript states that Samuel was born in New London same date. Samuel's gravestone indicates he was born 1663, which is an error.

5.This is a triple arched brownstone with lettering only and still easily read "HERE LYETH Ye BODY OF SAMUEL TINKER SENr DIED APRIL Ye 28 1733 IN Ye 71 YEAR OF HIS AGE" which would have put his birthyear at 1663. This date in error as Samuel listed in father's probate records in 1662. THE ANCESTORS OF SILAS TINKER IN AMERICA by A. B. Tinker, 1889, page 8, agrees with date, but says he was in his 75th year, no source given for the statement.

6.Salmon Records of Southold, LI

7.Letter in THE WINTHROP PAPERS from John Tinker dated 4th: 2 mo: 1660 saying that a son was born the previous Sunday, and according to the Minor Diary 1660 "The second month is Aprile 30 days & sabath day the first and sabath day the 8.".

8.LYME LAND AND PROPERTY RECORDS Vol. 5, page 19, specified that she was born in Lyme, but other records indicate Alice and William Measure lived New London this date.

9.Date based on March date of mother's Court appearance, Samuel Smith's statement that he had but nine weeks before the child was born and must leave town, and the fact that he had left town by March, when Court ordered some of his property sold to satisfy his debts.

10.The stone for Sarah Hudson widow of Jonathan Hudson, clearly reads age 72, which after considering all related facts must be considered an error and should read 82. A child born 1674 could in no way be considered a daughter of John Tinker, specially since her mother was married to William Measure that date, and aged 45. If born 1674, she was married at age 12 and had first child at age 13, while not impossible, that is certainly not likely.

WALLER FAMILY

MARY TINKER married WILLIAM WALLER JR

The first husband and daughters of Mary [Tinker] Waller Stanclift, wife of James Stanclift (1). The Waller children were raised in the household of James Stanclift.

WILLIAM WALLER JUNIOR

The son of Ensign William and Elizabeth [Marvin] Waller[1] born about 1650. His father and the family of his mother were very prominent in Lyme, CT. About 1676 he married MARY TINKER daughter of John and Alice [Smith] Tinker born Boston, MA July 2, 1653[2]. The couple had three daughters before William died between Sept. 22, 1681 and Jun. 9, 1682[3].

On December 7, 1685, his relict, Mary Waller, acting as administratrix on the estate of William Waller, put her financial affairs in order, probably in anticipation of her marriage to James Stanclift. Mary put the right in the Waller land that was to be her daughters' inheritance in trust, with "my brothers Amos Tinker and John Waller of Lyme"[4], which means that she actually put the deeds into their names to hold for her daughters. In those days "in trust" meant exactly that. Mary [Tinker] Waller's daughters were to come into possession of said rights at age 18 or at time of marriage. The document was witnessed by Mary's step father, William Measure.[5]

As a son of an original proprietor of Lyme William Waller Jr owned rights to the undivided land owned by the town of Lyme. He had drawn Lott number 21 in the fourth division of Lyme[6]. The rights to this land in the fourth division of Lyme served to identify Mary as the wife of James Stancliff. These rights also identified William's daughters and their husbands at a later date.

CHILDREN: William and Mary [Tinker] Waller

1. ELIZABETH WALLER born about 1677. She was baptized March 17, 1695 in the Middletown Congregational Church as an adult, "Owning the Covenant"[7] at the time. Elizabeth sold her rights in her father's land in Lyme to her uncle, Amos Tinker, on April 1, 1699.[8] Elizabeth, daughter of William Waller Jr was so identified in two other Lyme land deeds. By 1722 Elizabeth was termed in the land records as "Elizabeth Spencer, widow of Saybrook"[9] She married ____ SPENCER[10] and lived Saybrook, CT.
2. MARY WALLER born Lyme in the spring of 1679[11], died before Feb. 28, 1734/5[12]. She was baptized with the three oldest Stanclift children in the Middletown Congregational Church on March 4, 1694[13]. When she was aged 18 on Nov. 10, 1697, Mary Waller sold her rights in father's land in Lyme to her uncle, Samuel Tinker. Her step father, James Stanclift was a witness to the transaction, and he signed the document with his "mason's mark ⊣"[14]. When Samuel Tinker sold the land in 1719 he referred to her as "Cousin Mary Waller Jr".[15] Mary appears in Middletown records at the time that a natural child named John Thomas "child of Mary Woller and John Thomas"

(4:34) Sept. 22, 1682 Inventory of William Waller exhibited and widow appointed Administrator. (5:76) In the Estate of William Waller; thirds were ordered to widow, but a sale of land needed to pay debts. Mary sold tracts of land to her step father William Measure and to her brother Amos Tinker.

4.Amos Tinker, brother Samuel Tinker, and John Waller had a relationship of their own. They were brothers in law, John married Mary Durant, Amos married Sarah Durant and Samuel married Abigail Durant, all daughters of George and Elizabeth [Blaque] Durant. John Waller died shortly after the deed was executed.

was born to her on Feb. 9, 1697[1]. By 1716 she used the name Mary Thomas, so it is probable that she married JOHN THOMAS. He was a neighbor of the Stanclift family and Mary's stepfather, James Stanclift, obtained a Court Judgement against John Thomas for a £10-00-00 debt in 1696 and on March 6, 1699 as settlement of that judgement took a portion of John Thomas' land[2].

3. ALICE WALLER the youngest daughter born about 1680[3]. She sold her rights to her father's land to her uncle, Amos Tinker, on Feb. 6, 1700. She was living with her uncle Samuel Tinker on Shelter Island when she married 1.Southold, Long Island Jan. 14, 1706/7 JOHN EDWARDS[4] married 2. by 1734[5] DANIEL ANDRUS/ANDREWS said in Land Records to be of Glastonbury[6].

WARD FAMILY I

(305) HIRAM STANCLIFF married SARAH WARD

JOHN WARD

Born New York Mar. 7, 1782, died McKean, Erie County, PA where his letter of Administration was issued Oct. 16, 1854, married Ernestown, Lennox and Addington County, Ontario, Canada July 26, 1807 CHRISTINA or CHRISTIANA HOUGH[7], who was by family records identified as the sister of Lucy Hough, wife of Timothy Stancliff.

John Ward Senior was living in the household of his son John in the 1850 Census. There is no mention of Christiana [Hough] Ward in the Erie County Records, nor in the Will of John Ward in 1848.

I John Ward of McKean Township Erie County Pennsylvania being advanced in life but of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament (hereby revoking all former wills) in manner following viz first I give and bequeath to my Daughter Sarah One dollar, Secondly I give and bequeath to my two sons John Ward Jun and James Harvey Ward all the property I shall posses at my decease (except the one dollar mentioned above) both real and personal and mixed to be equally divided between them after paying my debts and my funeral expenses and the expenses arising from the execution of this will. And I hereby appoint John Wilcox of McKean Township and Alanson Clarke of Washington Township Erie County Pennsylvania to execute this will.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this thirtieth day of September
In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight

John Ward

CHILDREN: John and Christiana [Hough] Ward[8], all born Canada

1. LUCY WARD born Mar.31, 1808. This person is the possible source of one of the "Ward mysteries", there is a cemetery record in Erie County, PA that reports the death of Lucy Stancliff, wife of Hiram and daughter of John and Christina Ward died Mar. 16, 1848, Æ 30[9], this is further complicated by an obituary in Vol.VIII, NO.46, page 3 of the Erie Chronicle issue of March 28, 1848 which reports "DIED, In McKean on the 15th inst.Mrs. Eliza, consort of Hiram Stancliff, aged 38. The records would seem to be for the same person, but even the identity of the Hiram Stancliff cited is a mystery.
2. JOHN WARD born Jan. 28, 1810, died Erie County, PA Nov. 6, 1893, buried Sharp's Corners Cemetery with wife and four of his children. He married HANNAH ____ born Canada Sept. 26, 1820, died Erie County, PA Nov. 15, 1893. John emigrated from Lennox and Addington County, Ontario, Canada to Erie County, PA in 1838 and was sponsored by William Lander[10] of Washington Township. The date on his Naturalization Certificate was Oct. 16, 1854, the same date that he obtained a Letter of Administration on his father's estate.
3. EZRA WARD born Dec. 14, 1812, not mentioned in father's 1848 will.

1.Barbour Records list her as being "of New London", but the record appears on the same page of the Land Records Vol.I, page 353 as the births of James and Mary Stanclift's children and the original document says nothing about New London.

WELLES FAMILY

(61) JAMES STANCLIFT married MERIBAH WELLES

DOCTOR[5] JOHN WELLES (Joseph [4],Capt.Robert [3],John [2],Governor Thomas [1])
Probably born Wethersfield, Nov. 13, 1710_1, son of Joseph and Hannah [Robbins] Welles, died Feb. 19, 1771. He seems to have a close association with the Francis family in Wethersfield. His gravestone in the Wethersfield Cemetery reads "In Memory of Dr. John Welles, who died Feb'r.19th 1771, Aged 60 Years". Guardianship of two of his minor children was awarded in 1786 to Josiah Francis 2nd, it is probable that his widow died about that time. It is possible that his wife was part of the Francis family.
CHILDREN: Dr. John Welles probably born Wethersfield

1. MERIBAH WELLES born 1767 died Chatham, CT Sept. 13, 1844 Æ 77 yrs. (g.s.) married Dec. 6, 1787 JAMES STANCLIFT of Chatham, CT, son of James 3rd and Sussanah [Bunce] Stanclift. James Stanclift served as Administrator on the estate of Benoni Welles.
2. FEMALE CHILD WELLES born between 1768 and 1770 married BENJAMIN JUNE and both she and her husband died before 1797, leaving as heir to Benoni's estate Benjamin June Jr., only child of this daughter. She was placed in this position as her heir was listed after Meribah in Benoni's estate distribution, and this was usually done in chronological progression.
3. BENONI WELLES born 1770 and died before 1795 unmarried. The Probate Papers of Benoni $Welles_2$ contain, Letter of Administration dated May 28, 1795, Inventory dated May 28, 1795, and Distribution of Estate Apr. 4, 1797, naming his three sisters, or in one case the heir of a sister. His age was cited on the guardianship documents as 16 on Feb. 7, 1786. Josiah Francis 2nd of Wethersfield was appointed his guardian.
4. MARY WELLES born 1771/2 married SAMUEL HUSTON. On Jan. 10, 1786 Guardianship of Mary Wells age 14, the minor daughter of John Welles was granted to Josiah Francis 2nd of Wethersfield.

WESCOTT FAMILY

(373) GEORGE SHERMAN STANCLIFFE married ABBIE LUCY WESCOTT
(664) MABEL E. STANCLIFFE married RALPH E. WESCOTT

JOSEPH B. $WESCOTT_3$
Son of Ira L. and Clarissa [Afford] Wescott and a brother of Rufus A. Wescott, born about 1834, died June 26, 1901 Æ 67, buried Titusville Cemetery, Malone, Franklin County, NY, married 1. May 15, 1861 LUCY M. SPICER born Feb. 22, 1845, died July 24, 1885 Æ 40 years, 5 months and 2 days, buried next to Joseph. They lie in the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery under matching monuments. He married 2. in 1889 MARY D. [EDWARDS] DEWEY, widow of Sylvanus Dewey and daughter of Alfred and Harriet [Miller] Edwards born Sag Harbor, Long Island, NY Jun. 1845, died Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY Feb. 7, 1917.

They appeared in the 1900 Census records and Mary that record indicates she had never had any children. This must be a report of children in present marriage only as Mary did have five children by her previous marriage. According to her obituary two of her daughters married children of Joseph B. Wescott.

Joseph's sons Clayton and Ralph were living in his household in 1900_4 and they lived near George Sherman Stancliffe, Thomas Eddy, William M. Wescott, the Cunningham and Safford families.

1.Wethersfield Records indicate the birth of John to Joseph on this date added to the dates on the gravestone makes the identification of Dr. John as son of Joseph likely. GENEALOGIES AND BIOGRAPHIES OF ANCIENT WETHERSFIELD page 765 says John is possibly this man.

2.Both the Probate papers and the Guardianship papers were found in the Archives of the Connecticut State Library

3.The records of this man come from the research of Chris J. Bashaw of Chasm Falls and Schenectedy, NY and the family records of Della [Stancliffe] Berry.

4.NY 1900 CENSUS, Franklin County, Town Malone, E.D. 80, Sheet 1, Enumerated by Russell J. Cunningham June 2, 1900.

The father of Joseph, Ira L. Wescott, was the first of that name to settle in Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY. He had been born Peru, NY Jan. 1, 1806 the son of Joseph and Olive Wescott. The family is said to trace it's ancestors to Stukely Wescott of RI.

Bill and Della [Stancliffe] Berry tell of the mural in the "Brick Front Church" or the Methodist Episcopal Church in Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY. It is a pastoral scene in which the shepherd watching over a flock of sheep is a likeness of Joseph Wescott, a son of William Mason Wescott.

CHILDREN: Joseph and Lucy M. [Spicer] Wescott

1. WILLIAM MASON WESCOTT born Mar. 18, 1865, died Dec. 30, 1944 and living very near to Joseph B. in 1900. He married 1. Mar. 14, 1889 EVA E. AYERS daughter of William J. Ayers born NY Feb. 1863, died of Pneumonia in 1901. He married 2. May 21, 1902 FLORENCE MABEL DEWEY daughter of Sylvanus and Mary D. [Edwards] Dewey born May 17, 1880, died Dec. 26, 1951. Florence was a daughter of William's step-mother.
   When a young man William dreamed of owning a Store and towards that end he felled the trees for the lumber and constructed the store himself. There he sold the provisions needed in his community of Chasm Falls.
2. ABBIE LUCY WESCOTT born NY Feb. 1862 according to the 1880 and 1900 Census records. She married GEORGE SHERMAN STANCLIFFE son of Sherman and Dellcy [Earle] Stancliffe born Jun. 18, 1858. George lived for a number of years in Rock Creek, Pine County, MN as did Abbie's uncle, Ira L. Wescott.
3. LAWRENCE WESCOTT born NY Aug. 1866 married 1890 IDA G. HAPGOOD daughter of Wesley and Delia [Earle] Hapgood born Aug. 1865. They had no children in 1900. Ida's mother Delia Hapgood was living in their household that year and they were located next door to Ida's brother John and his family[1]. Delia Hapgood was the daughter of Willard and Olive [Stancliffe] Earle.
4. HERBERT WESCOTT married JESSIE DEWEY daughter of Sylvanus and Mary D. [Edwards] Dewey. Jessie was the daughter of Herbert's step-mother and sister of William's wife.
5. RENA WESCOTT was married. She was the only child not listed as a survivor in her father, Joseph's 1901 Obituary.
6. EDITH WESCOTT was married.
7. CLAYTON A. WESCOTT born NY Mar. 1882. He was living in father's household in 1900. Married NELLIE FOOTE.
8. RALPH E. WESCOTT born Malone, Franklin County, NY Jun. 16, 1885, died there Jan. 15, 1957, married 1. Chasm Falls, Franklin County, NY Dec. 8, 1911 MABLE E. STANCLIFFE daughter of Giles H. and Cora E. [Safford] Stancliffe who died Oct. 21, 1948, married 2. West Springfield, Hampden County, MA Dec. 22, 1949 LILIAN SWAGNE. He was living in his father's household in 1900.

WHITTAKER FAMILY

(533) SETH STANCLIFF married ANGELINE WHITTAKER

RODMAN WHITTAKER

Rodman Whittaker was a Physician living in Beaver Township, Crawford County, PA near the home of Alpheus Stanclift. He was born NY 1819. He had in his household in 1870 ROSETTA EVERETT, born NY 1834 and "keeping house" for the family. If this is the Rosetta Whittaker to whom the children listed below signed over land in Beaver Township on Nov. 10, 1880_1, she was probably the second wife and widow of Rodman Whittaker at that date. Also in the household in 1870_2 were children Orrin, Chloe, Alsina and Ilura Whittaker. Rosetta did not appear with Rodman in the 1880 Census Records taken on Jun. 14, 1880, but next door to Rodman Whittaker in 1880 was Luther and Alzina [Whittaker] Munger. At that date his daughter Ilura was "keeping house" and there was also an eight month old grandaughter named Blanche Whittaker in his household. The 1880 Crawford County Land Record was almost certainly an Estate distribution, and it describes the following siblings who may have been signing their share of the Estate over to the widow. For the sum of $5.00 they all released a parcel of land in Beaver Township, Crawford County, PA to Rosetta Whittaker.

CHILDREN: These related siblings are the heirs to a Whittaker estate last four were in the household of Rodman Whittaker in 1870.

1. E. B. WHITTAKER married MARGARET _____.
2. LUCY WHITTAKER married _____ BAKER.
3. ANGELINE WHITTAKER born PA 1845,married SETH STANCLIFT.
4. ORRIN L. WHITTAKER born PA 1849, married HESTER _____.
5. CHLOE N. WHITTAKER born PA 1854, married S. M. WEBSTER and was probably the mother of the Myrtle Webster born PA in 1890 and enumerated with the family of Seth and Angeline Stanclift in 1900 Census and termed a neice. In 1897 Seth and Angeline [Whittaker] Stancliff conveyed land in Albion, Conneaut Township, Erie County, PA to R. Ray Webster and Charles Webster of Albion, land conveyed to them by administrator's deed by J. R. Kennedy, land originally deeded to Elizabeth O'Conner in 1887.
6. ALZINA WHITTAKER born PA 1858, married LUCIUS L. MUNGER (Emory[6], Ebenezer[5], John[4], Jonathan[3], John[2], Nicholas[1]) son of Emory and Jerusha [Fuller] Munger born Conneaut Township, Erie County, PA Nov. 6, 1854. Lucius, Luther or "Lute" Munger according to the Munger Genealogy, Descendants of Nicholas Munger was one of twins and by occupation was a Carpenter, also according to the genealogy Lucius Munger married at Conneautville, Crawford County, PA Alzina Whittaker.

   In 1917 Lute L. Munger and Parmelia S. Munger conveyed land in West Springfield, Erie County, PA to Seth and Angeline Stanclift for the sum of $1.00. Alzina was possibly Alzina Parmelia Whittaker or they had a daughter named $Parmelia_3$.
7. ILURA WHITTAKER born PA 1864, she was not yet of legal age at the time the 1880 Land deed was signed. It possible that the unidentified signer named GEORGE SPAULDING was acting as a guardian for a minor during this transaction. The Land Record did not specify "and his heirs" when listing George Spaulding, so he was probably not an heir. Ilura was living in the household of her father in 1880.

WOOD FAMILY I

(6) JAMES STANCLIFT JR married MARTHA WOOD

JOHN WOOD

Born about 1690, as his gravestone indicates that he died Mar. 31, 1770 in the 81st year of his age[1]. He married LYDIA ____, who is probably the person recorded in the Church records as "John Wood, his widow died Nov. 28, 1781"[2].

John Wood arrived in East Middletown, Hartford County, CT about 1733 and the records of the Church indicate that he was admitted on Nov. 9, 1733[3]. John Wood was referred to as being "of Haddam West", purchased land from Thomas Bevin, widower of Martha [Stanclift] Bevin, on Mar. 30, 1734/5[4], the two pieces of land totaled about 35 acres and were located in East Middletown. Other records indicate that he was "of Wethersfield". The only record found in Wethersfield was the birth of Martha in 1717. The records in Haddam reveal very little more than the Wethersfield records. The birth of John Wood's son, Justus, was registered in the Haddam Land Records[5] in 1723 and on the same page in those records Feb. 3, 1723/4 John Wood's earmark for cattle was recorded "a crop on the off ear and a swallow tail in the crop". John Wood may have returned to Wethersfield before making his final move to Middletown. While there has been nothing in the records to point to the identification of John Wood, he made a great contribution to the research of the James Stanclift Jr family by placing Martha's inheritance in the form of Real Estate and creating an entailment to insure that only Martha's children would benefit from that inheritance. In accepting the inheritance, the grandchildren were obliged to identify themselves in the Land records.

CHILDREN:John and Lydia [___] Wood

WRIGLEY FAMILY

(397) CHARLES HERMAN STANCLIFF married JENNIE WRIGLEY

THOMAS WRIGLEY

Son of Robert and Ann [Fenton] Wrigley born Lancashire, England, near Manchester, Sept. 1839, died probably in Fulton County, IL 1923 and is buried in the Texas Union Cemetery, Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL. He married 1863, ELIZABETH STANDEVEN daughter of Abraham and Eliza [Van Zile] or [Van Zea] Standeven born Paterson, Passaic County, NJ February 1844_5, died 1916 and is buried Texas Union Cemetery$_6$, Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL with husband, Thomas.

Edmund Wrigley of Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL, brother of Robert and Uncle of Thomas, was married to Hannah [Standeven] Wrigley "Anna", a sister of Abraham Standeven. They all lived near each other in Rosefield Township before Thomas and Elizabeth were married$_7$. After marriage Thomas and Elizabeth Wrigley continued to live in Rosefield Township, Peoria County, IL and the Post Office address in that area was "Trivoli" until 1870, then it changed to Oakhill. Thomas occupied the land of his father, Robert, and lived next door to his cousin, James H. Wrigley, son of William$_8$. By 1900 Thomas and Elizabeth retired from the farm and moved a few miles west to the nearest town, Farmington, Fulton County, IL$_9$.

Thomas came to this country in 1841 with his parents. His father, Robert Wrigley, was son of Thomas and Ann [Hartley]$_{10}$ Wrigley of Lancashire, England. The family appeared in the parish records of St. Leonard's at Middleton by Oldham, Lancashire, England. Five children of Robert's family immigrated to this country. Robert[1] and brothers, William[2] and Edmund Wrigley[3] settled 17 miles west of Peoria in Rosefield County, IL, and there Robert and William raised large families. Since the Wrigley family of Wyoming, Stark County, IL came from the same area in Lancashire and also had records at St. Leonards, it is probable that both families have common roots. The Standeven family came to this country from Milnrow, Lancashire, and they too lived in close proximity to the Wrigley family in England. Abraham Standeven probably left New Jersey and came to this area at the behest of Edmund and Hannah [Standeven] Wrigley.

THE STANCLIFT FAMILIES OF KENTUCKY

APPENDIX B

GENERATION FOUR[1]

(KY11) UNKNOWN STANCLIFT (Unknown[2], Unknown[1], William[2], James[1])
There can be little doubt that the first settler in Montgomery County, KY was a descendant of William[2] Stanclift$_2$ and belongs in the third or fourth generation. The spelling "Stanclift" was not used by Stancliffs in England, and seems to be unique with James[1] Stanclift of Middletown, CT. Although some of the descendants of James[1] Stanclift, adopted the spelling "Stancliff" and "Stancliffe" after the American Revolution, no case has been found where the reverse is true. Accordingly, the father of Joseph is believed to be either a son or a grandson of William$_3$.

The first record of a Stanclift male in Kentucky was Joseph Stanclift, either this man or his son, on a Tax List for Montgomery County, KY in 1800.

This man born CT probably 1740-1760, probably died before 1830 when a male of his age is no longer found in the Census$_4$, married SUSANNAH ____ born VA 1755$_5$.
CHILDREN: ____ and Susannah [____] Stanclift + KY12- 1. JOSEPH STANCLIFT born 1770-1775, died before 1840.

GENERATION FIVE

(KY12) JOSEPH[5] STANCLIFT (Unknown[4], Unknown[3], William[2], James[1])
This man born 1770-1775, died before 1840, married 1. ____, who died about 1820, married 2. about 1820 ____ born 1790-1800. He appeared in the 1810 Census in Montgomery County, KY. Bath County was created the following year from Montgomery County, so the family probably remained in the same area.
CHILDREN: Joseph and ____ Stanclift
KY13- 1. LEWIS JAMES STANCLIFT born 1784-1794$_6$
KY14- 2. MALE born 1784-1794$_7$
KY15- 3. MARY STANCLIFT born 1800-1810, married Bath County, KY Dec. 13, 1828 JEREMIAH PROCTOR. James Standgriff was listed as bondsman.
+ KY16- 4. JAMES C. STANCLIFT born KY 1803, married KY about 1831 widow SUSANNAH [SMITH] MOORE born KY 1796.
KY17- 5. MALE born 1800-1810
KY18- 6. FEMALE born 1810-1815
CHILDREN: Joseph and ____ Stanclift
KY19- 7. MALE born 1815-1820
KY20- 8. FEMALE born 1825-1830

1.Although this is the first generation found in KY, it is labeled Generation Four to be consistent with the main text.

2.All of the sons of William's only brother, James Stanclift, have been accounted for.

3.Several of the sons of William appeared in the Connecticut records at the time of birth only, and then disappeared from the records. William's son, (15) Joseph, married, had a family, and disappeared from Connecticut records before 1800. William's grandson, (43) Joseph son of Josiah, disappeared during the Revolutionary War. Both are candidates for the first man in Kentucky.

4.KY 1830 CENSUS, Bath County, Owingsville, sheet 213 for Joseph Stancliff shows two men born before 1775, one of whom is Joseph, the other of which is believed to be his father.

5.KY 1850 CENSUS, Bath County, 1st District, sheet 114, line 27, household of James shows age and birthplace of Susannah together with remainder of James' family.

6.Shown on Land and Property Records with Joseph in Montgomery County, KY.

7.KY 1810 CENSUS, Montgomery County, sheet 363 for Joseph shows 2 males age 16 to 25, one of whom is assumed to be Lewis; 3 males under 10 years, one of whom is James; and 1 female under age 10 who is believed to be Mary.

GENERATION SIX

(KY16) JAMES C.[6] STANCLIFT (Joseph[5], Unknown[4], Unknown[3], William[2], James[1])
Son of Joseph and ____ Stanclift born KY 1803, married KY about 1831 widow SUSANNAH [SMITH] MOORE born KY 1796. Susannah was the widow of Jonathan Moore. Jonathan Moore lived next door to Joseph Stanclift, father of James, in the 1820 census$_1$. Jonathan died in the Spring of 1827 or 1828$_2$. In the 1830 Census, Sussanah Moore was the head of the household and still next door to Joseph Stanclift. By 1840 James and Sussanah were living in the town of East Slate, Bath County, KY$_3$. They were in KY in 1850 but did not seem to appear in the 1860 Census.
CHILDREN: James C. and Susannah [Smith] Stanclift

KY21- 1. SUSANNAH STANCLIFT born Licking River, Bath County, KY 1833, married by Senate McCormick Owingsville, Bath County, KY CHARLES WHITINGTON, born Owingsville, Bath County, KY 1825$_4$.

KY22- 2. LEWIS STANCLIFT born KY 1835. Living alone in 1860, occupation saddler$_5$. Sep. 10, 1862 he enlisted as a private in the KY volunteers, Company I, 2nd Regiment, Kentucky Cavalry, of the Confederate Army known as the "Kentucky Dukes" and as "Morgan's Brigade" under the command of Captain S. Morgan. On Oct. 18, 1862, he was captured together with other members of his company near Versailles, Woodford County, KY while on detached duty, imprisoned near Chattanooga, Hamilton County, TN and exchanged by Union Forces in KY by Jan. 11, 1863.

+ KY23- 3. MARGARET STANCLIFT born Fleming County, KY 1837, married ALLEN WARNER Jr. (also listed as F. A. Warner).

GENERATION SEVEN

(KY22) MARGARET[7] STANCLIFT (James C.[6], Joseph[5], Unknown[4], Unknown[3], William[2], James[1])
Daughter of James C. and Susannah [Smith] Stancliff born Fleming County, KY 1837, married ALLEN WARNER Jr. (also listed as F. A. Warner).
CHILDREN: Allen and Margaret [Stanclift] Warner Jr$_6$

1. SUSAN C. WARNER born Bath County, KY Feb. 15, 1858
2. EMMA WARNER born Bath County, KY Oct. 4, 1859

1.KY 1820 CENSUS, Bath County, Town of Owingsville, page 212

2.SCOTT'S PAPERS, Kentucky Court and Other Records, compiled by Hattie Marshall Scott, published by the Kentucky Historical Society 1953. A declaration by William Moore, brother of Jonathan Moore, states that Jonathan was married to Susan Smith and that he died in the Spring of 1827 or 1828, Jonathan and Susan had four children at the time of his death and another soon after. The children were Elizabeth, Polly, Sarah, Isaac and Catherine Moore. Sometime after the death of Jonathan Moore, his widow, Susan married James C. Stanclift. William also states that they moved to Missouri.

3.KY 1840 CENSUS, Bath County, Town of East Slate, page 235.

4.Bath County, KY Vital Statistics, Class F. Reel 2, Kenton County, KY Library. Charles age 27 at time of marriage.

6.Bath County, KY Vital Statistics, Class F. Reel 2, Kenton County, KY Library. Records state that the parents were residents of Bath County, KY at the time of the births.

THE DESCENDANTS OF REVEREND JOHN STANCLIFF OF PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

APPENDIX C

DESCENDANTS OF REVEREND JOHN STANCLIFF OF PHILADELPHIA

(PH11) REV. JOHN STANCLIFF

Son of an Unknown Stancliff born 1742, died 1802[1], married 1. Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, PA June 17, 1768 ELIZABETH DEWEY[2], married 2. First Baptist Church, Philadelphia County, PA October 2, 1788 SARAH PARKER[3].

In 1774 John Stancliff was listed as a (taxable) tenant in Delaware Ward, Philadelphia, PA in the household of John Minor, Cooper. From 1777 to June 18, 1778, British Troops occupied Philadelphia. In 1779, 1781 and 1782 John was on the State Tax List for Southwark, Philadelphia County, PA[4] and lived in 1779 near Enoch David, the principle exhorter at the Pennepek (now called Pennypack) Baptist Church. After Enoch David's death John was administrator for Enoch David's estate.[5] On Dec. 26, 1781 John was paid for duty as a Private Seventh Class, Sixth Battalion, City of Philadelphia Militia[6]. 1781 and 1782.

In 1782 John was received into membership of the "Pennepek Baptist Church"[7] located in Lower Dublin Township, Philadelphia County, PA. This is subsequently identified in the records of the First Baptist Church of Philadelphia as the "Baptist Church of Christ in Lower Dublin under pastoral care of Samuel Jones". A list of representatives of the Pennepek Church to the Baptist Association between 1775 and 1801 indicates that while a member of that church JOHN STANCLIFF served as a messenger or representative of the Pennepek Church. He was associated with Rev. Samuel Jones who was in charge of the Pennepek Church during the Revolution and until his death in 1814.[8] In 1878 the First Baptist Church, Philadelphia, PA received into membership JOHN STANCLIFF Oct. 15, 1787 by letter from Lower Dublin[9]. In 1788 the First Baptist Church, Philadelphia, PA ordained John Stancliff a minister of the Gospel on Mar. 3, 1788, " John Stancliff, formerly a member of the Baptist Church of Christ in Lower Dublin under the pastoral care of Saml. Jones now a member with us, we grant unto him full liberty to Preach the Gospel to any church that may call him "[10].

In 1790 JOHN STANCLIFF was an assistant pastor at the First Baptist Church and on Oct. 12, 1789 "Brother Stancliff applied for a Letter of dismission to the Church at Cape May". But John's ministerial efforts in Cape May were being challenged by two Universalist preachers, and he sought help from an old friend, Rev. Samuel Jones. He wrote to Rev. Samuel Jones from Cape May, NJ on Aug. 4, 1790 to ask for his help in the form of an appearance at an upcoming meeting on Sept. 4, 1790. He wished to turn the congregation from the teachings of the Universalist preachers, and needed Rev. Jones' prestigious presence to help in that cause. He concludes the letter by sending regards from "Mrs. Stancliff"[11].

JOHN STANCLIFF appeared on the New Jersey Militia Rolls for Middle Township, Cape May, NJ in 1793[12]. While John seems a bit old to be serving in a Military capacity, he may have been a Chaplin for the local Militia forces. Others on this Militia List were also middle aged or beyond. Records of the Cape May, NJ Baptist Church indicate that John remained as pastor the church until his death in 1802.

John was the author of numerous pamphlets containing his sermons.[13] Included was a sermon in given in Philadelphia on July 15, 1784 entitled "The Riddle of Riddles unriddled", and in 1784 a sermon "An Account of the Trial of Doctor Joseph Priestley, For the Horrid Crime of High Treason against King of Heaven and Earth, and Supreme Governor of the United States of North America." condemning the Reverend Doctor Joseph Priestley of Leeds and Halifax, West Yorkshire, England, an ordained minister and dedicated scientist, who discovered the presence of Oxygen and the nature of "Air" and wrote a series of Scientific papers describing his experiments.

Because the birth dates of these children are before 1850 and they did not appear in the NY 1850 Census and that the Henry listed has a different birth date from 1850, it is probable that they are children of Mary Ann from a previous marriage and may or may not have been adopted by William. This is believed to be the same William as in the 1840 and 1850 Brooklyn, NY Census since he is also born in NJ at a calculated birth date within 2 years.

THE DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN STANCLIFFE OF PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

APPENDIX D

DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN STANCLIFFE OF PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

(PB11) BENJAMIN STANCLIFFE

Son of Joseph$_1$ and Ann [____] Stancliffe of Barkisland, West Yorkshire, England was baptized Ripponden, West Yorkshire, England June 20 1781 died Philadelphia, PA September 7, 1834 married Elland, West Yorkshire, England July 23, 1815 SARAH WHITELEY, born between 1790 and 1800$_2$, died Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, PA after 1860$_3$.

Sarah may have been related to the John Whiteley who was a clock maker in Ripponden, West Yorkshire, England 1790 through 1820 or his son, Thomas Whiteley who was a clock maker in Ripponden between 1820 through 1850$_4$. Benjamin was an Optician and Mathematical Instrument Maker.

On September 2, 1812 Benjamin gave to his sister Tabitha, on behalf of herself and her three sisters his property in Yorkshire. In this document he describes himself as "of the Strand, in the city of Westminster, but now of Lower Woodhead in Barkisland", (West Yorkshire, England).

It is believed that shortly thereafter Benjamin moved to Philadelphia.$_{5\ 6}$ By 1830 he was at partnership with Edmund Draper (1805-1882) in Philadelphia. The Administration Record on his estate was dated 1834 with Sarah listed as administratrix$_7$. After Benjamin's death Sarah was a milliner$_8$.

CHILDREN: Benjamin and Sarah [Whitley] Stancliffe

\+ PB12-1. WILLIAM STANCLIFF$_9$ born PA 1821$_{10}$, died between 1866 and 1868$_{11}$ married probably about 1843, MARGARET [____]$_{12}$.

(PB12) WILLIAM[2] STANCLIFF (Benjamin[1])

Son of Benjamin and Sarah [Whiteley] Stancliff born PA 1821, died between 1866 and 1868 married probably about 1843, MARGARET [____] born PA Apr. 1827, died Philadelphia, PA after 1900.

They were both quite young at the time of their marriage. William was a painter from 1846 through 1858 and again in 1864; a Hotel Keeper, Restauranteur, and a tavern owner from 1860 through 1866 in the waterfront area on 837 S. 2nd and Christian Streets.

After death of William, Margaret operated in 1868 the restaurant at 302 Christian St. She married shoemaker, William Phillips by 1870. The Stancliff children lived in the Phillips household and evidently maintained a close relationship the son of William Phillips by his first marriage, George W. Phillips, in later years. In 1900 Margaret was living in the household of George W. Phillips.

CHILDREN:William and Margaret [____] Stancliff, all born PA.

\+ PB13- 1. MARGARET STANCLIFF born 1844, married Nov. 7, 1861 JOSEPH H. GILBERT.

PB14- 2. MARY STANCLIFF born 1846

1.According to the Rev. John Shepley Stancliffe unpublished genealogy, Benjamin's line of descent is Joseph[17], John[16], William[15], Joseph[14], William[13] (of Woodhurst or Woodhead died 1649), Thomas[12], William[11], Thomas[10], William[9], John[8], John[7], John[6], William[5], John[4], Eli[3], Adam[2], John[1] de Stanclyf. Benjamin, Joseph[17] and Joseph's brother John[17], and John[16] were all noted clockmakers. See also "The Old Clockmakers of Yorkshire" by N. V. Dinsdale for information on the Stancliff clockmakers.

2.PA 1830 CENSUS, Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, PA, Dock Ward, Sheet 120 for Mr. Stanclift. This is believed to be Benjamin. It shows 1 male age 30-40 (Benjamin), 1 female age 30-40 (Sarah), 3 males age 15-20 (probably workmen or apprentices) and 1 male age 10-15 probably William.

3.Philadelphia City Directory of 1860 lists Sarah Stancliff, "widow of Benjamin" living at 1000 Girard Street.

4.Unpublished manuscript of Rev John Shepley Stancliffe.

5.Halifax Antiquarian Society Article "Local Clock and Watch Makers" by G. Dent 13 August 1955.

6.Philadelphia City Directories show Benjamin from 1817 through 1833 living at the corner of Camdac, 14 Walnut St., and 128 South Front Street.

7.INDEX of WILLS & ADMINISTRATION RECORDS, Philadelphia, PA 1832 - 1850 compiled and published by Richard T. & Mildred C. Williams, Year of Administration 1834, file number 253, Volume 0, page 145.

8.Philadelphia City Directory 1852 through 1857.

9.William Stancliff is believed to be a descendant of Benjamin because of the frequent and uncommon (among the Stancliffs in the U. S.) use of the name "Benjamin" by William and his descendants and the fact that his birth date is consistent with the 1830 CENSUS PA, Philadelphia Mr. Stanclift youngest son age of 10-15 years.

10.PA 1860 CENSUS records, City of Philadelphia, East Division, 3rd Ward, page 44, Household 285, Family 332, enumerated June 7, 1860. Did not find William in the 1850 CENSUS Index for 1850 in either PA or NJ.

11.Philadelphia City Directory lists William in 1866 and Margaret was listed in 1868 as the widow of William.

12.Margaret was living with step son, George W. Phillips, in 1900, son John Stancliff was with them and son, Benjamin, living next door.

Both of Amelia's parents were born in DE according to both the 1900 and 1910 PA Census for Amelia. Since Amelia's father spoke German fluently and very little English, the census entry may have been wrong. He is believed to have sold fish from a cart or wagon. This may have been why Amelia was in 1910 a self employed grocery dealer.

In 1900[6] the family lived on Greenville Street next door to Benjamin's mother Margaret and brother John who were living in household of George W. Phillips, son of William Phillips the second husband of Margaret. Benjamin's brother, David, and his family lived close to him, both David and Benjamin were listed as Wagon Drivers. Benjamin owned his home.

In 1900 the PA census said Amelia had 6 children with only three living. In 1910 the PA census indicated she had only five children with 3 living.

By 1910[7] George W. Phillips was living with Benjamin and his family and listed as "brother-in-law", but in fact he was the son of Margaret's second husband by an earlier marriage. In 1920 George W. Phillips was still living with George Benjamin and Mary Katherine had been previously married to Alfred Satterwhite of Atlanta, GA. They had no children.

"Will" served on the battleship U.S.S. Mississippi in World War I. He and Mary lived at 134 or 139 and 151 Fitzgerald St., Philadelphia, PA, This was near Wolf Street School which their eldest children attended and the Snyder Ave, Congregational Church where they were married. In 1983 the building was still standing with a cornerstone dated 1903. In 1920 they also lived at 145 Snyder Street together with Mary [Stancliff] Thom and her family and George W. Phillips, their grandmother's step son.

William John made several doll houses for his children and relatives which was a tradition common in Philadelphia among the German community from which his mother Amelia was descended. One of these doll houses survived in 1995 and was prized by his family.

He was a sea food and fishing enthusiast probably from his mother's and grandfather Riddick's vocations. He took his three elder sons fishing in the Delaware River and other places.

In 1927 the family moved to Atlanta, GA. "Will" was a toolmaker, a blacksmith and retired from the Pullman Company.

1.The Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index shows family of John Stancliffe of Halifax, West Yorkshire, England with two sons named Noah (one of which probably died young), a brother named Noah, and a son named William. Since Noah is an unusual name in the Stancliffe family, and since William of New York City named a son Noah, this is believed to be the family of William of New York City. This same John and children Sarah, John, Martha, and Samuel were all found between 1846 and 1857 in Pittsburgh, PA. A birth date for William from a New York City census or other source is needed to finally identify this family.

2.The City Directory of New York City for 1873 shows a Catherine as "Widow of William". In 1877 Catherine was living next door to Noah, a clerk, at 452 W. 28th St. In 1878 Catherine and Noah had the same address at 450 W. 28th St.

3.The Church of the Latter Day Saints International Genealogical Index shows a Charles with the same birth date (I827) shown in the NY 1880 CENSUS, New York County, Manhattan in the family of John and Rachel [Walshaw] Stancliffe in England. John and Rachel were married Thornhill by Dewsbury, West Yorkshire, England Oct. 18, 1824, with children all chritened at Kirkheaton, West Yorkshire, England; William, christened Feb. 13, 1825; Hannah, christened Dec. 29, 1830; Fred, christened Aug. 18, 1833; and Amelia, christened Mar. 24, 1836. Kirkheaton is about 2 miles south west of Dewsbury and about 5 miles south of the Stancliff ancestral home of Scout near Halifax.
